

Teresa Stark submission of 29 September
2022

PE1911/R – Review of Human Tissue (Scotland)
Act 2006 as it relates to post-mortems

Permission must be given by next of kin before any body parts or tissue is removed from a loved one during a post mortem.

Next of kin must be given a choice to have any body parts or tissue removed with their authorisation returned to them.