Dear Gareth,

Thank you for giving evidence to the Committee on the Judicial Factors (Scotland) Bill on Tuesday 23rd April, and for contributing to an interesting and informative session. The Committee Members all very much appreciated you taking the time to speak to them and helping with their scrutiny of the Bill.

As part of the discussions, you agreed to provide further information on specific sections of the Bill concerning the charity sector, including a “wish list” of areas which might helpfully be amended to make reference to charity law.

The Committee would appreciate a response by Wednesday 1 May. I apologise for the short notice and so if you are unable to meet this request, please let the Committee clerks know.

As is standard in relation to correspondence with the Committee, we would plan to publish your response, which would also feed into the Committee’s Stage 1 report on this Bill.

For information, the Official Report (substantially verbatim transcript) of the meeting is also now available.

Thank you again for helping us with our scrutiny of the Bill.

Yours sincerely

Stuart McMillan MSP
Convener of the Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee
