27 June 2024

Dear Claire

Further to the letter sent to you on 29 April 2024 from the former Minister for Energy, Just Transition and Fair Work, I am writing to you inform you that the Fair Work Action Plan annual report was published on 19 June 2024. The report forms annex B of the NSET annual report and comprises of a high-level progress report, outlining key achievements of the Fair Work Action Plan since its publication in 2022.

The NSET annual report can be found here: National Strategy for Economic Transformation: second annual progress report - gov.scot \(www.gov.scot\)

As you will be aware we established the Fair Work Oversight Group in June 2023, and it meets biannually to drive forward the progress of the actions detailed in the refreshed Fair Work Action Plan through providing an advisory and challenge function. They will discuss the report at their next meeting, scheduled for August 2024, more information can be found here: Fair Work Oversight Group - gov.scot \(www.gov.scot\)

Yours sincerely,

TOM ARTHUR
