30 September 2022

Dear Cabinet Secretary,

At its meeting on 7 September 2022, the Education, Children and Young People Committee took evidence from senior officials from the Scottish Qualifications Authority, in relation to the 2022 exam diet and the education reform programme.

Following this session, the Committee agreed to write to you to request an organogram detailing who is responsible for each element of the current education reform.

In addition, the Committee would appreciate:

- details of the individual members of the programme and delivery boards;
- the rationale for including different stakeholders on these boards, and in particular the balance between existing SQA and Education Scotland staff members and other stakeholders; and
- a timetable and expected output from each board.

I would be grateful to receive a response to this letter by Friday 28 October.

Yours sincerely,

Sue Webber MSP
Convener
