

Submission from Edward Mountain MSP

As you know, I was part of the committee when it considered and recommended trialing the proxy voting scheme.

I believe it has worked well and I see no need to change it.

I believe the Parliament should make the proxy voting system, in the format it is now, permanent.