

Cross-Party Group on Mental Health

Wednesday 8th May 2023 at 6:00pm

Agenda

1. Welcome, introductions and apologise

2. Minutes from previous meeting

- a. Update on group agreement vote
- b. Output from Feniks contribution at previous meeting

3. The link between teaching and mental health with the NASUWT, the Teacher's Union

The NASUWT provides protection, benefits and support for teachers, from professional advice and legal support to free training. They work to deliver real improvements to teachers' working lives and conditions to enable them to focus on their core role of teaching. Led by Mike Corbett, this agenda item has 2 parts:

- a. Presentation on the links between teaching and mental health
- b. Discussion

4. Voice of lived experience

Whilst lived experience does not only have to be heard in this section of the agenda, this is a dedicated space for members to speak about their experience of mental health. This experience does not need to be related to themes discussed in the meeting.

5. Any other business and next steps
