- (2) After section 263A (National Scenic Areas) insert—

“Ramsar sites

263B Assessment of implications for Ramsar sites

- (1) A planning authority, before deciding to give any consent, permission or other authorisation for a development which—
 - (a) is likely (whether alone or in combination with other plans or projects) to have a significant effect on a Ramsar site, and
 - (b) is not directly connected with or necessary to the management of the site, must make an assessment of the implications of the development for the site in view of the conservation requirements of the listed features of the Ramsar site.
- (2) A person applying for any such consent, permission or other authorisation must provide such information as the planning authority may reasonably require—
 - (a) to enable the planning authority to determine whether an assessment is required,
 - (b) for the purposes of an assessment under subsection (1).
- (3) The planning authority must for the purposes of an assessment under subsection (1) consult the appropriate nature conservation body and have regard to any representations made by that body within such reasonable time as the authority may specify.
- (4) The planning authority may also, if the authority consider it appropriate, consult the general public and, if they do so, must take such steps for that purpose as they consider appropriate.

- (5) In light of the conclusions of an assessment under subsection (1), and subject to section 263C, the planning authority may grant consent, permission or other authorisation for the development only after having ascertained that it will not adversely affect the integrity of the Ramsar site.
- (6) In considering whether a development will adversely affect the integrity of the site, the planning authority must have regard to the manner in which the development is proposed to be carried out or to any conditions or restrictions subject to which they propose that the consent, permission or other authorisation should be given.
- (7) For the purposes of this section and sections 263C and 263D—

“appropriate nature conservation body” means a body designated by the Scottish Ministers by regulations for the purposes of subsection (3),

“the Ramsar Convention” means the Convention on Wetlands of International Importance especially as Waterfowl Habitat signed at Ramsar on 2nd February 1971, as amended by—

- (a) the Protocol known as the Paris Protocol done at Paris on 3rd December 1982,
- (b) the amendments known as the Regina Amendments adopted at the Extraordinary Conference of the Contracting Parties held at Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada, between 28th May and 3rd June 1987, and
- (c) any further amendments coming into force from time to time, and the reference in this subsection to paragraph 1 of article 2 is, if necessary in consequence of any such further amendment or the coming into force of any instrument replacing that Convention, to be taken as referring to the appropriate successor provision,

“Ramsar site” means a wetland situated in Scotland and designated under paragraph 1 of article 2 of the Ramsar Convention for inclusion in the list of wetlands of international importance referred to in that article.

263C Assessment of implications for Ramsar site: consideration of overriding public interest

- (1) Where an assessment under section 263B(1) has concluded that a development is likely to have a negative effect on a Ramsar site, a planning authority may grant consent, permission or other authorisation to the development only if they are satisfied that—
 - (a) there is no alternative solution, and
 - (b) there are reasons of overriding public interest (which may be of a social or economic nature) for doing so.
- (2) Where a planning authority propose to grant consent, permission or other authorisation to a development in accordance with subsection (1) they must notify the Scottish Ministers.

- (3) Having notified the Scottish Ministers under subsection (2), the planning authority must not make a decision on whether to grant consent, permission or other authorisation before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day they notify the Scottish Ministers, unless the Scottish Ministers notify them that they may do so.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may give directions to the planning authority prohibiting them from granting consent, permission or other authorisation to a development, either indefinitely or during such period as may be specified in the direction.
- (5) The power of the Scottish Ministers under subsection (4) is without prejudice to any other power they may have in relation to the decision in question.
- (6) A planning authority must comply with any direction given to them under subsection (4).

263D Compensatory measures for Ramsar sites

Where, in accordance with section 263C (assessment of implications for Ramsar site: consideration of overriding public interest)—

- (a) consent, permission or other authorisation is granted for a development, notwithstanding a negative assessment of the implications for a Ramsar site, or
- (b) a decision to grant consent, permission or other authorisation is confirmed on review, notwithstanding such an assessment, the Scottish Ministers must secure the taking of any compensatory measures necessary to ensure that the overall coherence of Ramsar sites is protected.”.>

After section 30

Kevin Stewart

274 After section 30, insert—

<Lapsing of power to provide for levy

- (1) The regulation-making power conferred by section 27 ceases to be exercisable if no regulations have been made under it within the period of 10 years beginning with the day that the Bill for this Act receives Royal Assent.
- (2) If, by virtue of subsection (1), the regulation-making power conferred by section 27 ceases to be exercisable, the Scottish Ministers may by regulations repeal—
 - (a) this Part, and
 - (b) schedule 1.>

Alexander Stewart

65 After section 30, insert—

<Review of operation of Part

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, not later than the end of the period of 3 years beginning with the day of Royal Assent, review the operation of this Part.
- (2) Not later than 1 year after the day on which the review under subsection (1) has been completed, the Scottish Ministers must lay a report on the conclusions of the review before the Scottish Parliament.
- (3) A report under subsection (2) must include a statement from the Scottish Ministers setting out—
 - (a) whether, if they have not already done so, they intend to make regulations under section 27,
 - (b) where they do not intend to do so, their reasons for this, and
 - (c) whether they intend to bring forward proposals to modify any provision of this Part.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as reasonably practicable, publish the report in such a manner as they consider appropriate.>

After section 31

Kevin Stewart

 - (b) following that procedure, they have laid before the Scottish Parliament an explanatory document in accordance with subsection (6).
- (2) The Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) planning authorities (as defined by section 1 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997),
 - (b) key agencies (as defined by section 23D of that Act),
 - (c) such other persons as they consider appropriate.
- (3) For the purposes of the consultation required by subsection (2), the Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) lay before the Scottish Parliament a copy of the proposed draft regulations,
 - (b) send a copy of the proposed draft regulations to any person to be consulted under subsection (2),
 - (c) publish the proposed draft regulations and make them available to the public at large in such manner as they consider appropriate, and

- (d) have regard to any representations about the proposed draft regulations that are made to them within 60 days of the date on which the copy of the proposed draft regulations is laid before the Parliament under paragraph (a).
- (4) In calculating any period of 60 days for the purposes of subsection (3)(d), no account is to be taken of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or is in recess for more than 4 days.
- (5) If, as a result of the consultation required by subsection (2), it appears to the Scottish Ministers that it is appropriate to change the whole or any part of their proposals, they must undertake such further consultation with respect to the changes as they consider appropriate.
- (6) The explanatory document referred to in subsection (1)(b) must set out—
 - (a) the consultation undertaken in accordance with subsections (2) and (5),
 - (b) a summary of any representations received as a result of the consultation, and
 - (c) the changes (if any) made to the proposed draft regulations as a result of those representations.>
