1 Level 1 disclosure

In this Part, a “Level 1 disclosure”, in relation to an individual, is a certificate—

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must provide a Level 1 disclosure to an individual who—
 - (a) is 16 years of age or older, and
 - (b) makes an application.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may provide a Level 1 disclosure to an individual who—
 - (a) is 12 years of age or older but under 16 years of age, and
 - (b) makes an application,

if it appears to them from the information contained in the application that it is appropriate in the circumstances to provide the disclosure.

- (3) The Scottish Ministers may refuse to provide a Level 1 disclosure to an individual under subsection (1) if it appears to them from the information contained in the application that the disclosure could more appropriately be obtained from another person.

3 Applications by accredited bodies on behalf of individuals

- 5 (1) An accredited body may make an application under section 2 on behalf of an individual.
- (2) An application by an accredited body on behalf of an individual may be made only with the consent of the individual.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers must not consider any such application that does not comply with subsection (2).
- 10 (4) Where an application under section 2 is made by an accredited body on behalf of an individual, the individual is to be treated for the purposes of this Part as the applicant and, accordingly, any Level 1 disclosure provided as a result of the application is to be provided to the individual.
- (5) Subsection (4) is subject to section 4.
- 15 (6) The Scottish Ministers may refuse to provide a Level 1 disclosure to an individual under section 2(1) where—
- (a) the application for the disclosure is made on behalf of the individual by an accredited body, and
- 20 (b) the Scottish Ministers consider that the accredited body or its lead signatory or countersignatory has failed to comply with the code of practice published under section 56.

- 40 (6) Otherwise, the Scottish Ministers must not make the disclosure available to any other person.

5 Level 1 disclosures: childhood conviction information

- (1) Before providing a Level 1 disclosure to an applicant, the Scottish Ministers must—
