Parliamentary Appointments: Session 6

This Fact Sheet contains information on parliamentary appointments during Session 6. It provides information about membership details for:

- Parliamentary Bureau
- Scottish Commission for Public Audit
- Scottish Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund
- Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body (SPCB)

The Parliamentary Bureau consists of the Presiding Officer and representatives of each political party or group in the Parliament which has five or more members. The representatives are nominated by the leader of each party. The main functions of the Parliamentary Bureau are to:

- propose the business programme;
- propose alterations to the Daily Business List in the Business Bulletin if there should be changes in the advance programme;
- propose the establishment, remit, membership and duration of any committee or sub-committee;
- determine any question regarding the competence of a committee to deal with a matter, and, if two or more committees are competent to deal with a matter, to determine which of those committees is to be the lead committee responsible for that matter.

The Scottish Commission for Public Audit was established under Section 12 of the Public Finance and Accountability (Scotland) Act 2000 and is made up of 5 MSPs. The main areas of responsibility of the Commission are to:

- examine Audit Scotland's proposals for the use of resources and expenditure and report on them to the Parliament;
- appoint a qualified person to audit the accounts of Audit Scotland;
- lay before the Parliament and publish a copy of Audit Scotland's accounts and the auditor's report on them;
- appoint three of the five members of Audit Scotland on such terms and conditions as the SCPA determines;
- appoint one of these three members to preside at meetings of Audit Scotland.

The Scottish Parliamentary Contributory Pension Fund is the Fund for the pensions of MSPs and Law Officers under the terms of the Scottish Parliamentary Pension Scheme.

The Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body (SPCB) is chaired by the Presiding Officer and is made up of at least four members elected by Parliament from its MSPs. It is responsible for ensuring that the Scottish Parliament is provided with the property, staff and services it requires.
