Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-00781 Bill Kidd: Trident—That the Parliament notes the view that the UK's Trident nuclear weapons system, which is based at HMNB Clyde, should not be renewed and should instead be disarmed and removed in light of what it understands is the international commitment signed up to by the UK Government in the 1968 non-proliferation treaty. R

S5M-00778 Annie Wells: Congratulations to Theresa May—That the Parliament congratulates Theresa May on her appointment as Prime Minister; notes what it sees as the significance of this for women's equality in the UK and further afield, and believes that it further acknowledges the role women are playing throughout the world with three of Scotland's main party political leaders being female, as well as Northern Ireland's First Minister, Arlene Foster, and Germany's Chancellor, Angela Merkel.

Supported by: Peter Chapman*, Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Burnett*, Alison Harris*, Maurice Corry*, Dean Lockhart*, Liam Kerr*, John Lamont*, Douglas Ross*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jackson Carlaw*, Oliver Mundell*, Donald Cameron*, Alexander Stewart*, Adam Tomkins*, Murdo Fraser*, Margaret Mitchell*

S5M-00777 Bob Doris: Maryhill and Springburn Groups Win Lloyds TSB Foundation Grants—That the Parliament congratulates three local charities in the Glasgow Maryhill and Springburn constituency on receiving a total of £12,000 in grants from Lloyds TSB Foundation for Scotland; recognises the Good Morning Service for receiving a £6,000 grant to continue its telephone engagement programme with hundreds of older citizens each year; commends Springburn's Alive and Kicking Project for receiving a £3,000 to provide a daily delivery service to over a hundred older citizens in north Glasgow; applauds Citywise Mentoring for receiving a £3,000 grant to run a summer transitional programme for 40 children living in areas of deprivation; celebrates the contribution made by these organisations, and commends the work, commitment and dedication shown by staff and volunteers alike to improve their communities.

Supported by: Clare Adamson*, Rona Mackay*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Joan McAlpine*, Fulton MacGregor*, Ivan McKee*

S5M-00776 Monica Lennon: Youth Parliament's Report and Leadership on Mental Health—That the Parliament welcomes the Scottish Youth Parliament's report, Our Generation's Epidemic, which highlights young people's experience and awareness of mental health services; commends the MSYPs on this research and putting forward recommendations on how to improve access to such services; understands that the key findings suggest that 74% of young people do not know what mental health information, support and services are available in their area and 20% do not know where they could go for advice and support for a mental health problem, and welcomes the report's call for the Scottish Government to continue to raise awareness and support mental health services, including those for young people.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alison Johnstone*, Claire Baker*, Jackson Carlaw*, Andy Wightman*, Pauline McNeill*, Liam McArthur*, Jackie Baillie*, Lewis Macdonald*, Neil Findlay*

S5M-00775 Neil Findlay: Big Lottery Award for Craigsfarm in Livingston—That the Parliament congratulates Craigsfarm in Livingston on its recent award of more than £1.2 million from the Big Lottery fund; notes that this money will be used to upgrade the facilities at Craigsfarm, allowing for greater community facilities; further notes that West Lothian Council has agreed to asset transfer the Craigsfarm building to the community, and wishes all involved in this project great success in the future.

Supported by: Andy Wightman*, Richard Lyle*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jackie Baillie*, Ivan McKee*

S5M-00774 Neil Findlay: St John's Hospital Livingston Team—That the Parliament congratulates Lynn Rose, Emma Campbell and Gill Thomson, who are employed at St John's Hospital in Livingston, on being presented with an NHS Lothian Health Hero award at a recent ceremony; notes the team's outstanding commitment in working with parents of babies who are still born or live for only a short while; further notes the hard work that Lynn, Emma and Gill have put into providing a warm welcoming room for parents at the hospital and their fundraising for SANDS Lothian to help provide a cold cuddle cot, and wishes the team the best of luck.

Supported by: Ash Denham*, Alison Johnstone*, Richard Lyle*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jackson Carlaw*, Jackie Baillie*, David Torrance*, Clare Adamson*, Ivan McKee*

S5M-00773 John Lamont: Tribute to David Cameron—That the Parliament pays tribute to the outgoing Prime Minister, David Cameron; notes that he leaves Scotland with 143,000 more people in work, a Scottish Parliament that is now one of the most powerful devolved parliaments in the world, the two biggest warships ever built in the UK's history built in Scotland and massive investment in renewables and city deals for Aberdeen, Inverness and Edinburgh; believes that, putting political differences aside, it is right to commend David Cameron for years of dedicated public service, and wishes him and his family well for the future.

Supported by: Alison Harris*, Annie Wells*, Douglas Ross*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Burnett*, Oliver Mundell*, Dean Lockhart*, Maurice Corry*, Miles Briggs*, Donald Cameron*, Peter Chapman*, Liam Kerr*, Rachael Hamilton*, Finlay Carson*, Brian Whittle*, Alex Johnstone*, Alexander Stewart*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jackson Carlaw*, Ross Thomson*, Murdo Fraser*, Maurice Golden*, Jamie Greene*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Margaret Mitchell*, Edward Mountain*, John Scott*, Graham Simpson*, Adam Tomkins*, Ruth Davidson*

S5M-00772 Monica Lennon: Recognising the Citizens Advice Scotland Report, Living at the Sharp End—That the Parliament welcomes the Citizens Advice Scotland (CAS) report, Living at the Sharp End, which analyses the causes and impact of periods of no income for Citizens Advice bureaux (CAB) clients in Scotland; commends CAS for carrying out the research and highlighting the ways in which people in Scotland are affected by periods of no income; understands that, during 2014-15, advice relating to food banks was provided on over 7,400 occasions by CAB in Scotland and that at least one in every 42 enquiries featured advice regarding food banks; notes that the causes of gaps in income are complex and various, but understands that gaps in income for CAB clients in Scotland are most often caused by issues with the benefits system; believes that there needs to be a fair and responsive social security safety net to ensure that people do not suffer when crises and emergencies happen and that this safety net of government, local authority and charity support needs to work as a coherent, well integrated system, and welcomes CAS's recommendation that the Scottish Government, COSLA and local authorities continue to raise awareness of the Scottish Welfare Fund, particularly among hard to reach and vulnerable groups and establish links with other services to ensure that people are able to access relevant support and address the causes of their income deprivation.

S5M-00759 Alexander Burnett: WES Awards—That the Parliament welcomes the awarding of seven new prestigious international accreditations for ongoing work in wildlife management and conservation, two of which, Ballogie Estate and the MacRobert Trust, are in the Aberdeenshire West parliamentary constituency; notes that the award of Wildlife Estates Scotland (WES) accreditation was made at the Scottish Game Fair, where the Cabinet Secretary for Rural Economy and Connectivity, Fergus Ewing, commented “The Wildlife Estates Scotland (WES) initiative aims to encourage best practice in wildlife management undertaken by Scottish landowners, to enhance biodiversity and deliver a range of other benefits for society and rural communities. I am therefore very pleased that a further seven farms and estates have achieved their Wildlife Estate Scotland Accreditation Award. It brings the total number of such accredited properties to 38 so far, accounting for approximately a million acres of land including many protected sites”; understands that all of the accredited estates have undergone rigorous independent assessment of their game, wildlife and habitat management, as well as their social and economic contribution to rural life, and considers that, with all properties expected to maintain these standards throughout the lifetime of accreditation, WES is creating a transparent benchmark system demonstrating how land managers can deliver multiple benefits to rural Scotland, supporting the Scottish Government’s Land Use and Biodiversity 2020 route map strategies.

S5W-01452 Alex Rowley: To ask the Scottish Government whether its upcoming programme for government will be subject to an equality impact assessment.

S5W-01453 Alex Rowley: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the finding of the Independent Advisor on Poverty and Inequality's report, Shifting the Curve, that some services perceive themselves as "race blind" and "unlikely to deliver a high quality service", whether it will introduce anti-poverty initiatives that are focused on minority ethnic communities.

S5W-01454 Alex Rowley: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will be represented at ministerial level at the UN Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination's review of the UK's 21st to 23rd periodic reports in August 2016 and, if so, by whom.

S5W-01455 Alex Rowley: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the finding in the Equal Opportunities committee report in session four, Removing Barriers: race, ethnicity and employment, (SP paper 890), that "initiatives such as 'unconscious bias' training are not the solution and can serve to mask underlying negative attitudes towards people from an ethnic minority background", whether it continues to provide such training for (a) ministers, (b) its officials and (c) its directorates.

S5W-01456 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government how many people in North East Scotland have been made redundant in the oil and gas sector in each of the last six months.

S5W-01457 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government how many people in North East Scotland who have been made redundant in the oil and gas sector are being or have been (a) retrained as teachers and (b) (i) retained, (ii) reskilled (iii) re-employed under the schemes that it has introduced to support the sector.

S5W-01459 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what recent action it has taken to assess the affordability of feminine hygiene products and the cost of periods to women and girls; whether it considers feminine hygiene to be a health issue; what action it is taking to tackle the stigma around periods, and whether it plans to introduce free access to feminine hygiene products.

S5W-01460 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what information it has on the recent incidence of misogynistic hate crime; whether it will publish all relevant data, and whether it considers that Police Scotland has sufficient powers to identify and act against such crimes.

S5W-01461 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government when it expects a new railway station at Newtonhill to be opened and what the timetable is for the project.

S5W-01462 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government when a grade separated junction at Laurencekirk will be (a) started and (b) completed.

S5W-01463 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government what plans it has to improve rail commuter times between Inverurie and Aberdeen and, if work is to be carried out, when it will take place.

S5W-01464 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government when the rebuilding of Kintore railway station will be completed; when the station will be open for public use; what the timetable is for each stage of the work, and which body will be responsible for delivering each stage of the project.

S5W-01466 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government whether it plans, or is discussing, an expansion of agricultural subsidies to (a) dairy and (b) pig farmers in the current parliamentary session.

S5W-01469 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government how many businesses in (a) the Aberdeen city area and (b) Aberdeen city centre pay business rates and how that compares with each of the previous five years.

S5W-01471 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government how much money it raises through business rates in (a) the Aberdeen city area and (b) Aberdeen city centre and how that compares with each of the previous five years.

S5W-01473 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government what the current percentage of superfast broadband coverage is in Aberdeenshire and what it is expected to be by (a) the end of 2017 and (b) April 2021.

S5W-01474 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government what areas of Aberdeenshire that do not have access to superfast broadband are not included in the current phase of its Digital Scotland Superfast Broadband rollout and will not receive superfast broadband coverage before the end of 2017.

S5W-01475 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government what (a) plans and (b) funding programmes are in place to prioritise rural and remote areas not already included in the current phase of its Digital Scotland Superfast Broadband rollout.

S5W-01476 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government whether improving mobile phone coverage for rural and remote communities in Aberdeenshire is a priority and, if so, what programmes are or will be in place to deliver that priority.

S5W-01477 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government what measures it has in place or is planning, to improve basic mobile phone coverage in Aberdeenshire.

S5W-01478 Mike Rumbles: To ask the Scottish Government what the value was of public investment to improve mobile phone coverage in Aberdeenshire in the previous parliamentary session and what the value is of planned investment in the current session.

S5W-01479 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will review the remit of Education Scotland to include, in school inspections, the quality condition of school buildings.

S5W-01480 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will review the self-certification system used to approve school building works and ensure that all school buildings are compliant with the relevant building standards.

S5W-01481 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government what discussions it has had with local authorities to ensure that required school building inspection standards are met.

S5W-01482 Claire Baker: To ask the Scottish Government what (a) assessment it has made of and (b) discussions it has had with the Department for Work and Pensions regarding the impact of Fiscal Work Orders on the requirements of (i) out-of-work and (ii) means tested social security benefits.

S5W-01483 Claire Baker: To ask the Scottish Government what assessment it has made of Fiscal Work Orders since the publication of its report, Summary Justice Reform: Evaluation of Fiscal Work Order Pilots, in 2011.

S5W-01484 Claire Baker: To ask the Scottish Government how many Fiscal Works Order (a) referrals, (b) placement starts, (c) completions and (d) hours there have been, broken down by (i) local authority and (ii) offence type since rollout in April 2015.

S5W-01488 Claire Baker: To ask the Scottish Government whether local authorities receive contributions from (a) businesses and (b) organisations that provide Fiscal Work Order placements and, if so, how much each has received since rollout in April 2015.

S5W-01489 Claire Baker: To ask the Scottish Government how many offenders who have completed Fiscal Work Orders have moved into work as a result of their placement since rollout in April 2015, broken down by local authority area.

S5W-01490 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-00926 by Aileen Campbell on 18 July 2016, whether it will provide the same information for each year since 1999.

S5W-01491 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government what training it provides to (a) members of and (b) advisers to its health steering groups regarding avoiding a conflict-of-interest between their roles and issues affecting NHS boards that they might be associated with.

S5W-01492 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the report that Information Services Division (ISD) assisted NHS Dumfries and Galloway in responding to a freedom of information (FOI) request, and what action it will take to ensure that ISD acts wholly independently of NHS boards that supply it with statistics and does not intervene when FOI requests are made to NHS boards.

S5W-01494 Liam McArthur: To ask the Scottish Government what plans it has to improve the transfer of information regarding head injuries between A&E units and (a) police custody units and (b) prisons.

S5W-01495 Christine Grahame: To ask the Scottish Government whether, under the Non-Domestic Rating (Unoccupied Property) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2013 (SSI 2013 No. 37) paragraph 6, which inserts "Lands and Heritages to be treated as unoccupied" at 4 (f), it is mandatory that an application has been submitted, in particular that failure by a previous occupant to formally submit an application would prohibit an incoming tenant from accessing a rates discount under the Fresh Start initiative.

S5W-01496 Mark Ruskell: To ask the Scottish Government what its response is to the July 2014 report, Further advice to Scottish Government on the selection of Nature Conservation Marine Protected Areas for the development of the Scottish MPA network; whether it plans to consult on establishing these areas and, if so, (a) when and (b) what the reason is for the delay in launching this.

S5W-01497 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government when it will produce its final report on the outcomes of the Mental Health Strategy for Scotland 2012-15; what progress it has made toward meeting each of the 36 commitments in the strategy, and when each commitment (a) has been and (b) will be fulfilled.

S5W-01498 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what the timetable is for the (a) development and (b) publication of its updated mental health strategy.

S5W-01532 Alex Cole-Hamilton: To ask the Scottish Government whether it plans to introduce a land reform Bill and, if so, when.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is three sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Thursday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is four days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for Stage 2, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
