Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-01290 Margaret Mitchell: The Standing Safe Campaign—That the Parliament welcomes the campaign Standing Safe, which is being launched by the University of the West of Scotland on 14 September 2016; understands that the campaign is a student-staff partnership initiative raising awareness about and warning against sexual violence on campus; notes that the campaign states that incidents of sexual violence have seen an upward trend in Scotland since records began in 1971; acknowledges that the campaign, which will be led by students across the university's different schools and supported by the university's senior management, the Dean of Students, Student Services, SAUWS and Student Ambassadors, aims to address peer-on-peer violence in universities; recognises that it has established a number of external links, including with Lanarkshire Rape Crisis Scotland and NHS Lanarkshire, with the purpose of working collaboratively through focus groups and student-led workshops to tackle sexual violence on campuses and the harmful attitudes that underpin it; further understands that a collaboration with local artists as a means of providing the students with learning experiences is planned; wishes all those involved in the campaign success across all the university's campuses, including the campus in Hamilton, and notes the view that other university campuses across Scotland would benefit from a similar campaign.

S5M-01288 Tom Arthur: Congratulations to Cross Arthurlie Primary School—That the Parliament congratulates Cross Arthurlie Primary School on receiving its Eco Schools Green Flag award; commends the hard work and dedication of the eco committee as well as the pupils, staff and parents of the school, which have been the driving force in securing this achievement; recognises the huge educational benefits of the Eco Schools initiative, which promotes community action and empowers children and young people to work towards a more economical and socially just world; commends the advance that the scheme has provided in terms of ties with the local community, and wishes everyone at the school the best in all their continuing efforts.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Alexander Burnett*, Colin Beattie*, Joan McAlpine*, Jackson Carlaw*, Fulton MacGregor*, Clare Haughey*

S5M-01287 Alexander Stewart: Merchant Navy Day—That the Parliament welcomes Merchant Navy Day, which took place on 3 September 2016; pays tribute to the personnel who supplied the UK and gave their lives in the First and Second World Wars; considers that this is an opportunity to raise public awareness of the contribution made by modern day merchant seafarers, who are responsible for 95% of UK imports; is pleased that councils across Scotland flew the Red Ensign on the day; recognises the success of Merchant Navy Day, which was introduced in 2000, and hopes that it will continue to celebrate an industry so crucial to Scotland's economy.

S5M-01284 James Dornan: Harassment and Intimidation of the Lajee Centre—That the Parliament condemns the reported harassment and intimidation by the Israeli Defence Forces in Palestine of the Lajee Centre, an organisation that provides aid to refugees and was a recipient of funds raised by fans of Celtic on the Match The Fine For Palestine webpage, and finds it both unacceptable and unjustifiable that the Israeli Defence Forces should act in what appears to be a vindictive manner towards an organisation that is providing aid to those who it considers are experiencing a humanitarian crisis due to military action taken by Israel.

Supported by: Bruce Crawford*, Tom Arthur*, Bill Kidd*, Bob Doris*, Ross Greer*

S5M-01283 Christina McKelvie: United Nations General Comment Four, Inclusive Education—That the Parliament welcomes General Comment No.4 from the United Nations Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, which advocates inclusive education in schools; believes that inclusive education values the contribution of all pupils and equips them with essential life, language and social skills; considers that promoting inclusive education is an important step in tackling discrimination and stigma in wider society; welcomes inclusive education as a mechanism to promote diversity and participation for all in civic life; pledges to work progressively to ensure that inclusive education is even more prominent throughout Scottish education, and notes the recommendations proposed by the UN to achieve this pledge.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Thursday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
