Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S5M-05941 Jenny Gilruth: Levenmouth Rail Link—That the Parliament notes what it sees as the strong support that the Levenmouth Rail Campaign has achieved; believes that this has been demonstrated by it organising a petition that has been signed by over 12,500 residents from the area, which calls for the re-opening of the rail link from Thornton to Leven; welcomes the Fife Council report, Levenmouth Sustainable Transport Study – Final Stag Report, which was published in January 2017; understands that this study included a strongly positive cost-benefit analysis for the link and suggested that its reopening would lead to major economic benefits; believes that, although the Levenmouth area faces high levels of economic deprivation and problems with connectivity, it has substantial opportunities for employment and economic development; considers that this project could help deliver this; understands that passenger numbers on other reopened services, including the Borders Railway and the Airdrie-Bathgate line have exceeded predictions, and notes the view that a strong case has been made for ministers to give serious consideration to the re-opening of the Levenmouth line for passenger and freight services.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Ash Denham*, Richard Lyle*, Alexander Stewart*, Liam Kerr*, Joan McAlpine*, Gail Ross*, Stewart Stevenson* R, John Mason*, Ben Macpherson*

*S5M-05935 James Kelly: Charter of Rights for People with Dementia and Carers—That the Parliament notes that, in October 2009, members of all political parties supported a members' business motion, S3M-04852, on a Charter of Rights for People with Dementia and Carers; notes the view that, while progress in rights-based approaches has been made, more can be done to increase visibility and access to rights; understands that there are 8,116 people who have dementia in Glasgow; notes the content of 3,000 letters from carers of people with dementia, which were presented in Parliament in 2011 and published in the Journal of Ageing University of Illinois, noting that feelings of loneliness and isolation are central to the caring process; values the work of the Alliance's Dementia Carer Voices project in reaching out to 80,000 people, resulting in 14,000 pledges across the UK to make a difference to the lives of people with dementia and their carers, based on the life experience of Tommy and Joan Whitelaw; notes that analysis of 6,000 pledges in Scotland describes the views of frontline staff regarding the importance of time for compassionate caring; considers that the experience and stories of over 90,000 people with dementia and their families are key to driving forward improvement; believes that dementia is everyone's business, and considers that the original sentiment of motion S3M-04852 and the importance of driving culture change and empowering people with dementia remains true, and that everyone can make a difference to drive that change.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-05952 Maurice Corry: Cruise Loch Lomond—That the Parliament welcomes Cruise Loch Lomond's new educational resource, which will inform passengers about the history and environment of the area; understands that Cruise Loch Lomond has worked alongside the charity, Friends of Loch Lomond and The Trossachs, to develop the new education pack, which aims to help student groups become more aware of the loch and surrounding environment; notes that the resource will include information on local and Scottish history, geology, clan culture and land use, and will be available for users in both digital and paper form, and wishes Cruise Loch Lomond all the best with this new initiative.

*S5M-05951 Maureen Watt: Approval of SSI—That the Health and Sport Committee recommends that the Mental Health (Cross-border transfer: patients subject to requirements other than detention) (Scotland) Regulations 2017 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Shona Robison*, Aileen Campbell*

*S5M-05950 Maureen Watt: Approval of SSI—That the Health and Sport Committee recommends that the Mental Health (Cross-border transfer: patients subject to detention requirement or otherwise in hospital) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2017 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Shona Robison*, Aileen Campbell*

*S5M-05949 Maureen Watt: Approval of SSI—That the Health and Sport Committee recommends that the Criminal Justice and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2010 (Consequential Provisions) Order 2017 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Shona Robison*, Aileen Campbell*

*S5M-05948 Bob Doris: Springburn Musical Memories—That the Parliament recognises the good work of the volunteer-run Singing for the Brain Musical Memories group based at Springburn Parish Church every Monday afternoon; notes the dedication of Brian Smith along with 12 volunteers who run the fun musical therapy project, which provides live music for people living with dementia and their families and friends; notes that many people from care homes based in areas such as Stobhill, Milton, Springburn and Bishopbriggs come together with their families and carers to enjoy traditional Scottish songs; considers that such an initiative, which focuses on music and singing, is beneficial to those living with dementia, as researchers have found that the auditory cortex area of the brain is relatively unaffected by dementia and therefore has lasting effects over several days, and that participants are able to engage and sing along; congratulates Singing for the Brain on its success in bringing happiness to those living with dementia, and their family members and carers, through music and singing, and recognises this initiative in supporting those living with and affected by dementia in north Glasgow.

Academy, Susan has turned the school library into a vibrant hub, with pupils fully engaged in choosing new purchases, secured a fully-funded residency with the local author, Cathy MacPhail, to work with an S2 class on writing their own anthology and launching their book at an event, and created a comic book club to attract reluctant readers and encourage young people to produce their own comic books; wishes Susan and all at Inverclyde Academy all the best in their future work; believes that Susan's work sets an excellent example of the potential for making school libraries a resource that encourages and inspires pupils to read and write, and calls on local authorities across Scotland to reverse cuts to the numbers of school librarians.

Supported by: Gordon Lindhurst*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Monica Lennon*

*S5M-05933 Angus MacDonald: Annual Football Match to Remember Robert Marshall and his Legacy—That the Parliament celebrates the coming together of friends, family and the community of Avonbridge to remember Robert Marshall, who passed away in 2014 as a result of cancer, and continue his legacy by raising funds for charities with their annual football match; recognises the hard work put into raising money and highlighting the work done by the Teenage Cancer Trust by Robert when he was able, with one attempt raising £3,600 for the charity; congratulates all of Robert's friends, including Connor Devlin, who has organised this year's charity football match, which took place at Grangemouth Stadium on 27 May 2017, the proceeds of which will be split between Calums Cabin and Strathcarron Hospice; recognises the collective efforts of family, friends and the communities raising money for the chosen charities over the years since Robert's passing, which has seen over £13,000 collected; further celebrates Robert's legacy, and wishes all involved continued success in their efforts to fundraise in his name.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Ben Macpherson*, Graeme Dey*, Bill Kidd*, Bob Doris*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*, Sandra White*

*S5M-05932 Angus MacDonald: Dorothy McClements is a Christian Aid Diamond—That the Parliament congratulates Dorothy McClements on her presentation of a national Diamond Award by Christian Aid, which recognises her ongoing dedication to charity; understands that Dorothy became involved in charity work at 15 when taking part in Christian Aid Week collections in Edinburgh in 1960; recognises that her efforts have seen her take part in the annual Forth Road Bridge Cross and lobby politicians and take part in marches as part of tax and climate change campaigns; notes the importance of Christian Aid Week and that, in turning 60 in 2017, the charity is awarding Diamond Awards across the UK as part of its anniversary; further notes the role that it plays around the world in its aims to eradicate poverty, in its work to support countries that have experienced crisis or disaster and the fight for social justice through the Christian faith, and wishes Dorothy every success in her continued efforts for Christian Aid.

Supported by: Ben Macpherson*, Graeme Dey*, Bill Kidd*, Gail Ross*, Bob Doris*, Ash Denham*, Richard Lyle*, Clare Haughey*

*S5M-05931 Angus MacDonald: Ashley Main Raises Money for Little Princess Trust—That the Parliament congratulates six-year-old Ashley Main, a pupil at St. Margaret's Primary School in Polmont, on her fantastic effort to raise money for the Little Princess Trust by having 11 inches of her hair cut off; recognises the important work of the Little Princess Trust in providing children with real-hair wigs who have lost their own through cancer treatment or other illnesses; commends Ashley on her efforts in beating her target of £500 to raise £700 and counting; further recognises the example set by Ashley in her selfless act of giving to others less fortunate than herself, especially at such a young age, and wishes Ashley and her family all the very best for the future.

*S5M-05928 Finlay Carson: Excellent Beaches in Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes news that 73 locations in Scotland met strict European water quality standards, according to the Scottish Environment Protection Agency (SEPA); notes that these include Carrick and Southernness in the Galloway and West Dumfries constituency; understands that SEPA is working to ensure that every beach in Scotland achieves the standards of the new European bathing water directive by 2020, and commends the hard work of local authorities, communities and SEPA in achieving these results.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Alexander Stewart*, Liz Smith*, Alison Harris*, Edward Mountain*, Donald Cameron*, Murdo Fraser*, Maurice Corry*, Douglas Ross*, Oliver Mundell*

*S5M-05927 Ben Macpherson: Free Community Football—That the Parliament welcomes the first Free Community Football session that took place in Leith Links on 30 May 2017; acknowledges that the initiative, which is organised by Helping Hands Edinburgh, gives free intelligently structured practice sessions for boys and girls aged 8 to 12 every Tuesday evening; appreciates that the programme provides children the opportunity to develop their skills and techniques; further appreciates that these sessions also provide a social event for children of all ages to meet and engage; thanks Mickey Weir, Allan Preston, Callum Kane, Paul Kane and Paul Ramsay for providing the coaching for this programme, and believes that these Free Community Football sessions will benefit children throughout Leith and wider Edinburgh, from all backgrounds.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, Stuart McMillan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Rona Mackay*, Ivan McKee*, Liam McArthur*, Sandra White*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Ruth Maguire*, Clare Haughey*, Iain Gray*, Gillian Martin*, Donald Cameron*, Jenny Gilruth*, Gail Ross*, Bill Kidd*, James Dornan*

*S5M-05925 Ross Thomson: Aberdeen Harbour Board Provides Support for Marine Education Centre—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Aberdeen Harbour Board is to contribute £20,000 towards a project to construct the Greyhope Bay marine education centre, which will serve as a marine science and heritage hub, in the city close to Torry; endorses the comments of the chief executive of the harbour board, Colin Parker, that the project could become a "a great asset for the local community, city and region, it could also become an important visitor attraction for tourists, including cruise ship passengers from all over the world"; understands that experts have suggested that the site is one of the best places in the UK to see marine life, particularly dolphins, and hopes that, once completed, it will be of significant importance to the conservation and research of marine life for many years to come.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, James Dornan*, Murdo Fraser*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*, Peter Chapman*, Maurice Corry*, Douglas Ross*, Oliver Mundell*

*S5M-05924 Kate Forbes: Glenfinnan Steams Ahead on New Bank of Scotland £10 Bank Note—That the Parliament welcomes the new polymer Bank of Scotland £10 bank note, which now features a steam locomotive hauling a heritage tourist train crossing the world famous Glenfinnan Viaduct; notes that it also continues to feature the distinctive portrait of the Scottish novelist and poet, Sir Walter Scott; highlights the introduction of a new tactile emboss, created by a series of raised dots, which will help people with a visual impairment; notes that the bank note also incorporates new enhanced security features, including the anti-counterfeit window-effect and rolling bar metallic ink, and believes that the new note will continue to help mark Scotland's distinctive cultural and engineering heritage for years to come.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Sandra White*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Donald Cameron*, James Dornan*, Ruth Maguire*, Ben Macpherson*, Clare Haughey*, Gillian Martin*, Murdo Fraser*, Graeme Dey*, Jenny Gilruth*, Gail Ross*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Douglas Ross*

*S5M-05923 Claire Baker: Puffarazzi—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of RSPB Scotland's Puffarazzi, which aims to find out more about what puffins feed their chicks; notes that, over the summer, when puffins are breeding, RSPB Scotland is asking visitors to puffin colonies around the UK and Ireland to play their part in this new innovative citizen science project by uploading their photos, of puffins carrying fish, to a dedicated website where scientists will analyse them; believes that puffins are some of the best-loved birds but their declining numbers mean that they have been declared vulnerable to global extinction, and encourages everyone across Scotland to participate in Puffarazzi, which is part of Project Puffin, which launched in early 2017 with support from the Heritage Lottery Fund.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
