Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-06157 Stuart McMillan: Carers Week—That the Parliament recognises the work of all carers during Carers Week 2017; considers that Carers Week is a fantastic way to celebrate the vital contribution that carers make to families, communities and wider society; understands that the Carers Week campaign galvanises support from all corners of society, including individuals, local organisations, businesses, politicians and the media; considers that it helps people understand more about caring and highlights the challenges that carers face, and celebrates the contribution that carers make to their families and communities throughout the country.

Supported by: Anas Sarwar*, Bill Kidd*, Clare Haughey*

S5M-06156 Gail Ross: Stand Up to Bullying Day—That the Parliament notes that 21 June 2017 marks the second Stand Up to Bullying Day, which is organised by the Diana Award charity and supported by the Vodafone Foundation; recognises the debilitating harm that bullying causes people who experience it; commends the charity on creating resources for schools, parents, businesses and public sector organisations, which aim to help deal with the problem, and acknowledges that bullying not only happens in schools, but is found in all walks of life, and can happen at any age.

S5M-06155 Alexander Stewart: Dunfermline Man Raises Money for the RAF Benevolent Fund—That the Parliament recognises that John Wright, who is from Dunfermline, embarked on a night time bike ride in Edinburgh on 17 June 2017 to raise money for the RAF Benevolent Fund in recognition of the work that that the charity has done to eight-year-old son, Lewis, who was born with a complex seizure disorder and has a number of other disabilities, which means that he must carry oxygen and a vacuum machine with him at all times; acknowledges that the fund has helped John, who is a sergeant in the force, to adapt the family garage into a bedroom for Lewis, which is fitted with sensory equipment, including an interactive projection system, a bubble panel, a fully-accessible shower and bathroom facilities and a safe space-style bed that will be suitable for him into adult life, and wishes Lewis and his parents all the very best.

S5M-06154 Liam Kerr: Alan Meston, Shortlisted in the M&S Farming of the Future

Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Alan Meston, who is from Dunnottar in Stonehaven, on being shortlisted in the Outstanding Producer category at the M&S Farming of the Future awards in recognition of his production of high-quality beef cattle; recognises that Alan, who has been buying cattle from the age of 13, produces 2,800 each year with as many as 1,200 on his farm at any one time; commends his commitment to sustained improvements in cattle growth rates, which, it understands, impressed the judges, and wishes Alan all the best.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Richard Lyle*, Alison Harris*, Donald Cameron*, Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-06153 Alexander Stewart: Alloa Butcher Retires After 40 Years and Receives the British Empire Medal

—That the Parliament pays tribute to the butcher, Brian Devlin, after nearly 40 years spent serving the community in Dollar and wider Clackmannanshire; believes that more than 300 people turned out to wave him goodbye on 10 June 2017 during a farewell barbecue and party organised to mark his retirement; believes that everyone gathered at his shop on Station Road to pay him thanks and that there were burgers, sausages, Prosecco, songs from Hillfoot Harmony and celebrations to be had; further believes that friend and regular customer, Alison Coutts, presented Brian with an outstanding gift on behalf of the communities in Dollar, Muckhart and surrounding areas, which clubbed together and gave him £3,000 in Ramsay World Travel gift vouchers, among other things, to show their appreciation; understands that the 66-year-old is handing the shop over to the new owner, who he has worked with for around 37 years, Craig Fagan; notes that Brian extended his thanks to everyone who contributed to his gifts, and recognises that he was named in the Queen's New Year Honours list, receiving the British Empire Medal for services to the community.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-06152 Mary Fee: Raising Awareness of Child Bereavement—That the Parliament commends the work of the Renfrewshire-based charity, Brightest Star, which supports bereaved families; notes that Brightest Star was founded by Arlene Clark in memory of her son, Jack Kennedy, who passed away suddenly aged six on 19 December 2012; recognises that the charity has been successful in meeting its founding aim of supporting families that have experienced child bereavement, and that it has supported over 500 families since its foundation; congratulates it on raising over £700,000, with thousands of people participating in annual fundraising events as part of Jack's Army at the Kilt Walk, The Great Scottish Run and Tough Mudder, in addition to a variety of other community-based fundraising efforts; recognises the work of the Our Missing Peace campaign, which is aiming to break the silence surrounding child loss while supporting family members who have been affected by the death of a child, whether miscarriage, still birth, neonatal, accidental, teenager or an adult; commends the work of Nicole Bowles, who established the Our Missing Peace campaign after her four-month-old son, Ben, suddenly passed away on 13 November 2012; notes that the campaign has created a love heart-shaped badge with a missing jigsaw piece as a symbol that an individual is dealing with the loss of a child, while promoting the term Vilomah, which means "against the natural order", as a title for parents who have suffered child bereavement, and congratulates the Our Missing Peace campaign on raising over £2,500 since its establishment.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Bill Kidd*, Anas Sarwar*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Clare Haughey*, Richard Lyle*, Monica Lennon*

S5M-06141 Neil Findlay: Home Start West Lothian—That the Parliament recognises that Home-Start West Lothian has been awarded a £29,910 three-year grant by BBC Children in Need to deliver services to under-fives who are in poverty; notes that it will help to fund trips, activities and a crèche, and believes that this will improve the lives of the children.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Ruth Maguire*, Alexander Stewart*, Ben Macpherson*, Iain Gray*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-06140 Neil Findlay: Kim Venton and Linsey Duncan Nominated for NHS Award—That the Parliament commends the Carmondean Ability Centre's Community Rehab and Brain Injury Service (CRABIS) team members, Kim Venton and Linsey Duncan, on being shortlisted for a NHS Lothian hero award after being nominated by patients in recognition of the support that they provide; understands that CRABIS is an NHS-funded specialised service that helps to improve lives, and wishes Kim and Linsey the best of luck for the award ceremony on 16 June 2017.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Alexander Stewart*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-06139 Neil Findlay: Local Hero, Leona—That the Parliament congratulates Leona Mullarky who has been named as local hero by West Lothian Courier and the Centre, Livingston, in recognition of her voluntary efforts in the community, which have included fundraising for Peel Primary School and organising events such as school fayres, discos and class trips; recognises that Leona has given up a substantial amount of her free time in doing so, and applauds her fantastic work.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Alexander Stewart*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-06138 Stuart McMillan: P1 Grand Prix of the Sea, Greenock—That the Parliament welcomes the return of the P1 Grand Prix of the Sea to Greenock on 24-25 June 2017 for the second year; understands that the 2016 event was a huge success, which attracted over 25,000 spectators; congratulates all of the organisations involved in bringing the grand prix back; believes that it will help put Inverclyde on the map as a venue of choice for marine tourism activities, and wishes Scotland's entry, the Spirit of Inverclyde, every success at the event and for the rest of the season.

S5W-09727 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills on 15 June 2017 (Official Report, c. 46), how many regional improvement collaboratives will be established; who will oversee their establishment; what the timescale for this will be, and what input it will have in this process.

S5W-09728 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government how it collects data on the eligibility of P1-S3 pupils for free school meals.

S5W-09729 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government on what date it will publish the document, Report of the Initial Findings of the International Council of Education Advisers – June 2017, which is referred to in its report, Education Governance: Next Steps - Empowering Our Teachers, Parents and Communities to Deliver Excellence and Equity for our Children, as "forthcoming".

S5W-09730 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills on 15 June 2017 (Official Report, c. 46), whether it considers that it will achieve the necessary change in educational performance by May 2021, and what the reasons are for its position on this matter.

S5W-09731 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government in light of the comment in its report, Education Governance: Next Steps - Empowering Our Teachers, Parents and Communities to Deliver Excellence and Equity for our Children, that "our relative performance compared to other countries has deteriorated across all three areas", for what reason this deterioration has arisen.

S5W-09732 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills on 15 June 2017 (Official Report, c. 46), what its position is on whether the ministerial appointment of regional directors to manage the regional improvement collaboratives, which will then report directly to Education Scotland and ministers, has taken account of the observation in the report, Improving Schools in Scotland: An OECD Perspective, that "Curriculum for Excellence needs to be less managed from the centre".

S5W-09733 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills on 15 June 2017 (Official Report, c. 46), what its response is to the comment by COSLA that the announcement "erodes local democratic accountability and most certainly will not close the attainment gap".

S5W-09734 Tavish Scott: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the statement by the Cabinet Secretary for Education and Skills on 15 June 2017 (Official Report, c. 46), when it will publish the consultation for the proposed education governance bill.

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
