Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-06475 Stuart McMillan: Congratulations to Rowing Champion, Rachel Speirs—That the Parliament congratulates the Clydeview Academy pupil and rower, Rachel Speirs, on winning the gold medal at the Nithsdale Regatta, which took place near Dumfries; commends that this achievement saw Rachel and her four team mates compete against teams from all over the UK to win first place; notes that Rachel is a talented young athlete who is a member of the Castle Semple Rowing Club and has been competing against older rowers to prepare for this event; recognises Rachel's hard work within the sport of rowing, and wishes her success in her future endeavours.

Supported by: Gillian Martin*, Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Sandra White*, Bob Doris*

S5M-06474 Stuart McMillan: Greenock Telegraph's Community Champion Awards 2017—That the Parliament congratulates the winners of the Greenock Telegraph's Community Champion Awards 2017, which were hosted at the Greenock Town Hall; notes that David Faller won the Entrepreneurial Award, Lesley McLaren the Champion Teacher Award, Robert Whaley the Community Champion of the Year Award, Amy Shearer the Youth Community Champion Award, Riverside Youth Band the Live Music Award, Rachel Way the Heart of Gold Award, Tommy Armstrong the Charity Champion of the Year Award, Caitlyn Haldane the Sporting Champion of the Year Award, Victoria Hamilton the Young Enterprise Champion Award, Erica Noone the Judges Special Recognition Award and Nathan Mowat, Olivia Thomson and Lucy McLellan won Little Champions of the Year Award; commends the contribution of all the winners and nominees, and wishes them continued success in the future.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Sandra White*, Emma Harper*

S5M-06473 Jackie Baillie: Argyll and Bute's GIVE Summer Programme—That the Parliament welcomes Argyll and Bute Youth Services' second GIVE summer programme; understands that the 2017 programme provides opportunities for young people to engage in volunteering and have this recognised and rewarded, including through Saltire Award hours; notes that, in total, 52 young people took part in last year's programme with individuals between the ages of 12 and 17 from across Helensburgh and Lomond; considers that the success of the programme can be measured by the excellent testimonies from the young people who took part, with one even giving up this year's family holiday to take part again; wishes the GIVE summer programme every success in its second year, and hopes that it continues to inspire young people to volunteer.

Supported by: David Torrance*

S5M-06472 Jackie Baillie: International Women in Engineering Day 2017—That the Parliament notes that 23 June 2017 marked International Women in Engineering Day (INWED); understands that INWED aims to raise awareness of careers in engineering and technical roles available to women, as well as celebrating the achievements of outstanding women engineers; notes that this year SSE celebrated INWED with the launch of a new video that aims to bust some of the myths associated with women in engineering and inspire the next generation of young girls to take up a career in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM); considers that STEM industries are traditionally male dominated but believes that this needs to change, noting that evidence shows that diverse workforces function better and produce better results; further considers that SSE has been at the forefront of fighting gender inequality, especially in STEM, and encourages young women to look at careers in STEM subjects.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Mary Fee*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Ivan McKee*

S5M-06471 Alison Johnstone: 50th Anniversary of the Pill Being Made Universally Available—That the Parliament notes that 28 June 2017 is the 50th anniversary of the contraceptive pill being made available to all women by the NHS, regardless of their marital status, as part of the National Health Service (Family Planning) Act 1967; believes that, along with the Abortion Act 1967, this enabled women to take control of their fertility for the first time; notes that, although the pill had been available since 1961, only married women were able to access it; considers that making it universally available has been one of the most significant social and medical advances of the 20th century, and believes that it has allowed millions of women, in Scotland and worldwide, the freedom to plan if, when, and how many children they will have and has helped to open up career, educational and social opportunities that previously would not have been available because of the responsibilities of pregnancy and childcare.

S5M-06470 Christina McKelvie: Quarter Parish Church Friendship Group Receives Funding—That the Parliament congratulates the Quarter Parish Church Friendship Group on receiving £3,839 of vital funding from the Big Lottery Fund; acknowledges that the group aims to improve the lives of older people through the delivery of a weekly meal to 20 to 25 isolated older or disabled villagers; recognises that this funding will continue to support these weekly meals, as well as various other recreational activities for older people, and wishes the organisation all the best in the future.

Supported by: Gillian Martin*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Sandra White*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*

S5M-06469 Jackie Baillie: Dunbartonshire Federation Scottish Women's Institute—That the Parliament congratulates the Dunbartonshire Federation Scottish Women's Institute (SWI) on its 90th birthday celebrations; understands that the SWI is an organisation created by women in 1917 with the view to bring women together to educate, campaign, learn, socialise and build a community; notes that the SWI takes on everything from teaching life skills and arts and crafts to raising awareness of current affairs affecting women; understands that the federation will mark the occasion with an afternoon tea celebration in Gartocharn on 2 July 2017, and wishes it well for the future.

Supported by: Mary Fee*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-06468 Jackie Baillie: West Dunbartonshire Hosts the First Meeting of the New Session of the Scottish Youth Parliament—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Youth Parliament on its 63rd sitting; further congratulates Jack Brough MSYP and Shaun Cairns MSYP, who both represent West Dunbartonshire, on hosting their new colleagues for the first sitting of the newly-elected MSPs, which took place in June 2017; notes that young people from across Scotland came together in the Vale of Leven Academy; further notes that 30 June 2017 marks 18 years of the Scottish Youth Parliament, and thanks all MSYPs, past and present, for the contribution that they have made, and continue to make, to their communities.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Mary Fee*, David Torrance*

S5M-06467 Lewis Macdonald: Elite Swimming Programme Launched in Aberdeen—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of a new elite swimming initiative, the University of Aberdeen Performance Swimming programme (UOAPS), which is a partnership between the university and Aberdeen Sports Village, Aberdeen City Council, Scottish Swimming and seven of the city's swimming clubs; understands that Patrick Miley, who is the father and coach of Commonwealth gold medallist, Hannah, will train elite swimmers from the north east in a bid to find the area's next champions, and that the club swimmers who make the cut will train with the elite team at the sports village's aquatics centre to work on their skills; commends the efforts of everyone who promotes elite swimming in the north east and beyond, and wishes all the young swimmers trying out for UOAPS the best of luck with their sporting careers.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*

S5M-06466 Margaret Mitchell: VIP Pass Community Project—That the Parliament welcomes the community work undertaken by the VIP Pass Community Project in Fallside, which provides activities for under-privileged children; understands that the project was established in Fallside in July 2013 and initially had 30 children attending, but now has 150 children attending each week; appreciates that, while most classes are free, the project ensures that children do not pay more than £3 for a class; is encouraged that the charity has a children's sub-committee, which contributes hugely to the running of the project; understands that a variety of classes are on offer, including cooking healthy meals, health and beauty, musical theatre, gymnastics, dance, guitar, singing and a mixed-sex football team; recognises that the work undertaken would not be possible without the efforts of the Project Manager, Gail Smith, and the trustees, coaches and volunteers who provide these opportunities for the children, and wishes the project the best of luck in the future.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Peter Chapman*, David Torrance*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Jeremy Balfour*, Kenneth Gibson*, Alexander Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Murdo Fraser*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-06465 Dean Lockhart: Raploch Community Partnership's ROC'N Garden Group—That the Parliament congratulates Raploch Community Partnership's ROC'N Garden Group on winning a Silver Award at the National Gardening Scotland pallet competition; recognises that the group brings together children from Our Lady's, Castleview and Raploch primary schools, and adults from across the community, to encourage people stay active as part of the partnership's commitment to regeneration; applauds the hard work of everyone who contributed to the award-winning pallet design, and wishes the group continued success.

S5M-06464 Dean Lockhart: Funding Award for Stirling Entrepreneur—That the Parliament congratulates the Stirling-based entrepreneur, Michael Harkins, on being awarded £110,000 funding through the Scottish Edge Awards for his Turtle Pack swimming aid design; notes that this funding will provide Michael with the ability to expand and develop his business, and applauds his efforts in encouraging young people to gain the confidence to learn to swim.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Margaret Mitchell*, Jeremy Balfour*, David Torrance*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Alexander Stewart*, Murdo Fraser*, Peter Chapman*

S5M-06463 Dean Lockhart: Big Noise Raploch Launches Raploch Symphony Orchestra—That the Parliament congratulates Big Noise Raploch on the launch of the new Raploch Symphony Orchestra; notes that this coincided with its ninth anniversary celebrations, which brought together over 100 children from the area; recognises that the group, which is operated by Sistema Scotland, works with young people throughout Stirling by providing them with access to musical tuition; acknowledges the hard work of everyone involved in bringing together the talents of the musicians in the strings, woodwind, brass and percussion sections, and wishes Big Noise Raploch every success for the future.

Supported by: Gordon Lindhurst*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Stewart*, Maurice Corry*, Liz Smith*, Alison Johnstone*, Margaret Mitchell*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-06462 Angus MacDonald: Wallacestone and District Pipe Band, European Champions—That the Parliament congratulates Wallacestone and District Pipe Band on becoming Grade 3A European Pipe Band Champions at the recent competition in Forres; understands that this success comes after winning the UK Championships two weeks prior to this; recognises the celebration of the band's 130th anniversary since its formation; understands that it is one of the oldest civilian pipe bands in the world and was formed by miners from the village of Wallacestone; notes that there are still two of the five major championships left in the season, which are the Scottish Championships in Dunbar in July and the World Championships in Glasgow in August, with the band still in the running to take the coveted Champion of Champions Trophy; commends that hard work of the Pipe Major, Neil Henderson, the Lead Drummer, Stewart Gardiner, and all of their bandmates in achieving such high accolades thus far, and wishes the Wallacestone and District Pipe Band the very best for its upcoming competitions.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-06461 Kezia Dugdale: Vonnie Sandlan, President of NUS Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates Vonnie Sandlan, outgoing President of NUS Scotland, on her two-year tenure and the years of service to the student movement prior to that; understands that Vonnie was the first female leader of the organisation in 10 years, the first mature student parent, and the first care-experienced person to hold the post; recognises that her tenure included a focus on widening access to university, supporting both the FE and HE sectors to expand student numbers, campaigning on student mental health and housing as well as championing the rights of refugees and EU citizens across the UK; believes that Vonnie has made a huge and substantial contribution to public life already, smashing the institutional barriers that she has faced at every turn; believes her to be an absolute inspiration to Scotland's students, and wishes her all the very best in her future endeavours.

Stuart McMillan*, Gail Ross*, Ash Denham*, Lewis Macdonald*, Colin Smyth*, Iain Gray*, Neil Findlay*

S5M-06460 Bob Doris: Glasgow 44th Scout Hall Under Threat—That the Parliament is deeply concerned by reports that the 44th Glasgow Scout hall in the Kelvindale area of the city is under threat; recognises that the first Scout hall on this land was founded in the 1950s, with a new premises being built by the Scout Association in 1994 following a fire; recognises that the 44th Glasgow Scout Group took over ownership of the hall in 2003 at a time when it was vacant and in a state of disrepair, and has subsequently upgraded the premises to meet Care Commission standards; understands that the land owners, Mactaggart and Mickel, now wish to develop or dispose of the land and appear to have originally stated that there would be no future provision for the Scout hall; welcomes, however, a recent statement by the company which says that “following careful consideration and discussions with Glasgow City Council, we are willing to consider all options for the scout group, which includes replacement or relocation if a suitable facility can be found”; considers that the Scout hall has been an invaluable local resource for many years in an area that has very limited equivalent community facilities, and acknowledges the strength of feeling among the local community that it must be retained; believes that Mactaggart and Mickel has previously quoted a disproportionate cost for the Scouts Group to buy the land, which it understands far exceeds the valuation made by group’s own surveyor, and takes no account of the significant expenditure that the group has incurred to refurbish the hall, and encourages all parties to engage in constructive discussions to find a solution that retains a Scout hall as a community resource for future generations.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Sandra White*, Ben Macpherson*, Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, James Dornan*

S5M-06459 Clare Adamson: Our Lady’s High School Wins Kiss Bigotry Goodbye Cup—That the Parliament congratulates Our Lady’s High School from Motherwell on winning the Kiss Bigotry Goodbye Cup at Ravenscraig Sports Centre; notes that the competition saw teenagers from 10 Lanarkshire schools compete in the event, which was organised by Police Scotland and supported by North Lanarkshire Leisure; recognises that, in addition to playing football, pupils participated in workshops aimed at raising awareness of sectarianism, highlighting the dangers of posting online abuse and deepening the understanding of different religious cultures and traditions; understands that the Kiss Bigotry Goodbye campaign was launched by Nil by Mouth in 2015 and has since seen thousands of people take part in events aimed at celebrating the positive side of Scottish football, and wishes all those involved in the campaign continued success for the future.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Stuart McMillan*, Rona Mackay*, Clare Haughey*, David Torrance*, Monica Lennon*, Gillian Martin*, James Dornan*, Graeme Dey*, Joan McAlpine*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Emma Harper*, Ben Macpherson*, Stewart Stevenson*

S5M-06458 Bill Kidd: ANYiSO Receives Young Start Funding—That the Parliament congratulates ANYiSO on receiving £49,760 from the Big Lottery Fund’s Young Start programme; understands that this funding will allow the charity to employ a project coordinator who will run a programme of music and dance lessons three times a week for young people aged from 8 to 24; highlights that this project will take place in the Knightswood and Scotstoun areas of the Glasgow Anniesland constituency, and commends ANYiSo for instigating this programme, which aims to encourage young people from these areas to become increasingly confident and live healthy lifestyles.

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
