Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-06554 Sandra White: Celebrating 25 Years of "the Afty" Hyndland School Club—That the Parliament congratulates the Hyndland After School Club, known affectionately as "the Afty", on its 25th anniversary; understands that the club has grown substantially from 24 places at its launch in 1992 to over 106 places, alongside the running of successful clubs at Thornwood and Notre Dame primary schools; understands that "the Afty" provides a wide range of activities and developmental opportunities across the year, providing much-loved entertainment and support to its children; notes that it became a not-for-profit company limited by guarantee and a registered charity in November 2001; further notes that it holds a gold star for excellence in the Scottish Out of School Network's Achieving Quality Scotland scheme, and wishes all involved with it the best for another 25 years of success.

*S5M-06553 Clare Adamson: You're Asking for It Initiative—That the Parliament commends the launch of the campaign, You're Asking for It, in North Lanarkshire; notes that the campaign, which targets underage drinking and adult proxy purchase, has been launched following a successful pilot in Motherwell and Wishaw in 2015; recognises that the campaign is a partnership between Police Scotland, North Lanarkshire Partnership and Trading Standards, and received funding from the Scottish Alcohol Industry Partnership; congratulates the outstanding success of the pilot, which saw a significant reduction in antisocial behaviour, youth disorder and violence, and picked up the Greatest Contribution to Policing Priorities award at the Police Scotland Excellence Awards in 2016, as well as a further award for Creativity and Innovation at the Scottish Safer Community Network Awards; notes that, following the success of the pilot, the scheme is being rolled out across the whole of North Lanarkshire; congratulates Inspector Alistair Anderson, who is leading the roll-out of the campaign in North Lanarkshire, and wishes Police Scotland and the partner agencies every success in tackling this important social issue.

*S5M-06552 Angus MacDonald: European Regional Development Funding Awarded to Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement of £3.25 million of funding from the European Regional Development Fund's (ERDF) Low Carbon Travel and Transport (LCTT) Challenge Fund, which was awarded to organisations across Scotland in order to develop active travel and low-carbon transport hubs; notes that Falkirk Council and partners, Forth Environment Link, have been successful in their application to this fund, which will enable an active travel hub in

Motions   Gluasadan

Falkirk town centre and a low-carbon vehicle hub at Falkirk Community Stadium to be created that will incorporate 20 electric vehicle charging bays powered by a 168-bay solar array; recognises the importance of developing low-carbon travel and transport initiatives building sustainable and environmentally beneficial infrastructure, which encourages more people to use low-carbon transport methods; acknowledges what it sees as the significant impact that ERDF has had in Scotland in supporting initiatives to tackle poverty, to boost small- and medium-sized enterprises and develop initiatives to support the circular economy; considers the impact that it considers Brexit will have on sources of funding available to projects designed to support and enhance Scotland's diverse economy; congratulates Falkirk Council and Forth Environment Link on securing this vital funding, and looks forward to seeing this project come to life.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Ben Macpherson*, James Dornan*, John Mason*, Graeme Dey*, Joan McAlpine*, Clare Haughey*

*S5M-06551 Miles Briggs: Edinburgh Napier University's Honorary Degree Awards

2017—That the Parliament congratulates the three recent recipients of honorary degrees from Edinburgh Napier University; notes that Professor Julie Fitzpatrick, who is the scientific director of the Moredun Research Institute and the chief executive of the Moredun Group, Dr Peter Bonfield, who is the chief executive of the BRE Group, and Josh Littlejohn, who is a social entrepreneur and the co-founder of Social Bite, received honorary doctorates in science, engineering and enterprise respectively; considers that they have made outstanding contributions in their respective fields and are worthy recipients, and wishes them all continued success.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Murdo Fraser*, Peter Chapman*, Alexander Stewart*, Maurice Corry*, Edward Mountain*

*S5M-06550 Richard Lyle: Congratulations to #Included in the Main?! (ENABLE Scotland) Cracking Campaign SCVO Award Winners

—That the Parliament congratulates #Included in the Main?! (ENABLE Scotland) in the Uddingston and Bellshill constituency on winning the Cracking Campaign Award at the SCVO Scottish Charity Awards 2017; notes that the awards had 38 amazing finalists in more than eight categories, including a People's Choice Award, which was open to public voting and saw over 11,000 votes cast across all finalists; understands that #Included in the Main?! (ENABLE Scotland) set out to listen to and amplify the voices of over 800 young people who have learning disabilities, as well as their parents and teachers; considers that those voices prompted systemic change in Scottish education for pupils who have learning disabilities, resulting in the Scottish Government publishing guidance on inclusive education; believes that #Included in the Main?! (ENABLE Scotland) is a key demonstration of the importance of third sector organisations and the role that they can play in encouraging and delivering policy change; wishes all of the finalists and those nominated all the very best for the future, and celebrates Scotland's diverse third sector organisations as a flavour of Scotland's diverse communities.

home and abroad, covering its participation in senior Scottish football and its youth community and women's programmes, and notes that a special exhibition will be on display in the Scottish Football Museum until December 2017.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Joan McAlpine*, Sandra White*, Ben Macpherson*, John Mason*, Graeme Dey*, Bob Doris*, Clare Haughey*

*S5M-06548 Sandra White: Scottish Infected Blood Forum—That the Parliament welcomes the £9,975 Awards for All Scotland grant to the Scottish Infected Blood Forum; notes that the group offers peer-to-peer support to people who have hepatitis C; understands that the funding will be used to deliver an eight-month programme of networking and information sessions across Scotland, and commends their efforts in supporting people diagnosed with hepatitis C.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, James Dornan*, Ben Macpherson*, Bob Doris*

*S5M-06547 Sandra White: Glasgow Chinese Badminton Club—That the Parliament congratulates the Glasgow Chinese Badminton Club on securing a £4,000 Awards for All Scotland grant from sportscotland; understands that the club will use the funding to expand its badminton training and practice sessions for adults and children, and wishes the club continued success.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Joan McAlpine*, James Dornan*, Ben Macpherson*, Edward Mountain*, Bob Doris*, Clare Haughey*

*S5M-06546 Ben Macpherson: 21st Anniversary of Trainspotting as Leith Theatre Fundraiser—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Irvine Welsh is set to hold a celebration in Leith Theatre's auditorium to mark the 21st anniversary of Trainspotting; understands that the celebration will be held on 11 August 2017, at the height of the Edinburgh Festival; notes that the arts collective, Neu! Reekie!, the iconic post-punk band, the Fire Engines, and the US record producer and DJ, Arthur Baker, will also be involved in the celebration; recognises that this will include a special screening of the iconic film, a Q&A with Irvine Welsh and a world premiere of excerpts from a new novel; appreciates that the celebration is to raise funds to help reopen Leith Theatre, and thanks everyone involved for their commendable efforts to save part of Leith's history.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Stewart Stevenson*, Sandra White*, Miles Briggs*, Graeme Dey*, Bob Doris*, Clare Haughey*

*S5M-06545 Rona Mackay: Gerry Marley and Campsie Black Watch FC—That the Parliament recognises Gerry Marley, who is the president of the Campsie Black Watch FC, which is based in Lennoxton in East Dunbartonshire, on all of his hard work and dedication to the club; acknowledges his over 60 years of commitment to the team and his hand in making it among the top juvenile football sides in the country; acknowledges that, after more than 70 years, the club has now folded; recognises that it won the Scottish Youth Cup a record 11 times; thanks everyone involved with its success, and wishes Gerry well.

*S5M-06544 Maree Todd: Tackling Household Affordable Warmth—That the Parliament welcomes the Orkney fuel poverty charity, Tackling Household Affordable Warmth (THAW) Orkney's Annual Review 2017, setting out its Orkney Pipeline Partnership approach, which has dealt with over 400 clients and used an installation budget of £260,000 to enable energy efficiency works worth over £600,000 to go ahead in the islands; understands that interim findings from the independent consultant, Elaine Morrison, on a social return on investment evaluation of the impact of THAW's work, showed that every £1 invested in THAW's project created £5.49 in additional value; recognises that Elaine commented that in her 23 years of experience in the fuel poverty

New Subordinate Legislation

Negative instruments

The following instruments were laid before the Parliament on 29 June 2017 and are subject to the negative procedure—

Energy Performance of Buildings (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2017 (SSI 2017/225) laid under paragraph 2(2) of schedule 2 of the European Communities Act 1972

Universal Credit (Claims and Payments) (Scotland) Regulations 2017 (SSI 2017/227) laid under sections 29(8) and 30(7) of the Scotland Act 2016

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
