followed by Ministerial Statement: Policing

followed by Scottish Conservative and Unionist Party Debate: General Practice

S5M-09218 Miles Briggs: General Practice—That the Parliament recognises that general practice is a vital frontline service of the NHS; believes that the Scottish Government has underfunded general practice over the last decade and failed to shift the balance of care from acute to primary services; notes with concern Audit Scotland's report that there is a lack of national data on the primary care workforce; further notes that one-in-four GP practices has a vacancy and one-in-three GPs is approaching retirement, and believes that the Scottish Government must take urgent action to prevent a crisis in general practice.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S5M-09218.4 Shona Robison: General Practice—As an amendment to motion S5M-09218 in the name of Miles Briggs (General Practice), leave out from "believes that the Scottish Government" to end and insert "recognises the challenges, including in recruitment and retention, faced by GPs and the wider primary care sector; notes that the new GP contract, developed in partnership with the BMA, aims to reduce GP workloads; recognises GPs as expert medical specialists leading a wider primary care workforce; welcomes that the contract plans to significantly improve national data on primary care, as well as move to address the inverse care law by giving greater emphasis to the effects of deprivation on both physical and mental health and wellbeing; believes that an increasing share of NHS frontline funding being directed to primary care is necessary in order to help increase the number of GPs and wider primary care workforce, and that steps toward this should be set out in the primary care workforce plan, and is concerned that the potential impact of Brexit on free movement and the mutual recognition of qualifications may become a serious barrier to current and future recruitment efforts."

S5M-09218.2 Colin Smyth: General Practice—As an amendment to motion S5M-09218 in the name of Miles Briggs (General Practice), insert at end "; further believes that long-term workforce planning failures, including years of pay restraint, have contributed to rising rates of vacant posts across the health service, often placing general practice under further strain, and calls on the Scottish Government to deliver a real-terms pay rise to NHS staff as part of future support for Scotland's health workforce."

followed by Scottish Conservative and Unionist Party Debate: Barclay Review and ALEOs

S5M-09221 Murdo Fraser: Barclay Review and ALEOs—That the Parliament notes the recommendation of the Barclay Review of Non-Domestic Rates that local authority arm's-length external organisations (ALEOs) providing leisure and cultural facilities should have their charitable exemption from rates removed; further notes that this proposal has caused widespread concern across Scotland with fears that, if implemented, it would mean the closure of a large number of facilities and/or substantial increases in user charges, and calls on the Scottish Government to reject this recommendation.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendment

S5M-09221.4 Derek Mackay: Barclay Review and ALEOs—As an amendment to motion S5M-09221 in the name of Murdo Fraser (Barclay Review and ALEOs), leave out from “further notes” to end and insert “acknowledges that, in responding to the Barclay report, the Scottish Government undertook to have further dialogue with stakeholders to inform consideration of this recommendation from Barclay; notes the engagement that the Scottish Government has undertaken, and agrees that, following the views expressed by stakeholders, this recommendation should not be accepted.”

Debate on the subject of—S5M-07806 Ash Denham: Small Business Saturday 2017—That the Parliament recognises that 2 December 2017 will mark the fifth Small Business Saturday, which is a grassroots, non-commercial campaign that aims to highlight small business success and to encourage consumers to "shop local"; understands that, in 2016, customers in Edinburgh and across the country spent £717 million with small businesses on the awareness day, which was a 15% increase on 2015; understands that over 80% of local authorities across the UK actively support the campaign in a variety of ways, from networking events to offering free parking, which means that, for everyone, Small Business Saturday will be happening nearby, and notes the calls on Members to share their support for the campaign on social media, visit small businesses in their area, with media engagement to help raise local consumer awareness, and for them to encourage small businesses to get involved and register on the website, smallbusinesssaturdayuk.com.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-09221 Murdo Fraser: Barclay Review and ALEOs—That the Parliament notes the recommendation of the Barclay Review of Non-Domestic Rates that local authority arm's-length external organisations (ALEOs) providing leisure and cultural facilities should have their charitable exemption from rates removed; further notes that this proposal has caused widespread concern across Scotland with fears that, if implemented, it would mean the closure of a large number of facilities and/or substantial increases in user charges, and calls on the Scottish Government to reject this recommendation.

S5M-09247 Maurice Golden: The New Tannahill Centre—That the Parliament congratulates The New Tannahill Centre on its Big Lottery Fund award of £10,000; understands that the Paisley-based organisation will use the funding to develop its community café to provide volunteer opportunities, better quality food and meals for older people, reduce its environmental impact and extend its opening times, and wishes it success with these developments.

S5M-09246 Maurice Golden: Return to Life—That the Parliament congratulates Return to Life SCIO on being awarded £10,000 by the Big Lottery Fund; notes that this organisation, based in Paisley, will provide support for people with renal failure and that the funding will allow for a range of marketing materials to promote its work, and wishes it every success in the valuable work that it carries out to support others.

S5M-09245 Alexander Burnett: Aberdeen City and Shire Tourism Awards Winners—That the Parliament congratulates Deeside Activity Park on winning the Best Outdoor Adventure Experience category, and Colin Gunn at Holiday Inn Aberdeen West on winning the Tourism and Hospitality Hero category, at the Aberdeen City and Shire Tourism Awards, and commends all other winners and those shortlisted for accolades. R

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Jeremy Balfour*, Tom Mason*, Peter Chapman*, Donald Cameron*, Bill Bowman*, Gordon Lindhurst*

S5M-09244 Ben Macpherson: Scotland Picks Up Two Awards from Rough Guides—That the Parliament welcomes the recent announcement that Scotland was named the Favourite Destination of 2017 by Rough Guides readers; further welcomes that the survey also saw Scotland as the Most Welcoming Country; understands that Rough Guides is a leading publisher of travel and reference guides, and one of the world's most popular guidebooks; believes these achievements to be reflective of Scotland's successful tourist industry and those who work in it, as well as every person in Scotland who has helped to create an open and welcoming environment, and further believes that this illustrates the inclusive and internationalist character of Scotland.

Polypropylene Mesh Medical Devices—That the Parliament notes public petition PE1517 on polypropylene mesh medical devices.

Supported by: Angus MacDonald*

S5M-09239 Bill Bowman: Kirriemuir Students Help Restore Ancient Local Culture—That the Parliament commends the students at Webster's High School, who have spent time working to restore a sandstone wall in St Colme's Close in Kirriemuir's town centre; understands that the students learned traditional hot lime techniques to manually restore the wall; acknowledges that the town plans to install a new memory mural in the refurbished wall, and thanks the students who have taken the preservation of their town's heritage into their own hands.

S5M-09238 Bill Bowman: Ninewells Staff Volunteer for Charity Event—That the Parliament commends staff in the acute medical unit of Ninewells Hospital for having taken part in the Blythswood Christmas shoebox charity event; notes that the staff have been collecting items, including toys, winter clothing and essential toiletries, to put in boxes to give comfort to those in poverty during the festive season; understands that it is their second consecutive year participating in the event, and welcomes the generosity of the Ninewells staff and the Blythswood campaign.

S5M-09237 Bill Bowman: Dundee Social Enterprise Network's 10th Anniversary—That the Parliament congratulates the Dundee Social Enterprise Network on celebrating its 10th anniversary; understands that the network hosted a weekend Christmas market to celebrate the occasion; acknowledges that the network includes 49 social enterprises and a further 31 aspiring members; notes that the network has almost 800 employees across its various enterprises, and looks forward to 10 more years of its development of social enterprises in Dundee.

S5M-09236 Christina McKelvie: HIV Anti-Stigma Consortium Report, Scotland's HIV Anti-Stigma Strategy: Road Map to Zero—That the Parliament recognises the HIV Anti-Stigma Consortium report, Scotland's HIV Anti-Stigma Strategy: Road Map to Zero; notes that the purpose of the report is to highlight available research and best practice to guide a strategic approach in fulfilling targets set by UNAIDS and the Scottish Government's Sexual Health and Blood Borne Virus Framework; notes that the consortium, founded by HIV Scotland, was created to enact a shared ownership over eliminating stigma surrounding HIV; notes that it brings together people living with HIV, people from key populations and other experts to create a unified approach for tackling HIV stigma in Scotland, and wholeheartedly agrees with the action plan of the report, committing the Parliament to ending HIV-related stigma in Scotland, participating fully in designing, implementing and monitoring programmes for reducing stigma, and working collaboratively with other partners to introduce necessary policy changes, strengthen meaningful

S5M-09234 Annabelle Ewing: First-tier Tribunal for Scotland General Regulatory Chamber Charity Appeals Cases and Upper Tribunal for Scotland (Composition) Regulations 2018 [draft]—That the Justice Committee recommends that the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland General Regulatory Chamber Charity Appeals Cases and Upper Tribunal for Scotland (Composition) Regulations 2018 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Michael Matheson*

S5M-09233 Annabelle Ewing: Criminal Legal Assistance (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2017—That the Justice Committee recommends that the Criminal Legal Assistance (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Scotland) Regulations 2017 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Michael Matheson*

S5M-09232 Bob Doris: Scottish Africa United Boost Empowerment in North Glasgow—That the Parliament commends Scottish Africa United for all of the work that it does in the north Glasgow area; recognises Scottish Africa United for its work as a community organisation that aims to empower local African people by engaging them in practical sport, learning and healthy lifestyle activities, as well as celebrating and promoting the diverse communities in the area; congratulates the organisation on it receiving £8,650 from the Big Lottery Fund's Awards for All programme; welcomes that Scottish Africa United will use the funding to organise both football and community growing activities, which will promote social inclusion among asylum seekers and refugees in Glasgow, and wishes the organisation every success in developing positive inter-community links for the benefit of communities within the Maryhill and Springburn constituency and across north Glasgow.

S5M-09231 Bob Doris: Partick Thistle's Charitable Trust Action on Homelessness—That the Parliament commends the Patrick Thistle Charitable Trust for the community outreach work it does in the north Glasgow area; recognises that the trust utilises the club's exceptional reputation for being community minded and spirited, together with football as a key hook, to deliver quality coaching, health and wellbeing lessons, employability initiatives and diversionary and social inclusion programmes; welcomes the recent award of £9,734 from the Big Lottery Fund's Awards for All scheme, which will help to fund an ongoing programme that engages homeless people in weekly football and wellbeing sessions; understands that many who experience homelessness have multiple and complex needs, as well as not always having a positive experience with statutory services; believes that the welcoming and non-threatening reputation of Partick Thistle will help engage with those individuals who need help the most, and wishes the project every success at what is a particularly harsh time of the year for all those who are blighted by homelessness.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Joan McAlpine*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lochhead*, Sandra White*, Ivan McKee*, Ash Denham*, Gillian Martin*

S5M-09230 Bob Doris: Maryhill Integration Network Backed to Tackle Social Isolation of Male Refugees—That the Parliament congratulates the Maryhill Integration Network on securing £71,663 from the Big Lottery Fund Scotland; welcomes that the funding will be used to assist young adult male asylum seekers and refugees experiencing high levels of isolation within Glasgow; commends Maryhill Integration Network for fostering the development of a social network for refugees, as well as providing opportunities for skills development within the Maryhill area; recognises how this project offers weekly group sessions, volunteer training schedules, Scottish English integration courses, and other group bonding activities; believes that such activities provide supportive opportunities for people newly arriving to the country, who have often travelled to Scotland's shores following traumatic and difficult circumstances overseas, to best integrate into society, and thanks Maryhill Integration Network for its continued support of all the area's diverse communities over many years.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Sandra White*, Ross Greer*, Emma Harper*, Ash Denham*, Bill Kidd*, Gillian Martin*

S5M-09229 Bill Bowman: Aberdeen Oil Firm Expands to Dundee—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Well-Safe Solutions, an oil decommissioning specialist based in Aberdeen, has chosen to open an onshore marine port base in Dundee, which is expected to create more than 100 jobs in the area; understands that it has secured two acres of land, amounting to 40,000 square feet of building space, for the site; is pleased that the company was only formed in July 2017 but already has plans to grow its workforce to 400 employees and invest £200 million in assets in three years; applauds Well-Safe Solutions' state-of-the-art decommissioning strategy, which prioritises safety and cost-efficiency in the decommissioning of oil wells, and looks forward to the further development of businesses in the Dundee area.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Peter Chapman*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Alexander Stewart*, Graeme Dey*, Murdo Fraser*, Jeremy Balfour*, Michelle Ballantyne*, David Torrance*

S5M-09228 Kate Forbes: Brian Etheridge, RSPB Species Champion—That the Parliament congratulates Brian Etheridge on winning the RSPB Species Champion Award at the RSPB's Nature of Scotland Awards; recognises that Brian has pioneered practical conservation measures to benefit raptors and other birds in Scotland; notes his fieldwork expertise in the satellite tagging of raptors, and recognises that Brian's contributions go beyond raptors, and includes leading the construction of nesting rafts for rare black-throated divers, carrying out novel research on elusive nesting greenshanks and wood sandpipers in the north of Scotland, participating in and leading birding expeditions abroad and studying waders in Finnmark.

S5M-09225 Michelle Ballantyne: Windygoul Pupils Raise Thousands of Pounds—That the Parliament notes the hard work of the pupils and staff at Windygoul Primary School in Tranent, who have raised thousands of pounds at the school's annual Christmas Market; understands that there were stalls selling home baking and gifts, which raised £3,800; notes that the market was organised by P7 pupils, and recognises all those who took part and attended for their generosity.

Supported by: Iain Gray*, Bill Kidd*, Margaret Mitchell*, Donald Cameron*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Bowman*, Edward Mountain*, Jeremy Balfour*, Murdo Fraser*, Alison Harris*, Gordon Lindhurst*, David Torrance*

S5M-09224 Alexander Stewart: Blairingone—That the Parliament notes that the village of Blairingone has faced many problems as a result of sludge spreading and other issues at the reclaimed open cast coal workings at Lambhill; understands that, although a condition on agricultural use was added retrospectively, this has been repeatedly breached; notes that, over the last three years, residents have been subjected to significant levels of noise; understands that, in 2003, public petition PE327 greatly contributed to the introduction of waste management licensing regulations; is concerned however that a new application for class 6 storage and distribution could lead to an extra 100 44-tonne HGVs going through the tiny village each day, and recognises the effect that this could have on the small rural community.

Affirmative instruments

The following draft affirmative instrument was withdrawn and subsequently re-laid before the Parliament on 28 November 2017—

Police Investigations and Review Commissioner (Application and Modification of the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2016) (Scotland) Order 2017 [draft] laid under section 103(4)(a) of the Police, Public Order and Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2006

The timetable for consideration of this instrument remains unchanged

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Members' Bills

Mark Ruskell: Proposed Restricted Roads (20mph Limit) (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to replace the current 30mph default speed limit on restricted roads with a 20mph limit. (lodged 20 November 2017)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
