Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-07806 Ash Denham: Small Business Saturday 2017—That the Parliament recognises that 2 December 2017 will mark the fifth Small Business Saturday, which is a grassroots, non-commercial campaign that aims to highlight small business success and to encourage consumers to "shop local"; understands that, in 2016, customers in Edinburgh and across the country spent £717 million with small businesses on the awareness day, which was a 15% increase on 2015; understands that over 80% of local authorities across the UK actively support the campaign in a variety of ways, from networking events to offering free parking, which means that, for everyone, Small Business Saturday will be happening nearby, and notes the calls on Members to share their support for the campaign on social media, visit small businesses in their area, with media engagement to help raise local consumer awareness, and for them to encourage small businesses to get involved and register on the website, smallbusinesssaturdayuk.com.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-07834 Mary Fee: Celebrating Scotland's Gypsy/Traveller Community—That the Parliament celebrates the rich social and cultural contribution that the Gypsy/Traveller community has made to Scottish society from the 12th century; acknowledges that the Equality and Human Rights Commission has estimated that the country's Gypsy/Traveller population is between 15,000 to 20,000; understands that the term, "Gypsy/Traveller", refers to distinct groups, including Romany Gypsies, Scottish and Irish travellers and others who regard travelling as being part of their ethnic identity; believes that they experience a variety of issues related to provision of adequate housing and access to public health services with a much higher proportion rating their health as "bad" or "very bad" compared with the Scottish average, contributing to a low male life expectancy of 55 years, 12 years shorter than the Scottish average; understands that they are a disproportionately marginalised and discriminated group and are stigmatised by inaccurate myths and stereotyping about their culture; notes with distress that the most recent statistics from the Scottish Social Attitudes Survey highlight that 31% of people would be "unhappy or very unhappy" about a close relative marrying a Gypsy/Traveller and that 35% said that a Gypsy/Traveller would be "very/fairly unsuitable" as a primary school teacher, and notes the calls on the Scottish Government to increase its commitment to eliminating discrimination against the Scottish Gypsy/Traveller community in West Scotland and throughout the country through strengthening existing equality legislation and providing greater support for inclusivity and equality training to ensure greater protection.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Iain Gray*, Gail Ross*

S5M-07829 Clare Adamson: Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month—That the Parliament notes that November 2017 marks Pancreatic Cancer Awareness Month, and that 16 November 2017 is World Pancreatic Cancer Day; congratulates all of the pancreatic cancer charities and their supporters on working tirelessly to raise awareness of the condition; notes that this year's campaign, Demand Better, For Patients, For Survival, encourages action to increase awareness of the disease by, for example, wearing purple, lighting up local landmarks, using purple in social media posts and profiles, sharing knowledge with friends and family and getting involved in a wide variety of fundraising events over the year; understands that pancreatic cancer is one of the least survivable cancers and is the fifth most common cause of cancer death in Scotland; notes that there is currently no screening or early detection test for pancreatic cancer, although some are in development, which is progress that needs encouragement since early diagnosis can improve a patient's chance of survival by ensuring early access to treatment; appreciates that the need for early diagnosis makes awareness and knowledge of the disease all the more important, and welcomes all efforts in this cause.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Miles Briggs*, Gail Ross*, Sandra White*, Ruth Maguire*, Clare Haughey*, Kenneth Gibson*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-07839 Adam Tomkins: Insurance Industry in the Glasgow City Region—That the Parliament welcomes research commissioned by the Association of British Insurers (ABI), which has found that the insurance and long-term saving industry supports 10,500 jobs in the Glasgow city region and contributes more than £1 billion per annum in Gross Value Added to the economy; notes that the research found that productivity among insurance workers is worth more than £135,000 per year, almost double the UK average across all industries, because of the highly-skilled workforce and high-value products that the insurance industry creates, and wishes the industry in Glasgow well in the coming years as it is a UK hub for commercial insurance that has underpinned trade across Scotland and the rest of the world.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Tom Mason*, Peter Chapman*, Murdo Fraser*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-07838 Adam Tomkins: Congratulations to the Shettleston Community Growing Project—That the Parliament congratulates the Shettleston Community Growing Project on winning the £10,000 first prize in the Cultivation Street Awards 2017; commends the commitment of local people who, since 2009, have turned a formerly derelict piece of ground into an attractive and productive community allotment and orchard; welcomes the involvement of young people in the project as a way of teaching them about the nutritional importance of fresh produce, and wishes the project well in the future.

S5M-07837 Jenny Gilruth: First Female to Referee Senior Men's Match in Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates Lorraine Watson from Thornton on becoming the first female to referee a senior men's match in Scotland, taking charge of the match between Edinburgh City and Berwick Rangers; understands that Lorraine has previously officiated at the Women's Under-19 European Championships and was a fourth official at the Women's Euro 2017, as well as taking charge of games in the Women's Champions League; acknowledges that she is currently bidding to attain full Scottish FA category one status, allowing her to referee matches at Scottish Premiership level; considers that such success will inspire young female referees, and wishes Lorraine well in her future career.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Rona Mackay*, Gail Ross*, Tavish Scott*, Iain Gray*, Claire Baker*

S5M-07836 Jenny Gilruth: Watson's of Leven, Scottish Craft Butchers Champions—That the Parliament congratulates Watson's of Leven Butchers on winning Scottish Craft Butchers Black Pudding of the Year Award; understands that it also won the competition in 2016; recognises that the competition is set up by Scottish Craft Butchers, the consumer-facing body for members of the Scottish Federation of Meat Traders Association; congratulates all staff on their win, and applauds Watson's of Leven as it continues to support Scotland's thriving food and drink industry.

Supported by: Murdo Fraser*, Claire Baker*

S5M-07835 Emma Harper: National Poetry Day in Dumfries and Galloway—That the Parliament celebrates National Poetry Day 2017, which will take place on 28 September; recognises that the annual celebration aims to inspire people throughout the UK to enjoy, discover and share poems; understands that Crichton Writer, which is a Dumfries-based writing group, will be holding an event to mark this day with readings from its latest anthology, Alchemy, at Dumfries Museum; recognises that their work celebrates Dumfries and Galloway's history, whisky and wild beauty, and reflects on two of the region's greatest proponents of freedom, Robert the Bruce and Robert Burns; celebrates that one of the area's great poets, Stuart Paterson, will become the BBC Scotland Poet in Residence on the day and will mark it with a specially-commissioned poem on freedom, which is the theme of the awareness day, and wishes Stuart well during his time as poet in residence.

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Ash Denham*, Sandra White*, Rona Mackay*, Gail Ross*, Clare Haughey*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-07833 Jamie Halcro Johnston: Orkney Men's Shed—That the Parliament congratulates the Orkney Men's Shed ahead of its grand opening on 29 September 2017 of its facility in Finstown; commends it in already having 80 members signed up ahead of this; recognises the importance that men's sheds play in building community interaction, promoting learning and skills-sharing and preventing isolation in a number of areas across the UK; encourages the establishment of new sheds across the rest of Scotland, particularly in rural communities, and extends its good wishes to the new group in Orkney.

S5M-07832 Peter Chapman: Peterhead Prison Museum—That the Parliament congratulates Peterhead Prison Museum on attracting over 70,000 visitors since it opened its doors to the public in 2016; recognises that the visitor attraction has been nominated for a hat-trick of awards at 2017's Aberdeen City and Shire Tourism Awards, and wishes the staff and volunteers well in these awards and their work to ensure that the museum continues to capture a growing share of the buoyant north east tourist market.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Tom Mason*, Ruth Maguire*, Murdo Fraser*, Alison Harris*, Gillian Martin*

S5M-07831 Michelle Ballantyne: Princess Royal Visits Lochcarron on 70th

Anniversary—That the Parliament understands that the Princess Royal visited Selkirk on 20 September 2017 to mark the 70th anniversary of the Borders textile firm, Lochcarron, in her capacity as president of the UK Fashion and Textile Association; notes that the company has been creating fine fabrics, accessories and tartans since 1947, including the Princess Diana Memorial Tartan, and considers that it is one of the premier tartan producers in the world, and wishes Lochcarron continued success in the future.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Richard Lyle*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, Tom Mason*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Edward Mountain*, Margaret Mitchell*, Maurice Corry*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Peter Chapman*, Murdo Fraser*

S5M-07830 Maree Todd: The Seafood Shack in Ullapool Wins BBC Award—That the Parliament congratulates the Seafood Shack in Ullapool on winning the Best Street Food or Takeaway category at the 2017 BBC Food and Farming Awards; understands that it is run by Kirsty Scobie and Fenella Renwick, who both have experience of the catering and fishing industries in Ullapool and in the Highlands; commends Kirsty and Fenella's aim to offer top quality seafood that is caught and landed locally; acknowledges that the shack caters for private functions, shows and events throughout the Highlands and Islands, and wishes Kirsty and Fenella, and their team, every success.

Supported by: Angus MacDonald*, Kenneth Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Ruth Maguire*, David Stewart*, Graeme Dey*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Ash Denham*, Rona Mackay*, Sandra White*, Clare Haughey*

S5M-07828 Alexander Stewart: Clackmannanshire Runner Completes Great North Run in Aid of Play Alloa—That the Parliament congratulates a Clackmannanshire runner who completed the Great North Run in aid of Play Alloa after the charity was a victim of vandalism; understands that Derek Paterson decided to support the organisation following a conversation with one of the managers about the vandalism of the charity's playground; notes that he did not initially appreciate the extent of the damage and the cost of replacing the equipment but, after realising it would be thousands of pounds, decided to help; believes that he set an initial target of £300 but has since increased that to £500; acknowledges that he has raised £435 so far, and commends him on his achievements.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Tom Mason*, Liz Smith*, Murdo Fraser*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Miles Briggs*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Alison Harris*, Edward Mountain*, Margaret Mitchell*, Peter Chapman*

S5M-07827 Rachael Hamilton: Congratulations to YouthBorders—That the Parliament congratulates YouthBorders, a third sector networking body from the Scottish Borders, on achieving Gold Accreditation from the prestigious Investors in Young People, and all its staff and the Board of Trustees on this achievement; understands that it is the first organisation in the Scottish Borders to achieve such an award, and only the 12th in Scotland; recognises that YouthBorders supports over 3,500 children in its work through 35 member organisations at 65

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
