Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-11521 Kenneth Gibson: Improving the Mental Health and Wellbeing of Children and Young People with Epilepsy in Scotland—That the Parliament notes with concern the prevalence of mental ill-health, behavioural disorder and educational underperformance among approximately 7,000 children and young people who have epilepsy in Scotland; understands that children with epilepsy are known to have poorer quality of life and more difficulties with emotional, behavioural, social and cognitive function compared with their peers with other chronic conditions; acknowledges the screening pilot by NHS Lothian, which found psychosocial difficulties in 50% of children with epilepsy who were in mainstream schooling and not already seen within the NHS's Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAHMS), and that these problems are underdiagnosed and undertreated; believes that the majority of these cases are lower-tariff and that early intervention in this group may avoid referral to CAMHS and more extensive use of mental health services in adult life; notes the view that a wider roll-out of such screening in epilepsy clinics, for example in Cunninghame North, could help if linked to a pathway of existing stepped interventions below the current CAMHS level; notes calls for greater provision of evidenced-based approaches such as psychosocial Intervention in epilepsy groups and greater involvement of third sector partners, and believes that National Epilepsy Week, from 14 to 20 May 2018, offers an ideal opportunity to develop an improved, pathway-based approach to this issue.

S5M-11442 James Dornan: Acknowledging Sectarianism in Scotland—That the Parliament considers that sectarianism is still rife within a number of communities in Scotland, primarily in the west of Scotland, including in the Glasgow Cathcart constituency; believes that there is no difference in people being abused because of their heritage, religion or race; condemns the recent outbursts of what it considers the clearly sectarian language and excusing of such on social media; believes that words such as "Fenian" and "Orange" should not be used in a derogatory context; notes the view that it is up to everyone in Scottish society, including politicians, to acknowledge that the use of language is crucial if what it sees as Scotland's continuing shame of sectarianism is to be tackled, and notes the calls for all people to stand up against bigots in Scotland who harm the country's reputation and its citizens.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
