Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-10266 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Scottish Youth Parliament Campaign, Right Here, Right Now—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Youth Parliament (SYP) on the launch of its campaign on young people's rights, Right Here, Right Now; notes that Members of the SYP consulted over 5,000 young people before they selected the annual campaign topic; acknowledges the campaign's objectives to make Scotland's young people, including those in the Lothian region, aware of and understand their rights, and be empowered to take action to defend their rights and those of others, as well as for Scotland's decision-makers to take a human rights-based approach to ensure that young people's voices are at the heart of decisions affecting them; notes the policy call in the campaign for the Scottish Government to incorporate the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child into Scots law, and further notes the calls for the Scottish Government, during 2018, the Year of Young People, to give a firm commitment of its intention to incorporate the convention into Scots law during the current parliamentary session.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-10265 Clare Haughey: South Lanarkshire Council Named Best Care Home Provider in Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates South Lanarkshire Council on being named the best care home provider in Scotland in a recent Which? report; notes that the consumer group published a report into the quality of both private and local authority-run care homes based on Care Inspectorate data, and that South Lanarkshire Council came out on top as the best provider in the sector, and congratulates all staff involved in providing such a high-quality service.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Joan McAlpine*

S5M-10264 Emma Harper: Mason Kidd, Youngest Ever Nominee for the Burns Humanitarian Award—That the Parliament congratulates Mason Kidd, who is aged 12 and from Cumnock, on being nominated for the Burns Humanitarian Award 2017; notes that Mason is the youngest-ever nominee for the globally respected honour, which is given annually to a group or individual that has shown selflessness and dedication in a bid to save, enrich and improve the lives of others through the protection and promotion of human rights and work to deliver social reform; understands that Mason, who has many barriers, including autism and tourette's, was nominated because of acts of kindness to others with the goal to make people smile, and wishes him and all finalists the best for the future.

S5M-10263 Alison Harris: Larbert Pupils Given Blue Peter Book Role—That the Parliament congratulates Kinnaird Primary School in Larbert, which has been chosen as Scotland's sole representative on this year's Blue Peter Book Awards judging panel; understands that youngsters at the school were among 200 pupils from just 12 UK schools selected to read and review children's stories published in the last 12 months; further understands that the P6 and P7 classes will analyse six shortlisted titles, three fiction and three non-fiction, before placing their final votes in the Best Story and Best Book with Facts categories, and notes that the winners of the event will be announced during a live Blue Peter on World Book Day.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Jeremy Balfour*, Dean Lockhart*, Jamie Greene*, Ruth Maguire*, Maurice Corry*, Murdo Fraser*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Alexander Stewart*, Tom Mason*, Bill Bowman*, Bill Kidd*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-10262 Maurice Golden: Houston Primary School Gardening Club Funding Award—That the Parliament congratulates Houston Primary School on receiving a grant of up to £1,000 from the Aviva Community Fund, which will be used to support the school's gardening club through the construction of a wooden framed greenhouse; understands that the gardening club offers a range of activities, including planting, tending and harvesting, as well as cooking and eating the produce, and that it also enhances the school grounds with bulbs and flowers; welcomes the contribution of seven volunteers who help the school staff in running the local gardening club; acknowledges the important role that the club plays in encouraging intergenerational dialogue between school children and volunteers that are of "grandparent" age, and wishes them well as they expand their future gardening endeavours.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Liz Smith*, Ruth Maguire*, Murdo Fraser*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Alexander Stewart*, Tom Mason*, Bill Bowman*, Bill Kidd*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Alison Harris*

S5M-10261 Christina McKelvie: Recognising LGBT History Month—That the Parliament recognises that 1 February 2018 marks the beginning of LGBT History Month; considers that the LGBT community has a rich, diverse and colourful history, which should be celebrated and highlighted; reiterates its wholehearted support for LGBT people in Scotland and continuing progress towards LGBT equality; welcomes the contributions of organisations and groups across Scotland that are marking LGBT History Month; understands that LGBT history is not taught or discussed in many schools across Scotland; endorses the aims of the TIE Campaign in addressing this, and recognises that TIE will be highlighting notable LGBT figures throughout the month on social media in order to encourage teachers to discuss their contributions and legacies with young people.

Supported by: James Dornan*, David Torrance*, Ivan McKee*, Patrick Harvie*, Ruth Maguire*, Clare Haughey*, Emma Harper*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-10260 Michelle Ballantyne: Holy Trinity Church, Melrose, Rewarded for Environmental Efforts—That the Parliament congratulates Holy Trinity Church, Melrose, on becoming one of the first in the Borders to be presented with a silver award by Eco-Congregation Scotland; understands that, over the last year, the parishioners have worked hard to meet the new criteria set by these awards across 11 areas, including active participation by members, care for creation being reflected regularly in worship and involvement in community network events, and commends the church's commitment to the environment and a greener borders through its establishment of a wildlife garden in its grounds and by encouraging its members to compost and recycle at home.

Supported by: Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Stuart McMillan*, Ruth Maguire*, Margaret Mitchell*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alison Harris*, Bill Bowman*, Tom Mason*, Edward Mountain*, David Torrance*, Murdo Fraser*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-10259 Gordon MacDonald: Currie High to Premiere Fairtrade Foundation Film—That the Parliament congratulates and commends the efforts of the Edinburgh Fairtrade City Steering Group, which has been working with Currie Community High School and Koolskools to premiere a film by the Fairtrade Foundation regarding the new fairtrade textiles standard; understands that all of Edinburgh's secondary schools will be invited to send representatives to the showing; commends the fairtrade school uniform maker, Koolskools, which will organise a presentation to discuss the film, and understands that Koolskools has recorded Edinburgh as having the biggest take-up of fairtrade school uniforms of any city of the UK.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, James Dornan*, Graeme Dey*, Joan McAlpine*, Ruth Maguire*, Jeremy Balfour*, Stewart Stevenson*, Miles Briggs*

S5M-10258 Alexander Stewart: Alva Man Leading Campaign in the Awareness of Atrial Fibrillation in Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Ivan Williams from Alva is urging people to get checked for a rare heart condition after he said he was "freed" from the condition following his diagnosis; understands that Ivan participated in a groundbreaking inquiry by the Parliament's cross-party group on heart disease and stroke into atrial fibrillation (AF), which eventually led to the release of crucial research by the British Heart Foundation in January 2018; believes that the report considers that people in Scotland with AF who are currently undiagnosed must be identified and that there should be clear and consistent clinical pathways to optimise their treatment and management; notes that it also made 10 recommendations to the Scottish Government; believes that Ivan, who is 70, was diagnosed in 2014, but that he had lived much longer without knowing that he had the condition; understands that Ivan has expressed relief at being diagnosed so that he can get on with his life without worrying about what may be wrong; thanks him for raising the profile of the condition through his own experience and highlighting the risks if symptoms of the condition go undiagnosed and untreated; believes that AF is one of the most common types of irregular heart rhythm and that those with the condition are at a five-fold increased risk of having a stroke, which can have a devastating impact on individuals and families and be fatal; is concerned that over 96,000 people in Scotland have been diagnosed with AF, with around 145,000 people, 2.6% of the Scottish population, estimated to have the condition, and is concerned therefore that nearly 50,000 people are living undiagnosed and missing the opportunity to reduce their stroke risk through appropriate treatment. R

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Liz Smith*, Alison Harris*, Stuart McMillan*, Ruth Maguire*, Margaret Mitchell*, Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Bowman*, Tom Mason*, David Torrance*, Murdo Fraser*, Peter Chapman*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-10257 Maurice Golden: Aidan McHugh—That the Parliament congratulates Aidan McHugh from Bearsden on making it to the semi-final of the Australian Junior Open; understands that this was his first tennis Grand Slam semi-final; recognises the determination and hard work necessary to get to this point, and wishes him continued success throughout his preparations for the Futures tour and other upcoming tennis tournaments.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*, Peter Chapman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Tom Mason*, Alison Harris*, Jeremy Balfour*, Stuart McMillan*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Miles Briggs*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Pauline McNeill*, Bill Bowman*, David Torrance*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-10256 Jackson Carlaw: NHS England Mesh Audit—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement from NHS England of a review of all mesh operations in England from 2005; thanks the All Party Group in Westminster for its work in pushing for a full analysis of the mesh complication rate; considers that the Scottish Government has systematically failed mesh victims through its inaction in the face of mounting evidence of significant complication rates; thanks Alex Neil MSP for his willingness as Cabinet Secretary for Health and Sport to stand up for mesh victims, including Eastwood resident, Elaine Holmes; believes that the Scottish Government must review its advice on the use of mesh, in light of the NHS England audit, and pays tribute to the Scottish Mesh Survivors, including Elaine Holmes and Olive McIroy, for becoming the public face of this campaign and their support for men and women suffering from mesh complications.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Stewart*, Peter Chapman*, Miles Briggs*, Rachael Hamilton*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alison Harris*, Bill Bowman*, Liz Smith*, Donald Cameron*

S5M-10255 Maurice Golden: Funding Award for Include Me 2 Club Junior Youth Club—That the Parliament congratulates the Include Me 2 Club SCIO, based in Barrhead, on being awarded £4,000 from the Tesco Bags of Help community grant scheme; is pleased to note that the award was made based on the votes of the local community; understands that the funding will support the development of the organisation's 0-12 Junior Youth Club for children with additional support needs through the creation of a programme of activities and the purchase of mobile sensory equipment, supporting volunteers with training, new uniforms and expenses and helping with venue hire costs, and wishes the Include Me 2 Club SCIO continued success in supporting the community in East Renfrewshire.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Ruth Maguire*, Alison Harris*, Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Bowman*, Edward Mountain*, Tom Mason*, David Torrance*, Murdo Fraser*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-10254 Bill Kidd: Doomsday Clock—That the Parliament is concerned that the Bulletin of Atomic Scientists has moved the Doomsday clock forward to only 2 minutes to midnight; considers that it is the actions of the nuclear states that bring the clock ever closer to midnight; further considers that there is no such thing as a "limited" strike when it comes to nuclear weapons; agrees that the long-term consequences of any nuclear strike will be devastating, and believes that any use of nuclear weapons must be continually opposed by all.

Supported by: Ash Denham*, James Dornan*, Ruth Maguire*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*, Ivan McKee*, Elaine Smith*, Clare Haughey*, Claudia Beamish*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Stewart Stevenson*, John Mason*

S5M-10253 Bill Kidd: Recognising the UN Olympic Truce Resolution and PeaceJam—That the Parliament supports the UN Olympic Truce Resolution, which advocates for the concept of "ekecheiria", which historically is the cessation of hostilities for the week before and after the Olympic games; recognises that this resolution promotes "building a peaceful and better world through sport and the Olympic Ideal"; notes that the PeaceJam Greece Youth Leadership Conference in Athens, an international organisation that provides Nobel Peace Prize Laureates a medium to teach today's youth the "art of peace" will promote and support this resolution, and congratulates PeaceJam Greece on having more than 400 participants at their 2018 conference.

S5M-10252 Annie Wells: Glasgow's Helping Heroes—That the Parliament recognises and values the work undertaken by Glasgow's Helping Heroes in providing Armed Forces personnel, veterans, their families and carers in Glasgow with access to, and support from, organisations across health, housing, social care, employability, financial services and specialist Armed Forces agencies to address any issue that affects them; notes that Glasgow's Helping Heroes was established in 2010 through funding from Glasgow City Council and that its staff are employed and managed by SSAFA, which is Britain's oldest military charity providing a one-stop service that aims to improve access to, and co-ordination of, advice and support for services personnel; further notes that, since its inception, Glasgow's Helping Heroes staff have provided support, advice and assistance to over 1,800 clients presenting with a multiplicity of issues, often complex and life threatening; acknowledges that its staff are SSAFA trained case workers and in the unique position of having access to all of the services charities, which enables clients to be supported in circumstances that require financial assistance; understands that the charity recently relocated to the Pearce Institute on Govan Road and will continue to provide a single point of contact gateway model, which will improve local access to a range of services, including financial, housing and employability advice, for its users, and believes that the service will embed the model into local provision, giving confidence and sustainability over the longer term while also raising awareness and understanding of issues affecting services personnel, veterans, their families and carers.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Liz Smith*, Margaret Mitchell*, Bill Bowman*, Bill Kidd*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Ruth Maguire*, Jeremy Balfour*, James Kelly*, Murdo Fraser*, Alison Harris*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-10251 Ivan McKee: Palestinian Residents' Health at Risk—That the Parliament expresses deep concern regarding the reported allegations raised by the human rights organisation, B'Tselem, that Palestinian land in the West Bank is being used for the treatment of Israeli waste, including hazardous waste; believes that Israel is using the occupation of the Palestinian territories to deny the Palestinian people dignity and is putting Palestinian residents' health at risk; understands that the exploitation of the occupied territories is illegal under international law, and calls for an immediate end to what it considers this unjust practice and for steps to be taken to prevent waste treatment facilities being operated by Israel in the occupied Palestinian territories.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Clare Haughey*, Sandra White*, Ash Denham*, Gordon MacDonald*, Clare Adamson*, David Torrance*, Alex Rowley*

S5M-10250 Ivan McKee: Funding Cut to UN Relief and Works Agency—That the Parliament is appalled by the reported announcement by the United States Government that it is to cut its funding for the UN Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA) by more than half; believes that this decision threatens the security of millions of Palestinian refugees, including those in need of emergency food assistance and other support in Jordan, Lebanon, Syria, the West Bank and Gaza; is concerned that this will also impact on Palestinian refugees' access to primary health care and the right to education of 525,000 boys and girls in 700 UNRWA schools, and calls on the UK Government to reaffirm the UK's support for UNRWA, to ask the UN Secretary General to convene a special conference to develop new funding alliances to secure the future of UNRWA, to urgently make representations to the World Bank and IDB Trust Fund to consider the case for supporting UNRWA, and to promote the public appeal for funds that UNRWA has launched.

S5M-10247 Bill Bowman: Coffee & Co—That the Parliament congratulates the staff at Coffee & Co, on Dundee's Reform Street, who raised £1,000 for Children's Hospices Association Scotland (CHAS); understands that the staff did this through donating their hard-earned tips, and thanks them for their hard work.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alexander Stewart*, Liz Smith*, Tom Mason*, Ruth Maguire*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Finlay Carson*, Edward Mountain*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Kidd*, Murdo Fraser*, Clare Adamson*, Rachael Hamilton*, Alison Harris*, David Torrance*, Liam Kerr*

S5M-10246 Maurice Corry: Backpack Donations by Lomond School in Helensburgh—That Parliament congratulates Lomond School in Helensburgh on collecting almost 100 filled backpacks to donate to the charity, Mary's Meals; understands that this campaign, which is in its second year, is run through the school's S3 business management class; acknowledges the learning experience the students had by implementing theory from the classroom into practice; recognises their valuable contribution toward addressing child poverty, and wishes them much success in future projects.

S5M-10245 Maurice Corry: Maid of the Loch Campaign Raises £87,000 for Steam

Boiler—That Parliament congratulates the Maid of the Loch campaign on raising £87,000 for a new steam boiler for the UK's last paddle steamship; understands that the campaign also involved an amnesty appeal to find parts of the paddle steamer that went missing in 1981 and notes in particular the contribution of John Beveridge, Chair of the Loch Lomond Steamship Company, in gathering donations from more than 400 people across the world.

S5M-10240 Mairi Gougeon: Drugs Initiative Group Receives £9,777 from Scotch Whisky Action Fund—That the Parliament congratulates the Drugs Initiative Group, which will receive £9,777 from the Scotch Whisky Action Fund to provide a young persons' education and support project for those aged 10 to 18 who are affected by family alcohol abuse or are at risk of becoming dependent on alcohol; acknowledges that the recipients will be provided with one-to-one and group support twice-weekly to educate them about the risks and dangers of consuming too much alcohol, help them reduce their own alcohol consumption and to reduce the isolation that they may feel as a result of their own, or their family members', drinking; understands that around 35 young people will benefit from the project, and recognises that the Scotch Whisky Action Fund has awarded £180,000 in 2018 to projects working to reduce harm in Scotland and address alcohol misuse and promoting responsible drinking.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Gail Ross*, Clare Adamson*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-10239 Stuart McMillan: Inverclyde Young People Travel to Brazil to Train in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu—That the Parliament recognises the athleticism of two young people from Inverclyde, Dean Elliot and Michaela Steele, and their coach, Chris Carmichael, who travelled to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, to further train in Brazilian Jiu Jitsu at GFTeam's headquarters with the team founder, Master Julio Cesar Pereira; notes that training at the gym is notoriously tough and gruelling; recognises that Dean and Michaela had various highs and lows during their training in Brazil, but represented Scotland and the Inverclyde area well; understands that Chris runs various classes in Greenock at the Chris Carmichael Mixed Martial Arts Academy, and wishes Dean, Michaela and Chris continued success and the best of luck in the future.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Clare Haughey*, Clare Adamson*, David Torrance*

S5M-10236 Neil Findlay: UNITE Drop-in Sessions For Carillon Workers—That the Parliament welcomes the actions of UNITE the Union, which is holding drop-in sessions at its offices in Glasgow, Edinburgh, Dundee, Aberdeen and Ayr on 2 February 2018 for workers who have been affected by the collapse of construction company, Carillon, and urges all Members to promote these to their constituents.

Supported by: Lewis Macdonald*, Clare Adamson*, David Torrance*, Alex Rowley*

S5M-10229 Liam Kerr: Congratulating North East Division Police Officers—That the Parliament condemns the actions of Mark Simpson, Steven Vidgen and Lee Wallace who were jailed for more than 20 years for dealing heroin and cocaine in Aberdeen; understands that the men were found with more than £100,000-worth of Class A drugs when the police raided a property, found the men, and arrested them; recognises and commends the actions of the local police officers who conducted a covert surveillance operation on the men selling drugs at a city park, close to families enjoying the park with children playing; acknowledges the importance of tackling and prosecuting those who bring harmful drugs into local communities; considers that the streets of the north east are now safer with the men in prison and the drugs removed, and believes that this case acts as an example to deter future potential drug dealers.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Neil Bibby: Proposed Tied Pubs (Code and Adjudicator) (Scotland) Bill— Proposal for a Bill to establish a Pubs Code in Scotland to govern the relationship between tenants of tied pubs and their owners, and an Adjudicator to enforce the code (lodged 9 January 2018)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
