Ombudsman, the Scottish Human Rights Commission and the Children and Young People's Commissioner Scotland; understands that the SPCB began scoping new locations outside of central Edinburgh in October 2017 with a view to them being in a new location by September 2018; considers that these plans might be detrimental to some of the workers involved; believes that union officials and staff have raised concerns both about the strategy and how the SPCB has handled their worries; understands that, despite the PCS being a recognised union for workers in the three organisations, it has been denied what it believes should be reasonable and appropriate consultation by the SPCB, which is the decision-making body with legislative authority to direct the organisations to move; understands that the union has asked for a consultation to be carried out regarding the impact of the proposals on staff, and considers this to be a reasonable request under the Fair Work Framework.

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.
