S5M-13044 Kenneth Gibson: 290th Anniversary of the Birth of Robert Adam—That the Parliament recognises that 3 July 2018 will be the 290th anniversary of the birth of the renowned Scottish neoclassical architect, interior designer and furniture designer, Robert Adam; understands that Adam spent nearly five years in Italy studying architecture under masters, Charles-Louis Clérisseau and Giovanni Battista Piranesi, before establishing his own architecture firm in London where he developed the famous Adam style and the theory of movement in architecture; notes that Adam's first new-build home was Dumfries House, which was built 1750s for William Dalrymple, 5th Earl of Dumfries, which was reopened in 2008 to be used for public tours and for promoting education and employment in Ayrshire; considers that other notable works by Adam include Fort George near Inverness, the Royal Exchange in Edinburgh, as well as significant parts of Culzean Castle and Dalquharran Castle in South Ayrshire, and believes that Robert Adam's influence in the first phase of the classical revival in Scotland and England was instrumental in the development of Western architecture, both in Europe and in North America.

S5M-13043 Alasdair Allan: Donald Stewart Memorial Trust Award—That the Parliament congratulates Anil Thapa, a sixth year pupil at the Nicolson Institute, on winning the 2018 Donald Stewart Memorial Trust Award; recognises Anil's dedication to academic attainment and voluntary work within both his school and the community; acknowledges that he has won two medals representing Scotland at the World Shotokan Karate Championship; further acknowledges that he was selected as Lord Lieutenant's cadet of the Western Isles, an award given to an outstanding cadet from across the three cadet forces; recognises that Anil has achieved all of this having arrived in the Isle of Lewis from Nepal at the age of eight and only knowing one phrase of English; notes that the Donald Stewart Memorial Trust was established to commemorate the outstanding work of the late MP for the Western Isles, Donald Stewart, and makes an annual award to an individual fifth or sixth year pupil from any of the secondary schools in the Western Isles for outstanding achievement, and extends its best wishes to Anil as he prepares for university.

S5M-13042 Fulton MacGregor: Coatdyke Primary School—That the Parliament notes that 30 June 2018 marks the 30th anniversary since Coatdyke Primary School in Coatbridge closed its doors for the final time; acknowledges the efforts at the time of parents, pupils, teachers and activists to save the school, which included a demonstration at the UK Parliament in London and meetings with MPs and government officials, which were ultimately unsuccessful and resulted in pupils being relocated to Greenhill and Rochsolloch primary schools; praises the community spirit at the time in trying to save the school, and acknowledges the extremely important role that it considers schools play in communities across the country.

S5M-13041 Gordon MacDonald: Kids Love Clothes—That the Parliament congratulates Fiona Shapcott, founder of Kids Love Clothes, on winning the Charity Champion award at the SCVO Scottish Charity Awards 2018; notes that the awards took place at the Edinburgh International Conference Centre on 14 June 2018; appreciates that this annual awards ceremony recognises the life-changing difference that charities and individuals from across Scotland make; recognises that the charity was set up by Fiona in 2009 in a farm unit in Ratho, which now runs with the help of 100 volunteers; further recognises that Kids Love Clothes co-ordinates clothing donations that are then selected, ironed and packaged as full wardrobe sets for child referrals identified by health visitors and other charities in Edinburgh and the Lothians; thanks Fiona and all of the volunteers for their efforts, which it understands has provided clothing for over 5,500 children to date and 1,864 children in the last year alone, and appreciates the ethos of Kids Love Clothes in focusing on the dignity and respect of the children and families involved by ensuring that the clothes are given as gifts rather than as charity.

S5M-13040 Annabelle Ewing: Lochgelly's Annual Senior Citizens' Summer Event —That the Parliament congratulates the Lochgelly Re-union Committee on the success of its annual senior citizens' summer event, which was held on 20 June 2018; notes that over 100 senior citizens enjoyed the day out and a meal provided afterwards at Lochgelly Town Hall; further notes that the event was largely funded by donations from local businesses; appreciates the importance of such events in providing older people with the opportunity to meet old and new friends; commends the organisers and funders of the event, and wishes them success in organising their winter event later this year.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-13038 Neil Findlay: Victory Over Zero-Hours Contracts—That the Parliament welcomes the news that a bar worker on a zero-hours contract in Inverness has won a legal dispute with his former employers in relation to last-minute shift cancellations; considers that many workers on such contracts have to suffer from shifts being cancelled at the last minute, preventing them from finding any other work to recoup lost wages; congratulates the campaign group, Better Than Zero, on backing the worker's case against the local bar, and hopes that this case will serve as an example going forward to all employers who use exploitative employment practices to stop using zero-hours contracts.

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.
