Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-13175 Alasdair Allan: 60th Anniversary of Lewis Crofters Ltd—That the Parliament congratulates the Stornoway-based business, Lewis Crofters Ltd, on celebrating its 60th anniversary; notes that the business was formed in 1958 as a crofters co-operative by a group of islanders to buy-in agricultural supplies and livestock feed at a fairer price; notes that the company has developed and expanded over the years to become one of the island's busiest stores; recognises the important service that it provides to the local crofting industry, and wishes it the best for the future.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Gillian Martin*

S5M-13174 Michelle Ballantyne: Newbattle Community Education Centre Funding Award—That the Parliament congratulates Newbattle Community Education Centre on its award of £6,000 from the Big Lottery Fund; understands that the group will use the funding to buy equipment for the wide range of community groups and clubs that are based in the centre; recognises that the centre works in partnership with Midlothian Council's Lifelong Learning and Employability Centre, providing adult learning and youth work, particularly for young people not in education and training, and wishes the centre and everyone involved all the best for the future.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Maurice Corry*, Liz Smith*

S5M-13173 Michelle Ballantyne: Peebles Old Parish Church Funding Award—That the Parliament congratulates Peebles Old Parish Church of Scotland on receiving an award of £6,500 from Creative Scotland; understands that the church will use the funding to start a weekly crafts club for people in the parish who either have, or who are caring for people with, memory loss and dementia, and wishes the church group the best with the new initiative.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Maurice Corry*

S5M-13172 Michelle Ballantyne: Lauderdale Scout Group Funding Award—That the Parliament congratulates Lauderdale Scout Group on its award of £9,760 from the Big Lottery Fund; understands that the group will use the money to carry out refurbishment works to its scout hall, improving the space for wider community use, and wishes the group the best for the future.

headquarters in Westhill, Aberdeen; notes that this could create up to 1,000 jobs in the UK and has the potential to bring a significant boost to the local economy, and looks forward to the work that the group will bring to Aberdeen, Scotland and the UK.

Supported by: Peter Chapman*, Maurice Corry*, Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alison Harris*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Liz Smith*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-13143 Annabelle Ewing: Second Phase of Regeneration for Inverkeithing's Fraser Avenue—That the Parliament welcomes the second phase of the ambitious plans to regenerate Inverkeithing's Fraser Avenue; understands that Fraser Avenue was originally built in the 1950s and 1960s but, in recent decades, has experienced dilapidation with low demand and high turnover rates; recognises that the first phase of redevelopment work, supported by £4 million from the Scottish Government, began on the estate in December 2016 and is expected to provide 53 homes; understands that the second phase will see 61 new homes built at a cost of around £8.9 million, and commends Kingdom Housing Association and Fife Council for their efforts in ensuring public participation in the project, and for their commitment to regenerating the estate with well designed, high-quality housing and amenities.

S5M-13142 Annabelle Ewing: Lidl and B&M to Move to Cowdenbeath—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the retailers, Lidl and B&M, are set to open stores in Cowdenbeath at the former North End Park site; understands that this is as a result of their ambitious plans for expansion in Scotland; notes that this represents an investment of more than £8.5 million in the town and that approximately 80 jobs are expected to be created as a result, and considers that this news is evidence that Cowdenbeath is an attractive place to invest that offers an ideal location for new and growing businesses.

S5M-13140 Annabelle Ewing: Kelty Gala Day—That the Parliament welcomes the success of Kelty Gala 2018, which was held on 30 June; notes that the event attracted record crowds and possibly the longest ever parade; understands that crowds enjoyed great weather and were entertained by dynamic dancing, a samba band and piping, as well as the presentation of community awards; commends the organisers for planning and delivering such a memorable and family-friendly event, and wishes them every success in organising future events.

S5M-13139 Liam Kerr: The Bay Fish & Chips, Stonehaven—That the Parliament congratulates The Bay Fish & Chips in Stonehaven on being recognised by the Sustainable Restaurant Association as one of the 10 most sustainable restaurants in the UK; understands that The Bay was opened in 2006 by the owner, Calum Richardson, and has always had a strong focus on quality and sustainability; notes that all of its fish are caught in the North Sea from stocks that are fully sustainable according to the Marine Conservation Society; further notes that the restaurant makes an effort to incorporate underused fish species, such as Coley, into its recipes; recognises that you can use the restaurant's mobile app to see which boat your fish was caught from and which farm grew your potatoes; commends The Bay for its dedication to sustainability, and wishes it continued success for the future.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Alison Harris*, Margaret Mitchell*, Maurice Corry*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-13138 Annie Wells: Springburn Parish Church Dementia Friendly Award—That the Parliament congratulates the volunteer team at Springburn Parish Church in Glasgow, which has been shortlisted for Scotland's Best Dementia Friendly Community Initiative award; understands that the organisers of Scotland's Dementia Awards were impressed by the volunteers Musical

Memories group, which aims to stimulate people with dementia in the local area; acknowledges that the team will not know the outcome of this shortlisting until the presentation ceremony on 20 September 2018, and congratulates everyone involved on reaching the shortlist of three from 60 submissions in this prestigious event for the second year running.

S5M-13137 Michelle Ballantyne: Borders Tennis Centre Gains LPDC Status—That the Parliament congratulates Borders Tennis Centre (BTC) in Galashiels, which has been designated as a Local Player Development Centre (LPDC) by the Lawn Tennis Association; understands that BTC is one of only five centres in Scotland, and 50 in the UK, that will act as an LPDC; notes that the creation of LPDCs marks the next milestone in the development of a new 10-year strategy for tennis in Britain, creating a new player pathway designed to enable the best UK players to train and compete against each other regularly, and wishes BTC every success as it enjoys its new status as an LPDC.

Supported by: Edward Mountain*, Tom Mason*, Annie Wells*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alexander Stewart*, Alison Harris*

S5M-13136 Alison Johnstone: Impact of Air Pollution on Respiratory Hospital Admissions—That the Parliament acknowledges the findings of research led by Professor James Chalmers at the University of Dundee, which states that air pollution is clearly linked to an increase in respiratory hospital admissions and GP visits for people with bronchiectasis in Dundee, Perth and surrounding areas; understands that the problem is particularly severe in areas where heavy traffic contributes to air pollution, and that even a modest reduction in air pollution could have prevented nearly 1,000 hospital admissions and GP visits during the study period, and agrees that failure to tackle air pollution is having a major impact on the health of people with lung problems.

Supported by: Andy Wightman*

S5M-13135 Alexander Stewart: Expansion News for Inglewood House in Alloa—That the Parliament congratulates the luxury Clackmannanshire hotel, Inglewood House, in Alloa on being the runner-up in the Luxury Spa of the Year category at 2018's Scottish Beauty Industry Awards; welcomes the news that it is expanding with the addition of woodland pods, a number of luxury lodges and the expansion of the hotel kitchens; further welcomes that the expansion will lead to the creation of a number of additional jobs, which will add to the 45 that have already been created, and wishes all concerned continued success for the future.

Supported by: Annie Wells*, Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, James Dornan*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Alison Harris*

S5M-13134 Alexander Stewart: Funding for Breath Easy Clackmannanshire—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Breath Easy Clackmannanshire has received funding through a major community bursary scheme; understands that the group, which offers support, advice and friendship to people of all ages who are living with all forms of idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease, has been awarded £300 by the property management company, Ross and Liddell; notes that the bursary funding will be used to buy materials for speaker sessions and activities, which are held every month at St Mungo's RC Church Hall, and wishes the group continued success for the future.

S5M-13097 Angus MacDonald: Falkirk's Callendar House Named Tourist Attraction of the Year—That the Parliament welcomes Callendar House in Falkirk being named Tourist Attraction of the Year at the recent Scottish Hospitality Awards; understands that the award was achieved by Callendar House due to its high standards and customer service; notes that the 4-star visitor attraction was up against the Royal Yacht Britannia, the Royal Botanic Gardens in Edinburgh and Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum; recognises that this award was earned by the hard work and dedication of the staff and management at the attraction, which is surrounded by Callendar Park and Forest; notes that the 14th century chateau-styled house boasts a working Georgian kitchen, visitor tea room and children's play park, which are set in the nationally important historic landscape of Callendar Park, which contains a section of the Roman Antonine Wall, which is a UNESCO World Heritage site; notes the contribution that Falkirk district makes to Scotland's tourism industry, which it considers is the jewel in the crown of Scotland's economy, with people from across the world choosing to visit and spend time and money learning about the culture, heritage and diversity; recognises the hard work put in by the team at Callendar House in winning this award, and looks forward to its continued successes in the future.

S5M-13095 Ruth Maguire: Commending Irvine Royal Academy on Raising Funds for a Life-changing Operation—That the Parliament commends the pupils of Irvine Royal Academy for their outstanding efforts in raising funds to help pay for the surgery of the Woodlands Primary School pupil, Jackson Waddell; understands that, through fundraising events such as ice cream sales, a pupils versus teachers football match, a film session, and even a nail bar, the school's pupils raised an impressive £1,049.28; appreciates that the money raised by Irvine Royal contributed to an impressive sum of £75,000 raised across the local community to help with Jackson's recent surgery costs in the United States to treat his cerebral palsy, and wishes Jackson and his family all the very best for the future.

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
