Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-12535 Claudia Beamish: Co-operatives Fortnight—That the Parliament notes that Co-operatives Fortnight takes place from 23 June to 7 July 2018; further notes the contribution of the co-operative sector to the economies of South Scotland and wider Scotland; considers that more and more people are recognising that ownership matters and that co-operatives can operate in every sector of the economy; commends the work of Co-operative Development Scotland; notes calls for the Scottish Government and local authorities to promote the co-operative model, and wishes all those marking Co-operatives Fortnight well, particularly those celebrating the difference that co-operatives make.

S5M-12516 Adam Tomkins: Welcome to Glasgow, a World City of Music—That the Parliament notes the recommendations of the report, Growing the Value for Music Tourism in Glasgow, which was jointly commissioned by Scottish Enterprise and Glasgow Life; understands that the total value of live music attendance to the city's economy is estimated at almost £160 million, sustaining more than 1,000 jobs, and that there are rich opportunities for growth in this area; recognises the wealth of Glasgow's musical culture, what it sees as its huge number of internationally successful home-grown bands and its music festivals, including Celtic Connections and the Merchant City Festival; believes that it has an unrivalled range of music venues, from large arenas such as the SSE Hydro and the Glasgow Royal Concert Hall to grassroots venues, including King Tuts Wah Wah Hut, Òran Mór, Stereo and Mono; notes the view that, in order to safeguard the future of music venues across the city, serious consideration should be given to putting the so-called agent of change principle on a statutory footing; acknowledges the report's conclusion that, while music tourism already makes a significant contribution to the city's economy, much more could be done to promote the its music scene both at home and abroad to boost overall tourism, and notes the view that all stakeholders should capitalise on Glasgow's UNESCO World City of Music status and work collaboratively to maximise the enormous potential of the city's existing assets to attract more music tourists.

S5M-12521 Adam Tomkins: Opportunities for Scottish Fisheries Afforded by Brexit—That the Parliament notes the reported recent comments by the Scottish Fishermen's Federation (SFF) and the National Federation of Fishermen's Organisations (NFFO) that, after the UK leaves the EU, and at the end of the transition period in December 2020, the UK will have the status in international law of being an independent coastal state, with rights and responsibilities to manage the fisheries under its jurisdiction within its exclusive zone; notes further the joint statement of the SFF and NFFO that "the EU's stated preference for a free trade deal in return for access to fish in UK waters and quota shares is an ... attempt to maintain the current unbalanced arrangement which results in 60% of the UK's natural fish resources being given away"; understands that, although withdrawal from the EU will have a number of challenges, it will afford Scotland a series of unprecedented opportunities, including exit from the common fisheries policy, and urges the Scottish Government to work co-operatively with the UK Government to ensure that the opportunities afforded by Brexit are maximised in the interests of everyone who lives and works in Scotland.

S5M-12487 Bill Kidd: Congratulating Christopher Gray and Well-Fed (Scotland) CIC—That the Parliament congratulates Christopher Gray on being awarded £25,000 by the Social Entrepreneurs Fund; understands that this award will help Christopher grow his enterprise, Well-Fed (Scotland) CIC, a cafe that offers low-cost home-cooked food to local people and provides catering, as well as a subsidised takeaway and home delivery service; considers that Well-Fed provides an important service to people in Glasgow, and wishes Christopher and all who work at Well-Fed all the best in their future endeavours.

S5M-12485 Bill Kidd: The Dream Turns 18—That the Parliament congratulates the Symphony of Dreams charitable trust on turning 18 on 17 May 2018; commends the charity for bringing music lessons and instruments to hospitals, hospices and schools and endeavouring to bring music into the lives of those who are disadvantaged; further congratulates the founder of this wonderful charity, L A McConnell, on being appointed an MBE in June 2017, and the charity on winning The Queen's Jubilee Award for Voluntary Services in 2013, and wishes the Symphony of Dreams charitable trust all the best in its future endeavours.

S5M-12461 Ross Greer: Gilberto Gil and the Cultural Boycott of Israel—That the Parliament welcomes the reported decision by the Grammy award-winning Brazilian artist and former government minister, Gilberto Gil, to cancel his planned performance in Israel in protest against the Israeli military's recent killing of Palestinian protesters; understands that this decision has been made as part of the broader campaign, Boycott, Divest, and Sanction, which has called on musicians and other artists to engage in a cultural boycott of Israel until it ceases to occupy the Palestinian territories; welcomes the many artists and groups that have joined the boycott since the reported killing of 60 Palestinian protesters in Gaza on 14 May 2018, including, it understands, the bands, Portishead, Wolf Alice and Slaves; notes that they have joined a cultural boycott movement whose notable participants include Brian Eno, Roger Waters and Ken Loach, and calls on artists and musicians across the world to boycott playing in Israel until the occupation of Palestine is ended.

Supported by: Mark Ruskell, Alex Rowley, Claudia Beamish, Ruth Maguire*

S5M-12461.1 Jackson Carlaw: Gilberto Gil and the Cultural Boycott of Israel—As an amendment to motion S5M-12461 in the name of Ross Greer (Gilberto Gil and the Cultural Boycott of Israel), leave out from first "welcomes" to end and insert "believes that the Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions (BDS) campaign actively seeks to delegitimise the democratic state of Israel through demonisation, as opposed to criticism; understands that even the Palestinian Authority President, Mahmoud Abbas, has publicly stated his opposition to boycotts of Israel; believes that the BDS campaign has very little interest in peace, having formally rejected a two-state solution; considers that its support for a cultural boycott runs contrary to the positive work of organisations such as The Peres Center for Peace, which, among other positions, advocates utilising sport to bring Palestinian and Israeli youth together to create a proper environment for peace, and ultimately believes that only with the support for academic, cultural and trade links between Israel and the Palestinian Authority can an environment for peace be achieved."

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
