Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-12545 Maurice Corry: Orkambi—That the Parliament understands that cystic fibrosis affects over 900 people in Scotland, including in the West Scotland parliamentary region, and that, in 2016, half of all people who died from the genetic condition were aged under 31; believes that Orkambi, which is manufactured by Vertex Pharmaceuticals and treats the homozygous delf508 mutation, which around 50% of people with in the UK with the condition have, is the second drug to be licensed for use in dealing with cystic fibrosis; notes that the main function of this treatment is to keep a healthy balance of salt and water in the organs, particularly the lungs; believes that, according to 2016 UK Cystic Fibrosis Registry Report, there are 336 people in Scotland who could benefit from having access to this, but that it is not currently available via the NHS, despite, it understands, the Scottish Medicines Consortium noting that it was a beneficial treatment and NICE recognising it as an important treatment; believes that clinical data has shown that the drug is able to slow decline in lung function, which is the main cause of death from the condition, by 42%, and notes the work of all the people and organisations, such as the Cystic Fibrosis Trust, which are campaigning to put pressure on the Scottish Government, the NHS and pharmaceutical companies to ensure that such drugs reach those who need them without delay.

S5M-12553 Gordon Lindhurst: Dementia Awareness Week 2018—That the Parliament recognises Dementia Awareness Week, which will take place between 4 and 10 June 2018; understands that the week will provide an opportunity to raise awareness about dementia and how Scotland responds to the challenges brought about by it; notes that the key theme of the week this year is making sure that nobody faces dementia alone and that people can be supported in their local communities; further recognises the key contributions of groups such as Dementia Friendly Pentlands, a volunteer organisation in the Juniper Green, Currie and Balerno communities of Edinburgh that promotes the interests of people living with dementia and their carers by building safe, supportive, strong and resilient dementia-friendly communities; understands that Alzheimer Scotland is helping communities to deliver awareness events, as well as providing awareness packs, and that people can get involved in conversations around dementia through social media with the hashtag #DementiaAwareness, and thanks all individuals and organisations that will be getting involved in making sure that nobody faces dementia alone.

S5M-12550 Daniel Johnson: Tourist Tax in Edinburgh—That the Parliament congratulates the City of Edinburgh Council on its successful vote to propose a Transient Visitor Levy (TVL), or "tourist tax"; understands that this will be a minor tax placed on tourists visiting the city; believes that over four million tourists visit Edinburgh every year and that the city has one of the most regularly highest occupancy rates for hotels anywhere outside London; welcomes the possibility that the introduction of TVL could raise up to £29 million a year; notes that the money would be used to increase funding to areas where tourism puts pressure on the city's infrastructure; further notes that the vote will now lead to further engagement with visitors, residents and businesses before plans for a formal consultation are put in place, and calls on the Scottish Government to authorise powers to the council to implement this tax.

S5M-12549 Gordon MacDonald: Heriot-Watt University's Year of Robotics—That the Parliament congratulates Heriot-Watt University on being shortlisted for Campaign of the Year title in the Herald Higher Education Awards; understands that the campaign reached more than 25 million people through media coverage, engaged over 13,000 members of the public face-to-face, and hosted over 1,800 school pupils at the university's Edinburgh campus to allow them to enjoy taster sessions and robotic-themed workshops; understands that it also supported several major funding successes, including AI research and innovation and the launch of the ORCA hub, which is a £36 million collaboration between five universities and more than 30 industry partners to develop offshore energy robotics; believes that the campaign helped to communicate Scotland's world-leading expertise in robotics and AI to a global audience, and wishes the university continued success in its work in these fields.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Joan McAlpine*, Neil Findlay*, Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Gordon Lindhurst*

S5M-12548 Graeme Dey: Monifieth High School Raises Funds for MND Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates Monifieth High School on raising £1,000 for MND Scotland at its annual 10k challenge; understands that around 150 runners participated in the event, which took place on 27 May 2018, and that the pupils also baked cakes to raise money for the charity; notes that the money will go to the Euan MacDonald Centre, and welcomes the efforts of this school in raising this fantastic sum.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*

S5M-12547 Stuart McMillan: Award for Grennock-based Documentary, A Family Divided—That the Parliament congratulates the Scotland-based filmmaker, Bianca Barker, on winning the Royal Television Society Scotland's award for Best Director, for the documentary, A Family Divided; notes that the film, which was set in Greenock, made by Steadipix Productions and broadcast originally by BBC Scotland, documents the search made by the Clark family to discover the fate of 17 siblings who were separated for 60 years and the finding of the last of the siblings, and acknowledges the celebratory Clark family gathering, which took place at Greenock Town Hall on 27 May 2018.

S5M-12546 Neil Findlay: The TUC Celebrates its 150th Anniversary—That the Parliament recognises and celebrates the 150th anniversary of the TUC's (Trade Union Congress) formation; understands that the world's first TUC was founded on 2 June 1868 at the headquarters of the Manchester Mechanics' Institute on Princess Street; commends the work and dedication of trade unionists across the UK who contributed to the success and legacy of an institution that it considers has done a great deal to further the economic, social and political interests of working class people; believes the anniversary to be an opportunity to celebrate the proud history of workers' struggles across the UK and beyond and to reach out to a new generation to ensure another 150 years of the TUC, and applauds the organisers of the week-long celebrations to be held at the Mechanics Institute, beginning on 2 June 2018.

S5M-12544 Lewis Macdonald: Double Unicef UK Gold Awards for Aberdeen Schools—That the Parliament congratulates Harlaw Academy and Ferryhill Primary School in Aberdeen on becoming the first secondary and primary schools in Scotland to receive the Gold Award from Unicef UK under its Rights Respecting Schools initiative; understands that Harlaw Academy was commended for its deep and thorough commitment to children's rights at all levels of school life, while encouraging adults, children and young people to respect the rights of others in school, and that Ferryhill Primary School was recognised for the ability of its pupils to consistently apply the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child to their learning; commends the staff and pupils at both school on their achievements, and looks forward to more schools in Aberdeen and across the north east being recognised for their commitment to respecting the rights of children and young people.

S5M-12543 Richard Lochhead: Jimmy Jones's Campaign for an FAI into Tornado Crash—That the Parliament notes the campaign, which is being led by Jimmy Jones, who is a retired RAF engineer, for a Fatal Accident Inquiry (FAI) into the 2012 RAF Tornado crash that took place in the Moray Firth and tragically claimed the lives of three pilots from RAF Lossiemouth; understands that Mr Jones has brought forward new evidence regarding the tragedy and, with the support of the families affected by the crash, has campaigned for a FAI; believes that this campaign highlights that there would be important differences between an FAI and the internal inquiry that was conducted by the Military Aviation Authority (MAA); understands that MAA service inquiries do not involve cross-examination of witnesses in an open and transparent manner in the presence of the general public or affected families; acknowledges that the MAA played an important role in relation to examining the accident but notes what it understands are the calls by Mr Jones, the bereaved families and others, for an FAI to take place; believes that, thanks to the previous campaign by Mr Jones, there would now automatically be an FAI if such an accident took place today; commends the effort and commitment that Mr Jones has shown in his pursuit of an open and transparent FAI into the accident, and recognises the important role that he had in changing the law to ensure that FAIs are now mandatory in Scotland for military deaths.

S5M-12542 Jenny Gilruth: Timmy and Callum Kennedy, Selected for Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates Timmy and Callum Kennedy, who are twins from Glenrothes, on being selected for the Scotland Rugby League U19s team at the European Championships in Belgrade in August 2018; notes that the 18-year-olds have only been playing rugby league for 12 months and have earned call-ups after impressive performances for Edinburgh Eagles and Scotland U19s; recognises that the talented duo will join Scotland rugby training at the beginning of June before the championships and will rely on self-fundraising to help them fulfil their dreams; wishes Timmy and Callum the best of luck with their careers in the sport, and wishes the Scotland U19s team the best of luck at the European Championships.

S5M-12541 Jenny Gilruth: Balbirnie Chef Robbie Penman, Scottish Executive Chef of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates Robbie Penman, who is the head chef at Balbirnie House Hotel, on being named Scottish Executive Chef of the Year at the recent Scottish Food and Drink Awards, which were attended by 120 guest from around the country at the Edinburgh Principal George Street Hotel; notes that this is yet another success for the hotel, which was named as Scotland's 2018 Wedding Hotel of the Year by the Scottish Hotel Awards for a record-breaking 12th consecutive year and awarded a hat-trick of accolades at the prestigious Haute Grandeur Awards in October 2017, at which it was named as Europe's best Function Venue, Romantic and Destination Wedding Hotel, and wishes Robbie the very best with his career and the hotel continued success.

S5M-12532 Anas Sarwar: Sands Awareness Month—That the Parliament recognises that Sands Awareness Month is marked each June to highlight the importance of breaking the silence about baby loss; understands that 15 babies die before, during or shortly after birth every day in the UK; acknowledges that, for many bereaved parents, the pain of their baby dying is made worse when the people around them, healthcare professionals, family, friends, or work colleagues, simply cannot find the words to talk to them about their baby; acknowledges that the 2018 campaign is centred around finding the right words via #FindingTheWords; acknowledges that, at the heart of the #FindingTheWords campaign, is an animation showing a day in the life of a bereaved parent struggling to cope when no-one is able to talk to them about the death of their baby; recognises in particular that the campaign wants employers to find out what they can do to help support bereaved parents who want to return to work, and commends organisations, including Sands, that call on everyone in society to help break the wall of silence around baby loss.

Written questions lodged on 01 June 2018

S5W-16900 Anas Sarwar: To ask the Scottish Government, in the light of the US National comprehensive clinical updated guidelines on using F-18 fluviclovivine (Axumin) in diagnostic imaging in men with recurrent prostate cancer, whether it will recommend that clinicians should consider using Axumin in positronic emission tomography, computed tomography or magnetic resonance imaging in helping to determine the best treatment.

S5W-17010 Colin Smyth: To ask the Scottish Government whether it is considering changes to the system for regulating the use of lead firearm ammunition.

S5W-17011 Colin Smyth: To ask the Scottish Government how it monitors the effectiveness of the Environmental Protection (Restriction on Use of Lead Shot) (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations 2004.

S5W-17012 Colin Smyth: To ask the Scottish Government how many (a) prosecutions and (b) convictions have there been each year for breaches of the Environmental Protection (Restriction on Use of Lead Shot) (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations 2004.

S5W-17013 Colin Smyth: To ask the Scottish Government what analysis it has carried out of the level of compliance with the Environmental Protection (Restriction on the Use of Lead Shot) (Scotland) No. 2) Regulations 2004.

S5W-17015 John Finnie: To ask the Scottish Government for what reason the logos of Highlands and Island Enterprise and VisitScotland were used in an advert in the Press and Journal on 1 June 2018, which reportedly supported a commercial venture that is opposed by Scottish Natural Heritage and has been recommended for refusal by Highland Council planning officials, and whether this was sanctioned at ministerial level.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
