Motions for Debate

S5M-12708 Willie Rennie: Finance and the Constitution—That the Parliament notes the analysis of the Sustainable Growth Commission; further notes the commission's statements on public spending, the volatility of oil revenues, the economic volatility of small countries, Scotland's control over the pound, and the extended period of financial pain, and believes that independence would be damaging for Scotland.

S5M-12706 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Health—That the Parliament believes that there is currently a mental health crisis in Scotland; deeply regrets that, in the two years since the appointment of the first dedicated mental health minister, published measures of services have shown a serious and sustained decline, including worsening waits for children, adolescents and adults requiring treatment; recognises that there is still no new suicide strategy, despite it being over 500 days since the last one expired, and that the mental health strategy that will set the tone for services for a decade was published 15 months late and was widely criticised for its lack of ambition; considers that hard-working staff do not have the resources and support that they require to deliver the service that they would wish, and demands that the Scottish Government publish plans detailing how it will improve performance against key targets and that the next Programme for Government delivers a step change in both ambition for and investment in mental health.

S5M-12690 Angela Constance: Improving the Lives of Scotland's Gypsy/Travellers—That the Parliament welcomes the contribution that Gypsy/Travellers have made to Scottish history and continue to make to the country's culture and heritage; notes that June 2018 sees Scotland celebrating Gypsy Roma Traveller History Month for the first time; is united in the view that there is no place for any form of racism in a modern and inclusive Scotland, and condemns all forms of prejudice and discrimination towards Gypsy/Travellers; supports the work of the new Ministerial Working Group on Gypsy/Travellers, which aims to ensure a systematic and coherent approach to improving outcomes for Gypsy/Travellers across the country in line with the recommendations of the UN Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (CERD); recognises the importance of direct engagement with Gypsy/Traveller people; congratulates the Young Gypsy Traveller Assembly in strengthening the voice of young Gypsy/Travellers; commends COSLA's commitment to transforming the life chances of Gypsy/Travellers across the country, and looks forward to working together within a human rights framework to accelerate improvements for this community.

Supported by: Kevin Stewart*, Jeane Freeman*

S5M-12690.3 Monica Lennon: Improving the Lives of Scotland's Gypsy/Travellers—As an amendment to motion S5M-12690 in the name of Angela Constance (Improving the Lives of Scotland's Gypsy/Travellers), insert at end ", and welcomes the establishment of the Parliament's first Cross Party Group on Gypsy/Travellers."

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-12715 Neil Findlay: Increased Funding for School Uniforms —That the Parliament welcomes the decision taken by West Lothian Council to increase school clothing grants for primary and secondary school pupils from the academic year 2018-19; acknowledges that the level of grant for primary school pupils will increase from £94 to £125 and £110 to £135 for secondary school pupils; notes that this step is part of West Lothian Council's anti-poverty strategy, and commends local councillors for increasing school uniform grants, which will be directed at those most in need.

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*

S5M-12714 Neil Findlay: NHS Treatment Time Guarantee—That the Parliament understands that the standard NHS waiting time indicator, the Treatment Time Guarantee (TTG), was breached 2,112 times in NHS Lothian in the first three months of 2018; recognises that the TTG provides patients with a legal right to treatment within 12 weeks for certain conditions; notes that, since the introduction of the TTG in 2012, the guarantee has been broken 27,400 times in NHS Lothian and 134,804 times across Scotland; considers that breaching the TTG results in many patients living in pain and discomfort without little indication of when they will receive treatment, and calls on the Scottish Government to take action, as a matter of urgency, to ensure that patients are seen and treated promptly by the most appropriate clinician.

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*, Iain Gray*

S5M-12713 Neil Findlay: First Bus Changes in Lothian—That the Parliament expresses its concern regarding the proposed timetable changes by First Scotland East that will impact on bus services across Lothian; considers that such changes include significant route withdrawals and service reductions that, if implemented, will detrimentally impact on communities with low levels of car ownership, commuters and older and disabled people; believes that these proposals have caused great public concern, with over 1,000 passengers responding to First Scotland East's consultation, and calls on First Scotland East to withdraw these proposals, which it consider will impact so negatively on communities.

S5M-12712 Neil Findlay: Impact of Stoneyburn Health Centre Closure—That the Parliament is deeply concerned about the impact of the end of GP services at Stoneyburn Health Centre, which came into effect on 1 June 2018; notes that patients who require an appointment with, or treatment from, a GP will have to travel to neighbouring villages to access these services; acknowledges that some Stoneyburn residents may be deterred from booking an appointment as a result of having to travel further; recognises that those who are most affected by this closure are Stoneyburn residents without access to a car, those on low incomes and older and disabled people; notes that this closure can be considered within the context of a national GP staffing crisis, and calls on the Scottish Government to intervene, reverse this closure and ensure that GP provision is returned to Stoneyburn.

S5M-12711 Mark Ruskell: Welcoming The Power of Onshore Wind Report—That the Parliament welcomes the new report from Scottish Power Renewables, Innogy, Stratkraft and Vattenfall, The Power of Onshore Wind; understands that the report demonstrates that onshore wind is the cheapest form of new-build electricity generation available in the UK today; believes that around 18,000 jobs will be supported during the peak years of onshore construction, with 8,500 long-term skilled jobs once the wind farms are operating; understands that 86% of new onshore wind projects by capacity will be built in Scotland, with 60% of new jobs in the industry located here; believes that 76% of the public are now in favour of onshore wind, and calls on the Scottish Government to reinforce its commitment to the onshore wind sector through the Scottish Energy Strategy.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Patrick Harvie*

S5M-12709 Dean Lockhart: 25th Anniversary of the Burntisland Heritage Trust—That the Parliament congratulates Burntisland Heritage Trust on its 25th anniversary; understands that, from 16 June to 25 August 2018, the trust will hold its annual exhibition about the history and heritage of Burntisland; believes that the event, which will coincide with the town's civic week; will include a look at the restoration of Kirkton Church and offer an in-depth study into the previous 24 exhibitions, and wishes all at the trust the best of luck with this and its other work.

year 2018-19"; understands that this funding gap is £20 million; believes with dismay that the council failed to conduct any consultation exercise when it was considering this action and that the Scottish Government has not held any discussions with nursery providers in the city regarding childcare funding; considers that asking hard-pressed families to plug a funding gap that it believes has been caused by years of sustained cuts by the Scottish Government is unacceptable; believes that effective lobbying of ministers by the administration for fairer funding would be a better way to deal with this issue, rather than what it sees as the council "passing the buck" on to parents; understands that families have raised concerns regarding the impact that these increases are having on their budgets and, in some cases, parents' ability to return to the workplace; calls on the SNP-minority administration to recognise what it considers the distress and anguish that this policy is causing to thousands of families and for it to scrap this hike in fees with immediate effect, and, if it fails to do so, urges the First Minister and Scottish Government to support parents in Glasgow and intervene to reverse the council's action.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
