Debate on the subject of—

S5M-08629 Peter Chapman: Holodomor Remembrance Day 2017—That the Parliament notes the day of commemoration and remembrance of the Ukrainian Holodomor, which will take place on 25 November 2017; considers that the Holodomor, literally meaning extermination by hunger, was a deliberate man-made famine designed by Joseph Stalin's Soviet regime to crush Ukrainian nationalism and the Ukrainian peasantry, whom he viewed as a threat; understands that, due to the wall of secrecy imposed by the former Soviet Union, it is difficult to know how many perished during the Holodomor of 1932-33, although recognises that recent research suggests that between three and seven and a half million may have died as a direct result of the Soviet-imposed famine in Ukraine; notes that, during the height of the famine, international offers of aid and support were turned down by the regime, while vital food stores were allowed to rot in warehouses under armed guard; believes the Holodomor to be a deliberate act of genocide that must be fully understood and recognised by current and future generations, and notes the important role that the Holodomor Remembrance Day plays in achieving this aim.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

S5M-11139 Alexander Stewart: Pupils from Lornshill Academy in Alloa to Raise Money for Poppyscotland's 1918 Poppy Pledge—That the Parliament welcomes the news that pupils from Lornshill Academy in Alloa have embarked on a mission to raise money for Poppyscotland's 1918 Poppy Pledge; understands that there has been a real focus on what makes a good citizen at the school, with all S1 pupils being involved in the school's citizenship programme; believes that the youngsters wanted to display their commitment to the ideas of citizenship and decided that every pupil in first year would be signed up to the pledge; notes that the volunteers are tasked with raising at least £1,918 for Poppyscotland throughout the course of 2018; further notes that, by reaching their target, the pupils will be contributing to Poppyscotland's aim of raising £500,000 for ex-service personnel and their families as a way of commemorating the centenary of the end of the First World War; understands that the pupils will decide how to raise the money, and that there have been some excellent ideas so far, including a sponsored hike, charity football match, coffee morning and bag packing; acknowledges that the pupils will work throughout the remainder of 2018 on their projects, with the final amount being counted on Remembrance Day on 11 November, and wishes all the volunteers the very best of luck with their endeavours.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Jeremy Balfour*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Miles Briggs*, Ruth Maguire*, Peter Chapman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Alison Harris*

S5M-11138 Michelle Ballantyne: Gala YM's Rugby Squad Supports Local Commonwealth Athlete—That the Parliament commends Gala YM's rugby squad on successfully raising funds for local Commonwealth swimmer, Beth Johnston, ahead of her trip to the Gold Coast in April 2018; understands that the recent snowfall saw the team spend less time on the pitch and so they used their spare time to present a cheque for £150 to the local athlete; notes that Gala YM had raised the money during the recent Calcutta Cup match between Scotland and England, and wishes both Gala YM and Beth the very best in their sporting endeavours.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Miles Briggs*, Peter Chapman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Liz Smith*, Alison Harris*

S5M-11137 Michelle Ballantyne: Earlston High School Success in Junk Kouture—That the Parliament congratulates S3 pupils from Earlston High School on winning the regional final of the Junk Kouture recycled fashion contest; understands that the winning pupils will now go on to the final of the Bank of Ireland-sponsored competition being held at the 3Arena in Dublin on 19 April 2018; recognises that, out of the 1,533 designs entered, 400 made it to the regional final, which included four produced by groups of pupils at Earlston High, and wishes the pupils every success at the upcoming finals.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Jeremy Balfour*, Liz Smith*

S5M-11135 Graeme Dey: Celebrates Painting Commemorating 100th Anniversary of the Final Offensive in First World War—That the Parliament welcomes that a painting by the celebrated Scots war artist, Robert Gibb, is set to go on display in Arbroath and Forfar to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the final German offensive of the First World War; recalls that the painting, "Backs to the Wall", was inspired by Sir Douglas Haig's famous "Special Order of the Day", which was sent out to all ranks of the British army in France and Flanders in April 1918 commanding the men to fight, with no thought of retreat, and encourages everyone who can, to visit and reflect on the men who, with their backs to the wall, but believing in the justice of their cause, fought on to the end.

- (2) Subsection (1) requires the Scottish Ministers to have regard to those guiding principles only so far as the Scottish Ministers consider them to be relevant to the provision being made in the regulations.
- (3) The guiding principles on the environment and animal welfare are—
 - (a) the precautionary principle as it relates to the environment,
 - (b) that preventative action should be taken to avert environmental damage,
 - (c) that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source,
 - (d) that the polluter should pay,
 - (e) that regard must be had to the welfare requirements of animals as sentient beings.
- (4) Those principles are derived from the equivalent principles provided for in Articles 13 and 191(2) in Titles II and XX respectively of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and accordingly they are to be interpreted, so far as appropriate, in a manner consistent with the interpretation of those equivalent principles by the European Court from time to time.>

Section 14A

Ross Greer

- 44 Leave out section 14A and insert—

<14A Additional scrutiny of regulations

- (1) This section applies where the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) lay a Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations which have been made under section 11, 12 or 13 before the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) lay a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations under section 11, 12 or 13 before the Scottish Parliament for approval.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers must lay before the Scottish Parliament—
 - (a) a copy of the regulations or draft regulations,
 - (b) a statement setting out the Scottish Ministers' opinion on the scrutiny procedure to which the regulations or draft regulations will be subject, and
 - (c) their reasons for that opinion.

- (3) If the committee of the Scottish Parliament mentioned in Rule 6.11 of the Standing Orders of the Parliament, within the relevant period, by resolution, makes a recommendation mentioned in subsection (5), the Scottish Ministers must proceed in accordance with that recommendation.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the “relevant period” means the period of 20 sitting days (within the meaning given by the Standing Orders of the Scottish Parliament) beginning with the day on which the regulations or draft regulations are laid before the Parliament.
- (5) The recommendation may be that, regardless of the Scottish Ministers’ opinion on the appropriate scrutiny procedure, the regulations or draft regulations—
 - (a) should be subject to the negative procedure,
 - (b) should be subject to the affirmative procedure,
 - (c) should be subject to the affirmative procedure and to the requirements set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 14(5).
- (6) If the recommendation is that regulations which have been made subject to the negative procedure should be subject to the affirmative procedure—
 - (a) the regulations are to be treated as having been revoked by the Scottish Ministers on the date the recommendation is made,
 - (b) the Scottish statutory instrument containing the regulations is to be treated instead as a draft Scottish statutory instrument laid before the Scottish Parliament for approval on the date the original instrument was laid, and
 - (c) the regulations may be adjusted by the Scottish Ministers to take account of the effect of paragraphs (a) and (b) (including, in particular, by adjusting the date on which the regulations are to come into force).
- (7) If the recommendation is that regulations which have been made subject to the negative procedure should be subject to the affirmative procedure and to the requirements set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 14(5), the regulations are to be treated as having been revoked by the Scottish Ministers on the date the recommendation is made.
- (8) Where subsection (6)(a) or (7) applies, so far as the regulations are in force on that date, nothing further is to be done or continued under, or in reliance on, the regulations after that date.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not affect the validity of anything previously done under the regulations.
- (10) This section does not apply to regulations or draft regulations if they contain a declaration that the Scottish Ministers consider that, by reason of urgency, it is necessary to make the regulations or draft regulations without this section applying to them.>

Section 15

Neil Findlay

ENVIRONMENT

Environmental matters: duty to consult

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, not later than the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force—
 - (a) prepare proposals about the matters set out in subsections (2) and (3),
 - (b) consult on those proposals in accordance with subsection (4), and
 - (c) lay before the Scottish Parliament a report setting out a summary of—
 - (i) the comments received in response to the consultation, and
 - (ii) the Scottish Ministers' views on those comments.
- (2) The first matter is how regard is to be had to the guiding principles on the environment—
 - (a) by the Scottish Ministers in—
 - (i) developing policies (including proposals for legislation), and
 - (ii) determining how to exercise any of their functions, and
 - (b) by any other Scottish public authority in determining how to exercise any of its functions.
- (3) The second matter is how to ensure that there continues to be effective and appropriate governance relating to the environment following the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the EU.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers must consult—
 - (a) such Scottish public authorities, or bodies representative of the interests of such Scottish public authorities, as would be affected by the proposals, and
 - (b) such other persons as they consider appropriate.
- (5) The guiding principles on the environment are—
 - (a) the precautionary principle as it relates to the environment,
 - (b) that preventative action should be taken to avert environmental damage,
 - (c) that environmental damage should as a priority be rectified at source,
 - (d) that the polluter should pay.
- (6) Those principles are derived from the equivalent principles provided for in Article 191(2) in Title XX of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and accordingly they are to be interpreted, so far as appropriate, in a manner consistent with the interpretation of those equivalent principles by the European Court from time to time.
- (7) In subsection (3), “governance”, in relation to the environment, means appropriate arrangements for the purposes of ensuring—
 - (a) compliance with the law relating to the environment, and
 - (b) effective implementation of policy relating to the environment.

- (8) In subsection (7), “appropriate arrangements” includes functions equivalent to those carried out before exit day by the European Commission, the European Court and any other EU institution for the purposes mentioned in that subsection.>

Section 27

- 60 In section 32, page 26, line 6, at end insert—
- <() The power in subsection (1) includes power to make provision in consequence of, or in connection with, the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 or any other enactment making provision for the purpose set out in section 1(1) or an equivalent purpose.>

Section 36

Tavish Scott

- 61 In section 36, page 26, line 34, at end insert—
- <(2A) Regulations appointing a day for the coming into force of section 13 are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (2B) The Scottish Ministers may not lay before the Scottish Parliament a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations appointing a day for the coming into force of section 13 until the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which they comply with subsection (2C).
- (2C) The Scottish Ministers must lay before the Parliament a report setting out—
- (a) why they consider it necessary to bring section 13 into force, and
 - (b) the purposes for which they intend to use the section 13 powers.>

62 Leave out section 36A and insert—

<Reports relating to deficiencies arising from UK withdrawal

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, for each reporting period, prepare and lay before the Scottish Parliament a report that describes how deficiencies in retained (devolved) EU law have been addressed by the Scottish Ministers, including by—
 - (a) making regulations under section 11(1), or
 - (b) giving consent to subordinate legislation to which section 17 applies.
- (2) The reporting periods are—
 - (a) the period beginning with the date on which this section comes into force and ending on exit day, and
 - (b) the period beginning with exit day and ending on the date of expiry of the power to make regulations under section 11(1).
- (3) Each report must be laid before the Scottish Parliament as soon as practicable after the end of the reporting period to which it relates.
- (4) In this section, “deficiencies in retained (devolved) EU law” has the same meaning as in section 11.>

After section 36A

Anas Sarwar

63 After section 36A, insert—

<Duty to make arrangements for an independent evaluation: health and social care

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must arrange for the preparation and publication of an independent evaluation of the effect of this Act, and any regulations made under it, on the health and social care sector.
- (2) The evaluation is to be published no later than the end of the period of one year beginning with the day of Royal Assent,
- (3) The evaluation is to be carried out by an independent person to be appointed by the Scottish Ministers.
- (4) The evaluation must—
 - (a) analyse and assess the effect of this Act, and any regulations made under it, on—
 - (i) the funding of the health and social care sector,
 - (ii) the health and social care workforce,
 - (iii) the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of the health and social care sector, and
 - (b) include any other such matters relevant to the effect of this Act upon the health and care sector as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- (5) The person undertaking the evaluation must, in preparing the evaluation, consult—
 - (a) the Secretary of State,

- (b) the Welsh Ministers,
 - (c) a Northern Ireland department,
 - (d) providers of health and social care services,
 - (e) individuals receiving health and social care services,
 - (f) organisations working for and on behalf of individuals receiving health and social care services, and
 - (g) such other persons as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving a report of the evaluation, lay a copy of the report before the Parliament.>

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Monica Lennon: Proposed Sanitary Products (Free Provision) (Scotland) Bill—A proposal for a Bill to ensure free access to sanitary products, including in schools, colleges and universities (lodged 7 March 2018)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
