Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-12076 Keith Brown: Scottish National Investment Bank—That the Parliament notes the publication of the Scottish National Investment Bank Implementation Plan, which sets out proposals and recommendations for the establishment of the bank, and further notes the emphasis that these proposals place on the bank being bold and ambitious by providing patient mission-based finance, which will help create and shape future markets and help Scotland achieve its full economic potential.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-12072 David Stewart: Clean Air Day 2018—That the Parliament notes that Clean Air Day takes place on 21 June 2018 and provides an opportunity to learn more about air pollution; understands that the World Health Organization has described air pollution as “a public health emergency” and “the biggest environmental risk to health, carrying responsibility for about one in every nine deaths annually at a global level”; further understands that outdoor air pollution contributes to an estimated 40,000 premature deaths in the UK each year and that, on a global level, cardiovascular disease accounts for an estimated 80% of deaths related to outdoor air pollution; considers that, in Scotland, public exposure to air pollution is most likely to come from traffic sources, and that traffic pollution can contribute to the development of cardiovascular disease; notes the calls on the Scottish Government to continue to develop a strong infrastructure for both active travel and low-emission vehicles to support a move away from high-polluting vehicles, and further notes the calls on people throughout Scotland to consider how they can reduce the country’s air pollution on Clean Air Day 2018.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-12080 John Finnie: Leverburgh RNLI's New Lifeboat Enters Service—That the Parliament notes that Levenburgh RNLI’s new £2.2 million lifeboat has entered service; believes that the new boat, named RNLB Stella and Humfrey Berkeley 13-25, is a Shannon class, the

Motions Gluasadan

RNLI's most agile and manoeuvrable all-weather lifeboat, a feature that it understands will be particularly beneficial when working in the challenging waters off the Sound of Harris; considers that the lifeboat is almost 50% faster than Leverburgh's previous Mersey class lifeboat, RNLB The Royal Thames, with a top speed of 25 knots, which is a crucial factor when lives are at risk, and commends the RNLI for its ongoing sterling work.

S5M-12079 David Torrance: Success at Advanced Healthcare Awards—That the Parliament congratulates NHS Fife biomedical scientists on winning an award at the 12th annual Advanced Healthcare Awards (AHA), which were held at the Chelsea Harbour Hotel in London on 20 April 2018; notes that Dr Mairiead MacLennan, Lisa Logan and Stephen McGlashan are all biomedical scientists on the microbiology team at the Victoria Hospital in Kirkcaldy, and are members of the Institute of Biomedical Science; further notes that the team won the Scottish Government's AHA award for Driving Improvement, Delivering Results; understands that the team was nominated after setting up a rapid flu testing system that would allow nurses to confirm whether or not a patient has flu in as little as 30 minutes, as opposed to the 24 hours it would previously have taken; commends the team for all its hard work, and wishes it continued success in the future.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, Bob Doris*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Emma Harper*

S5M-12078 Clare Haughey: Mental Health Awareness Week 2018—That the Parliament welcomes 2018's Mental Health Awareness Week, which runs from 14 to 20 May; understands that the Mental Health Foundation's chosen theme for this year's campaign is Stress - Are We Coping?; highlights that tackling stress can go a long way to address mental health problems such as anxiety and depression and, in some instances, self-harm and suicide; recognises research that estimates that 13.3 million working days are lost per year due to stress, depression and anxiety; encourages people to look out for the signs of stress, which include increased blood pressure, headaches, nausea, indigestion and increased perspiration, as well as emotional and behavioural changes, such as experiencing anxiety, anger or difficulty sleeping; calls on people experiencing stress to talk about their problems with others, and to seek professional help if they feel they are no longer able to manage it themselves, and asks that parliamentarians and the public spread recognition of this year's Mental Health Awareness Week and its theme for the maximum benefit of the people of Scotland. R

Supported by: Ruth Maguire*, Ash Denham*, Christine Grahame*, Miles Briggs*, Sandra White*, Joan McAlpine*, Graeme Dey*, Bob Doris*, Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Rona Mackay*, Liam McArthur*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Emma Harper*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*

S5M-12077 Sandra White: Inclusive Dance Group Takes Show to Bangkok Children's Festival—That the Parliament congratulates the inclusive dance ensemble, Indepen-dance 4, on its participation in the Bangkok Children's Festival; notes that the group seeks to enable participation in high quality arts provision and improve wellbeing, quality of life and provide opportunities for disabled and non-disabled dancers; understands that the group is to perform Four Go Wild in Wellies at the international festival; notes that it has performed its show across Scotland, Ireland and Germany in addition to its performance in Thailand in May 2018; welcomes the international promotion of Scottish culture and inclusive performance, and wishes all involved a successful event.

S5M-12073 Bill Bowman: Dominoes Fundraiser Award—That the Parliament congratulates Carlie Low from Dundee on raising £222 for Ward 23a at Ninewells Hospital in Dundee; understands that Carlie was a patient there three years ago and wanted to thank the staff for looking after her so well; notes that the money was raised through a dominoes challenge, and thanks her for her generosity.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Ash Denham*, David Torrance*, Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Peter Chapman*, Jeremy Balfour*, Edward Mountain*, Michelle Ballantyne*

S5M-12071 Rachael Hamilton: Glasgow Women's Library—That the Parliament congratulates the Glasgow Women's Library, Brooklands Museum in Weybridge, Ferens Art Gallery in Hull, the Tate in St Ives and the Postal Museum in London on being shortlisted for the Art Fund Museum of the Year 2018 title and each receiving £10,000 in recognition of this; understands that the Glasgow institution is the only accredited museum in the UK that is dedicated to women's history; acknowledges that, as well as archiving historical artefacts relating to women, it also provides learning opportunities, and wishes it the best of luck when the winner of the overall £100,000 prize is announced at the V&A in London.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Miles Briggs*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Alexander Stewart*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Burnett*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Tom Mason*, Bill Bowman*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-12070 Angus MacDonald: Funding Secured for Community All-weather Pitches—That the Parliament welcomes the funding of £1.2 million that has been secured by Falkirk Council, working with Bo'ness United and Dunipace Juniors football clubs, to build 3G all-weather pitches at their grounds in Bo'ness and Denny; understands that £370,000 for each pitch will be added to £500,000 of funding from sportscotland to move forward with plans to build these pitches, which will open up new opportunities to the communities in which they lie, including better access to sports facilities for schools and local groups, a new girls football programme in Bo'ness and a walking football programme for older people, which will enhance and further improve the health and wellbeing of people within these communities; congratulates Newtown Park Association in Bo'ness and Dunipace Juniors Football Club on their hard work and dedication in securing these pitches for their respective communities; further congratulates Falkirk Council on ensuring the support for these groups and securing the funding for the projects, and looks forward to these new facilities opening in due course.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Clare Haughey*, Emma Harper*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-12069 Angus MacDonald: Connecting Communities Along the River Carron—That the Parliament welcomes the installation of the Abbotshaugh Bridge across the River Carron, linking the communities of Carronshore in the Falkirk East constituency and Langlees in the Falkirk West constituency, as part of a wider project and consultation carried out by the Communities Along the Carron Association (CATCA); notes that the bridge is suitable for walkers, runners, cyclists, users with mobility issues and horse riders and connects into the Helix path network, linking communities across the Falkirk district; recognises that this project has only been possible through the collaborative work carried out between Falkirk Council, CATCA, Sustrans, the Falkirk LEADER programme and the European funding organisation, Kelvin Valley, and adds to the already vibrant active travel plan to improve the health and wellbeing of those in Scotland's communities by providing pathways and cycle networks through some of the Falkirk district's most scenic and colourful areas; looks forward to the official opening of the bridge in the summer 2018, and encourages those from across the Falkirk district, Scotland and the world to visit and utilise the great path networks and attractions that communities are proud to be a part of.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Ash Denham*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Clare Haughey*

S5M-12068 John Finnie: Kirkwall Fire Training Unit—That the Parliament notes that the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service has unveiled a £1.2 million on-island carbonaceous fire training unit at Kirkwall Airport fire station; understands that it was delivered in partnership with Highlands and Islands Airport Ltd and that the investment will allow crews to train in temperatures up to 600 degrees centigrade and share expertise; considers that this is the latest stage in a significant Scottish Fire and Rescue Service investment to support retained duty system firefighters across Orkney, Shetland and the Western Isles and follows the introduction of similar specialist units at Stornoway and Sumburgh airports, and welcomes this investment, which it believes will benefit island communities.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Mark Ruskell*, Bill Kidd*, Liam McArthur*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Liam Kerr*

S5M-12067 Liam McArthur: Offshore Renewable Energy Catapult (OREC)—That the Parliament welcomes the report published on 2 May 2018 by the Offshore Renewable Energy Catapult (OREC) and its assessment of the value of further public support for the tidal stream and wave energy sectors; understands that the report confirms that wave and tidal energy are genuine carbon-free alternatives; supports the use of non-carbon energy sources in order to meet global climate commitments; believes that investment in, and development of, these programmes could help reduce costs and enable Scotland to exploit the competitive advantage that it enjoys; considers that the industry remains well placed to deliver economic growth, including in many rural and island areas of Scotland, and, therefore, calls on government and industry to work together to ensure there is the right support and regulatory environment that will allow the potential benefits of wave and tidal power to be fully realised.

Supported by: David Stewart*, David Torrance*, Graeme Dey*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Alexander Burnett*, Edward Mountain*, Lewis Macdonald*

S5M-12066 Anas Sarwar: Bike for Good Charity Funding—That the Parliament congratulates the charity, Bike for Good, on its successful application to the Big Lottery Fund, which secured £10,000; understands that the charity engages people in cycling through its refurbished bike shops and community programmes; further understands that the Govanhill Gears project will deliver two after school sessions in the area, engaging up to 40 young people, and notes that the sessions will teach young people how to cycle and maintain bicycles and encourage exploration of the local area by bike.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Annie Wells*, Claudia Beamish*, Sandra White*, Fulton MacGregor*, Bill Kidd*, Pauline McNeill*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-12065 Jackie Baillie: La Barca Awarded Best World Cuisine for Fifth Year—That the Parliament congratulates Helensburgh's La Barca restaurant on winning the title of Best World Cuisine for the fifth year in a row at the Scottish Entertainment and Hospitality Awards; notes that the restaurant beat nine other finalists from across Scotland to retain its coveted title; understands that the owners, Cara and Milan Nikolic, were told that their restaurant had won "by a mile' by the judges; notes that the judges chose one of the restaurant's busiest nights of the year to judge it, turning up at peak dinner time on the Saturday of Easter Weekend; believes that the judges were impressed by both the kitchen and the front of house teams for how they handled such a busy evening, and wishes the whole team at La Barca continued success in the future.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, David Stewart*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-12064 Jackie Baillie: Helensburgh's Wee Kelpie is Scotland's Best Takeaway—That the Parliament congratulates the Wee Kelpie fish and chip shop in Helensburgh on being named the Best Takeaway in Scotland at the Scottish Entertainment and Hospitality Awards; understands that the Wee Kelpie was defending its title, as it was originally awarded this in 2014 and the category has not been part of the awards since; understands that the chip shop owners, Kerr and Nicola Raeburn, have enjoyed further success in 2018 having recently been awarded Best Fish and Chip Shop for south west Scotland at the Italian Awards; believes that its continued success is a shining example of the excellent quality of food and customer service that it is famous for locally, and wishes the shop every success for the future.

Supported by: Maurice Corry*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, David Stewart*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-12063 Jackie Baillie: Ardencaple Football Club Celebrates 50 Years—That the Parliament congratulates Ardencaple Football Club on its 50th anniversary; understands that the club was formed in 1968 by two friends John McGinlay and Wallace Murdoch; notes that 50 years on the club has expanded and now includes football for girls, disabled people and adults, over 35's and amateurs; further notes that the club also plays in Active Schools and Christian Aid primary schools' tournaments and offers new fitness classes; understands that the club is imbedded in the local community and that the club president, Walter Smith, and club ambassador, Murdo McLeod, aim to bridge the so-called Old Firm divide by supporting kids irrespective of their disability, ethnicity, language, religion or politics; thanks the club for its continued commitment to the local community, and wishes it every success for the next 50 years.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, David Stewart*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-12062 Bill Kidd: Scotland Men's Hockey on the Gold Coast—That the Parliament notes the performance of the Scotland men's hockey team at the recent Commonwealth Games on the Gold Coast in Australia; further notes that the team finished in sixth place, which is its highest rank ever since first qualifying for the Games in 2006; notes that Callum Duke of Hillhead Men's Hockey, which is based at Old Anniesland and Jordanhill School playing fields, played in all five of Scotland's matches, starting in three and coming off the bench as a substitute in two, and congratulates Callum, who it considers a stalwart of both Hillhead and Scotland men's hockey, and the Scotland team as it moves on from the Gold Coast to hopefully a Gold medal at future Commonwealth Games.

Supported by: David Torrance*, David Stewart*, Liam McArthur*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, Emma Harper*, Joan McAlpine*

S5M-12061 Angus MacDonald: Scottish Railway Preservation Society Funding to Commemorate First World War—That the Parliament welcomes that the Scottish Railway Preservation Society (SRPS) in Bo'ness has received funding of over £1,800 from Museum Galleries Scotland; notes that the funding will help create the project, From Scotland to the Somme: the Railway War, which will include a temporary exhibition looking at the different ways in which railways in Scotland contributed to the war effort; understands that the Museum of Scottish Railways, based at the Bo'ness and Kinneil Railway, will focus on the journey of Maude, one of the vehicles in its collection, which spent the war in France and is named after General Sir Frederick

Maude; looks forward to seeing the project come to life, and wishes the SRPS continued success in its work to preserve and maintain the history of Scotland's railways.

Supported by: Emma Harper*, David Torrance*, Tom Mason*, Sandra White*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, David Stewart*, Joan McAlpine*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Edward Mountain*, Clare Haughey*

S5M-12060 Neil Findlay: Workers of the World Unite for May Day—That the Parliament recognises the significance of May Day as International Workers' Day; supports the action taken by workers around the world on 1 May 2018; acknowledges that in the UK there were protests against austerity and insecure work; understands that there were rallies in France against labour reforms, demonstrations in the Philippines for strengthened workers' rights and solidarity marches in Greece, South Africa and Kurdistan; commends the workers for their show of mass collective action; believes that it is important to champion global solidarity and the right to organise around the world, and commits to working towards ending the exploitation of workers in Scotland, in the UK and internationally.

Supported by: David Stewart*, Ivan McKee*, Rona Mackay*, Iain Gray*, Elaine Smith*

S5M-12059 Neil Findlay: Solidarity with Striking McDonald's Workers—That the Parliament expresses solidarity with the McDonald's workers who took industrial action on International Workers' Day on 1 May 2018; understands that they were striking for fair pay, fixed contracts, respect at work and union recognition; recognises that this action follows a first wave of strikes in September 2017 organised by the Bakers, Food and Allied Workers Union; acknowledges that it is reported that over 100 people turned out to support the strike in Watford, with 50 people picketing in Manchester; believes that the strikes are likely to inspire similar collective action across the restaurant industry, and supports the demands for a £10 living wage for all workers, an end to zero-hours contracts and the right to recognised trade union membership.

Supported by: David Stewart*, Rona Mackay*, Iain Gray*, Elaine Smith*

S5M-12058 Jackie Baillie: Invisible Disabilities Campaign—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the lack of awareness surrounding invisible disabilities; believes that people with invisible disabilities are the target of abuse by people who do not recognise that disability takes many forms; considers that disability signage enhances a stereotype of disabled people, which does not fit everyone; recognises the work of Grace Warnock who redesigned a accessible toilet sign to fit all types of disability, and urges all MSPs to support the campaign led by Bev Burns to change disability signage for all public facilities.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Pauline McNeill*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-12057 Bill Bowman: Dundee-based Flintstone Technology Secures Contract—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Dundee-based, Flintstone Technology, has secured a substantial contract with MODEC; understands that company specialises in offshore marine cranes and handling systems and that the contract is for its in-line tensioning and pull-through connection mooring system that is to be deployed off the coast of Ghana in West Africa, and is pleased to see technology from a Dundee-based company being used to provide a solution to a challenging and complex situation in another part of the world.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Miles Briggs*, David Torrance*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Peter Chapman*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Liz Smith*, Edward Mountain*, Jeremy Balfour*, Rachael Hamilton*, Alexander Burnett*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*

S5M-12053 Monica Lennon: Celtic Commits to Free Sanitary Products—That the Parliament congratulates Celtic on, it understands, becoming the first football club in the UK to commit to offering free sanitary products to its female fans; commends the activism of its fans, Erin Slaven, Mikaela McKinley and Orlairth Duffy, who were responsible for the campaign and the petition to the club asking for this change; welcomes what it sees as the open-mindedness of its directors, who met them, listened to their case, and agreed to implement a new scheme of free dispensers on a trial basis, with a view to moving to a permanent system by the end of 2018; recognises that this is an important step in normalising menstruation, which it believes should never be a barrier to anyone from participating in football or supporting their team, and calls on other clubs to take note of this decision and consider their own policies on sanitary products.

S5M-12050 Gil Paterson: Welcoming Fair Start Scotland to Clydebank—That the Parliament welcomes the Clydebank launch of Fair Start Scotland, which aims to help vulnerable people gain the skills that they need to find meaningful work; understands that the voluntary nature of the scheme allows people to sample the service without fear of sanctions or loss of benefits, and recognises that the Wise Group, supported by nine other partners, will deliver the service that will treat people with dignity and respect.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Ash Denham*, Joan McAlpine*, Rona Mackay*, Sandra White*, Bob Doris*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-12048 Gil Paterson: Golden Jubilee Conference Hotel Wins Top Industry Award—That the Parliament congratulates the Golden Jubilee Conference Hotel in Clydebank on being named the Conference Hotel of the Year at the 15th annual Scottish Hotel Awards; understands that the hotel overcame stiff competition to land the prestigious title, which was accepted by staff during a gala dinner in Edinburgh; recognises that this is one of a host of awards won by the four-star venue, which is currently celebrating 10 years as a member of Venues of Excellence, and wishes the establishment continued success in the future.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Ash Denham*, Richard Lyle*, Emma Harper*, Joan McAlpine*, Sandra White*, Rona Mackay*, Bob Doris*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-12046 David Torrance: Congratulations to WF Stark Butchers—That the Parliament congratulates WF Stark butchers in Buckhaven on its success at the Craft Butchers Awards, which were held at Forth Valley College in Stirling; notes that it received a gold for its Triple Burger and silver for its Beefburger, Pork, Spring Onion Burger, Middle Bacon and Gigot Bacon; understands that these awards celebrate innovate and adventurous quality products; commends WF Stark on its achievement, and wishes it continued success in the future.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Emma Harper*, Joan McAlpine*, Clare Haughey*, Bob Doris*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*

S5M-11963 Jackson Carlaw: Israir Direct Flights from Tel Aviv to Edinburgh—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Israir will commence direct flights from Edinburgh to Israel from 13 June 2018; notes that the airline will operate weekly flights from Ben Gurion Airport to Edinburgh; considers that this is an important step in strengthening Scotland-Israel cultural, trade and tourism links, which it believes has been called for by the Building Bridges with Israel Cross Party Group; further considers that VisitScotland must now work to capitalise on this new route to further encourage Israeli tourism to Scotland, which it understands currently often starts in London rather than direct into Scotland, and wishes the airline well ahead of the route's official launch date.

New Subordinate Legislation

Negative instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 3 May 2018 and is subject to the negative procedure—

Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2018 (SSI 2018/142)

laid under section 275 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

New Draft Proposal

Christine Grahame MSP: Proposed Responsible Breeding and Ownership of Dogs (Scotland) Bill— A proposal for a Bill to improve the health and wellbeing of dogs throughout their lives by strengthening the regulation of the activity of breeding, and of selling or transferring puppies, and by establishing a more responsible and informed approach to acquiring and owning a puppy or dog. (lodged 3 May 2018)

A consultation document, lodged with the proposal, may be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe) or on the website page referred to above. The consultation period runs from 4 May 2018 to 30 July 2018.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
