Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-14602 Bill Kidd on behalf of the Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee: Breach of the Code of Conduct for MSPs—That the Parliament notes the 6th Report, 2018 (Session 5) of the Standards and Public Appointments Committee, Complaint against Annie Wells MSP (SP Paper 408) and agrees to impose the sanction recommended in the report that Annie Wells MSP be excluded from all meetings of the Parliament and all meetings of its committees for the first five sitting days after this motion is agreed.

Supported by: Mark Ruskell*

*S5M-14601 Jackie Baillie: Helensburgh Pier Closure—That the Parliament notes the temporary closure of Helensburgh Pier to all marine traffic, following health and safety concerns that were highlighted in a report to Argyll and Bute Council; notes that the director of the Helensburgh and Lomond Chamber of Commerce has called for the pier to be transferred into public ownership; believes that the closure could have a detrimental impact on the area's economy, including the loss of the additional visitors to the town who arrive when the PS Waverley uses the pier, and hopes that the local authority will consider all options to restore the pier, including a community buyout.

*S5M-14600 Jenny Gilruth: Allan Bryant, Fifth Anniversary—That the Parliament acknowledges that 2018 marks the fifth anniversary of the disappearance of Allan Bryant, who was last seen outside Styx nightclub in Glenrothes on 3 November 2013; understands that, despite Allan's disappearance being one of the largest police searches ever undertaken in Scotland, he has not been seen since he was captured on CCTV leaving the nightclub in Glenrothes in the early hours after a night out with his friends; notes with disappointment that, despite the appearance of his parents, Allan Bryant Sr and Marie Dugan, on the BBC's Crimewatch programme earlier this year, no new information came from the appeal; believes that the family is continuing to remain optimistic, and notes that they have vowed to keep the campaign going as long as it takes to find out what happened to their son.

*S5M-14599 James Dornan: Jeely Piece Club—That the Parliament congratulates the Jeely Piece Club on its recent £10,000 Awards for All Scotland grant, which the group will use to host a three-hour evening community event in Castlemilk woods. R

*S5M-14598 Anas Sarwar: Oral Cancer in Scotland—That the Parliament believes that increasing rates of mouth and throat cancers in Scotland are a matter of serious concern; considers that the wide variations in oral cancer incidence and survival rates between different areas and social groups in Scotland are unacceptable, with, it understands, someone in Glasgow being twice more likely to be diagnosed with oral cancer than someone in Fife; welcomes the long overdue decision to vaccinate boys in Scotland against HPV and hopes that a gender-neutral vaccination programme can be rolled out without any further delay; applauds the Scottish Government's commitment in its Oral Health Improvement Plan to ensure that the oral cancer clinical pathway across Scotland is safe, consistent, clear and effective, but is concerned regarding the potential impact that the proposed extension of dental recall intervals to 24 months might have on dentists' ability to detect symptoms of oral cancers early; commends the British Dental Association Scotland and the wider dental profession on their work to raise awareness of oral cancer, and urges the Scottish Government, NHS Scotland and other stakeholders to develop sustainable and innovative approaches to oral cancer care and work effectively to improve the prevention, detection and treatment of this condition.

Supported by: Mark McDonald*, Alex Neil*, Iain Gray*, James Kelly*, Monica Lennon*

*S5M-14597 Monica Lennon: Celebrating National Befriending Week—That the Parliament recognises that 1 to 7 November 2018 marks National Befriending Week; congratulates Scotland's befriending services and the more than 7,500 of its volunteers, and supports their valuable work; believes that volunteer befrienders help to tackle social isolation and loneliness by providing essential support to over 14,500 vulnerable people in communities across the country; appreciates the impact of the role of befriending in creating connections and building communities, including organisations in the Central Scotland parliamentary region, such as Covey Befriending and the Lightburn Elderly Association Project, and commends the work of Befriending Networks in providing crucial infrastructure support to befriending services across Scotland.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, Kenneth Gibson*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Iain Gray*, Edward Mountain*, Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*, Neil Findlay*, Sandra White*

*S5M-14596 Christine Grahame: InChorus in Catalonia—That the Parliament congratulates InChorus, a Peebles community choir, on its 10th anniversary; understands that, as part of the celebrations of this milestone, the choir undertook a weekend trip to Barcelona where it performed in a range of venues from town squares to churches to the Palau De La Musica Catalana; notes that the choir met and formed a link with Coral Catasons, a Catalan choir, which is now planning to visit Peebles and the wider Scottish Borders next year; considers that the warm welcome that the choir received in Barcelona is indicative of its talent and positive ethos, and wishes everyone involved in the choir all the best for the next 10 years.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Kenneth Gibson*, Rona Mackay*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*

*S5M-14594 Stuart McMillan: Ferguson Secures Contract to Build Air Cushion Barge—That the Parliament congratulates Ferguson Marine Engineering on securing a contract to build the world's first self-propelled air-cushioned barge; notes that Ferguson will build the 55m by 24m vessel capable of carrying up to a 150-ton payload over tundra, swamps, ice and water for Mangistau ACV Solutions Ltd, which is part of the CMI Offshore Ltd Group; believes that this contract will help support shipbuilding jobs in Inverclyde and is further evidence that Ferguson's current diversification strategy is having a hugely positive impact on the business; understands that these types of contracts are essential in helping secure the long-term future of the yard, and thanks the Scottish Government for its continued support for shipbuilding on the Clyde.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Angus MacDonald*, Joan McAlpine*, James Dornan*, Richard Lyle*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Fulton MacGregor*, Clare Adamson*, Bill Kidd*

*S5M-14593 Kenneth Gibson: Acquittal of Asia Bibi—That the Parliament welcomes the decision by the Supreme Court of Pakistan to overturn the death sentence of Asia Bibi, a Christian woman convicted of blasphemy in 2010 who has spent most of the last eight years in solitary confinement; understands that the conviction stemmed from an argument Asia Bibi had with a group of women in June 2009 while harvesting fruit, after the women said that they could no longer touch a cup because Asia Bibi's Christian faith had made it unclean; recognises that Pakistan's blasphemy laws, first codified in 1860 and expanded upon in the 1980s by the military government of General Zia-ul Haq, carry a potential death sentence for anyone who insults Islam; understands that, shortly after Asia Bibi's conviction in 2008, the Punjab Governor, Salman Taseer, was murdered for speaking out in support of her and calling for Pakistan's blasphemy laws to be reformed; notes with concern that, even after Asia Bibi is freed, the legacy of this case will continue and Christians living in Pakistan will still be vulnerable to what it considers a climate of intolerance and a legal system that is frequently used to seek revenge after personal disputes; is aware that the Islamist movement, Tehreek-e Labbaik (TLP), had previously vowed to take to the streets if Asia Bibi was released, and that protests broke out in Islamabad and Lahore soon after the ruling was announced, and calls on the Pakistani Government to put an end to the use of blasphemy laws against minority religious groups and journalists critical of the Pakistani religious establishment.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Emma Harper*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Joan McAlpine*, Clare Adamson*, Bill Kidd*, Murdo Fraser*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Sandra White*

*S5M-14592 Stuart McMillan: Oceans Youth Trust (Scotland) Awarded £10,000—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Oceans Youth Trust (Scotland) (OYTS) has received £10,000 in lottery funding; recognises that the Inverclyde-based group will use the award to refit one of its yachts, which it uses to enable young people aged between 12 and 25 from a diverse range of backgrounds experience sailing; understands that the charity is the only national voluntary organisation of its kind; notes that OYTS works with groups and individuals to support schools, young carers, youth groups, young people with additional support needs and sailing clubs; thanks the charity for the unique services that it offers, which help build young people's confidence and develop their social and life skills, as well as teaching them about the environment, and wishes everyone involved all the best for the future. R

Supported by: Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Alison Harris*, Sandra White*, Emma Harper*, Fulton MacGregor*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Ruth Maguire*, Bill Kidd*

*S5M-14591 Maureen Watt: Maryculter Community Hall Association—That the Parliament congratulates the Maryculter Community Hall Association on its £7,500 Awards for All Scotland grant, which it will use to help upgrade the hall's toilet facilities, including adding a new female cubicle; notes that Storm Frank, which caused devastation across the north east in December 2015, brought damage to the hall's inner walls, floor and kitchen and the community defibrillator; acknowledges the benefit that the upgraded facilities will have to the many groups that use the hall, and commends everyone who has been involved with its restoration.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Bruce Crawford*, Emma Harper*, Clare Adamson*

*S5M-14590 Alison Johnstone: A Real Fox Hunting Ban—That the Parliament notes that, 16 years after the implementation of the Protection of Wild Mammals (Scotland) Act 2002, mounted fox hunting continues in Scotland; believes that the many "exceptions" to the offence of hunting a wild mammal with a dog act as loopholes, which allow mounted fox hunting to continue much as it did prior to the legislation; considers that the Scottish Government process of reviewing the Act has failed to result in meaningful progress; believes that the Scottish Government proposal of a voluntary code of practice for fox control is inadequate; considers that a legislative, rather than voluntary, route is required to end what it sees as animal suffering as a result of fox control, and calls on the Scottish Government to urgently bring forward legislation that would ban fox hunting.

Supported by: Andy Wightman*, Patrick Harvie*, Christine Grahame*, Mark Ruskell*, Colin Smyth*

*S5M-14589 Lewis Macdonald: Aberdeen University Students' Association's Mental Health Project—That the Parliament recognises the pressures faced by many university students, which can often impact on their mental health; believes that projects such as that being run by the Aberdeen University Students' Association (AUSA) to train staff to deliver mental health workshops and awareness sessions for students can go a long way to helping young people cope with the challenges associated with university study; recognises that the Big Lottery Fund has awarded £10,000 to AUSA to help fund this important training, and calls on all involved in the higher education sector to follow this example to help ensure the mental wellbeing of all students and staff.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, David Stewart*, Iain Gray*, Monica Lennon*

*S5M-14588 Annie Wells: Channel 4's New Creative Hub—That the Parliament welcomes Channel 4's decision to locate one of its new Creative Hub offices in Glasgow, a decision that allows the broadcaster to benefit from the city's well-established TV production sector; congratulates Stuart Cosgrove and those who worked towards Glasgow's bid; recognises the role that Glasgow's vibrant independent production sector, which possesses strengths across multiple programme genres, has played in this decision, and anticipates the benefits that it considers this will bring to both Glasgow and Scotland's creative sector.

Supported by: Dean Lockhart*

*S5M-14587 Jeremy Balfour: Children's Holiday Venture Secures Big Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Children's Holiday Venture on securing £3,200 from the Big Lottery Fund; notes that the group will use the funding to run a 12-month activity programme for socially disadvantaged young people in Edinburgh, bringing young people from different communities together to try a range of activities in which they can develop new skills and help build confidence, and wishes everyone involved every success with this venture.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Annie Wells*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Liz Smith*, Peter Chapman*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Alison Harris*, Dean Lockhart*

*S5M-14586 Jeremy Balfour: Fabb Scotland Limited Secures Big Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Fabb Scotland Limited in Edinburgh on securing £8,800 from the Big Lottery Fund; notes that this group will use the funding to deliver four six-week programmes of after-school opportunities to disabled children, working in partnership with special schools; understands that the final week of each programme will include a trip to a local attraction, and wishes everyone involved well with the programmes.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Peter Chapman*, Miles Briggs*, Annie Wells*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Alison Harris*, Dean Lockhart*

*S5M-14585 Neil Findlay: Edinburgh Airport, Price Hike for Drop-off Zone—That the Parliament condemns the move by Edinburgh Airport to increase drop-off charges at the airport; understands that the price increase will come into force on 8 November 2018 and will see drivers forced to pay to £2 for five minutes and £4 for up to ten minutes, a £1 increase, while parking for up to 20 minutes will increase from £5 to £10; considers that these price hikes will not address congestion and are simply another way for the airport to maximise profit from its passengers, and calls on the management of Edinburgh Airport to scrap these planned increases.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Colin Smyth*, Elaine Smith*, Alex Rowley*

*S5M-14584 Tom Arthur: Lily Celebrates 100th Birthday—That the Parliament congratulates Lily Duffy on celebrating her 100th birthday; understands that she has resided at the Farrier Court sheltered housing complex in Johnstone for the last 20 years; notes that fellow residents and staff sneakily organised a surprise party, inviting along her son, John, and daughter-in-law, Vera; recognises how much her fellow residents value her friendship, and wishes Lily all the best.

Supported by: Clare Adamson*

*S5M-14583 Sandra White: G4C4 Secure Creative Hub—That the Parliament congratulates the team behind the Channel 4 for Glasgow bid on securing the city as one of the creative hubs; understands that the establishment of the creative hub will add to the already well-established and vibrant independent production sector, bringing Channel 4 commissioners closer to key production partners in Glasgow and assisting in developing the production and creative sector across Scotland; believes that the creative hub will enable Channel 4 to harness Glasgow's rich cultural diversity, improve on-screen representation and work with educational establishments to grow and nurture new talent into the production and broadcast industries, and looks forward to the creative hub launch.

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
