followed by Scottish Government Debate: Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit

S5M-14638 Richard Lochhead: Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit—That the Parliament notes with concern the growing number of voices within Scotland's research and science communities warning of the substantial threat that Brexit poses to Scotland's position as a leading nation in international science and research; understands the significant economic, social and cultural contributions that universities and other research institutions and their international collaborators bring to Scotland; believes that the UK Government's approach to the Brexit negotiations, including its commitment to ending freedom of movement, is undermining Scotland's worldwide reputation and threatening the mobility of students and researchers and full participation in European research programmes, and commits to exploring options to safeguard Scotland's international research collaborations and reputation for scientific excellence globally.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S5M-14638.1 Oliver Mundell: Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit—As an amendment to motion S5M-14638 in the name of Richard Lochhead (Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit), leave out from "notes with concern" to "European research programmes" and insert "recognises the very significant economic, social and cultural value of research co-operation across the UK and with the international community, and the benefits of knowledge exchange; welcomes the assurance of UK Government research funding up to 2020; supports the UK Government's plans to include science and innovation among future co-operative accords with the EU; urges the UK Government to ensure that the visa system is structured to attract students and staff of the highest calibre to work in UK universities and research centres".

S5M-14638.3 Iain Gray: Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit—As an amendment to motion S5M-14638 in the name of Richard Lochhead (Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit), insert at end ", including a focus from both the Scottish and UK governments on promoting the importance of Horizon Europe developing in a way that allows the UK to be involved."

S5M-14638.2 Tavish Scott: Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit—As an amendment to motion S5M-14638 in the name of Richard Lochhead (Safeguarding Scotland's International Research Collaborations and Reputation for Scientific Excellence from the Threat of Brexit), insert at end ", in addition to providing unequivocal support for a public vote on the final terms of the Brexit deal."

5:00 pm Decision Time

followed by Members' Business Debate on the subject of—S5M-14497 Liam Kerr: Emergency Service Workers—That the Parliament commends the bravery and dedication of emergency service workers in the north east and across the country; recognises what it sees as their extraordinary efforts to keep everyone safe, working long hours in often difficult circumstances; acknowledges that this can include heading towards danger when others are running away; understands that, in 2016-17, over 3,000 offences were committed against these workers, with attacks often carried out by the very people that they were trying to help; condemns such assaults; regards an attack on any emergency worker as an attack on society itself, and thanks all emergency workers with the police, fire, ambulance, search and rescue, prison and other services for all the work that they do.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

(b) that, in relation to any debate on a business motion setting out a business programme taken on Wednesday 14 November 2018, the second sentence of rule 8.11.3 is suspended and replaced with "Any Member may speak on the motion at the discretion of the Presiding Officer"

(c) that, in relation to First Minister's Questions on Thursday 15 November 2018, in rule 13.6.2, insert at end "and may provide an opportunity for Party Leaders or their representatives to question the First Minister"

(d) that the Parliament agrees, for the purposes of its consideration of the Age of Criminal Responsibility (Scotland) Bill, under Rule 9.6.3A of the Standing Orders, that the Parliament shall consider the general principles of the Bill on the fourth sitting day after publication of the lead committee report.

S5M-14656 Tavish Scott: Rick Nickerson and the Bigton Community Shop—That the Parliament congratulates Rick Nickerson, of the Bigton Community Shop, on his nomination in the People's Choice category of the Plunkett Foundation's Rural Community Ownership Awards, which celebrate the work of community businesses in rural areas; recognises that the category that Rick has been shortlisted in acknowledges the efforts of an individual who has made an outstanding effort; notes that he became the chair of a new management committee in 2012 after the shop was put up for sale; understands that the judges were impressed by his ability to rally the community and save the shop, which he runs with the support of six part-time staff and a number of volunteers; acknowledges that the shop aims to be dementia- and autism-friendly and to help reduce social isolation; looks forward to the awards ceremony on 5 December 2018 in London, and hopes for continued success for Rick and all at the shop.

S5M-14654 Linda Fabiani: East Kilbride and Santiago, Nae Pasaran!—That the Parliament notes that Nae Pasaran! won Best Film at the 2018 Scottish BAFTAs; further notes that the film tells the previously little-known story of Bob Fulton, Robert Somerville, Stuart Barrie, John Keenan and their fellow workers at the Rolls Royce factory in East Kilbride who defied the regime of the dictator, General Pinochet, in Chile by refusing to repair engines from Chilean Airforce planes; recognises the dedication, commitment and skill of Producer and Director, Felipe Bustos Sierra, in recording this piece of industrial history and international solidarity between Scotland and Chile, through meticulous research in both countries and by public fundraising to complete the full-length feature after the success of the short documentary; congratulates all those who were involved in ensuring that this film was made, and looks forward to viewing the future work of Felipe Bustos Sierra.

S5M-14653 Kezia Dugdale: Comas and the Serenity Cafe—That the Parliament notes with disappointment and regret that Edinburgh's Serenity Cafe has had to close its doors for the final time; recognises the groundbreaking work of Comas in providing both opportunities and a safe haven for Edinburgh's recovering community while also providing a meeting space for organisations and groups seeking to influence and engage with the Parliament; remembers that Comas was much more than a cafe, running hugely innovative projects such as an income maximisation programme in the Dumbiedykes estate, which is an area of significant poverty and disadvantage close to the Parliament; considers that there is a gaping hole in services available to the recovering community that are compounded by an extremely challenging funding environment for all charities and social enterprises, and thanks the staff, board, volunteers and customers for their commitment over the years.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Liam McArthur*, Jenny Gilruth*, Richard Lyle*, Rona Mackay*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*

S5M-14652 Rhoda Grant: Road Safety Week—That the Parliament supports the road safety charity, BRAKE, during Road Safety Week 2018, which extends from 19 to 25 November; acknowledges that the theme this year is Bike Smart; considers that cyclists and motorcyclists are among the most vulnerable road users in the UK, with more than 100 riders injured every day in needless, preventable collisions and notes that motorcyclists are 38 times more likely to be killed in a collision than car occupants per mile ridden; further considers that more people are cycling so that there is a greater need to protect them with a safe systems approach, and urges all road users to be Bike Smart.

S5M-14651 Liam McArthur: New Scotland's Charity Air Ambulance Helicopter Announced for Aberdeen—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Scotland's Charity Air Ambulance (SCAA) will be introducing a second helicopter to the fleet operated by the air ambulance service; understands that this is a direct result of a successful fundraising campaign, upon which the SCAA service is wholly reliant; notes that, since launching in 2013, the service has responded to 1,934 calls for assistance; believes that this additional capacity will help improve the service available across Scotland and that basing the helicopter in Aberdeen is particularly appropriate, given the reliance on the air ambulance in rural and island communities across the north of Scotland; thanks the public and many businesses, trusts and other organisations for their generosity in supporting this lifesaving and life-improving cause; acknowledges the campaign led by The Press and Journal, and looks forward to SCAA reaching its fundraising target over the coming months so that the helicopter can become fully operational during 2019.

Supported by: Alexander Burnett*, Liam Kerr*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Edward Mountain*, Murdo Fraser*, David Torrance*

S5M-14650 Christine Grahame: Zaagi—That the Parliament recognises the work done by the Lauder-based charity, Zaagi, which remakes donated bridal gowns into garments for stillborn babies and babies who pass away shortly after birth, with over 2,500 gowns having been donated since it was established in 2015; notes that the charity was set up by Kimberley Shaw-Walker following the death of her own daughter, Sarah, when she realised that standard baby clothes often do not meet the needs of stillborn babies due to things such as the way that they fasten, which can cause distress to parents at an already upsetting time; understands that the garments made by Zaagi are available at a number of maternity units, including at Borders General Hospital and Edinburgh Royal Infirmary, for people who want them, allowing parents to dress and spend time with their baby in a dignified manner, with a square of the fabric given to parents as a keepsake, and believes that, while a stillbirth is an unimaginable loss, such an initiative helps bring some level of comfort.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Rona Mackay*, Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-14649 Alexander Stewart: First Bus Complimentary Bus Journey for Uniformed Personnel on Remembrance Day—That the Parliament acknowledges the bus operator, First Bus, for offering a free single journey to uniformed personnel on Remembrance Sunday 2018; understands that the operator will provide a free ride to all armed forces personnel, veterans and cadets travelling to services and events across the country on 11 November; believes that uniforms and badges or a recognised ID badge can claim a free single journey up to 1pm on the day; notes that this is in honour of the fallen and surviving veterans on the 100th anniversary of the Armistice at the end of the First World War, and commends the company on its magnanimous and respectful gesture.

S5M-14647 James Dornan: Taiwan's Participation in Climate Change Talks—That the Parliament understands that Taiwan has set ambitious targets to reduce its greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions; believes that the country has introduced climate change action guidelines, both a GHG action plan and emissions control action programme, amended its air pollution control legislation and made a commitment to help to achieve the 17 sustainable development goals that are associated with tackling climate change; understands that Taiwan is pursuing renewable energy capacity and is hoping to attract foreign investment to develop offshore wind farms; believes that Taiwanese and Scottish renewable energy-related companies could further co-operate in this regard; considers that both the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and Paris Agreement highlight the global nature of climate change; calls for the widest possible participation of all countries in order to achieve an effective and appropriate response; considers that Taiwan's inclusion in both schemes could help meet the aims and spirit of the treaties and help bring climate justice; supports the idea that the country should be allowed to participate in the global mechanisms, negotiations and activities that promote the implementation of the Paris Agreement, and considers that it should be invited to participate in the 24th session of the Conference of the Parties of the UNFCCC.

Supported by: Fulton MacGregor*, David Torrance*, Sandra White*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Margaret Mitchell*

S5M-14645 Maureen Watt: The Aberdeen Cardiovascular and Diabetes Centre—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Aberdeen on the official launch of the Aberdeen Cardiovascular and Diabetes Centre; notes that around 70 people attended the event on 2 November 2018 at the Rowett Institute, which was carried out by the medical director of the British Heart Foundation, Sir Nilesh Samani; understands that the centre will give experts from the university's medical school and the institute an opportunity to work together in researching new methods to enhance cardiovascular and diabetic patient care; believes that this approach is important as these conditions are often interlinked; sends its best wishes to everyone at the centre, and hopes that they are successful in their work.

S5M-14644 Maureen Watt: Oil and Gas UK Awards 2018—That the Parliament congratulates to the organisers and winners at the 2018 Oil and Gas UK Awards, which took place at the Aberdeen Exhibition and Conference Centre on 1 November 2018; notes that over 500 people attended the event; recognises that this event enables the industry to recognise outstanding performances from companies and individuals, including the creation of a new award, Excellence in Decommissioning Award, which was won by CNR International; congratulates award winners, Ryan Fernando, who won Apprentice of the Year, and Giuseppe Tizzano, Mentor of the Year, who were selected from high calibre nominees, and sends its best wishes to Oil and Gas UK for continued success in its future events.

Supported by: Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-14641 Jeremy Balfour: Queensferry Churches Care in the Community Secures Big Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Queensferry Churches Care in the Community on securing £3,200 from the Big Lottery Fund; notes that the group will use the funding to extend and enhance volunteering opportunities in rural north west Edinburgh by recruiting more befrienders, gardeners and drivers to help support older people; understands that those involved will organise a range of activities that enable older people to remain in their own homes and tackle social isolation, and wishes them every success with this undertaking.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Annie Wells*, Liz Smith*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*, Bill Bowman*, Michelle Ballantyne* R, Alison Harris*, Murdo Fraser*, David Torrance*, Liam Kerr*

S5M-14640 Jeremy Balfour: Drum RDA Secures Big Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Drum RDA in Edinburgh on securing £7,202 from the Big Lottery Fund; notes that the group will use the funding to deliver two six-week family equine therapy and learning programmes for families with multiple needs to help improve their health, relationships and wellbeing, and wishes everyone involved well with the programmes.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Jeremy Balfour: Proposed Pet Shop (Licensing) (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to improve animal welfare by enhancing local authority pet shop licensing powers and updating the licensing system currently set out in the Pet Animals Act 1951, including in relation to licence conditions, fees and inspections. (lodged 24 October 2018)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
