Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-14696 Stuart McMillan: Universal Credit's Impact on Food Bank Usage in Scotland—That the Parliament notes with concern recent reports suggesting that food bank usage has risen across Scotland, particularly in local authority areas where Universal Credit (UC) is being rolled out; understands that, in Inverclyde, usage has increased by 350% since 2012, with the biggest increase rise in 2017, the year following the introduction of UC; believes that this highlights what it sees as the harsh reality of the UK Government's austerity agenda and welfare reforms; considers that these have had a disproportionate impact on people on low incomes and other vulnerable groups, such as women, disabled people and people from minority ethnic backgrounds; understands that there have been billions of pounds in cuts to social security support since the Conservative Party came to power in 2010, which have directly influenced poverty levels; believes that, at the same time, the UK Government has chosen to spend and earmark billions towards the renewal of Trident; considers that austerity is a political choice that has plunged people into crisis, and believes that it was a decision taken alongside the choice to invest heavily in nuclear weapons, while families struggle to put food on the table.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Joan McAlpine*, Angus MacDonald*, Richard Lyle*, John Mason*, Kenneth Gibson*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-14699 Liam McArthur: Scotland Women Rugby to be Broadcast on BBC Alba—That the Parliament congratulates Scottish Rugby on agreeing a contract with BBC Alba, which will see an unprecedented number of Scotland Women rugby matches broadcast on the channel in 2019; notes that these will include coverage of the Women's Six Nations and the final of the Sarah Beane Cup, which is the country's leading domestic competition; believes that this partnership reflects the growth of the women's game and will help strengthen its profile and broaden the appeal of the sport to a wider audience; notes that the games will be shown across the UK on the channel and via the BBC iPlayer, and wishes the Scotland squad the best of luck in their first match to be broadcast under the deal, which will be against Canada at Scotstoun on 27 November 2018.

S5M-14698 Liam McArthur: Longhope Lifeboat Museum Trust—That the Parliament congratulates the Longhope Lifeboat Museum Trust on raising £33,000, and surpassing its £30,000 target, to restore the former lifeboat station and honour those who lost their lives in the Longhope lifeboat disaster of 1969; notes that this appeal was greatly assisted by a £10,000 donation by Scottish Sea Farms, which helped build on the donations from across the community in Orkney; thanks everyone who contributed to the campaign and the volunteers who help support and promote the museum, and looks forward to the work being completed ahead of the 50th anniversary of the disaster.

Supported by: Gordon Lindhurst*

S5M-14697 Alexander Stewart: Recognition for Two Fife Women for First World War Research—That the Parliament commends the work of two Fife women who have been recognised for their efforts in researching and recording the secret work of the Hawkraig Admiralty Experimental Establishment Station during the First World War; acknowledges that Diana Maxwell and Alison Chapman from Aberdour Cultural Association will attend the Remembrance Service at Westminster Abbey on 11 November 2018, following their names being put forward by the Heritage Lottery Fund; understands that Diana, who is a former superintendent radiographer for nuclear medicine at the Victoria Hospital, Kirkcaldy, has written the book, Listen Up: Memories of the Hawkraig Admiralty Experimental Establishment Station, Aberdour, Fife 1915-1918; notes that the book has uncovered a part of the war's history that was virtually unknown as a result of it being a closely guarded secret; further notes that the book examines the innovative work carried out at the station, which achieved major technological advances of national significance; understands that it was originally published in 2014 with assistance from the Heritage Lottery Fund and, since then, has been subsequently updated after more information surfaced; notes that, by coincidence, Diana now lives in the same cottage where Captain Cyril Ryan, who was in the charge of the base, lived and where experimental work was carried out, and wishes both women all the very best for the book's future success.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alison Harris*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Maurice Corry*

S5M-14695 Monica Lennon: Sending Best Wishes to Scottish Women's National Team—That the Parliament sends its best wishes to the Scottish women's national football team for its friendly match against the current world champions, the United States, on 13 November 2018 at the Simple Digital Arena in Paisley; agrees that the match offers an excellent opportunity for Scotland supporters to come together to celebrate the achievements of the team; commends the head coach, Shelley Kerr, captain, Rachel Corsie, and the rest of the team for qualifying for the first time for the FIFA World Cup to be held in France in 2019; believes that the determined and motivated members of the team are important role models for young women and girls across Scotland, and wishes them the best of luck for future games.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Iain Gray*, Colin Smyth*, Stuart McMillan*, Tavish Scott*, Alison Johnstone*, Liam McArthur*, Pauline McNeill*

S5M-14694 David Stewart: Prof John MacLeod—That the Parliament commends the late John Macleod, an Aberdonian who discovered insulin in 1921; acknowledges that he received the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine in 1923 for his joint work with Frederick Banting; understands that, prior to this discovery, diabetes was potentially a fatal disease; notes with admiration that the lives of so many people with type 1 diabetes have been positively changed and improved since this discovery, and supports the nomination of John Macleod as being the scientist whose face should adorn the new Bank of England £50 note.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Stuart McMillan*, Liam McArthur*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-14693 Gordon MacDonald: Clovenstone Amateur Boxing Club Celebrates 25 Years—That the Parliament congratulates Clovenstone Amateur Boxing Club on its anniversary; understands that the boxing club was started 25 years ago by Rab McEwan and has produced many Scottish champions and internationalists; recognises that the club has always had a strong community ethos and has, in particular, taken a stand against drugs by helping boxers with drug dependency issues fight their addictions; appreciates that, under coach Craig McEwan's recent tutelage, the club has widened its target membership to both sexes and all ages, often concentrating on non-contact classes where appropriate, while retaining boxing moves and training practices, and acknowledges that the club is now also used by local non-boxing sports clubs, as well as training groups from the army, police, probation services, prisons and health organisations.

Members' Bills Proposals Molaidhean airson Bilean Buill

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Jeremy Balfour: Proposed Pet Shop (Licensing) (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to improve animal welfare by enhancing local authority pet shop licensing powers and updating the licensing system currently set out in the Pet Animals Act 1951, including in relation to licence conditions, fees and inspections. (lodged 24 October 2018)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
