Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-16795 Bill Kidd: International Workers' Memorial Day 2019—That the Parliament recognises International Workers' Memorial Day 2019, which will be marked on 28 April to remember the estimated 50,000 people who are killed each year through work-related incidents or illnesses; notes that the day also aims to encourage steps towards ensuring that such tragedies do not happen again, and recognises that this year's theme is "Dangerous substances, get them out of the workplace", which focuses on workers' exposure to carcinogens.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-16810 Fulton MacGregor: Little Learners—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Little Learners from New College Lanarkshire launched STEM Lanarkshire on 22 March 2019; understands that children from the Cumbernauld and Coatbridge campus nurseries enjoyed an action-packed morning trying out interactive activities led by students at the college at the Step into STEM event; notes that STEM Lanarkshire provides support for teachers, lecturers and educational professionals across the region to engage young people in STEM-related subjects, and that organisers of the event recognise the importance of introducing these subjects at an early age to expose learners to activities that create a STEM mindset throughout the education pipeline, and wishes everyone involved in the event success with inspiring the next generation of scientists.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*, Rona Mackay*, Stuart McMillan*, Emma Harper*, Richard Lyle*, Sandra White*

S5M-16809 Fulton MacGregor: Amnesty International's Football Welcomes Weekend—That the Parliament notes Amnesty International's Football Welcomes weekend of action, which will take place on 27-28 April 2019; recognises that the purpose of the campaign is to highlight the contribution that refugees have made to football in Scotland and the UK, while encouraging clubs, communities and people around the country to make refugees and asylum seekers feel welcome by participating in sport to build social inclusion; notes that Football Welcomes is part of Amnesty

International's "I Welcome" campaign, which calls for a better international response to the refugee crisis, and encourages communities to welcome and support people fleeing conflict and persecution; understands that football clubs from across Scotland, including from the Scottish Premiership, non-league and grassroots will take part in the weekend by organising a range of activities, including inviting refugees and asylum seekers to a game and hosting stadium tours and matches at their grounds, and congratulates football clubs across the country on their involvement in the campaign.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Rona Mackay*, Stuart McMillan*, Emma Harper*, Richard Lyle*, Sandra White*, George Adam*

S5M-16808 Peter Chapman: Macular Disease Awareness Event in Inverurie—That the Parliament commends the Macular Society on organising an event aimed at raising awareness of macular disease; understands that this condition is the biggest cause of slight loss in the UK, affecting nearly 1.5 million people, with more at risk; notes that the event will take place at the Hopeville Social Club in Inverurie on 18 April 2019; acknowledges the charity's work in highlighting the work of macular support groups, which help to increase the confidence and independence of people with the condition, and thanks the society and its groups on their continued efforts.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Bill Bowman*, Alexander Stewart*, Donald Cameron*, Liz Smith*, Margaret Mitchell*, Edward Mountain*, Annie Wells*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Maurice Golden*, Murdo Fraser*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16807 Peter Chapman: Tractor Fanatic's Friends Give Him a Fitting Legacy—That the Parliament welcomes the fundraising efforts in memory and honour of the north east tractor enthusiast, Sandy Thain; notes that the Sandy Thain Memorial Road Run has been held each October in memory of the Strichen man, who died in 2014 at the age of 75 from the rare disease, amyloidosis; understands that the group has raised more than £16,000, which has been given to different charities and local organisations; notes that, in October 2018, 37 tractors and 11 cars trundled along the roads as collection buckets were shaken to encourage donations, and that the event raised £2,350; acknowledges that the money was given to the British Heart Foundation, the Fraserburgh Royal British Legion Pipe Band and the Strichen Town Hall Renovation Committee, the last of which has special significance as it was where Sandy ran the local army cadets group, and thanks the generosity of businesses, entrants and sponsors from far and wide for their donations and support over the years.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Dean Lockhart*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Bill Bowman*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Edward Mountain*, Annie Wells*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, David Torrance*, Maurice Golden*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16806 Jenny Gilruth: Diageo Introduces Fully Paid Paternity Leave to all Workers—That the Parliament welcomes the investment by Diageo UK, Leven, in its workforce at the bottling plant and Cameron Bridge plant who will now be eligible for 26 weeks of fully-paid paternity leave and be able to retain benefits and bonuses regardless of gender, sexual orientation or whether they become parents biologically, via surrogacy or adoption, and considers that this stance reinforces Diageo's commitment to creating an inclusive and diverse working environment for all its employees.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Emma Harper*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16805 Jenny Gilruth: Craig Walker from Fife College Wins Staff Member of the Year Award—That the Parliament congratulates Craig Walker of Fife College on being awarded Staff

Member of the Year 2019 at the recent NUS Scotland Awards; believes that the awards celebrate the outstanding achievements of students and staff throughout Scotland's colleges and universities, and that the event provides an opportunity to applaud the unsung heroes from the student movement, while reflecting on the standout stories and achievements of the last year; commends Craig for going above and beyond for the students at Fife College; believes that, in doing so, Craig has demonstrated leadership, partnership, collaboration and inclusivity, and has driven forward positive change for Fife College and the wider community, and sends its sincere congratulations to Craig and all other staff and students at Fife College on this momentous achievement.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Rona Mackay*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16804 Jenny Gilruth: Tartan Treasures Win Award—That the Parliament congratulates Tartan Treasures, a group of students from Auchmuty High School, on taking first place at Young Enterprise Scotland's Company Programme for the Fife region; understands that the Company Programme gives S5 and S6 pupils practical experience of running a business by taking them through the steps needed to set up a social enterprise; notes the Tartan Treasures will now compete with businesses from all over Scotland at the Company Programme final, and wishes the students every success with their future, and the best of luck at the final.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Joan McAlpine*, George Adam*

S5M-16802 Jenny Gilruth: Railway Inn Wins Fife CAMRA Pub of the Year 2019—That the Parliament congratulates the Railway Inn in Lower Largo on being voted CAMRA Fife Pub of the Year 2019; recognises that the Railway Inn has been an established public house since 1749 and is a firm favourite with ramblers, dog walkers and locals; understands that the establishment is hosting its Ale Festival over the Largo Sailing Club's Regatta weekend from 21 to 23 June 2019; wishes the event every success, and sends its best wishes for the future to the staff at the Railway Inn.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, George Adam*

S5M-16801 Alison Johnstone: Happy 40th Birthday to Child Benefit—That the Parliament celebrates the 40th birthday of child benefit, which was introduced in April 1979; believes that child benefit is one of Scotland's most crucial social security payments, supporting 600,000 families and 900,000 children; welcomes that awareness of this benefit among eligible families is very high, with around 95% take-up; believes that this provides important lessons to the new Scottish social security system regarding how to make eligible families aware of their social security rights; agrees that a child benefit top-up should be used to boost the incomes of poorer families until the Scottish Income Supplement is ready; notes with regret that the actions of UK administrations mean that the value of child benefit has, it understands, fallen by £210 for a one-child family and £350 for a two-child family since 2009-10; welcomes the work of the Resolution Foundation in highlighting the importance of child benefit, and thanks all those who are involved in administering and helping families to access it.

S5M-16800 Neil Findlay: Scottish Prison Service—That the Parliament notes that an additional £4,000 was given to prison officers as a consequence of their continuing engagement in a change process; welcomes that the PCS union was successful in securing the same payment for more than 700 of its members; is concerned that, while it believes that this settlement demonstrates clearly the power of trade unions in fighting for equality in every workplace in Scotland, there are still workers in lower grades who have not yet, in its view, seen justice done and have still not received an uplift in their pay to reflect this change; believes that it is not morally correct for a government agency to treat its staff in what it considers this divisive manner, and believes that, in the interest of fairness, this payment should be applied to all band B staff at the earliest opportunity.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*

S5M-16799 Dean Lockhart: Living Well with Multiple Sclerosis—That the Parliament congratulates the MS Society Scotland on organising two Living Well with MS sessions in Kirkcaldy; notes that the sessions are for those who have been diagnosed with MS in the last five years; understands that the sessions will be held in St Bryce Kirk in Kirkcaldy on 2 and 16 May 2019; further understands that participants will have the opportunity to learn more about their condition and how to live well with it, and hopes that everyone who attends finds the sessions useful.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, George Adam*, Miles Briggs*, David Torrance*, Alexander Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*, Murdo Fraser*, Maurice Golden*, Edward Mountain*, Richard Lyle*, Peter Chapman*, Annie Wells*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Bill Bowman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Bill Kidd*, Jamie Greene*, Maurice Corry*

S5M-16798 Bruce Crawford: Too Good To Go Food Waste App Launched in Our Place Cafe in Stirling—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the new Too Good To Go app at the Our Place Cafe in Stirling; understands that this is the first place in Stirling to use the app, which allows local people to purchase food at a reduced rate that would otherwise be wasted; commends the cafe owners, Helen and Alan Rodgers, on their utilisation of technology innovation in order to make a significant contribution to reducing food waste in the hospitality sector, and encourages other similar businesses in the Stirling area and across the country to consider what innovative ways they can use to help tackle food waste.

Supported by: Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Rona Mackay*, Bob Doris*

S5M-16797 Stuart McMillan: Greenock Social Work Student Receives Honorary Award—That the Parliament congratulates Edward McKim, from Greenock, on receiving the Special Recognition by Users of Service award at the Scottish Association of Social Work (SASW) Awards 2019; understands that the 27-year-old is in his final year of his social work course at the University of the West of Scotland (UWS) and was nominated for the Student Social Worker of the Year award by a family that he had worked with; acknowledges that the anonymous nominator drafted a heartfelt letter that outlined the positive impact that Edward had on them and their family's life; notes that the Minister for Children and Young People, Maree Todd MSP, presented Edward with the honorary award; recognises that the SASW awards were founded in 2007 and celebrate exceptional practice within the social work profession; considers that Edward is a credit to Inverclyde and that his achievement is a real testament to his work ethic and the staff at UWS, and wishes him all the best in his final year of studies.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*, Fulton MacGregor*, Sandra White*, Rona Mackay*

S5M-16796 David Torrance: Fully-paid 26-week Equal Parental Leave for all Diageo UK Employees—That the Parliament commends Diageo UK for providing fully-paid parental leave for their employees, regardless of gender, sexual orientation or whether they become parents biologically, via surrogacy or adopt; understands that new parents are entitled to a full year's parental leave with the first 26 weeks fully paid; notes that its new policy also strengthens support for parents, such as keeping in touch days, parental coaching, flexible working policies and access to free independent counselling; recognises the difference that a progressive policy such as this can make to the lives of Diageo's employees of any gender across Scotland who wish to have a family and maintain fulfilling and rewarding employment, and hopes that more employers will strengthen their parental leave policies to provide the best support that they can for new parents.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Bob Doris*, Alex Neil*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-16794 Kezia Dugdale: The Edinburgh Seven Honoured With their Degrees—That the Parliament notes that the University of Edinburgh is conferring honorary posthumous MBChB degrees on Mary Anderson, Emily Bovell, Matilda Chaplin, Helen Evans, Sophia Jex-Blake, Edith Pechey and Isabel Thorne, who were known as the Edinburgh Seven; acknowledges that, although they were the first female medical students admitted to a UK university when they enrolled in 1869, the seven faced a great deal of resistance from their male counterparts and were ultimately prevented from graduating and qualifying as doctors; notes that their campaign against this treatment gained national attention and many supporters, including Charles Darwin, and led to legislation in 1876 to ensure that women could study and graduate in medicine at university; welcomes this news that, after 150 years, the seven are finally being awarded their degrees and are being recognised for helping to break down barriers, and considers them pioneers for the feminists who followed them in demanding equality and women's rightful, equal, place in the world.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Iain Gray*, David Torrance*, Kenneth Gibson*, Clare Adamson*, Richard Lyle*, Monica Lennon*, Alison Johnstone*, Rona Mackay*, Bob Doris*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-16793 Alex Cole-Hamilton: MEAction Scotland and the Draft Neurological Action Plan—That the Parliament understands that the draft neurological action plan sets out 17 commitments that aim to offer people living with neurological conditions access to improved care and support; believes that this represents potential progress for people affected by life-changing conditions; applauds the aim to introduce the first such national plan on neurological care; understands however that ME, or chronic fatigue syndrome, has previously been denigrated by neurological services and that it is not included in the two key pieces of work, on the prevalence and the mapping of neurological services, that were commissioned to underpin the plan; notes that MEAction Scotland, which is part of an international network of people that works towards health equality for people with ME, has expressed regret that it believes that the plan does not address the current situation relating to the support and treatment of people with the condition, and hopes that the final plan will rectify this to help ensure that it will be able to develop effective services for all people with neurological illnesses, including ME.

Supported by: Annie Wells*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16792 Alison Johnstone: Recognition for the Edinburgh Seven—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Sophia Jex-Blake, Isabel Thorne, Edith Pechey, Matilda Chaplin, Helen Evans, Mary Anderson, and Emily Bovell, who were known as the Edinburgh Seven, are to be awarded posthumous honorary degrees by the University of Edinburgh on 6 July 2019; understands that, when they began studying medicine in 1869, they were the first group of matriculated undergraduate female students at any British university; believes that they endured verbal and physical harassment and were prevented from graduating and qualifying as doctors; considers however that their efforts helped put the right of women to receive a university education on the national agenda; understands that their campaign gained support from key figures of the day, including Charles Darwin, and that their efforts led directly to the introduction of the Medical Act 1876, which gave permissive power to the medical examining bodies in the UK

S5M-16791 Gillian Martin: Meldrum House Country Hotel Wins Global Award—That the Parliament congratulates the Meldrum House Country Hotel on its Cave Bar winning the Hotel Bar of the Year at the World Whisky Awards; understands that these prestigious global awards were launched in 2004 to showcase the very best in the whisky industry; acknowledges that the bar is part of the original manor house on the hotel site, which dates back to 1236, and that it offers customers over 120 malts and blends; recognises the importance of businesses such as the country hotel in showcasing the food and drink that Scotland has to offer; commends its staff on this success, and wishes them all well.

Supported by: Edward Mountain*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Liam Kerr*, Sandra White*, Richard Lyle*, Rona Mackay*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-16790 Margaret Mitchell: The Boyd Tunnock Clubhouse at Uddingston Bowling and Tennis Club—That the Parliament notes that, on 30 March 2019, Uddingston Bowling and Tennis Club renamed its clubhouse as the Boyd Tunnock Clubhouse in recognition of the decades of continuous support and generosity that Boyd and his family have shown to the club, and considers that this honour being bestowed on him is well deserved.

S5M-16789 Pauline McNeill: British Gas Job Losses—That the Parliament understands with concern that 285 jobs are to be lost at the British Gas call centre at City Park in Glasgow; is further concerned that many more jobs across the country are in danger, with 4,000 losses planned across the business, including at eight out of its 13 call centres and 150 management jobs; supports calls from the GMB for the company to redeploy affected staff to other locations; urges it to be transparent on its plans for staff at its Scottish sites and to work with unions and the Scottish Government to safeguard jobs, and calls on British Gas to show its commitment to Scotland by keeping its workforce in the country.

Supported by: Alex Neil*, Bill Kidd*, James Kelly*, Clare Adamson*, David Torrance*, Monica Lennon*, Sandra White*, Rona Mackay*, Bob Doris*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-16788 Angus MacDonald: Making Learning Work at Forth Valley College—That the Parliament congratulates Forth Valley College (FVC) on achieving an "Excellent" grade for Leadership and Quality and two "Very Good" grades for Outcomes and Impact and for Delivery of Service in the latest Evaluative Report and Enhancement Plan released by Education Scotland; understands that FVC has achieved similar endorsements over the last five years, confirming its place as one of the strongest performing sector-leading colleges across the UK; commends the significant work undertaken by the college in ensuring that students achieve under all circumstances, including "Time 4 Me", a new £143,000 mentoring support scheme funded by The Robertson Trust and run through Forth Valley College's Student Services Department, and a new Carers Charter, which has led to the college been accredited as an Engaged Carer Positive Employer in Scotland to "exemplary" standard; understands that the college was short-listed for Best Teaching and Learning Initiative at the TES UK Further Education Awards 2018 for its innovative back warm-up learning programme, I am the Machine; considers that support services at the college are also highly regarded, having won the main Grand Prix Award, two golds and one bronze at the CDN Marketing Awards 2018; notes that the college's exam pass rate has also increased for the third year in a row, with a total of 88% of SQA National Qualification students successfully passing their course; applauds the efforts of staff and students, under the leadership of principal, Dr Ken Thomson, in ensuring that FVC is indeed a place that makes learning work; looks forward to the opening of the new Falkirk Campus of the college in 2019, and wishes all staff and students continued success.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Joan McAlpine*, Sandra White*, Clare Adamson*, Richard Lyle*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-16786 Bill Bowman: Lynn McClean from Angus, at the Cutting Edge of Textile Conservation—That the Parliament congratulates Lynn McClean, who is from Angus, on her contribution to textile conservation at the Museum of Scotland, at which she is the principal conservator for paper and textiles; understands that Lynn initially trained at the Duncan of Jordanstone College of Art and Design in Dundee before completing a three-year post graduate degree at the Textile Conservation Centre and carrying out further studies at the National Trust's Textile Conservation Studio; notes that, in her current role, she has worked on many large projects, including the opening of the Exploring East Asia gallery, which presented her with a rare opportunity to work on the 19th century suit of Japanese samurai armour that had never previously been on display; recognises Lynn's dedication to preserving the past for future generations, and wishes her continued success.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Alexander Stewart*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Kidd*, Margaret Mitchell*, Annie Wells*, Jeremy Balfour*, Tom Mason*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Clare Adamson*, Maurice Golden*

S5M-16785 Bill Bowman: University of Dundee's Global Impact—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the University of Dundee has been ranked 20th in the world for its positive impact on society by The Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings; believes that these rankings recognise that the role of universities extends beyond research and teaching to include public engagement, the transfer of knowledge and innovation for the benefit of society, and congratulates the university on achieving this global ranking.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Murdo Fraser*, Alexander Stewart*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Margaret Mitchell*, Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Peter Chapman*, Tom Mason*, Edward Mountain*, Jeremy Balfour*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Clare Adamson*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*

S5M-16784 Mark Ruskell: Edinburgh Science Festival Divests from Fossil Fuels—That the Parliament welcomes the Edinburgh Science Festival's decision to no longer accept funding from fossil fuel companies or their primary trade bodies; commends Science Unstained, a grassroots group of scientists, science lovers and activists, who ran a campaign calling for the Edinburgh Science Festival to sever its ties with the fossil fuels industry; considers that this announcement comes after a number of other victories for divestment campaigners, including the recent announcement that the University of Stirling will be the ninth organisation in Scotland to commit to ending investment in fossil fuel companies, and calls on other publicly-funded organisations to outline plans to transition their investments away from fossil fuel companies.

S5M-16783 Alexander Burnett: Andrew Fyfe and Aboyne Tennis Club—That the Parliament congratulates Aboyne Tennis Club and Andrew Fyfe, who is a club member, on being shortlisted in the Club and Volunteer of the year categories respectively at the annual Tennis Scotland Awards, which celebrate players and clubs that go above and beyond in attracting new playing

S5M-16782 Monica Lennon: A904 Bo'ness Road Closure—That the Parliament understands with disappointment that the Scottish Ministers have overruled a planning decision in favour of Ineos, which it believes will see the closure of the A904 Bo'ness Road; considers that the decision to grant planning permission is out of step with the views held by many residents who, it understands, will be subject to increased journey times; believes that this will also bring added pressure to the surrounding road network, and commends the efforts of the campaign group, Bo'ness Road Action Group (BRAG), which it considers has fought continuously against the closure of the road. R

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*, Neil Findlay*, Iain Gray*

S5M-16781 Maureen Watt: Newtonhill Primary School—That the Parliament congratulates Newtonhill Primary School on being shortlisted for the 1+2 Languages and Internationalism Award category at the Scottish Education Awards 2019; recognises the hard work and dedication of its teachers in achieving the ambitious target based on the European Union 1+2 model, which aims for pupils to learn two languages in addition to their own mother tongue; understands that, for the pupils, this means they will learn Spanish as a second language (L2) from P1-P7 and get a taste of French for a third language (L3) from P5-P7; notes that this approach has been adopted in many countries in Europe and beyond; acknowledges the importance and value of acquiring language skills as part of a child's development, and hopes that the children will benefit from learning additional languages for many years to come.

Supported by: Clare Adamson*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-16780 Alexander Burnett: Ballater Pharmacy Awarded for Dedication to Flooded Community—That the Parliament congratulates Davidsons Chemist in Ballater on winning the Community Pharmacy Team Award at the Scottish Pharmacy Awards; commends its efforts to deliver and dispense against all odds and for opening a temporary dispensing unit within two days of Storm Frank in 2015, when the business and the surrounding community faced devastating floods that destroyed the pharmacy; recognises that the judges praised the team for their joint effort to rebuild the pharmacy and support other clinics during this time; thanks the team for their motivation, determination and loyalty to their community in such vulnerable and critical circumstances, and wishes them continued enjoyment in serving the Ballater community.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Alison Harris*, Miles Briggs*, Maurice Corry*, Jamie Greene*, Tom Mason*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Bowman*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Annie Wells*, Murdo Fraser*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Jeremy Balfour*, Brian Whittle*, Maurice Golden*

recognises that the Dalemairn World's Original Marmalade Awards are the most prestigious awards of their kind and that Kincardine Castle Kitchen won against competition from across the globe; commends both chefs for their authenticity in producing their marmalade by chopping and squeezing all the fruit by hand and cooking it in the traditional open-pan style, before selling it at local farmers' markets in Aberdeenshire; acknowledges that the awards began in 2005 with the aim of preserving, growing and widening the tradition of making marmalade, and wishes Kincardine Castle Kitchen continued success with its business and contribution to the Scottish pantry.

S5M-16722 Emma Harper: The Galloway Cattle Society—That the Parliament congratulates the Galloway Cattle Society on its work; understands that, with assistance from the Dumfries and Galloway LEADER programme, the society, through its Defining Galloway Beef Project, has been working to raise awareness of this ancient, sustainable, native breed, which is considered to be "at risk"; believes that creating consumer demand is the best way to secure its future; understands that the breed has positive environmental impacts and that the beef from it is an exceptional meat, with a full, rich flavour; congratulates Fraser Cameron on being appointed as the chef ambassador for the breed at the age of just 21; recognises that his work with the society is as a direct result of Scotland's Year of Young People; looks forward to seeing the breed having a higher profile through the work that the society does, including its efforts to get beef from the breed into Aldi stores across the country, and notes that more information about the breed can be found at gallowaybeef.co.uk.

Members' Bills Proposals Molaidhean airson Bilean Buill

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

New Draft Proposal

Graham Simpson MSP: Proposed New-Build Homes (Buyer Protection) (Scotland) Bill—A proposal for a Bill to establish standard missives for the sale of new-build homes, including redress for purchasers in respect of defects in construction (lodged 4 April 2019).

A consultation document, lodged with the proposal, may be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe) or on the website page referred to above. The consultation period runs from 5 April to 27 June 2019.

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Richard Lyle: Proposed Licensing of Funfairs (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to exempt travelling funfairs from public entertainment licensing requirements and to create a distinct new licensing system for travelling funfairs in Scotland. (lodged 26 March 2019)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
