*S5M-20270 Richard Lyle: The Showmen's Guild of Great Britain and Northern Ireland—That the Parliament joins the Showmen's Guild of Great Britain and Northern Ireland in celebrating its 130th anniversary; understands that the Guild was founded as the United Kingdom Van Dwellers Protection Association in 1889 in Salford; believes that its formation was a key moment in the recognition of showmen having a lifestyle that is a culture rather than an occupation, leading to the idea of travelling showmen being recognised as a cultural group; understands that the principal objective of the Guild has remained the same since its inception, which is to protect the interests of its members, travelling showmen who gain their livelihoods by attending funfairs; notes that it does so both through its code of rules for members and by using the legal and constitutional processes that exist; congratulates Philip Paris, who has become the first Scot to be named as the President of the Guild since Jack Cullis in the 1950s, and thanks showmen across Scotland, including in the Uddingston and Bellshill constituency, and the rest of the UK, on their contribution to, and the significant and important part that they play, in public life.

Mark—That the Parliament congratulates Shawlands Academy in Glasgow, which has achieved the Gold Level LGBT Charter Mark; recognises the hard work and dedication of the pupils and staff in gaining this prestigious award from LGBT Youth Scotland; understands that the school undertook partnership work with sports clubs in the community to build an inclusive sports environment for young LGBT people to support them moving up into clubs outside of school and that LGBT author events and workshops took place that helped pupils celebrate LGBT identities, and welcomes the training and review of policies, practice and resources to help ensure that the Academy goes beyond meeting legislative needs and is as inclusive as it can be for pupils, staff, parents and the wider community.

*S5M-20276 Alison Johnstone: New Future for Community Farm Site—That the Parliament understands that Gorgie City Farm was one of the last urban farms in Scotland and provided volunteering opportunities and support to disadvantaged young people and adults, including those with additional support needs; notes with regret that the farm went into liquidation in November 2019; recognises that the local community has been determined to ensure that the values and work of Gorgie City Farm continue, as evidenced by £100,000 being raised by a Go Fund Me page established by a former employee of the farm; welcomes the news that a new operation is likely to open on the site, and that three bidders have been shortlisted to take over, with the successful bidder due to be announced in January 2020; believes that the new operator of the site should ensure that it continues to be widely and easily accessible to the community, play an educational role in helping people learn more about agriculture and offer volunteering opportunities, and looks forward to the reopening of site to the public in Spring 2020.

*S5M-20272 Neil Findlay: Downgrade of St John's Children's Ward—That the Parliament notes with alarm the reported number of children from West Lothian who have needed to travel to Edinburgh for treatment due to the closure of the 24/7 children's ward at St John's in Livingston; understands that, since the 24/7 service ended in 2017, more than 1,000 children have been taken in ambulances from Livingston to the Royal Hospital for Sick Children in Edinburgh, and believes that the 24/7 service should reopen at St John's to ease what it sees as the burden for local sick children and their families.

Supported by: Iain Gray*, Monica Lennon*

*S5M-20271 Alison Johnstone: Tackling Food Insecurity in West Lothian—That the Parliament understands that the most recent West Lothian Council Partnership and Resources Policy Development and Scrutiny Panel noted that "food poverty in West Lothian is growing and significant" and particularly impacts unemployed people, disabled people and households with children, especially single parents; further understands that, in 2018-19, the West Lothian Food Bank issued 2,925 three-day emergency food packs to 5,885 local people in crisis, a 41% increase on the previous year; considers that West Lothian Council and its third sector partners are taking steps to reduce food insecurity and ensure sustainability of food provision across the council area, including developing a West Lothian food network, working with Fare Share to ensure unwanted food is redistributed, holding a Food with Dignity conference in March 2020 to share good practice and develop a local food action plan, and creating an interactive map to aid access to advice and support; understands that these measures are being supported by £150,000 of council funding; believes that a right to food should be established in Scots law, and calls on the UK and Scottish governments to tackle the root causes of food insecurity in West Lothian and across Scotland.

*S5M-20269 Lewis Macdonald: Importance of an International Treaty on Business and Human Rights—That the Parliament notes the recent negotiations during the UN Business and Human Rights Forum in Geneva on a binding treaty on business and human rights; acknowledges what it sees as the need for such a treaty to protect the rights of workers and communities to avoid businesses causing or contributing to adverse impacts through their own activities, and to help deal with the impact of such incidents when they do occur; believes that such a treaty should ensure that trade and investment can serve to support human rights rather than infringe them, strengthen international cooperation to ensure that communities negatively affected by business activities can access justice, protect human rights defenders, whose activism often puts them at great personal risk, particularly women who face gendered attacks, and guarantee the right to consent by indigenous and affected peoples; recognises the positive contribution that international civic society has played in the treaty negotiations to date, including the work carried out by Scottish organisations, such as SCIAF, Global Justice Now and Scotland's International Development Alliance, and urges the UK Government to engage constructively in the treaty negotiation process.

*S5M-20268 Fulton MacGregor: BEMIS Scotland, the SFA and the St Andrew's Multi-Cultural Cup—That the Parliament commends BEMIS Scotland and the SFA for their continuous effort to enhance equality and the participation of diverse communities in football; welcomes the participation of community football teams from across the country in the St Andrew's Multi-Cultural Cup, which was held at Toryglen Football Centre as part of the St Andrew's Fair Saturday celebrations, and believes that this reaffirms that football is a platform for fitness, wellbeing, community cohesion and common celebration.

*S5M-20267 Fulton MacGregor: BEMIS Scotland and St Andrew's Fair Saturday—That the Parliament congratulates BEMIS Scotland and the diverse ethnic and cultural minority communities of Scotland that participated in the international celebration of St Andrew's Fair Saturday on 30 November 2019; notes that the multicultural celebration included events such as the Gypsy Traveller Gathering in Aberdeen, the Scottish Arab Women's St Andrew's Day in Glasgow, Syrians Celebrate St Andrew's Day in Dumfries, Africa Futures St Andrew's Day in Govan and the football event, the St Andrew's Multi-Cultural Cup in Glasgow, and believes that this reflects the diversity of modern Scotland and exemplifies a human rights-based approach to creating an inclusive and responsive contemporary national identity that responds to the multifarious nature of the cultural identities and community dynamics.

*S5M-20265 Claudia Beamish: Lessons from COP25—That the Parliament notes the conclusion of the UN Climate Change Conference, COP25, which was held in Madrid; believes that COP25 failed to make progress on some key issues within the Paris Agreement, including on finance for loss and damage for developing countries already hit by climate change, or on long-term climate finance; stands in solidarity with representatives from countries most impacted by climate change and civic society who were temporarily ejected from COP25; considers that voices from the Global South, Indigenous Peoples and climate justice advocates, rather than those of richer nations and those multi-national companies that are failing to address the climate emergency, must be at the heart of climate negotiations; looks forward to the next UN Climate Change Conference, COP26, which is being held in Glasgow in 2020; is concerned that COP26 will be the fourth such meeting in a row to be held in Europe; calls on the Scottish and UK Governments to proactively support people from the Global South and those most affected by climate change to attend and be heard at the conference, and believes that Scotland must use the next year to further strengthen climate action ahead of COP26.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
