Meeting of the Parliament

2:00 pm Time for Reflection: Reverend Wilhelmina Nesbitt, Rector, St John the Evangelist Church, Greenock

followed by Parliamentary Bureau Motions

followed by Topical Questions

1. Liam McArthur: To ask the Scottish Government what its projections are for the prison population, in light of statistics showing that the majority are at or above capacity. (S5T-01435)

2. Pauline McNeill: To ask the Scottish Government what it is doing to support the reported increasing number of people who are struggling to pay their rent or mortgage. (S5T-01438)

followed by Scottish Government Debate: Securing a just transition to a carbon-neutral economy

S5M-15380 Roseanna Cunningham: Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy—That the Parliament supports the application of just transition principles in Scotland, acknowledging the need to plan, invest in and implement a transition to carbon-neutrality in a way that is fair for all.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S5M-15380.2 Maurice Golden: Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy—As an amendment to motion S5M-15380 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy), insert at end ", and believes that implementing a circular economy strategy for Scotland is an effective and sustainable way to bring about this transition."

S5M-15380.3 Claudia Beamish: Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy—As an amendment to motion S5M-15380 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy), insert at end ", and further supports the just transition process through giving further consideration to the establishment of a statutory, long-term just transition commission, which should be well-funded, independent of government and accountable to the Parliament, building on the work of the present non-statutory commission."

S5M-15380.1 Mark Ruskell: Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy—As an amendment to motion S5M-15380 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy), insert at end "; recognises that global fossil fuel reserves far exceed the amount that can safely be used without causing catastrophic climate change; agrees therefore that the policy of maximum economic recovery of oil and gas, as advocated by both Scottish and UK governments, is incompatible with the Paris Agreement or with the goal of a just transition; supports an accelerated roll-out of renewable energy and decommissioning projects, creating secure and high-quality employment opportunities, and calls for the principles of a just transition to be embedded across all government infrastructure policy, planning and projects, including the national investment bank and publicly-owned energy company."

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-15391 Jeane Freeman: Healthcare (International Arrangements) Bill - UK

Legislation—That the Parliament agrees that the relevant provisions of the Healthcare (International Arrangements) Bill, introduced in the House of Commons on 26 October 2018, relating to powers to make healthcare payments; healthcare agreements and data processing, in so far as these matters fall within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament or alter the executive competence of the Scottish Ministers, should be considered by the UK Parliament.

Supported by: Joe FitzPatrick*, Clare Haughey*

S5M-15390 Richard Leonard: Scotland's Future Economy—That the Parliament expresses its solidarity with the people and communities who have suffered as a result of recent workplace closures, including those at sites in Cambuslang, Dingwall, Dumfries, Dundee, Livingston and Shotts; believes that Scotland's future economy needs to be rebalanced with an industrial strategy to promote indigenous business development and to grow a more diverse economy that puts the interests of employees and their communities at its heart, and calls on the Scottish Government to increase support for growing public, co-operative and employee ownership models.

S5M-15380 Roseanna Cunningham: Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral

Economy—That the Parliament supports the application of just transition principles in Scotland, acknowledging the need to plan, invest in and implement a transition to carbon-neutrality in a way that is fair for all.

Supported by: Derek Mackay*

S5M-15380.3 Claudia Beamish: Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral

Economy—As an amendment to motion S5M-15380 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Securing a Just Transition to a Carbon-neutral Economy), insert at end “, and further supports the just transition process through giving further consideration to the establishment of a statutory, long-term just transition commission, which should be well-funded, independent of government and accountable to the Parliament, building on the work of the present non-statutory commission.”

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-15386 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Caledonian Thebans RFC Secures First Clubhouse—That the Parliament welcomes the news that the Caledonian Thebans, which it understands is Scotland's first gay-inclusive rugby club, has signed an agreement to use its clubhouse for events; understands that this is thanks to the support of Edinburgh Leisure and the City of Edinburgh Council; believes that this makes the Thebans the only UK gay-inclusive side to have such a facility, and acknowledges what it believes will be the role that the clubhouse will serve in growing the team and promoting sport among minority groups.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Mark Ruskell*, Rona Mackay*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-15400 Tom Mason: NorthLink Ferries Raises Money for the Archie Foundation—That the Parliament congratulates NorthLink Ferries on raising £7,072.35 for the Archie Foundation; acknowledges that NorthLink Ferries' efforts included abseiling down the Royal Aberdeen Children's Hospital and taking part in the Virtual Challenge trek; understands that the Archie Foundation is a charity that plays a very important role in children's healthcare, as it provides advanced training and equipment, specialist staff, child-friendly environments and extensive support to families of sick children, and wishes both organisation the best for the future.

Supported by: Gordon Lindhurst*, Alison Harris*, Bill Kidd*, Tavish Scott*, Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Alexander Stewart*

S5M-15394 Edward Mountain: Duncan MacInnes OBE—That the Parliament congratulates Duncan MacInnes on being appointed an OBE in the New Year's Honours List 2019 for his services to the arts and natural environment in Sleat, Isle of Skye; recognises his continuous work in promoting performing arts events in venues around Sleat, and wishes Duncan the very best in the future.

services to the community in Caithness; recognises his continuous efforts to bring the past back to life for schoolchildren across the north of Scotland through involvement in various projects, including the 2005 Imperial War Museum project, Their Past Your Future, and wishes Donald the very best in the future.

S5M-15392 Michelle Ballantyne: Longniddry Primary School receives UNICEF Gold Award—That the Parliament congratulates Longniddry Primary School on receiving a UNICEF Rights Respecting School gold award for its promotion of respect, dignity and non-discrimination, which ensures the safety and wellbeing of its pupils, and acknowledges the efforts of the staff in ensuring that the pupils' rights are respected.

S5M-15389 Tom Mason: Charlie House 1,000-mile Challenge—That the Parliament acknowledges that Charlie House, an Aberdeen charity that supports children and babies with complex disabilities and life-limiting conditions, is hosting a 1,000-mile challenge to raise funds for its Big Build Appeal; understands that the charity is fundraising to open a new support centre, which will be the first of its kind in the north east; commends the charity for encouraging members of the public to walk, cycle, swim or run 1,000 miles over the course of 2019, and wishes Charlie House the best in reaching its fundraising goals.
