Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S5M-18066 Rachael Hamilton: Congratulates Doddie Weir OBE and Calls for Automatic Access to Blue Badge Scheme for People with MND—That the Parliament congratulates Doddie Weir on receiving his OBE from The Queen at the Palace of Holyroodhouse; recognises that he received his award for services to motor neurone disease (MND) research, rugby and the Borders community; notes calls for the Scottish Government to change the criteria for the Blue Badge scheme to allow people with MND to have automatic access, rather than through the lengthy process of an assessment; further notes the view that automatic access is the most appropriate way due to the nature of the disease, which leads to a rapid deterioration in a person's physical ability; notes that Doddie and The Scotsman back the campaign to give people with MND automatic access to a Blue Badge, and believes that people with the condition, and their families, should be able to live their lives as fully as possible and in a dignified way.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-18149 Clare Adamson: Wishaw Priest Celebrates Silver Jubilee—That the Parliament congratulates Father Gerry Maguiness of St Ignatius RC Church Wishaw on the occasion of his silver jubilee; understands that Fr Maguiness was ordained in 1994 and served at St Colmcille's in Rutherglen, St Monica's Coatbridge and St Edwards Airdrie before being appointed parish priest at St Ignatius in 2012, having served there as an assistant priest 20 years previously; notes that the celebration Mass was supported by Caritas pupils from St Aidan's High School and the St Ignatius Choir, as well as local cubs and scouts; expresses its gratitude to Fr Maguiness for his continued hard work and guidance to both the parish and wider community, and hopes that he enjoys his silver jubilee celebrations.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18148 Clare Adamson: Motherwell Seniors Forum National Lottery Awards for All Success—That the Parliament congratulates Motherwell Seniors Forum on receiving £2,371 from the National Lottery Awards for All programme; notes that the forum will use the funding for day trips for new and current members to help reduce social isolation and develop new friendships, and wishes it well in all its future endeavours.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18147 Clare Adamson: Rivals Amateur Boxing Club Receives Awards for All

Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Rivals Amateur Boxing Club on its recent £5,000 Awards for All grant; notes that the gym, which is in Wishaw, will use the funding to pay for a hall upgrade, equipment and disability coaching sessions, which will encourage children and adults to participate in boxing, and wishes the boxing club well with all future endeavours.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18146 Clare Adamson: Craigneuk Family Learning Centre Awards for All Funding—

That the Parliament congratulates the Craigneuk Family Learning Centre on its recent £3,910 Awards for All Scotland grant from the National Lottery Community Fund; notes that the centre, which is in Wishaw, will use the funding for a healthy eating project for parents and children, which will include healthy cooking lessons that will improve knowledge and skills for making independent healthy eating choices, and wishes the centre well with all future endeavours.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Emma Harper*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18145 Mark McDonald: Leaders in Holocaust Education—That the Parliament congratulates Dyce Academy on being granted the Leaders in Holocaust Education Award from the Yad Vashed World Holocaust Remembrance Centre in Israel; understands that this accolade recognises its outstanding work in developing a Holocaust education programme for pupils; notes that the programme helps pupils examine how the Holocaust happened and how it can be prevented from happening again; commends the efforts of the entire school in helping to ensure that the horrors of the Holocaust are never repeated, and wishes everyone involved continued success in building a strong and inclusive community.

S5M-18144 Alexander Burnett: Greener Kemnay Receives £9,700 from Creative Scotland—

That the Parliament thanks Creative Scotland for donating £9,700 to Greener Kemnay; recognises that this money will contribute to the commission of public art work to raise awareness of walking paths that connect different communities within Kemnay in the Aberdeenshire West constituency; acknowledges that Creative Scotland, in partnership with the National Lottery, donates grants ranging from £300 to £10,000 for local projects aiming to benefit people most in need, and wishes the group continued success with its ongoing art project and future contributions to the local community.

S5M-18143 Liam McArthur: Kirkwall Nationwide Branch Wins Community Branch of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates Kirkwall Nationwide Branch in Orkney on being named joint winners of the Community Branch of the Year at the Nationwide Annual Awards 2019; understands that the branch was recognised for the efforts of the local team to reach out and support initiatives within the community; notes that the branch has raised funds for a number of good causes, including a longstanding commitment to Orkney Drugs Dog, which was supported through the Nationwide employee funding programme; thanks all of the staff at the Kirkwall branch for going above and beyond in their support of local causes, and wishes them well in their future fundraising initiatives.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18142 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Return of the Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival—That the Parliament welcomes the return of the Edinburgh Jazz & Blues Festival, which runs from 12 to 21 July 2019; understands that the festival will include over 140 concerts across 10 venues; recognises the cultural value in the renowned festival, which was originally set up in 1978 by the banjo player and guitarist, Mike Hart; applauds the work of the musicians, crew, volunteers and everyone who make the festival a success, and hopes that the festival continues for years to come.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Pauline McNeill*, Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Richard Lyle*, Maureen Watt*

S5M-18141 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Cleaning up Kirkliston—That the Parliament congratulates the Kirkliston community, the rapid relief team and the Edinburgh Gospel Trust, which are based in the Edinburgh Western constituency, on their efforts in clearing 30 full bin bags of litter from the town on 29 June 2019; recognises their joint mission to spread "community spirit, compassionate care and supportive hands"; applauds the dedication, compassion and effort shown by the 40 volunteers; considers that the Scottish Government must take rapid steps to help support this kind of work to help the environment, and hopes that this small group of volunteers inspires others to do similar.

Supported by: Neil Findlay*

S5M-18140 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Support in Mind—That the Parliament congratulates Support in Mind Scotland on its consistent work in supporting people with mental illness; commends the aim of the organisation to support and empower all those affected by mental illness, including family members, carers and supporters; applauds the work of the 11 people who raised £10,000 for the charity by walking 100km in just two days; believes that the Scottish Government needs to do more to support people with mental illness, and hopes that Support in Mind Scotland continues its tremendous work throughout the nation.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Liam McArthur*, Mark McDonald*, Edward Mountain*, Colin Smyth*

S5M-18138 Angus MacDonald: Grangemouth Children's Day 2019—That the Parliament celebrates Grangemouth Children's Day 2019, which took place in the town on 22 June; understands that the annual event has been running for over a hundred years and is held in Zetland Park in Grangemouth, where thousands of people turn out to join the parade and watch as the next Children's Day Queen is crowned beside her entourage from a chosen local school; commends the hard work and dedication of the Children's Day committee, without whom the event could never go ahead; thanks the many local businesses for their significant contribution to the event, along with teachers, pupils and parents from Grangemouth primary schools and nurseries, Falkirk Council and Falkirk Community Trust for their support; acknowledges that 2019 is the last Children's Day for Violet Cook as secretary of the committee; notes that Violet has been involved in the event for over 50 years but became involved as secretary in 1989 when her husband, Lex, recruited her to the committee; commends Violet for her tireless dedication to the children of Grangemouth and her significant work for Children's Day over the years; congratulates everyone involved in this fantastic community event, and looks forward to it being held for many years to come.

S5M-18137 Angus MacDonald: Green Economy Funding for Falkirk District Organisations—That the Parliament applauds funding of over £900,000 from the Scottish Power Energy Networks Green Economy Fund to organisations in the Falkirk district for projects across the Forth Valley; notes that the fund was set up to contribute up to £20 million over two years by SP Energy Networks to support initiatives that will benefit the people of Scotland and support ambitious green energy plans and local economic growth; understands that Forth Valley College will receive £43,727 to create a STEM hub at its three campuses in Falkirk, Stirling and Clackmannanshire, where students, businesses and members of the public can learn about renewables and energy efficiency; recognises that Little Kerse Leisure has been granted £380,000 and will use this to replace floodlights at its football facilities with modern, energy-efficient LED versions; notes that Forth Environment Link will expand its e-bike sharing scheme with the £483,690 grant that it received; considers it is important to invest in low-carbon solutions to generate economic growth for the benefit of communities and to further protect the environment; commends the work of the Scottish Government in driving forward what it considers ambitious plans to tackle climate change; calls on the UK Government to follow what it sees as Scotland's world-leading example on this and many other issues, and wishes all three organisations the very best in delivering these projects for their communities.

S5M-18136 Angus MacDonald: Awards for All Funding in Falkirk District—That the Parliament welcomes £17,502 in funding from the National Lottery's Awards for All programme to be shared by three organisations in Falkirk district; understands that the Friends of Tremanna, which provides support to Tremanna care home in Slamannan, received £1,000 from the National Lottery Community Fund to buy arts and crafts resources to deliver regular activity sessions, with Falkirk District Credit Union securing £6,512 from the same fund to improve the signage and appearance of its building and provide training for its staff and volunteers, and that Glas(s) Performance Limited was awarded an Awards for All grant of £9,990 through Creative Scotland to help Polmont Youth Theatre develop a Winter Show to be shared with families and communities at the end of 2019; acknowledges the benefits that National Lottery awards have provided in communities over the years, which has allowed community projects to be developed and delivered for the benefit of all people living in the area; wishes each of these organisations the very best going forward, and looks forward to hearing of more successful National Lottery awards being delivered in Falkirk district.

S5M-18135 Angus MacDonald: Bo'ness Academy Community Café Social Enterprise Education Award—That the Parliament congratulates Bo'ness Academy on receiving a Change award at the recent Social Enterprise Education Awards held in Edinburgh; notes that the award, presented by the Deputy First Minister, was given to the school for its Community Café, which has been running since 2013 and promotes an ethos of complete inclusion, allowing for fun and friendship while ensuring that everyone is welcomed and valued; understands that the café provides access to the school environment for the wider community, giving an opportunity for interacting with young people and encouraging inter-generational engagement; encourages all schools to take inspiration from Bo'ness Academy's example, and wishes everyone involved continued success for the future.

S5M-18134 Angus MacDonald: Polmont Rotary Club Santa Claus Delivers Gifts to Charities in June—That the Parliament celebrates the work of Polmont Rotary Club in distributing £3,000 to charities, which it raised from its Santa sleigh house-to-house collection in the Braes area of Falkirk district in December 2018; understands that the money was split between Strathcarron Hospice, Muscular Dystrophy Scotland and Macmillan Nurses, each receiving £1,000; commends the club, currently under President Jim Dyer, for its tireless fundraising and community work, including the Santa sleigh collection and its mobile movies service, which takes movies, popcorn and ice cream to care homes in the area; congratulates everyone involved, and wishes the club every success with its work in the community.

S5M-18133 Angus MacDonald: Come Forth for Wildlife Project Secures Natural Lottery Heritage Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Froglife Scotland on securing £618,000 from the National Lottery Heritage Fund for its Come Forth for Wildlife project; understands that Froglife is a charity concerned with the conservation of amphibians and reptiles through on-the-ground conservation, environmental education and communication in the form of advice and information; notes that the project will work across the Forth Valley to create inter-connected habitats for amphibians, reptiles and other wildlife to conserve and enhance the unique heritage of the area; recognises that the project will help to enable communities to develop connections with the Forth Valley's natural heritage through planned activities, including wildlife gardening workshops, neighbourhood wildlife corridors and training courses; notes concerns from Froglife regarding the 68% decline in population of the common toad, which has led to this initiative being launched, and looks forward to Froglife's work benefiting Scotland's native wildlife and communities alike.

S5M-18132 Angus MacDonald: Westquarter and Reddingmuirhead Cricket Club's Try Something New Initiative—That the Parliament congratulates Westquarter and Reddingmuirhead Cricket Club (WRCC), in partnership with Alzheimer Scotland, on its Try Something New initiative, which is being held at its Bailliefields Community Hub once per month, offering people with dementia, their families and carers the chance to try out a range of different activities; notes that the activities provided are all led by experienced coaches and include photography, soft-cricket, soft-archery, petanque, ballroom dancing and drumming; recognises that people going along to activities have been able to reconnect with old friends, with some friendships dating from their primary school years; acknowledges that the WRCC approached Alzheimer Scotland with a view to providing a community facility for older people to enjoy activities; considers the partnership between Alzheimer Scotland and WRCC as vital in helping people to continue to be engaged, while tackling social isolation of vulnerable people within communities; congratulates both organisations on their work within the community, and encourages more people living with dementia across the Falkirk district to sign up to Try Something New every month.

S5M-18131 Angus MacDonald: Falkirk's First Food and Drink Festival—That the Parliament welcomes Falkirk town centre's first ever food and drink festival, which took place from 12 to 15 June 2019; understands that the festival featured traders and stall holders from across the world selling their fare, while activities and workshops were provided for children alongside a range of on-street entertainment for everyone to enjoy; recognises that the festival happened as a result of discussions between town centre businesses and the Falkirk Develops BID, which wanted to bring something different to the town centre to generate a positive message for the high street; congratulates everyone involved in organising the festival, and looks forward to this event becoming a regular feature on the Falkirk district calendar.

S5M-18130 Angus MacDonald: Grangemouth and Bo'ness Town Centres' Digital Upgrade—That the Parliament welcomes funding of £1,976,000 from the Scottish Government's Town Centres Fund, which will provide much needed investment in Grangemouth and Bo'ness by 2020; notes that plans for the use of this funding include providing free wi-fi in both town centres, with Grangemouth also benefitting from the progression of the Making Places initiative to improve the town centre alongside local landowners and communities, while Bo'ness will see investment in its library to enhance access, including the installation of a lift in the building where the only access to the second floor is by an external staircase; recognises the work of Falkirk Council's current administration in bringing about positive and transformative change in Falkirk district with its ambitious plans for town centres and community-led facilities for the benefit of those communities; looks forward to seeing Grangemouth and Bo'ness becoming digital towns, and encourages more positive engagement and delivery in these areas in the future.

S5M-18129 Angus MacDonald: Retirement of Dr Stephen Brown—That the Parliament acknowledges the work of Dr Stephen Brown over the years in the Braes area of Falkirk district; notes that Dr Brown officially stepped down as a GP on 1 July 2019 and will see his surgery merged with Braesview Medical Group in Polmont; welcomes the amalgamation of these surgeries, which will serve more than 10,000 patients and will be overseen by six GPs; understands that the new practice will benefit from a multi-disciplinary team, including a physiotherapist, an on-site mental health nurse, an expanded district nursing team, two practice nurses and two nurse practitioners; congratulates Dr Brown on his long service to his patients and the communities in which he has served; wishes him well in his retirement, and looks forward to the opportunities for expansion that this merger will bring for the Braesview Medical Group.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18128 Liam McArthur: Tankerness Hall in Orkney Receives Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Tankerness Hall in Orkney on receiving a £5,000 Awards for All Scotland grant from the National Lottery Community Fund; understands that the group will use the funding to install a new heating system and build additional storage space for the St Andrews Community Centre in Tankerness; notes that the hall is home to many different events that cater for everyone and brings people together within the community, playing an important role in improving people's social wellbeing; commends all of the dedicated individuals in the St Andrews Community Association for their hard work securing the grant and running the centre, and wishes them the very best for all of their future events.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-18127 Liam McArthur: Birsay Kids Club in Orkney Receives Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Birsay Kids Club in Orkney on receiving a £5,000 Awards for All Scotland grant from the National Lottery Community Fund; understands that the group will use the funding to purchase new sports equipment and garden supplies to increase the number of activities that the club provides to children in Birsay; notes that the club already offers a wide range of activities all year round, including arts and crafts, outings and community projects; recognises the importance of the kids club to developing new skills, experiences and friendships; commends the parents and volunteers who not only work hard to deliver the programme but also continually fundraise so that they can reach even more families in the community, and wishes them the very best as the club continues to grow.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-18126 Liam McArthur: Orkney Alcohol Counselling and Advisory Service Receives Lottery Funding—That the Parliament congratulates Orkney Alcohol Counselling and Advisory Service on receiving a £9,500 Awards for All Scotland grant from the National Lottery Community Fund; understands that the group will use the funding to expand its young person counselling service, which provides counselling, advice and assistance to young people who are experiencing difficulties with alcohol, and also provides advice and support to their parents; further understands that the overall aim of the service is to provide an integrated referral, alcohol education and counselling service for the local police, Children's Reporter, social work and NHS Orkney; pays tribute to the excellent work of the counsellors who carry out the service in helping young people to overcome problems with alcohol misuse, and wishes everyone the very best for the expansion of the initiative. R

S5M-18125 Liam McArthur: NHS Orkney and Girlguiding Orkney Win at Antibiotic Guardian Awards—That the Parliament congratulates NHS Orkney and Girlguiding Orkney on their challenge badge, which aims to raise awareness of antibiotic resistance, winning the Children and Family category at the Antibiotic Guardian Awards in Birmingham; acknowledges that the badge aims to improve young people's understanding of antibiotic resistance, which is a major threat to people's health and food security; understands that antibiotic resistance can potentially lead to longer hospital stays and increased mortality, and can be accelerated by overuse or the misuse of antibiotics; notes that the challenge badge engages young people to become antibiotic guardians, where they learn how to manage antibiotic resources sensibly while also having fun; notes that this innovative approach has been adopted by Girlguiding groups across the UK; congratulates Catriona Innes and Catherine Edwards on developing the idea, and wishes them the very best as they continue to raise awareness of this important campaign.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-18124 Donald Cameron: Glenorchy Camanachd Awarded Sportscotland Funding—That the Parliament acknowledges that Glenorchy Camanachd has been awarded £2,306 from sportscotland through the Awards for All Scotland programme; understands that the funding will be used to delivery weekly shinty training sessions to primary school pupils by volunteer coaches; recognises that Glenorchy Camanachd is based in Dalmally and currently competes in the Mowì South Division 2; acknowledges the importance of introducing more young people to shinty, and wishes Glenorchy Camanachd every future success.

S5M-18123 Jamie Halcro Johnston: Earth Guardians in Moray—That the Parliament welcomes the creation of the Earth Guardians group established in Moray by Whale and Dolphin Conservation (WDC) and the Scottish Wildlife Trust; understands that the group will be targeted at local young people between May and October each year, encouraging them to build relations with their natural environment; recognises the work of WDC in managing the Scottish Dolphin Centre at Spey Bay; further recognises the Scottish Wildlife Trust's North of Scotland Group for its activities in Moray and the wider region, and expresses thanks to the staff and volunteers who make activities such as these possible.

S5M-18122 Stuart McMillan: Port Glasgow High School Teachers Complete New Training Scheme—That the Parliament applauds teachers at Port Glasgow High School for receiving top marks after helping the school to become the first in Scotland to complete an intensive 12-month programme aimed at improving its classroom methods and the success of its students; understands that almost 50 teachers took part in the course, which involved filming lessons, critiquing their own performance and then being coached on areas identified for improvement; notes that the programme was delivered by the external agency, Osiris Educational, and that all staff were presented with certificates to acknowledge their achievements at a recent celebration of learning event in the school; commends Port Glasgow High's efforts to improve the education that it provides to pupils, and hopes that other schools in Inverclyde and across Scotland undertake this course in future.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Maureen Watt*

S5M-18121 Stuart McMillan: Inverclyde Headteacher Receives Prestigious Honour on Retirement—That the Parliament congratulates the outgoing Clydeview Academy principal, Willie Todd, on being presented with the Paul Harris Fellow Award by Boyd Thomson, president of the Rotary Club of Gourock, in recognition of his service to the town; understands that it is the highest honour that a club can bestow on anyone; believes that it is a fitting tribute to the headteacher as collecting samples in a bid to identify potential bone marrow and stem cell donors for the Anthony Nolan Trust; understands that this was undertaken in conjunction with the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service, which has been delivering donor recruitment since 2009; recognises that the Anthony Nolan Trust matches donors to people with blood cancer and blood disorders who desperately need lifesaving transplants; believes that this is the first such partnership event in a North Ayrshire school, and commends the bravery and selflessness of the 3,000 pupils and staff who joined the register.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Stewart Stevenson*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Jenny Gilruth*, Clare Adamson*

S5M-18030 Ruth Maguire: Lifeguards Gruelling Channel Challenge—That the Parliament supports Ashleigh Seymour, a former Magnum Leisure Centre lifeguard, in her gruelling challenge to swim the English Channel to raise money for the charity, Safe Passage; understands that she plans to take the plunge from Shakespeare Beach in Kent and swim the 21 miles to Cap Gris Nez in France; notes that the charity helps unaccompanied child refugees and vulnerable adults reunite with their relatives and transition to a new life; recognises that the window of opportunity for Ashleigh is between 17 and 21 July 2019, and wishes her every success.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Stewart Stevenson*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Jenny Gilruth*, Clare Adamson*

S5M-18029 Angela Constance: Congratulations to West Calder High Pupils on Enterprise Award—That the Parliament congratulates pupils from West Calder High School on receiving a national social enterprise award; notes that this was presented by the Deputy First Minister at the 12th Social Enterprise in Education Awards, which were held at the Assembly Rooms in Edinburgh; understands that this was for an innovative project to sell wrist bands to raise awareness of mental health issues, and recognises the valuable life skills that are learnt in establishing a social enterprise that empowers young people to change their community for the better.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, Jenny Gilruth*

S5M-18028 Angela Constance: West Lothian School Leaver Destinations—That the Parliament celebrates the achievements of West Lothian's young people; notes new figures that show that 93.3% of West Lothian young people are in work, training, further or higher education nine months after leaving school; welcomes the year-on-year improvement in sustained positive school leaver destinations in West Lothian for the last nine years; pays tribute to the hard work and dedication of young people and to those parents, teachers and carers who support them, and congratulates young people across West Lothian on their achievements.

Supported by: Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Stewart Stevenson*, David Torrance*, Jenny Gilruth*, Clare Adamson*

S5M-18027 Rona Mackay: Kirkintilloch Players Crowned Scottish Champions—That the Parliament congratulates the Kirkintilloch Players youth section on being crowned Scottish champions for the second time in three years at the Scottish Community Drama Association One Act Festival in Stranraer in June 2019, collecting four trophies along the way; understands that the cast of eight, aged from 14 to 17, entered the play, Scarfed for Life, which is a humorous and thought provoking look at Glasgow's Old Firm football tradition; notes that this young cast has worked very hard since September rehearsing and performing the play, and wishes everyone involved continued success captivating and amusing audiences in the future.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills / Session 5 Proposals

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
