Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-17774 Gil Paterson: Community Effort to Save Prom Night for St Peter the Apostle Pupils—That the Parliament congratulates the community of Clydebank on its efforts to give the senior pupils of St Peter the Apostle High School a night to remember after their prom looked set to be cancelled following a power cut at the venue; understands that Father Martin of St Stephen's in Dalmuir allowed the pupils to use the church hall, McColl's Coaches transferred the students to the new venue, staff from the school served at the bar, Domino's in Clydebank provided pizza and a former pupil stepped in to DJ; recognises the community spirit behind this effort to rescue the evening for the young people, and commends everyone involved in this achievement.

S5M-17773 Michelle Ballantyne: Knots to Watts Competition—That the Parliament congratulates pupils from Kingsland Primary School on winning the Knots to Watts competition at a Young Engineers and Science Club event in Glasgow; understands that the team of seven P6 pupils won the competition for designing a floating offshore wind turbine, and that a working model was produced and submitted to judges; notes that the winning pupils were awarded a trophy and a grant of £250 to be spent on the school's Young Engineers Club, and wishes the pupils all the best for the future.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Gordon Lindhurst*

S5M-17772 Gil Paterson: Y Sort It Youth Workers Climb Ben Nevis for Charity—That the Parliament commends the Clydebank charity, Y Sort It youth workers, Laura, Jay, Karene and Gillian, on their bid to climb Ben Nevis on 15 June 2019 to raise funds for the Teenage Cancer Trust, which is dedicated to improving the quality of life for 13 to 24-year-olds with cancer; wishes them well with their challenge, and hopes that their fundraising appeal is well supported.

S5M-17771 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Remembering the Grenfell Tower Two Years On—That the Parliament acknowledges the second anniversary of the Grenfell Tower disaster, which occurred on 14 June 2017; remembers with sorrow the 72 lives that were lost; recognises the continued impact of this tragedy on families that were affected and the wider community; understands that more than 200 high-rise buildings in England with cladding similar to that used on Grenfell Tower are yet to have work to remove it; welcomes the reported recognition of the UK Government that more needs to be done to support the families still in temporary accommodation, and that reform of fire safety systems is required; supports the review of the Scottish Fire Safety Regime for Domestic High Rise Property, which highlights six recommendations for high-rise buildings, including the introduction of Scottish guidance regarding fire safety in purpose-built blocks of flats, and hopes that the Scottish Government will be able to implement all recommendations by the end of November 2019, as highlighted in the review.

Supported by: Mark McDonald*

S5M-17770 Bill Kidd: Food Crisis in North Korea—That the Parliament notes with concern reports of a food and humanitarian crisis in North Korea; acknowledges what it sees as widespread calls for international aid to be given from other countries to help alleviate the food shortage, which the UN predicts will effect 10 million civilians, following the worst North Korean harvest in 10 years; believes that the groups most vulnerable are children and pregnant or lactating women; recognises the provision by the South Korean Government of $8 million to the World Food Programme's nutrition support programme for North Korean children and pregnant women and UNICEF's maternal and child health care project; acknowledges what it sees as the commitment of the South Korean Government to continue to provide humanitarian aid for the people of North Korea, regardless of political circumstances on the peninsula, and believes that the South Korean peace organisation, the People's Solidarity for Participatory Democracy, has carried out positive work in increasing awareness in Scotland of the North Korean food crisis.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, John Mason*, David Torrance*, Richard Lyle*, Bob Doris*

S5M-17769 Emma Harper: Ayrshire Dairy is Cream of the Crop at BBC Farming Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Mossgiel Farm, a small dairy near Mauchline in East Ayrshire, on winning the Future Food Award at the BBC Food and Farming Awards 2019; understands that Mossgiel Farm, which was once tenanted by Robert Burns in the late 18th century, won the award for its innovative and diverse approach to farming, which has seen the business go from losing over £10,000 per month, as a result of plummeting milk prices, to a business that is now sustainable, fully organic and growing; further understands that the farm also takes its approach to the environment seriously and has ceased using single-use plastics and uses glass bottles for its milk, and wishes Mossgiel Farm all the very best for the future.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Kenneth Gibson*, Joan McAlpine*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-17768 James Dornan: Democracy and Human Rights in China and the Extradition of Taiwanese Nationals—That the Parliament understands with regret that recent protests in Hong Kong against an extradition bill have resulted in violence and injuries; believes that, during its annual human rights dialogue with China, the EU raised concerns regarding human rights, including the need to ensure civil and political rights and judicial reform; supports calls for such reform; considers that peace and dialogue are vital to safeguarding universal shared values, which include the right of people to pursue their own freedom, democracy and way of life; understands that, two days after the 30th anniversary of the Tiananmen Square incident, 94 Taiwanese were extradited to China from Europe, and calls for a reconsideration of such extradition of people from Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macao, Tibet and Uyghur to China.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, John Mason*, Bob Doris*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-17767 Keith Brown: Refugee Week—That the Parliament notes that 17 to 23 June 2019 is Refugee Week, which will have the theme "You, me and those who came before"; acknowledges that the awareness week was established in 1998 to challenge hostility to refugees and asylum seekers; notes that it now comprises a UK-wide programme of arts, cultural and educational events that celebrate the contribution made to Scotland and the rest of the UK by refugees and seeks to promote a better understanding of why people claim sanctuary; warmly welcomes refugees and asylum seekers; recognises how they can contribute and enrich communities, including in Clackmannanshire and Dunblane; believes that it is a human right to claim asylum; commends the organisers of Refugee Week on their efforts to give refugees and asylum seekers a platform to be seen, heard and valued; welcomes the work done by the Scottish Government in relation to refugees, including extending the Best Start Grant Pregnancy and Baby Payment to young asylum seekers, taking what it sees is a fair and proportionate share of refugees as part of the Syrian resettlement programme, its work with unaccompanied children and the New Scots Refugee Integration Strategy, and reaffirms Scotland's commitment to offering sanctuary to the world's most vulnerable people.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, David Torrance*, Bob Doris*, Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Monica Lennon*, John Mason*

S5M-17766 Claudia Beamish: Clean Air Day 2019—That the Parliament celebrates Clean Air Day, which will be marked on 20 June 2019 and will be coordinated by Environmental Protection Scotland on behalf of the Scottish Government; understands that the day will provide an opportunity to raise awareness about air pollution and allow everyone to share information with friends, family and colleagues regarding how everyone can help make the air cleaner and healthier; acknowledges that World Environment Day 2019 had the theme, #beatairpollution, and that low air quality can effect vulnerable people with chronic conditions, children and older people the most; believes that, to be effective, low-emission zones must be very robust; recognises the value of safer active travel in the context of cleaner air; considers that, in the face of the climate and environment emergencies, steps need to be taken by government, local authorities and people across Scotland to ensure that air quality improves, and hopes that everyone enjoys a positive Clean Air Day and is able to take part and commit to work together to improve air quality.

Supported by: Mark McDonald*, Monica Lennon*, John Mason*

S5M-17684 Tom Arthur: Wallace Primary Pupils Raise Funds for Park Improvements—That the Parliament congratulates the Wallace Primary School pupils, Sophia Barr, 8, Teaghan McGinn, 7, and Ruaridh Barr, 6, on raising £580 towards efforts to transform Queen's Road play park in Elderslie; understands that the group raised the sum by selling nearly-new baby items at a local Jack and Jill market; recognises that the money will go toward Elderslie Community Council's plan to refurbish the local play park to make it a fully inclusive area with as many as 32 play opportunities for children and young people; commends the children on the dedication that they have shown to this effort by donating their own toys, organising donations from the local community, making t-shirts and presenting a cheque to the community council in person; notes that the group hopes to raise further funds by hosting a stall at the upcoming Elderslie Community Council Summer Fayre on 22 June 2019, as well as arranging a bag-pack at B&M in Paisley on 18 August; wishes them well in these future fundraising endeavours, and looks forward to seeing the park refurbishment project progress.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Gil Paterson: Proposed Post-Mortem Examinations (Defence Time-Limit) (Scotland) Bill — A proposal for a Bill to make the right of the defence solicitor for a person accused of homicide to instruct a post-mortem examination of the alleged victim subject to an extendable time-limit in order to minimise delays and uncertainty for victims' families. (lodged 16 May 2019)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
