Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-17888 John Mason: An Honourable Mention—That the Parliament thanks all members of society who contribute to making Scotland a great place to live, from the medical staff, teachers and emergency responders to the refuse collectors, builders and business owners; considers that not receiving an honour from The Queen does not make a person less worthy of respect, praise and admiration for their achievements in improving the lives of the people around them, and applauds those who continue to make a difference, with or without approval or recognition from the "British Empire".

Supported by: Angus MacDonald*

S5M-17887 Gil Paterson: Award for Creatovators CIC—That the Parliament congratulates the social enterprise, Creatovators CIC, which is in Milngavie, on receiving £1,870 from local firms, organisations and individuals at the 2019 East Dunbartonshire Business Awards; notes that the money, which was raised by holding a raffle and auction at the event, will be used to help Creatovators CIC with its work supporting autistic people and their families; understands that the organisation provides one-to-one sessions, a monthly playscheme, training events, Lego-based therapy sessions and consultations to enrich the lives of their clients and to promote health and wellbeing; thanks everyone involved for their service, and wishes them well for the future.

Supported by: Joan McAlpine*, Rona Mackay*

S5M-17886 Liam McArthur: Kirkwall Heritage App—That the Parliament notes that the Kirkwall Heritage App has gone live; understands that the app aims to encourage locals and visitors to explore a thousand years of history and culture in Kirkwall; notes that it will provide information about over 100 buildings and areas of interest, explaining how they have contributed to the development of the town; understands that there are five different trails on the app and that users can compare photos of landmarks today with their historical equivalent; acknowledges that the project received support from the Kirkwall Townscape Heritage Initiative, which is a £3.5 million initiative by Orkney Islands Council, as well as funding from the National Lottery Heritage Fund and Historic Scotland; understands that months of consultation and research were carried out by the local consultant, Aquatera, and the heritage app specialists, AT Creative, to ensure that the app was accurate; believes that it will help raise awareness of Kirkwall's history and foster a greater appreciation of the town's heritage; commends the work of everyone involved with the design and development of the app, and wishes the project continued success. R

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*

S5M-17885 Patrick Harvie: Refuweege Claiming Back the Narrative Exhibition—That the Parliament congratulates Glasgow-based Refuweege on its Claiming Back the Narrative photographic exhibition, which is on display at Kelvingrove Museum and Art Gallery from 20 to 25 June 2019, understands that the exhibition presents informative photographs, art and written work, created by individuals who arrived as refugees to Glasgow in 2016; recognises Refuweege and its partners and community who donated to provide welcome packs for 2,000 refugees on arrival in Scotland since 2016; notes that the welcome packs contain a letter from a local and essential items to help refugees feel at home; recognises Refuweege's success in providing 120 welcome packs a month to new arrivals to Scotland; further recognises Refuweege for the organisation of pop-up events for refugees to provide free clothing, toys and household items; notes that the exhibition coincides with Refugee Week and falls at the start of the Refugee Festival Scotland, the theme for which is Making Art, Making Home, which is about talent, creativity and resilience of new Scottish artists and community groups; hopes that this event further raises the voices of refugees and supports Scottish communities to continue to welcome them; recognises Oxfam Scotland's role in supporting Refuweege and in its Stand as One campaign, which aims to bring people together in solidarity with, as well as support, people forced to flee, and counteract negative attitudes towards displaced people, and wishes all participants at the Refugee Festival Scotland the very best.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Anas Sarwar*, Ross Greer*, Stuart McMillan*, Bob Doris*

S5M-17884 Bob Doris: Cadder Primary's Buddy Bench Promotes Inclusion—That the Parliament recognises the great work of the nurture group at Cadder Primary School in the Glasgow Maryhill and Springburn constituency in securing, designing and painting "Buddy Benches" for the school playground; notes that these benches serve as a place for children who feel lonely, sad or upset in the playground to sit and be greeted by a friend or be in a supportive environment to be comforted; welcomes the highly successful grand opening of these benches on 20 June 2019; highlights a related video on Twitter in which the children of the nurture group and Rainbow Room excitedly explain and reveal how their clever and thoughtful ideas came to fruition; recognises that this initiative promotes inclusion within the school and helps children to feel supported, nurtured and grow in confidence, and congratulates all involved on their great work, including the children, as well as their teachers and families, for encouraging such creatively and thoughtfulness among the school community.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*

S5M-17882 Rhoda Grant: National Awards for Stag Bakeries, Stornoway—That the Parliament congratulates Stag Bakeries, which is based in Stornoway, on winning the Wholesale Baker of the Year and Best Bread in Scotland at the Scottish Bakers Awards; understands that it has served the communities of the Outer Hebrides since 1885 and continues to operate as a family business, and notes the positive impact that this success will have for the food and tourism industry in the area.

S5M-17881 Ross Greer: Protests in Sudan—That the Parliament condemns the reported use of violence and deadly force against pro-democracy protesters in Sudan by the Sudanese military and allied militias; expresses deep concern over the number of protesters killed, which is believed to be over 100, including over 40 bodies that were recovered from the Nile; commends the S5W-23917 Johann Lamont: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of it providing £45,000 per annum to the Equality Network for its Intersex Project, whether it supports the network's aims to "challenge the definition of sex as consisting of only male and female" and "promote the knowledge that sex is a continuum, as is gender".

S5W-23955 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23681 by Clare Haughey on 20 June 2019, how access can be gained to its response and action plan to help address recommendations in the Mental Welfare Commission's 2014 report, Dignity and Respect.

S5W-23956 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23680 by Clare Haughey on 20 June 2019, whether it will commission and publish the independent expert study on trends in the prescribing of psychoactive medications for people with dementia before the end of 2020.

S5W-23972 Brian Whittle: To ask the Scottish Government what consideration it has given to increasing public awareness of the early symptoms of Lyme disease.

S5W-23974 Ross Greer: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of research by the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute, which suggests that 94% of Raytheon's sales are arms, what action it has taken to ensure that the £91,009 in public funding that it provided to Raytheon in 2017 to support facilities management has not contributed to the manufacture of munitions.

S5W-23975 Ross Greer: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-22963 by John Swinney on 14 May 2019, when the audit being carried out by Education Scotland will conclude, and whether it will publish the findings.

S5W-23976 Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23526 by Joe FitzPatrick on 12 June 2019, what assurances it can provide that, when NHS boards are running behind the three-month tolerance period, women who will have gone above the screening age during this time will continue to be invited for screening.

S5W-23977 Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23526 by Joe FitzPatrick on 12 June 2019, when the three-month tolerance was introduced, and how long it expects it to be in place for.

S5W-23979 Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S5W-23526 by Joe FitzPatrick on 12 June 2019, what the evidence basis is for the three-month tolerance.

S5W-23980 Liam McArthur: To ask the Scottish Government when its new fuel poverty strategy will come into effect, and what provisions will be included to tackle extreme fuel poverty in rural and island communities.

S5W-23981 Liam McArthur: To ask the Scottish Government what support it provides to remediation projects in rural and island communities to help tackle fuel poverty and extreme fuel poverty.

S5W-23982 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government which (a) third sector groups, (b) clinicians and (c) other experts have been consulted by the Respiratory Care Action Plan Task and Finish Group during the development of the action plan.

Members' Bills Proposal

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills / Session 5 Proposals

New Draft Proposal

Alison Johnstone MSP: Proposed Protection and Conservation of Wild Mammals (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to improve the protection and conservation of wild mammals by: ending the hunting of wild mammals with dogs; protecting foxes and hares; and tightening the criteria for issuing a licence for the killing of certain wild mammals.

A consultation document, lodged with the proposal, may be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe) or on the website page referred to above. The consultation period runs from 24 June 2019 to 15 September 2019.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
