Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S5M-17922 Aileen Campbell: Appointments to the Poverty and Inequality Commission— That the Parliament agrees with the recommendation of the Scottish Government and the Social Security Committee that Linda Bamford, Yvonne Blake, Alex Cobham, Lindsay Graham, Katie Schmuecker, Shona Stephen, Professor Morag Treanor and Douglas White be appointed as members of the Poverty and Inequality Commission.

Supported by: Kevin Stewart*

S5M-17893 Humza Yousaf: Management of Offenders (Scotland) Bill— That the Parliament agrees that the Management of Offenders (Scotland) Bill be passed.

Supported by: Ash Denham*

S5M-17892 Kevin Stewart: Working Group on Tenement Maintenance— That the Parliament appreciates the work of the Working Group on Maintenance of Tenement Scheme Property and the publication of its Final Recommendations Report; acknowledges that the group had cross-party representation and has gathered views from across the Parliament and that of the housing sector; notes that the report acknowledges the important action that has already been taken to improve the condition of Scottish tenements; recognises the challenges that must be met to ensure that Scotland's housing stock can continue to provide safe and sustainable homes for the future, and believes that the group's recommendations merit serious and careful consideration.

Supported by: Aileen Campbell*, Andy Wightman*, Graham Simpson*, John Mason*, Daniel Johnson*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-17921 Alexander Stewart: Home Start Clackmannanshire— That the Parliament congratulates Home Start Clackmannanshire on being awarded £5,000 by the Corra Foundation's Henry Duncan Grants scheme to help fund the salary of its part-time family support worker; applauds the group on what it sees as its sterling work throughout the county, and hopes that this award will help it to continue providing this.

S5M-17920 Alexander Stewart: Play Alloa Award from the Corra Foundation—That the Parliament congratulates Play Alloa on being awarded £5,000 from the Corra Foundation's Henry Duncan Grants, which aim to support grassroots charities working across Scotland creating opportunities and aspirations for people and communities that are experiencing disadvantage; understands that the funds will go towards sessional staff costs in order to deliver activities for adults with a disability and/or additional support needs, and hopes that this funding will enable the organisation to continue its excellent work throughout Clackmannanshire.

Supported by: Margaret Mitchell*, Liz Smith*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Peter Chapman*

S5M-17919 Neil Findlay: Eye Health Checks for Chernobyl Children—That the Parliament welcomes the efforts by Specsavers in Livingston to provide children from Belarus, who are still affected by the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, with free eye health checks; understands that a group of 22 who are visiting West Lothian on a four week holiday, which has been organised by the charity, Chernobyl Children's Life Line, have received a new pair of glasses in addition to their check-up; acknowledges that they still live in an area affected by the 1986 explosion, which has had a serious impact on their general health and wellbeing; notes that it is estimated that this holiday will help boost their immune systems by two years and assist with their recovery from serious ailments, and commends everyone involved in welcoming the children on their short stay to the West Lothian area.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Miles Briggs*

S5M-17918 Neil Findlay: Hospital Staff Concerned for Safety—That the Parliament understands that employees of St John's Hospital in Livingston have flagged concerns about their safety in relation to the parking situation; believes that employees have been forced to park offsite in the surrounding area, which has resulted in what it considers to be legitimate safety concerns; understands that many staff members must walk through dimly lit areas to reach their vehicles, and that some have experienced significant damage to their vehicles; believes that the safety and protection of St John's employees is paramount, and calls on NHS Lothian to urgently produce a strategy that will solve what it sees as these significant parking problems at the hospital once and for all.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Miles Briggs*

S5M-17917 Jenny Marra: Refugee Festival Scotland 2019—That the Parliament welcomes Refugee Festival Scotland 2019 and its theme this year, Making Art, Making Home; notes that the festival runs from 20 to 30 June and focuses on the talent, creativity and resilience of "New Scots" artists and community groups; recognises that arts, culture and sport are important in creating spaces for old and new people in Scotland to meet and learn more about each other, break down barriers and lay new foundations of respect, solidarity and friendship; is proud that Refugee Festival Scotland is produced and coordinated by the Scottish Refugee Council, which is an independent charity that has coordinated the festival for over a decade, and is dedicated to providing advice and information to people seeking refugee protection, as well as campaigning with the wider refugee rights movement for positive change and to build a welcoming culture in Scotland; celebrates that this year's festival has over 100 events, some led by communities and some by national and internationally-acclaimed artists and performers; notes that the programme encompasses all of Scotland, with events in Argyll, Cumnock, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Greenock,

New Subordinate Legislation

New Subordinate Legislation

Affirmative instruments

The following instruments were laid before the Parliament on 24 June 2019 and are subject to the affirmative procedure—

Scottish Tribunals \(Listed Tribunals\) Regulations 2019 \(SSI 2019/draft\)

Laid under section 79(2)(b) of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
