followed by Scottish Government Debate: Land Reform in Scotland – Delivering for Now and the Future

S5M-16445 Roseanna Cunningham: Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future—That the Parliament agrees that land is one of Scotland's most important assets; recognises the value of the Scottish Land Rights and Responsibilities Statement in providing a framework for land decisions and land management in Scotland; recognises the close relationship between land ownership and land use; agrees that community ownership of land should be the norm and not simply a response to market failure or disputes with landowners; recognises the importance of the Scottish Land Fund in supporting community land and asset buyouts; recognises that the work of the Scottish Land Commission is making a positive contribution to delivering the Scottish Government's land reform agenda, and agrees the importance of ensuring that land reform continues to be a key policy priority to change the entrenched and inequitable pattern of land ownership in Scotland so that everyone can benefit from land.

The Presiding Officer has selected the following amendments

S5M-16445.1 Edward Mountain: Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future—As an amendment to motion S5M-16445 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future), leave out from "the value" to end and insert "and welcomes the increasing diversity of land ownership, which includes charities as well as communities; acknowledges the close relationship between land ownership and land use; recognises the importance of the Scottish Land Fund in supporting community ownership, and believes that both communities and landowners work better together where both sides respect the needs of each other."

S5M-16445.3 Claudia Beamish: Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future—As an amendment to motion S5M-16445 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future), insert at end “and assets, both rural and urban, across the country, and urges the Scottish Government to support the recommendations of the Scottish Land Commission on how to deliver interventions in the operation of Scotland’s land markets and ownerships that will provide disincentives to the future accrual of large privately owned land holdings and help deliver a more equitable distribution in the ownership of Scotland’s land assets in the public interest.”

S5M-16445.2 Andy Wightman: Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future—As an amendment to motion S5M-16445 in the name of Roseanna Cunningham (Land Reform in Scotland, Delivering for Now and the Future), leave out from "community ownership" to end and insert "common ownership of land should be the norm and not simply a response to market failure or disputes with landowners; recognises the importance of the Scottish Land Fund in supporting community land and asset buyouts; recognises that the work of the Scottish Land Commission is making a positive contribution to delivering the Scottish Government’s land reform agenda; agrees the importance of ensuring that land reform continues to be a key policy priority to change the entrenched and inequitable pattern of land ownership in Scotland so that everyone can benefit from land, and endorses the findings of the Scottish Land Commission’s investigation into the issues associated with large-scale and concentrated ownership in Scotland."

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-16473 Rona Mackay: Celebrating an Inspirational Centenarian from Kirkintilloch—That the Parliament congratulates Mary Lawson, from Kirkintilloch, who recently celebrated her 100th birthday with family and friends and was thrilled with her card from The Queen; notes that Mary, who was born in the north of England, graduated with a BSc in Physics and Chemistry and that this very musical lady worked as an engineer in the department of sound at the BBC in London during the Second World War; understands that Mary is still very active and enjoys gardening at her home in Kirkintilloch; notes that she also completed an Open University degree when she was in her 90s, and considers her an inspiration to others.

S5M-16472 Bill Bowman: Dundee and Angus ADHD Support Group Receives Funding—That the Parliament welcomes that the Dundee and Angus ADHD Support Group has received £17,950 of funding from the Postcode Lottery; understands that the group wishes to provide support and guidance for families with ADHD in Angus and Dundee; further understands that the funding will be used for its project, Understanding ADHD, to provide training for people to help them understand what ADHD is and what challenges are faced by people with the condition, and wishes the group success with its project.

Supported by: Michelle Ballantyne*, Alexander Stewart*, Tom Mason*, Peter Chapman*, Miles Briggs*, Liz Smith*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16471 Alexander Stewart: People's Postcode Lottery Award for RSPB Scotland's Corn Buntings in the Community Project—That the Parliament congratulates RSPB Scotland on its award of £19,711 from the Postcode Local Trust for its Corn Buntings in the Community project; acknowledges that the funding will help local farmers to protect corn buntings in Fife; notes that the area is one of the species' last strongholds in the country, and commends the group on its sterling conservation work.

Supported by: Tom Mason*, Bill Bowman*, Miles Briggs*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Murdo Fraser*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16469 Miles Briggs: Good Causes in Lothian Receive Postcode Lottery Funding—That the Parliament welcomes the funding for good causes in Lothian that has been recently allocated by the People's Postcode Lottery; understands that Bathgate Community Council received £2,000 from the lottery's Local Trust for its Wester Inch Wildlife project, the Royal Scottish National Orchestra (RSNO) was awarded £2,424 from the Community Trust for RSNO Generations and that the Postcode Trust presented the Community Help and Advice Initiative with £16,919 for its Welfare Advice and Representation project, the Pregnancy and Parents

Centre with £10,911 for its drop-in groups and its Isolation in Edinburgh project and the Leith Theatre Trust with £17,500 for the project, LT Yardheads; congratulates each of the groups, and wishes them all the best in their endeavours.

Supported by: Liz Smith*, Michelle Ballantyne*, Tom Mason*, Alexander Stewart*, Peter Chapman*, Bill Bowman*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-16468 Kenneth Gibson: Forced Live Organ Extraction in China—That the Parliament notes the growing allegations of prisoners in China being killed following forced organ removal; understands that the International Coalition to End Transplant Abuse In China has established an independent tribunal to inquire into forced live organ extraction and an interim judgement has been issued by the chair, Sir Geoffrey Nice QC, stating that the tribunal is “sure beyond reasonable doubt – that in China forced organ harvesting from prisoners of conscience has been practised for a substantial period of time involving a very substantial number of victims”; considers that the claims of organ harvesting in China are supported by substantial evidence, including the 2016 report, Bloody Harvest/The Slaughter: An Update, published by David Kilgour, David Matas and Ethan Gutmann; understands that the victims are members of religious and ethnic minority groups, primarily Falun Gong practitioners, a Buddhist school of meditation practice, but also Uyghurs, House Christians and Tibetans; believes that the organ recipients are generally wealthy Chinese or transplant tourists who travel to China and pay significant amounts to receive the transplant with extremely short waiting times; notes that countries such as Spain, Italy and Taiwan have introduced legislation banning citizens from participating in organ tourism, and that the Canadian Senate and Parliament have approved similar legislation; calls on the UK Government to prohibit citizens from travelling to China for the purpose of receiving organ transplants, and urges the UK Government to consider all other measures possible to hold China to account for this alleged condemnable practice.

Supported by: Shona Robison*, John Mason*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Joan McAlpine*

S5M-16467 Gil Paterson: St Euan's Primary School's Reducing Plastic Waste Initiative—That the Parliament commends the pupils in P5B at St Euan’s Primary School in Clydebank, who are on a mission to reduce plastic use in their school and encourage the wider public to be aware of the damage that plastic does to the environment; understands that a survey carried out by the pupils revealed that 2,140 plastic bottles are used and thrown away in their school every month, and that the pupils have written to their local community waste officer seeking assistance in ways to separate and contain this plastic, not just for their own school but for all the primary schools in West Dunbartonshire, and acknowledges the inspiring and innovative work of the pupils and their teachers, including taking their project to the Parliament in order to further raise awareness of this worldwide problem.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Sandra White*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-16465 Bill Kidd: Calls for Peace in Kashmir—That the Parliament recognises international calls for peace in the Jammu and Kashmir region; notes what it sees as increased tensions along the line of control and the related increase of civilian deaths that have occurred since 2017; further notes the escalation of conflict in February 2019 in which 40 members of the Indian central reserve paramilitary police died and a retaliatory airstrike heightened tensions in the region; understands that, in the period 2008 to 2018, there have been 4,059 deaths recorded in the disputed region; urges peace to be sought and prioritised by state and other political players; acknowledges that both India and Pakistan are nuclear armed states; notes with concern the rhetoric from both states that asserts undefined missile use as an acceptable response to the conflict; encourages dialogue and the pursuit of concrete steps to be taken internationally towards curbing the nuclear threat, and considers that movement towards ratification of the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons is a means to achieving this end.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Bob Doris*, John Mason*, Sandra White*

S5M-16464 Angela Constance: Aquaculture Learner of the Year Award Winners—That the Parliament congratulates Luke Taylor from Livingston, Tyler Tovey from East Calder and Calum Melrose from Livingston on their success at Lantra Scotland's Land-based and Aquaculture Learner of the Year Awards on 7 March 2019; understands that Luke won the Environmental Conservation category, Tyler won the Horticulture award and Calum took joint runner-up in the Horticulture category; commends the students for their hard work and dedication in their studies, and wishes all three trainees success in their future career endeavours.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Miles Briggs*, Maureen Watt*, Sandra White*, Neil Findlay*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-16463 Angela Constance: Annie Lord Recognised for Riverbank Nature Art Work in Almond Valley—That the Parliament congratulates Annie Lord on the recent unveiling of her art work at Almondell and Calderwood Country Park; notes that her project depicts riverbank nature created from drinks cans, wet wipes and other river waste encased in resin, and seeks to bring awareness to the issue of litter and sewage in Scotland's rivers; recognises that the art work is the culmination of the work of the RiverRubbish Initiative delivered by the RiverLife Project team; thanks those involved in the project for their work in cleaning up Scotland's rivers, and welcomes continued environmental conservation efforts and awareness in the Almond Valley area.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Gillian Martin*, Miles Briggs*, Maureen Watt*, Sandra White*, Neil Findlay*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-16462 Angela Constance: Creation of Six New Jobs at Lareine Engineering of Livingston—That the Parliament congratulates Livingston-based Lareine Engineering, a roof lighting and ventilation specialist, on its recent grant of £85,000 from Business Gateway West Lothian; acknowledges the success of the business since its founding in 1973, as evidenced by it being the only UK business that currently offers all aspects of daylighting and ventilation for commercial, industrial and large-scale residential properties, and in recently becoming the first in Scotland to gain a new smoke control certification; welcomes the news that Lareine Engineering used this grant to create six new jobs at the company, and wishes the company every success in the future.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no indication is given that the Scottish Government or UK Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for a Member's Bill

Christine Grahame: Proposed Responsible Breeding and Ownership of Dogs (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to improve the health and wellbeing of dogs throughout their lives by strengthening the regulation of the activity of breeding, and of selling or transferring puppies, and by establishing a more responsible and informed approach to acquiring and owning a puppy or dog. (lodged 26 February 2019)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

Bills

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<http://www.scottish.parliament.uk/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
