Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S5M-18826 Jenny Gilruth: Making Glenrothes a Living Wage Town—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of the “Making Glenrothes a Living Wage Town” campaign; understands that Glenrothes is the first UK town to be recognised for its living wage ambitions; acknowledges that the campaign comes as part of Living Wage Scotland’s “Making Living Wage Places” scheme where local businesses and employers are encouraged to pay employees the real living wage and become accredited as Living Wage Employers; commends the 64 Fife employers that have already voluntarily committed to ensuring that all of their staff earn a real living wage; considers that the enactment of a guaranteed living wage across Glenrothes would make unprecedented positive impacts on the local community, and wishes all towns across Scotland the best of luck in becoming Living Wage Towns in the future.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-18846 Colin Beattie: New Schools Announced for East Lothian—That the Parliament notes the announcement of the rebuilding and refurbishing of 26 schools through the Learning Estate Investment programme; understands that more than 50,000 pupils will benefit from this strategy; notes that the plan includes the new Wallyford High and Whitecraig Primary schools in East Lothian; believes that this represents huge progress in improving education quality across Scotland, and wishes the children and young people who will benefit from these schools every success in their learning.

S5M-18845 Stuart McMillan: National Eye Health Week 2019—That the Parliament acknowledges National Eye Health Week, which runs from 23 to 29 September 2019 with the aim of promoting the importance of good eye health and taking advantage of eye health checks, which have been free to book every two years in Scotland since 2006; commends RNIB Scotland on its Scotland-wide campaign, Eye Health Matters, which raises awareness of free eye health checks through cardboard coasters depicting Dundee's V&A, Edinburgh Castle, Buchanan Street in Glasgow and the Callanish Standing Stones in the Western Isles, obscured by glaucoma, age related macular degeneration, cataracts and diabetic retinopathy respectively; notes that eye health checks can identify many health conditions early, including hypertension and heart disease, as well as eye conditions such as glaucoma and diabetic retinopathy, before they affect vision; recognises the work of optometrists spotting these conditions and looking after people's eye health, and encourages people across Scotland to book their free eye health check at their opticians.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Kenneth Gibson*, Fulton MacGregor*, Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Sandra White*, Colin Beattie*, Joan McAlpine*, Annie Wells*, Edward Mountain*, David Torrance*, Alexander Burnett*, Rona Mackay*, Emma Harper*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18844 Ruth Maguire: Kilwinning Man Raises Funds for MND Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates Kilwinning's Paul Sharpe for raising over £6,500 for MND Scotland; acknowledges that Paul is set to take on the challenge of a five-day trek along the Great Wall of China on 14 September 2019; recognises that the challenge is in memory of his wife, Wendy, who died from motor neurone disease on 1 May 2018 aged 50; notes that part of the challenge involves climbing 1,000 steps to the top, carrying a brick to help repair this Wonder of the World; praises Paul and the 38 other MND fundraisers for their commitment, and wishes them all the best for the challenging journey ahead.

Supported by: Sandra White*, David Torrance*, Edward Mountain*, Emma Harper*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18843 Brian Whittle: Scottish Bridge Union's Women's Team Qualifies for World Finals—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Bridge Union's Women's Team on qualifying for the World Finals of the Venice Cup, which will take place in Wuhan, China, between 14 and 28 September 2019; understands that the team qualified by being among the top eight teams in the European Qualifiers held in Belgium earlier this year; commends the members of the team for their significant achievement, and wishes them every success.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*, Miles Briggs*, Margaret Mitchell*, Stuart McMillan*, Finlay Carson*, Tom Mason*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-18842 Gordon MacDonald: Marie Curie in the Lothians—That the Parliament understands that around 75% of the people who die each year in the Lothian region had a palliative care need; recognises that, in 2018-19, Marie Curie supported 475 patients in the area with 4,188 visits; further recognises that, in the same period, over 95% of patients supported by Marie Curie passed in their place of choice, which it considers is well known to be important to people who are terminally ill, their loved ones and their families; appreciates that, throughout Scotland in 2018-19, Marie Curie cared for 7,595 people with a terminal illness, as well as their families and their carers; believes that Marie Curie provides an invaluable service for people living with a terminal illness and their families, offering expert care, guidance and support to help them get the most from the time that they have left, and thanks all those at Marie Curie for their continued care and support.

S5M-18841 Patrick Harvie: COP26 Climate Summit—That the Parliament congratulates Glasgow on being confirmed as the host city for the UN COP26 climate summit in 2020; believes that the summit must secure an increased level of ambition from the global community in response to the latest reports of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, which is clear in stating that the planet has just a decade left to act to avoid climate breakdown; considers that the action required must take the form of a global Green New Deal to drive rapid decarbonisation and create jobs and a positive future in the low-carbon economy, and calls on the Scottish and UK governments and Glasgow City Council to embolden their efforts to deliver a Green New Deal for Scotland so that the country can demonstrate the strongest possible action in response to the climate emergency to members of the international community when they assemble in Glasgow.

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*, Ross Greer*

S5M-18838 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Scotland's Coastal Rubbish Aerial Photography—That the Parliament recognises the SCRAPbook (Scotland's Coastal Rubbish Aerial Photography) project, which uses light air craft to fly over coast lines and take photographs of the landscape; understands that the project, which was launched by the Moray Firth Partnership and developed into a national collaboration with Sky Watch Civil Air Patrol, is highly important in tackling the masses of plastic that have built up along many of Scotland's beautiful coast lines; commends the project for the amount of data that it has accumulated, including what type of litter is the most common and which areas have some of the most build-up of litter; considers that, although this is a great step towards the goal to clear up beaches and make Scotland a cleaner, less polluted place, it is important that this information is acted; believes that people can contribute by participating in beach clean-ups, which have been taking place across Scotland, such as on Cramond Beach, and thanks all individuals, communities and organisations that have participated in beach cleans and other initiatives to reduce marine litter.

Supported by: Mark McDonald*, Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-18837 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Cigarette Pollution—That the Parliament believes that more must be done to counter what it sees as the vast amount of polluting waste caused by cigarettes; understands that their filters are made of a plastic that takes years to decompose, releases harmful toxins into the environment and can be swallowed by marine life that mistake them for food; recognises that cigarette butts are one of the most commonly found forms of single-use plastic that wash up on shores; considers that, unlike many other common single-use plastics, there has been minimal incentives to reduce their consumption, and believes that action should be taken to find an alternative to these filters to reduce their harmful impact on the environment.

Supported by: Mark McDonald*, Pauline McNeill*, Stuart McMillan*, Emma Harper*, Kenneth Gibson*

S5M-18836 Maurice Corry: West Dunbartonshire Opens New Baby Bank—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of a baby bank by West Dunbartonshire Community Foodshare; understands that the bank collects donations of prams, cribs, clothes and other new or pre-loved items aimed at meeting the needs of young families in the local area; recognises the creation of the baby bank comes as result of an increase in young mothers who are seeking support; commends the additional community support provided by West Dunbartonshire Community Foodshare since 2013 through food parcels, a Christmas toybank and school uniform bank, and wishes the charity further success in helping West Dunbartonshire's neediest.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Annie Wells*, Kenneth Gibson*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Tom Mason*, Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-18835 Kenneth Gibson: Iran's Blue Girl—That the Parliament notes with great sadness the tragic death of Sahar Khodayari on 9 September 2019; understands that, in March, the 29-year-old, disguised as a man due to women being banned from Iranian football matches, was arrested for attempting to enter Iran's national football stadium in Tehran to watch a match between her favourite football team, Esteghlal of Iran, and Al-Ain of the United Arab Emirates, during the recent AFC Asian Cup; further understands that Iran is the only country in the world that stops and punishes women seeking to enter football stadiums; notes that Sahar was dubbed the "blue girl" by Iranians on social media for the blue colour of her team's jersey; understands that, after being charged with "openly committing a sinful act by...appearing in public without a hijab" and "insulting officials", she killed herself by self-immolation outside the Revolutionary Court in Tehran and died from her injuries, and condemns Iran's compulsory veiling laws, which it considers continue to deny women their basic human rights, including their rights to non-discrimination, freedom of belief and religion, freedom of expression and protection from arbitrary arrests and detention.

Supported by: Emma Harper*, Sandra White*, Joan McAlpine*, David Torrance*, Pauline McNeill*, Richard Lyle*, Colin Beattie*

S5M-18834 Tom Mason: Aberdeen Group Raises £52,000 for Guide Dogs—That the Parliament congratulates an Aberdeen-based group that has raised more than £52,000 for Guide Dogs; understands that donations have been received through supermarket collections and had a significant impact on community fundraising development in Aberdeen, and notes that there are over 4,950 guide dog owners in the UK, that guide dogs provide support for a person who has lost their sight, and that fundraising contributes towards a range of services, including training and care.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Margaret Mitchell*, Edward Mountain*, Stuart McMillan*, Annie Wells*, Finlay Carson*, Bill Bowman*, Peter Chapman*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jeremy Balfour*

S5M-18833 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Grove Community Garden—That the Parliament congratulates the Grove Community Garden on its work over the last five years to revitalise three areas across Fountainbridge, transforming them into bustling communal points with facilities such as communal planting areas and a BBQ and pizza oven for social outside eating to help turn Edinburgh into a greener city; commends it on creating spaces that aim to reduce isolation; believes that it can be used and enjoyed by all, including families on a day out, charity groups, office workers and schools; considers that this will have a huge impact on young people who want to learn about growing and cooking fresh and healthy food, and applauds the role that this will have in connecting people across the community.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Stuart McMillan*, Richard Lyle*, Colin Beattie*

S5M-18832 Bill Bowman: Success for Dundee Singer, Finlay McKillop—That the Parliament congratulates Dundee-based busker, Finlay McKillop, on the release of his first single; understands that Finlay, who is a second-year music student, was encouraged by feedback on his operatic-inspired busking to record the four-track single; notes that he plans to use the proceeds to fund his studies in music theatre at the Emil Dale Academy in London, and wishes him success with his studies.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Annie Wells*, Margaret Mitchell*, Richard Lyle*, Tom Mason*, Finlay Carson*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-18831 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Lion Cubs Born at Edinburgh Zoo—That the Parliament congratulates Edinburgh Zoo and its two Asiatic lions on the birth of three lion cubs; welcomes the three-week-old cubs, which are currently receiving privacy, peace and quiet from the public, under the protection of mum, Roberta, and Dad, Jayendra; looks forward to the cubs being weighed, sexed and named in the next few weeks; recognises the importance of this event as Asiatic lions, which can only be found in the Gir Forest of India, are highly endangered with only about 350 left in the wild; notes that Edinburgh is proud to be part of protecting this beautiful species; expresses sadness for the two cubs in the litter that did not make it through the first few weeks, but hopes for the best for the remaining three as they go through the most critical part of their life, and excitedly awaits the lion enclosure being reopened so that the public can enjoy watching them and be educated on the importance of preserving the vast number of endangered species around the world.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, Richard Lyle*, Tom Mason*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*

S5M-18830 Bill Bowman: Angus Transnational Cooperation Project Welcomes

Tourism—That the Parliament acknowledges the establishment of the Transnational Cooperation Project, which saw Angus welcome Belgian and Romanian tourism professionals recently; understands that the fact-finding trip was supported by the Angus Leader programme and aims to build the capacity of each area to develop a strong tourist economy through the themes of welcoming visitors, promoting local food and drink and traditional rural skills; notes that the enterprise gives participants the opportunity to share lessons learned within their own region, and looks forward to continued collaboration in the future.

S5M-18828 Dean Lockhart: Cambusbarron Rovers Stalwart Nominated for Grassroots SFA

Award—That the Parliament congratulates Gary Grahamslaw of Cambusbarron Rovers AFC on being shortlisted for the People's Choice Award at the Scottish FA Grassroots Awards 2019; understands that Gary is a founder member of the football club where he has been club secretary for over 35 years; notes that his tasks over the years have ranged from pitch preparation, cleaning changing rooms, washing strips, maintaining the pavilion and essential fund-raising to ensure the club's survival; recognises that perhaps his greatest achievement at Cambusbarron has been to ensure the club's continuity over the years by developing hundreds of players and coaches; understands that his latest project is entitled "Wee Rovers", which is intended to create a legacy for young players in and around the village; believes that Gary would be a worthy winner of the award and considers that he is an outstanding ambassador for the club, village and community he serves, and wishes him, and all the other nominees shortlisted, the best of luck.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bill

Neil Findlay: Proposed Restriction of Outside Remuneration etc. of MSPs Bill—Proposal for a Bill to ban MSPs from certain categories of remunerated work and restrict remuneration from any additional work (lodged 6 September 2019)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
