Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

*S5M-19003 Rona Mackay: Autism Hour Campaign—That the Parliament notes the National Autistic Society's Autism Hour campaign, which runs from 5 to 12 October 2019 and is a week in which businesses are encouraged to make simple changes to their venues and environments to enable autistic people to access and enjoy facilities, shops and services; understands that last year over 11,000 businesses participated by taking measures such as lowering the volume of music and dimming bright lights, and that the campaign has the invaluable wider effect of increasing awareness and understanding of autism among staff and the wider public; acknowledges that, while the campaign is run annually, many businesses have recognised the necessity of Autism Hour and are running it every week or month working towards achieving the National Autistic Society's Autism Friendly Award; congratulates East Dunbartonshire Leisure Trust for introducing an autism-friendly swimming hour at Bishopbriggs Leisuredrome, and encourages businesses and facilities, as well as the wider public, to take advantage of the resources and advice available from the National Autistic Society to make public spaces as inclusive as possible.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Joan McAlpine*, Liam McArthur*, Stuart McMillan*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S5M-19009 Keith Brown: University of Stirling, UK Sports University of the Year 2020—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Stirling on the news that it has been announced as The Times and The Sunday Times UK Sports University of the Year 2020; understands that this is the first time a Scottish university has won the award; considers this award to be a reflection of the university's world-class facilities and excellence across sports performance, research and education; further believes this award further reinforces Scotland's international reputation as a world leader in first class education; notes that the University of Stirling will shortly see the completion of a £20 million upgrade of its sports facilities, an investment in the future generations of Scotland's elite athletes and for the students, staff and wider community across Stirling and Clackmannanshire who also train there; recognises the wider work that the university undertakes in driving growth through innovative research and education; welcomes the sporting success of University of Stirling students and athletes; notes the accolade comes ahead of the publication of The Times and The Sunday Times Good University Guide, 22 September 2019, and wishes the University, its staff and students continued success.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Joan McAlpine*, Rona Mackay*

*S5M-19008 Neil Findlay: West Lothian Climate Strike—That the Parliament commends the actions of those in West Lothian who took part in the global climate strike day on 20 September 2019; understands that students and workers demonstrated in front of West Lothian Civic Centre calling for action on climate change, and believes that this was an excellent initiative for a good cause by people in West Lothian.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*

*S5M-19007 Neil Findlay: Sue Sloan's Hockey Success—That the Parliament congratulates the West Lothian hockey player, Sue Sloan, on helping to win silver for the Scotland Masters 55 team at the European Championships; understands that she scored two goals for Scotland and that the team did not concede until the final, and believes that this is an excellent achievement by a West Lothian woman.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Richard Lyle*, Gordon Lindhurst*

*S5M-19006 Neil Findlay: West Lothian Singer, Megan Black—That the Parliament congratulates Megan Black, who is a teenager from West Lothian, on her success on being nominated for the prestigious BBC Radio Scotland Singer/Songwriter Award; understands that Megan's music is influenced by her life experiences and political thought and that she chose her own song, Fur Coat Queen, which won a spot in the final 10, as her completion entry, and applauds Megan on this exceptional achievement.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Richard Lyle*

*S5M-19005 Dean Lockhart: University of Stirling, Times/Sunday Times UK Sports University of the Year 2020—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Stirling on being announced as The Times and Sunday Times UK Sports University of the Year 2020; understands that this is the first time that a Scottish university has received the award; acknowledges that this recognition, which comes ahead of the publication of The Times and The Sunday Times Good University Guide, on 22 September 2019, is a reflection of the university's world-class facilities and excellence across sports performance, research and education; notes that the next 12 months will also see the completion of the £20 million transformation of the sports facilities on the campus; believes that these investments will not only support future generations of Scotland's elite athletes, but the students, staff and wider community across Stirling and Clackmannanshire who train alongside them, promoting healthy lifestyles for all; recognises the role that the University of Stirling has played in the development of Scotland's elite athletes, and wishes all involved in the success of Scotland's University for Sporting Excellence the best of luck in the years to come.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Peter Chapman*, Margaret Mitchell*, Alison Harris*, Tom Mason*, Finlay Carson*, Alexander Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*

*S5M-19004 Liam Kerr: New Home for Stonehaven Men's Shed—That the Parliament welcomes the official opening of the Stonehaven Men's Shed at the Beach Pavilion; understands that the Men's Shed has been running in Stonehaven since 2016 and provides a space where men can meet, socialise and carry out a variety of activities, both for fun and for community benefit; hopes that the new facilities will enable the organisation to expand and attract more members, and wishes those involved the best of success in their new home.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Peter Chapman*, Gordon Lindhurst*, Alison Harris*, Finlay Carson*, Margaret Mitchell*, Richard Lyle*, Michelle Ballantyne*

*S5M-19002 Richard Lyle: The Focus Youth Project—That the Parliament congratulates the Focus Youth Project, which is in Viewpark in the Uddingston and Bellshill constituency, on its £90,000 Young Start grant, which it will use to deliver a range of social, outdoor and educational activities for 12- to 25-year-olds through a three-year project that will engage with 400 young people and 15 volunteers, and wishes everyone involved with the project the very best of success in helping the community.

*S5M-19001 Richard Lyle: The VIP Arts and Sports Academy—That the Parliament congratulates the VIP Arts and Sports Academy on its £99,984 Young Start grant, which it will use to deliver and expand its VIP Walk in Dream out programme for 8- to 24-year-olds; notes that the three-year project will provide a regular programme of youth, sports, and arts activities, which will expose the young people to new skills and opportunities and allow them to push beyond their comfort zone and also provide a range of mentoring and volunteering opportunities, and wishes the Academy the very best with this project and its other work.

*S5M-19000 Lewis Macdonald: Elected Safety Representatives in the Offshore Oil and Gas Industry—That the Parliament notes the 30th anniversary in September 2019 of the Offshore Installations (Safety Representatives and Safety Committees) Regulations 1989 (SI 971), which created Elected Safety Representatives (ESRs) with safety enforcement powers on offshore oil and gas installations in the year after the Piper Alpha disaster; understands that the legislation enables ESRs, elected from the installation workforce, to raise safety concerns through the safety committee with offshore installation managers and the Health and Safety Executive (HSE); believes that over 50 cases of non-compliance have been reported to HSE in the last three years alone, but that the full range of safety enforcement powers has not been used to ensure compliance; notes that there are up to 1,700 ESRs in the North Sea oil and gas industry today, mainly drawn from employees of tier 1 and tier 2 sub-contractors, who make up over 80% of the offshore workforce, but that ESRs still report discrimination and lack of support from some companies within the sector; welcomes the publication of three new guides to SI 971 by the industry body, Step Change in Safety, and, in light of the continued threat of blacklisting in the industry, acknowledges calls by the offshore trade union, the RMT, for HSE to survey offshore workers on the effectiveness of the regulations and ESRs in the North Sea.

*S5M-18999 Liz Smith: The University of Stirling—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Stirling on being named as The Times and Sunday Times UK Sports University of the Year; notes that it is currently undergoing a £20 million redevelopment of its sports facilities, which it believes will create an iconic new complex at the heart of the campus, and wishes the University all the best.

*S5M-18996 Miles Briggs: British Red Cross, Life Beyond the Ward Report—That the Parliament welcomes the report, Life beyond the ward – recommendations for improving hospital discharge in Scotland, published by the British Red Cross, which explores the challenges people can experience on their discharge journey from hospital to home; understands there is considerable variation in discharge practices across hospitals; recognises what it considers a lack of co-ordination and communication between hospitals, primary care and social care; appreciates that challenges remain in accessing social care packages and wider support; considers that a potentially significant proportion of people who are deemed clinically fit to leave hospital are sent to a home inappropriate for their recovery; supports the report recommendations to fulfil the transition to a more preventative approach to care by improving the funding of community care and shifting focus towards people and their holistic needs; believes that harnessing the power of non-clinical support, including the voluntary and community sector, can support effective discharge; considers that checks on people's non-clinical independence factors as part of the discharging process of patients through a five-step independence check should be introduced, and calls for the Scottish Government to adopt these recommendations to improve discharge and support some of the most vulnerable people in society to maintain independent living.

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 5 Proposals:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/12419.aspx>

Final Proposal for Member's Bill

Neil Findlay: Proposed Restriction of Outside Remuneration etc. of MSPs Bill—Proposal for a Bill to ban MSPs from certain categories of remunerated work and restrict remuneration from any additional work (lodged 6 September 2019)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
