Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S5M-21959 Mark Griffin: Carers Week 2020—That the Parliament welcomes Carers Week 2020, which is an annual campaign that, this year, takes place from 8 to 14 June on the theme of “Making Caring Visible” and coming together to recognise the contribution of hundreds of thousands of unpaid carers and young carers in Scotland; acknowledges that it is organised by five charities in Scotland, Carers Scotland, Carers Trust Scotland, MND Scotland, Oxfam Scotland and Age Scotland; understands that there will be hundreds of events held virtually across Scotland, which will reach out to thousands of carers and young carers; recognises the significant and vital contribution of unpaid carers during the COVID-19 pandemic, and considers that the impact of caring on the health and wellbeing of carers, including social isolation, should not be underestimated; understands that the support that carers provide is worth more than £10.8 billion to the economy each year; considers that every effort should be made to ensure that carers receive the support that they need, including support to reduce the impact of the pandemic on their lives and recognise their particular needs as lockdown eases, and wishes Carers Week every success.

S5M-21958 Colin Beattie: MYPAS Awarded £139,000 in Funding—That the Parliament congratulates MYPAS on being awarded £139,000 by The Henry Smith Charity; understands that this will be used to provide three years' funding for a full-time counsellor to deliver counselling to young people aged between 12 and 18 in Midlothian; considers that the services provided by MYPAS in Midlothian are in high demand and are critical to the young people of the constituency; highlights the importance of mental health services being provided to young people across Scotland; supports the continued provision of such valuable services to the young people of Midlothian, including those provided by MYPAS, which has been providing counselling services in the area for over 20 years, and wishes everyone involved all the best going forward with this funding.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, Rona Mackay*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-21957 Claudia Beamish: Volunteers' Week—That the Parliament welcomes Volunteers' Week, which takes place between 1 and 7 June 2020; notes that the week is an annual campaign to raise awareness of the contribution that volunteers make to communities across Scotland; recognises that the COVID-19 pandemic has brought new opportunities and challenges for volunteers, including the launch of mutual-aid groups that support vulnerable people with the provision of food, as well as valuable support for those in the shielding group; understands that, following the incredible volunteer response to the COVID-19 pandemic, this year's focus is on expressing thanks, gratitude and recognition of the work that volunteers do; considers that, as well as helping others, volunteering has been shown to improve volunteers' wellbeing, boost confidence and can help volunteers gain valuable new skills and experiences, and believes that the estimated annual value of volunteers helping UK charities is £22.6 billion.

Supported by: Iain Gray*, Mark McDonald*, Richard Lyle*, Monica Lennon*, Sarah Boyack*, Stuart McMillan*

S5M-21956 Michelle Ballantyne: Donald Dewar Memorial Debating Tournament—That the Parliament congratulates pupils from Peebles High School on winning the Law Society of Scotland's Donald Dewar Memorial Debating Tournament; understands that the subject of the debate was "Universal Basic Income" and was held remotely using video conferencing, the first such occurrence in the tournament's history; notes that teams from Peebles High School have now won the tournament twice in the last three years; commends the teachers and pupils from the school, as well as the other finalists, on their hard work and dedication, and wishes them all the best for the future.

S5M-21955 Alison Johnstone: Benefit Cap—That the Parliament understands that the benefit cap is an overall limit on the amount of social security payments a household can receive; expresses disappointment that that recent improvements to the rates of some social security payments will not be received in full by some households due to the application of the benefit cap; understands that the independent Social Security Advisory Committee has brought these concerns to the attention of the Department for Work and Pensions, additionally pointing out that "claimants would normally have the option to move into paid work or to move home to avoid the impact of the benefit cap, but neither of these are realistic choices for many people at the current time"; believes that the provision of social security support should be based on need, not an arbitrary limit, and calls on the UK Government to permanently abolish the benefit cap.

S5M-21954 Mary Fee: National Carers Week—That the Parliament recognises that 8 to 14 June 2020 is National Carers Week, which is an annual event that seeks to highlight the work of unpaid carers, with the theme for this year being "Making Caring Visible"; acknowledges that the COVID-19 pandemic has been an incredibly difficult time for carers, physically, financially and emotionally, with 70% of carers providing more care due to the virus; considers that everyone needs to do all that they can to promote the work of unpaid carers and the contribution that they make to their local communities; understands that unpaid carers are seven times lonelier than the general public and that lockdown has only made this more apparent; recognises that the pandemic has disproportionately impacted young and young adult carers, with many experiencing significantly increased anxiety levels and difficulty in accessing food as a result of the pandemic; supports the work of Renfrewshire Carers Centre and the resilience that it has shown during the pandemic by drastically adapting its services, which has included helping with shopping and prescriptions, distributing PPE, increasing telephone support to carers and online support groups and training via Zoom; encourages carers in Renfrewshire to take part in the week of events that Renfrewshire Carers Centre is running online; appreciates that, without these vital frontline workers, it would not be possible to tackle the COVID-19 pandemic, and advocates that everyone does all that they can to provide information, support and understanding to all carers in Scotland.

S5M-21953 Mark McDonald: Mintra Group's Skilled Worker Portal Offers Free Learning to Oil and Gas Workers—That the Parliament congratulates the Aberdeen-based Mintra Group on the launch of its Skilled Worker Portal; applauds the support that Mintra is offering to furloughed and redundant workers in the oil and gas industry during the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that the portal is an online learning management and training resource providing free access to 15 key industry courses, including health, safety, environmental and technical courses, to give learners the opportunity to plug gaps in periodic training requirements during their current downtime; notes that the course material is written to accredited standards and that, on completion, participants will be provided with a Mintra certificate, and welcomes this positive initiative at a time when there is so much uncertainty throughout the industry, the country and the world.

S5M-21952 Clare Adamson: Remembering the Humanitarian and Aid Worker, Alan Witcutt—That the Parliament notes with sadness the death of the humanitarian aid worker, Alan Witcutt; notes that Alan, a devout Christadelphian, spent his National Service at Polkemmet Colliery in West Lothian after his appeal to be treated as a conscientious objector on religious grounds was rejected; further notes that he, and his wife, Christine, travelled from their Wishaw home to Bosnia with the Scottish charity, Edinburgh Direct Aid, and recognises that Christine was killed by a sniper in Sarajevo in 1993; understands that, following his wife's death, Alan began delivering talks and sermons on the subject of forgiveness, some of which have been recorded in the National Library of Scotland; acknowledges that the family's tragic Bosnian experience has been used to promote forgiveness, compassion and an understanding of the Balkan conflicts, including in Overtown Primary School where Christine had taught; understands that Alan returned to Sarajevo with his family in 2001, where they opened a centre and outreach programme for children with complex support needs, funded by the Christine Witcutt Memorial Fund, which was established in his wife's memory, and for which he raised large amounts of money; acknowledges that Alan was presented with a medal by the Bosnian Government for his and his wife's humanitarian work, and sends its heartfelt condolences to his family.

S5M-21951 Ben Macpherson: Local Government Finance (Coronavirus) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2020 [draft]—That the Local Government and Communities Committee recommends that the Local Government Finance (Coronavirus) (Scotland) Amendment Order 2020 [draft] be approved.

Supported by: Kate Forbes*

S5M-21950 Gordon MacDonald: Edinburgh Beer Factory and Thistly Cross Cider Donate Hand Sanitiser to the Broomhouse Community One Stop Shop—That the Parliament thanks the staff and management at the Edinburgh Beer Factory and Thistly Cross Cider for producing and donating hand sanitiser for the staff and volunteers of the Community One Stop Shop in Broomhouse, Edinburgh; understands that the Edinburgh Beer Factory is a family-run, independent brewery that launched in 2015, and that Thistly Cross Cider is a producer of Scottish craft cider based in East Lothian and founded in 2008; praises the Community One Stop Shop for its work helping to alleviate the effects of poverty and support people through crisis situations, and recognises that the supply of hand sanitiser to a community-based organisation, such as the Community One Stop Shop, is vital to enable continued delivery of service to the public throughout the COVID-19 pandemic.

S5M-21948 Tom Arthur: Renfrewshire South's Volunteers During Volunteers' Week

2020—That the Parliament recognises the outstanding work of volunteers across the Renfrewshire South constituency during Volunteers' Week 2020 and throughout the year; thanks them for working across communities and supporting people through the COVID-19 pandemic and ensuring that those most vulnerable are assisted, including with shopping and prescription collection; notes the importance of volunteers in providing companionship and friendship to people who might be alone, particularly while isolating; recognises the role of businesses in supporting people and volunteering their services; welcomes the outstanding work of people, community groups, tenant associations, charities and other groups in organising and supporting their communities, and applauds all volunteers at all times for their invaluable work and contribution.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Rona Mackay*

S5M-21947 Annabelle Ewing: Congratulations to Paul Boggie on the Release of His

Book—That the Parliament notes the recent launch of the book, Heroin to Hero, by the Ballingry man, Paul Boggie; notes that the book deals with his journey through addiction and into the Scots Guards, ultimately guarding Buckingham Palace; understands that proceeds from the book sales will go toward helping homeless people in Scotland; congratulates Paul on making such a remarkable turnaround in his life; thanks him for his openness in sharing the details of that journey; believes that his intention to help homeless people is a laudable one; notes his further efforts to benefit the NHS through a charity boxing match, and wishes Paul every success in the future.

Supported by: David Torrance*, Emma Harper*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Murdo Fraser*

S5M-21946 Beatrice Wishart: Shetland Fire Safety Learning Packs—That the Parliament commends firefighter Amy Gerrard's efforts to create home education packs for children in Shetland to learn about fire safety; understands that Amy, who is a Watch Commander in Lerwick, created the packs after seeing how learning has moved online for her own daughter; notes that the packs are suitable for children of all ages and include fun interactive information on how to prevent, detect and escape fire, and thanks Amy for her work in the fire service and for helping to engage young people and their parents on keeping safe.

Supported by: Stewart Stevenson*, Stuart McMillan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-21945 Clare Adamson: Welcoming the launch of SpeakUnique—That the Parliament marks the launch of SpeakUnique; understands that SpeakUnique creates personalised synthetic voices for use in communication aids, by individuals whose speech is affected by disease; acknowledges that SpeakUnique began in 2012 as a University of Edinburgh research project; notes that the project was in collaboration with The Euan MacDonald Centre for Motor Neurone Disease Research and The Centre for Speech Technology Research; further notes that the services SpeakUnique offers include speech repair, bespoke designed voices and voice banking, which is a term given to the process of recording your voice and using this recording to generate a personalised synthetic voice; understands that this synthetic voice can then be used on a communication aid, where it converts text to speech, allowing an individual to communicate with a voice that is identifiably their own; thanks the many MSPs and staff who contributed to the Voice Bank Research Project, and Christina McKelvie MSP, who hosted the first MND Voice Bank at the Scottish Parliament, encouraging people to make voice recordings that could be used to emulate

After section 4

Peter Chapman

23 After section 4, insert—

<Consultation

- (1) Before making regulations under section 3 or 4 in relation to modifying or improving payment legislation, the Scottish Ministers must carry out a consultation and prepare a report in accordance with this section.
- (2) In preparing regulations as mentioned in subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers are to—
 - (a) publish details of the proposed regulations in such a manner as they consider appropriate,
 - (b) consult—
 - (i) such organisations appearing to them to represent those who may be affected by the regulations,
 - (ii) any other persons the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- (3) The report under subsection (1) must include—
 - (a) the ways in which views expressed by any persons consulted under subsection (2) were taken into account in preparing regulations under section 3 or 4,
 - (b) how the regulations contribute towards—
 - (i) meeting the net-zero emissions target (within the meaning of section A1 of the Climate Change (Scotland) Act 2009),
 - (ii) implementing the objectives, proposals and policies set out in the most recent programme laid by the Scottish Minister under section 53 of the Climate Change (Scotland) Act 2009.>

- (a) achieving targets for net greenhouse gas emissions reduction as set out in the Climate Change (Scotland) Act 2009,
 - (b) maintaining, restoring and enhancing biodiversity and landscapes,
 - (c) improving water and air quality,
 - (d) reducing diffuse and point pollution,
 - (e) maintaining and enhancing animal welfare,
 - (f) encouraging agro-ecological land management and food production,
 - (g) improving plant and soil health,
 - (h) conserving Scotland's livestock and plant genetic resources and encouraging agro-biodiversity,
 - (i) encouraging public access to, and public understanding of, agriculture,
 - (j) maintaining and increasing population in rural areas,
 - (k) ensuring sustainable livelihoods and improved working conditions among crofters and farmers, particularly those working on crofts and smaller agricultural holdings and on marginal land,
 - (l) increasing productivity and resilience in agriculture and facilitating local supply chains.
- (3) Provision designed to contribute to achieving one objective in subsection (2) must not undermine the ability of regulations under this Part to contribute to the achievement of any other objective in that subsection.
- (4) The objectives in subsection (2) are, so far as possible, to be interpreted in such a way as to ensure that the objectives secured by means of agricultural activities in Scotland are aligned with the objectives for the time being set out in—
- (a) the European Union's agricultural support programmes,
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers' good food nation policies.>

Rachael Hamilton

25 After section 11, insert—

<Alignment with UK standards

Alignment with UK standards

- (1) The Scottish Ministers power to make regulations under sections 7, 8, 9 and 10 may only be exercised in a manner where modifications of retained EU law made by the regulations must result in the retained EU law containing regulatory standards that are at least the equivalent standard as corresponding provisions in any equivalent UK legislation.
- (2) In this section, "UK legislation" means any Act, or statutory instrument, of the—
 - (a) UK Parliament,
 - (b) National Assembly for Wales, or
 - (c) Northern Ireland Assembly.
- (3) This section does not apply to a provision which has no practical application in relation to Scotland.>

After section 23

John Finnie

- 26 After section 23, insert—

<Expiry of powers relating to CAP

- (1) Sections 2 to 6 expire on 1 May 2026.
- (2) Following the expiry of sections 2 to 6 by virtue of subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers may by regulations repeal—
 - (a) sections 2 to 6, and
 - (b) this section.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make transitional, transitory or saving provision in connection with the expiry under subsection (1) of any provision of this Act.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as practicable after the end of each reporting period, prepare and lay before the Scottish Parliament a report outlining progress on achieving their policy objectives in respect of support for agricultural activities.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), “reporting period” means—
 - (a) the period beginning with the day after Royal Assent and ending on 30 April 2021,
 - (b) each subsequent period of a year until 30 April 2026.>

New Subordinate Legislation

Affirmative Instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 5 June 2020 and is subject to the affirmative procedure—

Legal Aid and Advice and Assistance (Miscellaneous Amendments) (Coronavirus) (Scotland) Regulations 2020 (SSI 2020/draft)

Laid under section 37 of the Legal Aid (Scotland) Act 1986

Laid Only Instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 5 June 2020 and is not subject to any parliamentary procedure—

Marking of Creels (Scotland) Order 2020 (SSI 2020/168)

Laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
