Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

S5M-21622 John Finnie: Hands off Press Freedom Report 2020—That the Parliament welcomes the publication of Hands off Press Freedom, the annual report by the partner organisations in the Council of Europe Platform to Promote the Protection of Journalism and Safety of Journalists; is concerned by the rise in violent attacks on journalists highlighted in the report and by its claim of moves in some European countries to undermine the ability of journalists to protect the anonymity of their sources; believes that a functioning free press is vital to protecting democracy, and thanks journalists for continuing to carry out their work in the face of intimidation.

S5M-21621 Michelle Ballantyne: Heavy Sounds' Food Delivery—That the Parliament commends the Tranent-based social enterprise, Heavy Sounds, on teaming up with the Edinburgh International Conference Centre (EICC) to deliver food to vulnerable groups across the city; understands that the enterprise usually provides music, art and sporting events for young people but that, during the lockdown, it has been supporting the EICC's food distribution service; thanks Heavy Sounds for its work with the EICC, and wishes its staff and volunteers all the best.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Finlay Carson*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-21620 Michelle Ballantyne: Grace Broadhead's Charity Run—That the Parliament commends Grace Broadhead, who is six years old and from Galashiels, for raising over £1,000 to supply face masks, gloves and aprons to local care homes; understands that Grace has been running in her garden with the goal of completing the equivalent of a marathon over course of two weeks; thanks Grace for her hard work in raising this money, and wishes her all the best with the remainder of her run.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Finlay Carson*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-21618 Alex Neil: British Airways Planned Redundancies—That the Parliament calls on British Airways and other airlines to desist from what it sees as them using the COVID-19 outbreak as an opportunity to reduce jobs and employees' terms and conditions; asks them instead to explore all the funding options available to maintain the sustainability of jobs as part of an overall plan for business recovery once the current public health crisis is brought under control; calls on them to work with the UK Government to extend the duration of the Jobs Retention Scheme as a way of avoiding mass redundancies, and calls on the UK Government to accede to such a request.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Rona Mackay*, Richard Lyle*, Emma Harper*, Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*, Bob Doris*, Willie Coffey*

S5M-21617 Rhoda Grant: Recognising the Food and Drink Industry—That the Parliament recognises all those working in the food and drink industry for their hard work in feeding the nation and supporting their local communities during the COVID-19 outbreak, and supports the Food and Drink Federation's hidden heroes campaign, which is promoting the vital work that such companies are doing during these challenging times.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Liam McArthur*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Elaine Smith*, Iain Gray*, Sarah Boyack*, David Torrance*, Willie Coffey*

S5M-21616 Kenneth Gibson: North Ayrshire Schools use 3D Printers to Make Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)—That the Parliament commends schools across the Cunninghame North constituency for lending 3D printers and other equipment to North Ayrshire Council to help manufacture safety equipment for the NHS and carers; understands that the equipment is being used to help make personal protective equipment (PPE) for key workers, such as NHS staff, care workers and health and social care partnership staff; notes that all secondary schools across North Ayrshire have contributed by donating safety glasses, face masks and spare gloves, such as rubber gloves that would normally be used in the science department or for first aid, as well as 3D printers from the tech departments; recognises that Garnock Community Campus is also a hub for the children of key workers, with around 450 staff volunteering each day to help across a service that also delivers food to vulnerable members of the community twice a week, and congratulates all those playing a part in supporting key workers and their families in the fight against COVID-19.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Richard Lyle*, Emma Harper*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Willie Coffey*

S5M-21615 Emma Harper: Dumfries and Galloway Hard of Hearing Group—That the Parliament congratulates the Dumfries and Galloway Hard of Hearing Group on achieving the prestigious Investing in Volunteers Award, which is a UK-wide recognised prize that acknowledges excellent standards of good practice in volunteer management; notes that the group, which is chaired by Ann Ferguson, has worked extremely hard over the last 12 months to meet the stringent criteria for the award through holding 363 hearing aid care and maintenance drop in clinics at 20 locations across Dumfries and Galloway, which have helped over 5,000 people by maintaining over 9,000 hearing aids and providing expert advice on their care; acknowledges that it has made almost 400 referrals to NHS audiology services and has recruited over 50 hardworking and highly knowledgeable volunteers; thanks it for all it does every day for people with hearing difficulties, and wishes it every success for the future.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Stewart Stevenson*, Sandra White*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Willie Coffey*

S5M-21614 Emma Harper: Farm Boy Brews Teams up with Support in Mind Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates James Rhys and his team at Farm Boy Brews (FBB), which is a Dumfries and Galloway-based business that specialises in the production and supply of quality coffee to various food and drink outlets across the south west and beyond; notes that, during the COVID-19 pandemic, it has teamed up with Support in Mind Scotland (SiMS), which has six support centres across Dumfries and Galloway, to raise funds and awareness to support positive health and wellbeing for people accessing the charity's lifeline services, which have seen an increase of demand since the lockdown restrictions came into force; understands that FBB will be supporting SiMS by donating 10% of the profits from its Depresso Espresso coffee sales, which will allow the charity's essential virtual and telephone services to continue; notes that FBB has an online shop at farmboybrews.square.site and encourages people to consider purchasing what it sees as the company's excellent selection of coffees; thanks FBB for its community spirit and innovative ideas during what is a challenging time for many, and wishes it well for the future.

Supported by: Stuart McMillan*, Sandra White*, Stewart Stevenson*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, David Torrance*, Willie Coffey*

S5M-21613 Iain Gray: Thanking East Lothian's Resilience Groups—That the Parliament recognises and commends the outstanding response to the COVID-19 pandemic by resilience groups and volunteers across East Lothian; notes that over 1,500 volunteers have become involved in community support activity via these groups, helping to organise and carry out a wide range of tasks to inform, advise and assist residents, especially people who are shielding or self-isolating; acknowledges the important work undertaken by staff at East Lothian Council, especially its local area partnerships, community councils, community and residents' associations and groups, charities and voluntary groups and businesses to help establish, co-ordinate and support the resilience effort to ensure that the most vulnerable in the community have the support that they need during the crisis, and thanks everyone involved in this activity for their contribution to community resilience and cohesion across the county during this unprecedented time.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-21612 Angus MacDonald: Falkirk Junior Bike Club Raises £10,000 for Strathcarron Hospice—That the Parliament congratulates Falkirk Junior Bike Club on raising £10,000 for Strathcarron Hospice; understands that it decided to raise this as many of the hospice's traditional fundraising routes have closed because of the COVID-19 lockdown; notes that the club's members held an initial 12-hour virtual relay with riders cycling with their families, or on their own, and posting their progress online; commends these efforts to continue operating as a club while raising money for a great cause; notes that the initial target of £10,000 has been hit before the next virtual relay, which is due to take place on 2 May 2020; congratulates each member of the club on these tremendous fundraising efforts; looks forward to seeing the results from the upcoming relay, and wishes the club and its members continued success.

Supported by: Richard Lyle*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Stewart Stevenson*, Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*

S5M-21611 David Torrance: Follow the Rainbows—That the Parliament congratulates Sing In The City as it celebrates its 10th anniversary; notes that the choir group, which started in Edinburgh with one local group, now has in excess of 1,000 members over 18 choirs across Edinburgh, Lothians and Fife; recognises the growing success of these choirs, which include the Kirkcaldy Cloud 9s; praises the commitment and generosity of the choir members, who have helped to raise over £123,000 for charities and the community; welcomes the release of the charity single, Follow the Rainbows, by Scottish singers and songwriters and the Sing In The City directors, Hanley & the Baird; understands that the song, which was inspired by Sing In The City members and tells the story of the choir family coming together to overcome fears and insecurities, featured in the top ten of the UK singles charts only 24 hours after its release on 24 April 2020; further notes that all proceeds from the song will be donated to the Scottish Association for Mental Health (SAMH) to help those affected by mental health issues during the COVID-19 pandemic; commends the Sing In The City family, and wishes Kirsty, Annette and all choir members the very best for the future.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Richard Lyle*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stewart Stevenson*, Sandra White*, Willie Coffey*

S5M-21610 Gordon MacDonald: Edinburgh Napier Students Qualify as Special Constables—That the Parliament commends the five Edinburgh Napier University students who are the first individuals in the country to qualify as Special Constables through a new on-campus training programme; understands that the students, Larissa Engelmann, Campbell Cunningham, Annelise Hoey, Sumaiyah Shafique, Amy Murphy, while also studying at Edinburgh Napier University, have been training as Special Constables since January 2020 and have completed 136 hours of training, including officer safety training at Tulliallan, the Scottish Police College; recognises that the project to bring the Special Constable training in-house was led by Dr Andrew Wooff, a lecturer in criminology at the university, who worked with Police Scotland to adapt the training to allow it to be built into the students' timetables; notes that the programme was devised because of a growing demand from students to become involved as Special Constables; appreciates that the Special Constable role is diverse, demanding, rewarding and offers volunteers an opportunity to contribute to the community, and thanks the five students, who are now available to help Police Scotland with its COVID-19 response, for their work.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*, Kenneth Gibson*, Willie Coffey*, Stewart Stevenson*

S5M-21609 Rachael Hamilton: Scottish Fire Service Group Commander Cooks up a Storm—That the Parliament congratulates the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service (SFRS) Commander, David Girrity, and his wife, Jennifer, on their efforts in cooking over 120 meals in 8 hours for vulnerable and older people self-isolating in Eyemouth during the COVID-19 pandemic; commends their commitment to supporting their local community as part of the Eyemouth Responders Team; recognises the SFRS as a humanitarian organisation for the provision of vital assistance to the most vulnerable in society; praises the incredible community spirit of Mr and Mrs Girrity, and encourages those who are able to show the same.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Richard Lyle*, Finlay Carson*, Bill Kidd*, Margaret Mitchell*

S5M-21608 Margaret Mitchell: Tunnock's Donates Biscuits to NHS Louisa Jordan—That the Parliament acknowledges the generous donation by Tunnock's of thousands of biscuits to the medical and construction staff working at NHS Louisa Jordan; recognises that Sir Boyd Tunnock did this to applaud the key workers, and congratulates the company for doing what it could to reward all those involved in the construction and all the NHS staff who have worked tirelessly to facilitate the building of the hospital.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
