Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

recovery and sustainable innovative jobs in supporting the Scottish Government's net-zero targets for carbon emissions; is concerned that freeports will not necessarily assist these objectives and might undermine them, and is further concerned that if less tax is paid by individuals and businesses in such zones, then public services would be likely to suffer as a result.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Richard Lyle*

S5M-23435 Claire Baker: Sauchie Community Group Named Tenants Group of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates Sauchie Community Group on being named Scottish Tenants Group of the Year at the Tenants Information Service Awards; notes that this national award was sponsored and presented at a virtual award ceremony by the International Union of Tenants after being nominated by Clackmannanshire Tenants & Residents Federation; recognises that, for three decades, Sauchie Community Group has organised activities, meetings, events and outreach programmes in the village of Sauchie and run its operations from a small community centre, which has recently been extended after successfully securing funding to increase the size of the centre and to increase the numbers able to participate; thanks the organisation for its efforts during the lockdown, which has resulted in the funding and distribution of hundreds of food parcels, stationary and activity packs, online concerts, food and prescription pick-ups and drop-offs and many other activities to keep the community supported, involved and entertained while restrictions are in place, and wishes the organisation well with its Christmas activity programme, and continued success in the future.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/parliamentarybusiness/Bills/576.aspx>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
