Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-00344 Stuart McMillan: PG Paper Donates 3,000 Oxygen Machines to India to Help Combat the COVID-19 Crisis—That the Parliament commends PG Paper, which has its head office in Greenock, for donating 3,000 oxygen machines to India, to help combat the country's COVID-19 emergency; understands that the global export company has pooled resources from its offices in China, India, Turkey and the US to procure the lifesaving equipment; notes that vital oxygen contractors are now being delivered to hospitals and health centres to meet the country's urgent need; appreciates that company owners Poonam and Puneet Gupta wanted to provide practical assistance as they have been deeply impacted by the crisis, with close family members, friends and colleagues effected; thanks PG Paper and other businesses for all their efforts to help those on the frontline of the COVID-19 crisis in India; hopes that this vital equipment will help save lives, and sends its condolences to all those affected by the situation in India.

S6M-00343 Liam McArthur: Congratulating Adam Hough's 70-mile Fundraiser Run Around Sanday—That the Parliament congratulates Adam Hough, from Sanday in Orkney, on his recent successful run around the 70-mile coastline of the island; understands that Adam completed this feat in an impressive 14 hours and 38 minutes; recognises that this fundraising effort has raised over £1200 for the local community school; notes that Adam is both a firefighter and an assistant manager at one of Sanday's local shops; further understands that Adam's training for this run has stretched over many months with a 100km completed in Sanday last year; thanks all those who have donated towards this worthy cause and supported Adam's achievement, including Bruce and Jaqueline Seator who provided Adam with invaluable advice on the ground conditions around the route, and looks forward to Adam completing similar loops of other Orkney islands in the years ahead.

Supported by: Edward Mountain*, Elena Whitham*, Jackie Dunbar*, Donald Cameron*, Annabelle Ewing*, Bill Kidd*

S6M-00342 Graham Simpson: Loganair Goes Carbon Neutral—That the Parliament welcomes Loganair's commitment to go carbon neutral by 2040; notes that it is the first UK regional airline to make such a commitment, and further welcomes its trials of electric and hydrogen planes in the Orkneys this summer.

Supported by: Brian Whittle*, Edward Mountain*, Donald Cameron*, Alexander Stewart*, Paul McLennan*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Collette Stevenson*, Jackie Dunbar*, Colin Beattie*

S6M-00341 Jenni Minto: Official Opening of the Robert Black Memorial Helipad—That the Parliament celebrates the official opening of the Robert Black Memorial Helipad in Campbeltown on 12 June 2021 and thanks all involved in the project, which will help many for years to come; notes the helipad, which has been operational since 1 April 2021, speeds up the transfer of patients to and from Campbeltown Hospital; believes that this a fitting and lasting tribute to the dearly missed community paramedic, Robert Black, who had worked for the Scottish Ambulance Service for 28 years and sadly died from COVID-19 in 2020.

Supported by: Elena Whitham*, Colin Beattie*, Michelle Thomson*, Emma Roddick*, Jackie Dunbar*, Kenneth Gibson*, Collette Stevenson*, Rona Mackay*, Paul McLennan*, Fulton MacGregor*, Bill Kidd*, Audrey Nicoll*, Donald Cameron*, Annabelle Ewing*

S6M-00340 Fulton MacGregor: New Support Service Established for Social Workers—That the Parliament commends a new free social work support service that aims to alleviate the stress and pressures faced by workers in the profession because of the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that it was established after research by the Social Workers' Benevolent Trust suggested that up to 75% of social workers described themselves as emotionally and mentally exhausted, with almost 25% seeking professional help; notes that the support service will offer them a platform to talk and think through any issues that they might be facing with a fully-trained volunteer coach; recognises that social workers who want to support their peers can volunteer to become coaches themselves, and will receive full training in coaching and mentoring; recognises that the peer to peer service is being funded by the Scottish Government and delivered by the Scottish Association of Social Work in partnership with Strengthening Practice; praises social workers for their vital and diligent work during the pandemic; acknowledges the additional stress and pressure that the events over this time have put on the sector, and applauds all those who came together to establish this important support service.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Paul McLennan*, Bob Doris*, Christine Grahame*, Bill Kidd*, John Mason*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Elena Whitham*, Colin Beattie*, Audrey Nicoll*

S6M-00339 Christine Grahame: Girlguiding Scotland at the Scottish Refugee Festival—That the Parliament recognises Girlguiding Scotland's involvement in the Scottish Refugee Festival, which takes place from 14 to 19 June 2021; understands that the leading charity for girls and young women will offer taster sessions for girls aged 10 and above; notes that girls and young women will be able to take part in a range of fun activities online from Girlguiding's unique programme to empower girls and boost their confidence; praises the dedicated group of volunteers who will lead the sessions; notes the sessions are being supported by Generation CashBack, an established project delivered by a partnership consortium of Boys' Brigade Scotland, Girlguiding Scotland, Scouts Scotland and Youth Scotland and funded by the Scottish Government's CashBack for Communities Programme; understands that the funding is used to grow the reach of community-based youth work in disadvantaged areas, enabling more young people to access safe spaces and develop their confidence, resilience and skills; applauds Girlguiding Scotland's efforts to bring the benefits of guiding to girls all across Scotland, and wishes Girlguiding Scotland every success for the festival and its future work.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Paul McLennan*, Jackie Dunbar*, Emma Harper*, Tess White*, Kenneth Gibson*, Claire Baker*, Stuart McMillan*, Annabelle Ewing*, John Mason*, Liam McArthur*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Elena Whitham*, Audrey Nicoll*

S6M-00338 Finlay Carson: Milestone News As Dumfries and Galloway Clock Up 100,000 Vaccinations.—That the Parliament welcomes the major milestone news, that more than 100,000 people living in Dumfries and Galloway have now received the first dose of the COVID-19 vaccination; notes that nearly 80,000 people have also received their second dose; praises the remarkable efforts and commitment of all those involved, including NHS Dumfries and Galloway staff and volunteer vaccinators, as well as the enormous help provided in the roll-out programme by the UK Armed Forces; recognises that the vaccination campaign continues to power on, and that the region is now well above the national average; urges those aged under 40 who are being asked to come forward to do so, while also encouraging everyone aged 18-29 to register online by visiting nhsinform.scot/under30register; praises the marvellous team spirit within communities, in helping each other throughout this testing time, and hopes this will continue in the coming months ahead as we seek to return to some form of normality.

Supported by: Brian Whittle*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Pam Gosal*, Annie Wells*, Jamie Greene*

S6M-00337 Gillian Mackay: Aphasia Awareness Month—That the Parliament welcomes Aphasia Awareness Month, which takes place in June 2021; recognises that approximately one-third of people who survive a stroke are affected by aphasia, which is caused by brain damage affecting their ability to speak and communicate; notes that an estimated 3,000 people each year in Scotland are left with aphasia after a stroke, leaving people struggling with daily activities and causing significant isolation; commends the support that charities such as Chest Heart & Stroke Scotland provide to people living with aphasia through its Hospital to Home services, and considers that the Parliament can help Scotland become more aphasia friendly through improving understanding and awareness of what aphasia is and how to help people with communication difficulties.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Carol Mochan*, Stuart McMillan*, Annabelle Ewing*, Emma Roddick*, Russell Findlay*, Michelle Thomson*, Jackie Dunbar*, Patrick Harvie*, Evelyn Tweed*, Alex Rowley*, Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, Martin Whitfield*, Elena Whitham*, Bill Kidd*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Ross Greer*, Finlay Carson*, Lorna Slater*

S6M-00336 Donald Cameron: Barra Citizens Advice Bureau Office Opens—That the Parliament welcomes the opening of the new Citizens Advice Bureau office on the Isle of Barra; understands that the new office was formally opened on 7 June 2021 by HRH The Princess Royal and the Lord-Lieutenant of the Western Isles, both of whom visited the facility in person; notes that the Princess Royal has served as the Patron of Citizens Advice since 1990; further understands that pipers from Castlebay School welcomed guests on the day, and recognises the work of Citizens Advice bureaux in providing advice and representation to members of the public on a range of issues and services.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Russell Findlay*, Bill Kidd*, Alexander Stewart*, Edward Mountain*, Kenneth Gibson*, Pam Gosal*, Annie Wells*, Brian Whittle*, Jamie Greene*, Finlay Carson*, Alasdair Allan*

S6M-00335 Brian Whittle: Ayrshire Cancer Support Secures Funding to Work with Children and Young People—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Ayrshire Cancer Support has been awarded £195,000 over three years from the National Lottery Community (Improving Lives) Fund, to support the delivery of new support services for local children and young people affected by cancer; understands that the new service will offer specialist counselling, therapy and other support to young people who are dealing with the emotional impact that cancer can cause; notes that Ayrshire Cancer Support has also received funding to create this service from a number of other sources, including the Bank of Scotland Reach programme, the STV Children's Lottery, the UCB Fund and the King Baudouin Foundation; commends the staff and volunteers at Ayrshire Cancer Support for their efforts to support individuals in Ayrshire affected by cancer and their families, and wishes them continued every success in the future.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Alexander Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jamie Greene*, Colin Beattie*, Elena Whitham*, Fulton MacGregor*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Finlay Carson*, Paul McLennan*

S6M-00334 Brian Whittle: Ayrshire College wins Tes FE Award—That the Parliament congratulates Ayrshire College on winning the award for the "Best teaching and learning initiative" at the 2021 Tes FE Awards, which celebrate outstanding aspects of the UK's further education sector, recognising excellence and innovation; understands that Ayrshire College won the award for its Mental Health United campaign, which aims to raise awareness of mental health, particularly stressing the benefits of physical activity for wellbeing; notes that the college worked with the Kris Boyd Charity to engage with the local community around mental health, to allow them to access a range of free clubs, including an inclusive dance group, a care experience club, para football and a weight-loss programme for school-aged children, in conjunction with the NHS; applauds Ayrshire College for its efforts to promote the benefits of physical activity for health and wellbeing, and for the contribution that those efforts are making to the local community, and hopes that the programmes continue to benefit the area for years to come.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jamie Greene*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-00333 Brian Whittle: Ayrshire College Students Raise Funds for Kris Boyd Charity—That the Parliament congratulates sport and fitness students at Ayrshire College, who have raised over £1500 for the Kris Boyd Charity, through their annual #PassingPositivity campaign; understands that the students held a number of events for the campaign to raise awareness of mental health, including a virtual team challenge to walk, run and cycle a total of 3,500 miles, the total distance between Kilmarnock in Scotland, where Ayrshire College has a campus, and Kilmarnock in Virginia, USA; notes that five students also reached a self-assigned challenge of completing a 100km of exercise each, between mid-April and mid-May; commends the students for their efforts to raise awareness of mental health, and the Kris Boyd Charity for its work, in collaboration with other charities, businesses and support groups, to deliver support to those dealing with mental health issues and to promote the value of good mental health, and wishes them continued success.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Jamie Greene*, Colin Beattie*, Elena Whitham*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-00332 Sharon Dowey: Curiosity Rover Discovers Maybole-on-Mars—That the Parliament notes that a location on Mars has been named after Maybole; understands that a strip of rock benches on earth's neighbouring planet has been named after the Ayrshire town, and ancient capital of Carrick; recognises that Maybole was stumbled upon by the Curiosity Rover vehicle on its 2,946th sol, with one sol a day on Mars, in November 2020, as part of a mission searching the planet for landmarks, and naming places after locations on Earth, including many Scottish towns; appreciates that the Curiosity Rover has been traversing the planet since 2011, and has also identified a clay-barring region that shares its name with Glen Torridon of the Highlands, as well as a Martian Glen Etive, and looks forward to further exciting exploration on Mars from the Curiosity Rover.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

European Charter of Local Self-Government (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (M)

Passed, 23 March 2021

The Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland.

UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Legal Continuity) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 21 March 2018

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
