Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-00075 Annie Wells: Right to Recovery—That the Parliament notes the view that everyone in Glasgow and across Scotland should have a right, enshrined in law, to the necessary alcohol and/or drug treatment option that they seek; acknowledges the call for the introduction of new national standards and guidance to increase the accessibility of rehabilitation programmes, and notes support for the establishment of a national funding scheme to ensure that resources swiftly reach frontline treatment services in areas of acute demand.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-00083 Bill Kidd: Kingsway Community Connections is stronger than ever—That the Parliament congratulates Kingsway Community Connections in the Glasgow Anniesland constituency on its recent elections, rebranding and restructure; notes that Kingsway CC has continued to develop its vital anchor organisation throughout the pandemic, and further notes that the appointment of a new Managing Director, Chair and Board of Directors shows the organisation's commitment to improving the lives of the diverse community is stronger than ever as it looks to bring its vision of a proud, capable and confident multi-cultural community to life.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, Elena Whitham*, Kenneth Gibson*, Fulton MacGregor*, James Dornan*

S6M-00082 Claire Baker: Congratulating Lorraine Watson on Achieving Scottish FA Category One Status as First Female Referee—That the Parliament congratulates Lorraine Watson from Thornton in Fife on being the first female to achieve a Scottish FA category one status allowing her to referee matches as high as the Scottish Premiership; understands that Lorraine made her debut by refereeing Edinburgh City's 1-0 win over Berwick Rangers in Scottish Professional Football League Two in 2017; acknowledges that Lorraine has progressed through juvenile, amateur and junior ranks into the senior set-up and recognises that her achievements will be an inspiration to young female referees; believes that Lorraine has previously officiated at the Women's Under-19 European Championships and been a fourth official at the Women's Euro 2017 in the Netherlands along with refereeing games in the Women's Champions League, and extends its very best wishes to Lorraine in her future refereeing career and its gratitude to her for her hard work and dedication to leading the way for women who are considering a future in refereeing and football.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Monica Lennon*, Bill Kidd*, Fulton MacGregor*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sarah Boyack*

S6M-00081 Monica Lennon: Fashion Revolution Scotland—That the Parliament commends Fashion Revolution Scotland on its campaign to end human and environmental exploitation in the global fashion industry; congratulates all who took part in Fashion Revolution Week between 19 and 25 April 2021; notes that Fashion Revolution Scotland is the Scottish team of the global, grassroots Fashion Revolution movement, formed following the Rana Plaza industrial disaster in Bangladesh in April 2013 which killed 1,138 people and injured more than 2,500 others; understands that the Rana Plaza factory complex in Bangladesh made clothes for some of the biggest global fashion brands, and that the majority of the victims were young women; believes that Fashion Revolution Scotland activists are doing important work to encourage individuals to reflect on who made their clothes using #whomademyclothes on social media, and raising public awareness about the systemic social and environmental challenges facing the global fashion industry, and considers that everyone must act to recognise the impact of clothes, end what it sees as a throwaway culture and accelerate the transition to a circular economy.

S6M-00080 Liam McArthur: Orkney Commemorates the 80th Anniversary of HMS Hood Sinking—That the Parliament commemorates the 80th anniversary of the sinking of HMS Hood, which occurred on 24 May 1941; recognises that only three of her 1,418-strong crew survived the battle in the Denmark Strait; acknowledges that HMS Hood weighed anchor and sailed out of Scapa Flow in Orkney before her last voyage and was considered to be one of the most powerful battlecruisers afloat at that time; understands that a series of online events organised by Another Orkney Production in conjunction with the Orkney International Science Festival will commemorate the anniversary; notes that the online events will be broadcasted on the Orkney International Science Festival YouTube channel, including a discussion involving Captain Christ Smith, Cdr William Sutherland, Cdr David Hobbs and Rob White, chaired by Howie Firth, and wishes success to all involved in the commemorations.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Marie McNair*, Sarah Boyack*, Fulton MacGregor*

S6M-00079 Liam McArthur: Virtually Orkney Folk Festival 2021—That the Parliament welcomes the Virtually Orkney Folk Festival 2021, which will run online from 27 to 30 May; recognises that this will be the second virtual festival in the event's 39-year history following its hugely successful Big Lockdown Special last year; understands that it will be streamed on the Orkney Folk Festival Facebook page featuring performances and a series of interviews about stalwarts of the local music scene titled Orkney Folky Folk, compiled by Kristan Harvey and Jeana Leslie; commends the Festival Committee on adapting to current circumstances and organising the programme to ensure that people in Orkney and around the world will be able to enjoy and stay connected to this popular and internationally-renowned festival; hopes that the virtual festival will also allow new audiences to be reached and generate a wider interest in folk music, paving the way for the festival to continue growing for years to come, and wishes everyone involved a successful virtual festival, full of great entertainment and the creation of more wonderful memories.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Alexander Stewart*, Kenneth Gibson*, Paul McLennan*, Fulton MacGregor*, Douglas Ross*, Bill Kidd*

S6M-00078 Pauline McNeill: Save the ABC on Sauchiehall Street—That the Parliament notes what it sees as the lack of progress in developing the site of the former ABC on Glasgow's

Sauchiehall Street, which was destroyed as a result of the 2017 Glasgow School of Art fire; believes that efforts to gain permission to have the site cleared for rebuilding work have so far been unsuccessful; understands that, before the fire, the ABC was an important music venue, which greatly contributed to Glasgow's status as a world music heritage city; is concerned that time is running out for the site to be retained as a first-class music venue, and calls on Glasgow City Council, Glasgow School of Art and the owners of the site to work together to ensure the return of this iconic music venue.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Monica Lennon*, Martin Whitfield*, Sarah Boyack*, Katy Clark*

S6M-00077 Joe FitzPatrick: Eden Project Dundee Site Identified—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that the Eden Project has identified its preferred site for Eden Project Dundee, at the former Dundee Gasworks on East Dock Street, and has signed a memorandum of understanding with the site's owners; understands that the agreement between Eden, National Grid and SGN will enable the partners to explore the practicalities of converting the site into the Eden Project's home in Scotland; notes that the agreement follows the completion of a six-month "pollination" process to establish feasibility for the creation of a new international-scale site; understands that the feasibility study was completed with the support of Eden's partners, Dundee City Council, University of Dundee and Northwood Charitable Trust; believes that Eden Project Dundee will build upon the success of V&A Dundee and will further establish Dundee's international reputation as a cultural and tourism destination; welcomes Eden's prediction that the project will create 200 jobs, with an additional 300 indirectly created, and contribute £27 million per year to the regional economy, and recognises the ambition, vision and determination of the partners for driving forward the project during the COVID-19 pandemic.

S6M-00076 Jamie Halcro Johnston: Visit of The Earl and Countess of Strathearn to Orkney—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement of Their Royal Highnesses The Earl and Countess of Strathearn's first official joint trip to Orkney, which will include visits to the European Marine Energy Centre (EMEC) and The Balfour Hospital in Kirkwall; understands that the visit will be part of an extended tour of Scotland relating to Prince William's role of Lord High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and welcomes news that Their Royal Highnesses will also be meeting with a variety of people across Scotland, including many working in charities and organisations in the environment, mental health, homelessness and addiction sectors.

Supported by: Annie Wells*, Alexander Stewart*, Douglas Ross*, Jackson Carlaw*, Liam McArthur*, Sharon Dowey*, Jamie Greene*, Miles Briggs*, Sue Webber*, Donald Cameron*, Fulton MacGregor*

S6M-00074 Alexander Stewart: Commonwealth War Graves Commission's War Graves Week 2021—That the Parliament acknowledges War Graves Week, which takes place from 21 to 28 May 2021; notes that this initiative is the Commonwealth War Graves Commission's (CWGC) new awareness week, which is designed to encourage communities to come together and discover world war heritage on their doorstep; considers that many of the men and women who fought and died in the two world wars came from, and are today commemorated in, a great many local communities, either laid to rest in cemeteries or named on memorials that were built, and are maintained, by CWGC and, as such, the organisation is keen that more people learn more about them during War Graves Week; notes that CWGC states that marking War Graves Week can be as simple as visiting a local cemetery and memorial; acknowledges that, with over 300,000 casualties commemorated across the UK, there is more than likely a Commonwealth war grave on everyone's doorstep; notes that a new search function on CWGC's website allows people to find out more about the service personnel who lived in their communities, and encourages everyone to sign up to one of the events or the digital festival, to learn more about war graves from home. R

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Monica Lennon*, Alexander Burnett*, Jackson Carlaw*, Liz Smith*, Annabelle Ewing*, Liam McArthur*, Murdo Fraser*, Douglas Ross*, Paul O'Kane*, Sharon Dowey*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Fulton MacGregor*, Annie Wells*, Christine Grahame*, Jamie Greene*, Sue Webber*

S6M-00073 Carol Mochan: Unite's Social Care Manifesto—That the Parliament recognises the service, sacrifice and professionalism of Scotland's care home sector workers; acknowledges the Independent Review of Adult Social Care in Scotland, known as the Feeley Report, as a step forward, but one that it considers fails to adequately address what it sees as the chronic levels of low pay, the disparity in terms and conditions between those working in social care, and the lack of investment in the sector; supports Unite the Union's social care manifesto as a basis for improving conditions and standards in the sector; notes that the manifesto demands include a properly funded and publicly-owned National Care Service, which involves participation from the trade unions and local government, a minimum of £15 an hour for all social care workers, a minimum floor of terms and conditions for all social care workers, including two 30-minute paid rest breaks, access to enhanced sick pay and consistent provision of pensions, and the establishment of collective bargaining in all areas of social care services, including the third sector and private sector, and supports the Scottish Social Services Council registration fee being fully funded by the Scottish Government on the basis that social care workers, a predominantly female workforce, are, it understands, among the lowest paid providing a vital public health service. R

Supported by: Monica Lennon* R, Richard Leonard*

S6M-00072 Finlay Carson: World Bee Day Brings Many Benefits—That the Parliament recognises World Bee Day, which is on 20 May 2021, to raise awareness of how vital bees are to life and the environment; recognises the role of the filmmaker and humanitarian, Angelina Jolie, in encouraging and teaching women skills such as beekeeping, which will benefit local communities around the world, and welcomes the work of local organisations, including the South of Scotland Beekeepers' Association and Western Galloway Beekeepers' Association, in helping more young people and women become involved in the hobby and the benefit it brings to their knowledge of the local environment and beyond.

Supported by: Jamie Greene*, Miles Briggs*, Liam McArthur*, Alexander Stewart*, John Mason*, Murdo Fraser*, Douglas Ross*, Sharon Dowey*, Stuart McMillan*, Alexander Burnett* R, Paul McLennan*, Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Fulton MacGregor*, Martin Whitfield*, Sue Webber*

S6M-00071 Craig Hoy: Community Renewal Fund—That the Parliament welcomes East Lothian Council, Midlothian Council and Scottish Borders Council becoming lead authorities for the Community Renewal Fund; notes that the fund will provide the support that people and places need to achieve higher levels of productivity and to tackle disadvantage to ensure future prosperity is felt across the UK, and encourages south of Scotland community groups and organisations to make bids for funding before the June 2021 deadline.

Supported by: Rachael Hamilton*, Donald Cameron*, Douglas Ross*, Alexander Burnett*, Alexander Stewart*, Russell Findlay*, Bill Kidd*, Annie Wells*, Fulton MacGregor*, Sue Webber*

S6M-00068 John Mason: Cambodia Remembrance—That the Parliament notes that 20 May is a National Day of Remembrance to commemorate victims of genocide in Cambodia; recognises that the Khmer Rouge seized power in April 1975 following years of guerrilla warfare, imposing a ruthless programme to reconstruct Cambodia on the model of Mao's China; acknowledges that its

New Subordinate Legislation

New Subordinate Legislation

Made Affirmative instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 21 May 2021 and are subject to the made affirmative procedure—

Health Protection (Coronavirus) (Restrictions and Requirements) (Local Levels) (Scotland) Amendment (No. 24) Regulations 2021 (SSI 2021/211) laid under paragraph 6(3) of schedule 19 of the Coronavirus Act 2020.

Negative instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 21 May 2021 and are subject to the negative procedure—

Education (Scotland) Act 1980 (Modification) Regulations 2021 (SSI 2021/210) laid under section 133 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1980.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

European Charter of Local Self-Government (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (M)

Passed, 23 March 2021

The Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland.

UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Legal Continuity) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 21 March 2018

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 16 March 2021

The Bill has been referred to the Supreme Court under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland.
