Debate on the subject of—

S6M-01612 Elena Whitham: A Model for Scotland, the Campaign for Prostitution Law Reform in Scotland—That the Parliament welcomes the launch by an alliance of frontline agencies of the campaign, A Model for Scotland, which looks for prostitution law reform in Scotland; believes that, although it has been officially recognised as a form of violence against women, it is currently legal to perpetrate and profit from prostitution; understands that 4% of men in Scotland reported having paid for sex in the past five years; notes that the women who are sexually exploited can face criminal sanctions for soliciting under Section 46 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982, making it harder for them to leave the sex trade and access support; commends the joint work of the Scottish Government and COSLA in developing Equally Safe: Scotland's strategy to eradicate violence against women; notes the commitment to develop a model for Scotland, including in Carrick, Cumnock and Doon Valley, which challenges men's demand for prostitution and supports women to exit sexual exploitation, but further notes the view that there is a large body of work still to be carried out to ensure that the burden of criminality shifts from the victims of sexual exploitation to those who perpetrate and profit from this abuse.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-01884 Keith Brown: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill - UK Legislation—That the Parliament agrees that the relevant provisions of the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill, introduced in the House of Commons on 9 March 2021, relating to amendments to the Crime (Overseas Production Orders) Act 2019; orders under the Sexual Offences Act 2003 and Abusive Behaviour and Sexual Harm (Scotland) Act 2016; amendment of section 60 of the Police Act 1996; extension of the Summary Jurisdiction (Process) Act 1881; and the amendment to extend the annual reporting duty for the Police Covenant to cover British Transport Police and National Crime Agency, so far as these matters fall within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament or alter the executive competence of the Scottish Ministers, should be considered by the UK Parliament.

Supported by: Ash Regan

S6M-01884.1 Jamie Greene: Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill - UK Legislation—As an amendment to motion S6M-01884 in the name of Keith Brown (Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill - UK Legislation), insert at end “, and, in so doing, supports other provisions in the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill that currently do not apply to Scotland, such as the use of whole life orders and the doubling of the maximum sentence for attacks on emergency workers to two years, and urges the Scottish Government to implement these provisions in Scotland.”

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S6M-01866 Maggie Chapman: The Right to Access Environmental Justice—That the Parliament notes the publication of the Environmental Rights Centre for Scotland report, Why Scotland needs an environmental court or tribunal, in October 2021; considers that the report informs the debate on how to ensure that members of the public, including those in the North East Scotland region, can enjoy their right of access to environmental justice, which it understands forms part of the procedural right to a healthy environment guaranteed by the Aarhus Convention, and is proposed for inclusion in a new statutory right in Scotland; believes that access to environmental justice is unaffordable to many, and that this is contrary to the requirements of the Aarhus Convention; welcomes what it sees as the Scottish Government’s commitment to ensure that a review of environmental justice, including the case for an environmental court, will commence by spring 2023, and notes the calls for all stakeholders to participate in this debate ahead of the 2023 consultation.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-01840 Martin Whitfield: Championing the Right to Holistic Family Support—That the Parliament notes the belief that all families across Scotland that need additional support should be able to get help when and where they need it; considers that article 18 of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child establishes the right of families to help and support; believes that delivering accessible holistic family support is central to Scotland's commitment to Keep The Promise for children and families, and notes the finding from Change Programme ONE, that work in this area is underway, but not yet sufficient; notes the calls for a shift in public investment towards prevention; believes that many families were already struggling to access support services prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, and that vulnerable children, young people and families in Scotland have been the most affected by the impact of successive lockdowns; welcomes the commitment by the Scottish Government to deliver a Whole Family Wellbeing Fund of £500 million over the course of the current parliamentary session, and notes the calls for an urgent action plan to outline how the Whole Family Wellbeing Fund will be invested to implement the Family Support Delivery Group blueprint and route map, thereby making the right to whole family holistic support a practical and accessible reality for families, which would be consistently available across the country, including the South Scotland region.

Supported by: Foyso Choudhury*, Jackie Baillie*, Colin Smyth*, Sarah Boyack*

S6M-01827 Emma Harper: World COPD Day 2021—That the Parliament welcomes World COPD Day, which takes place on 17 November 2021 and has a theme of Healthy Lungs – Never More Important; understands that Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) is a serious lung condition affecting 140,000 people across Scotland, and that an estimated 200,000 people across the country are said to be living with undiagnosed COPD; further understands that increased prevalence of COPD means that it is estimated that it will be the third most frequent cause of mortality worldwide by 2030; notes the publication of a new report by Asthma UK and the British Lung Foundation Scotland, which surveyed over 8,000 people from across all four nations in the UK who have a diagnosis of COPD; understands that the majority of respondents to the survey reportedly conveyed that they are not receiving the five fundamentals of COPD care, which are offering smoking cessation, offering pneumococcal and flu vaccine, pulmonary rehabilitation, personalised self-management plan, and optimising treatment for comorbidities, and welcomes the steps that are being taken by the Scottish Government, in the devolved healthcare system, to improve the outcomes of those living with COPD, including through the publication of the Respiratory Care Action Plan in March 2021, which aims to improve the care and support for people with lung conditions, including COPD, through prevention, early diagnosis and addressing health inequalities that impact on COPD, such as smoking, air pollution and poor quality housing.

Scottish Government to introduce stronger legislation, which would recognise the desecration or vandalism of war memorials as a specific criminal offence; understands that war memorials hold a very special place within the hearts of Scotland's communities; further understands that there has been an unprecedented increase in the desecration and vandalism of Scotland's war memorials since 2015, with some of those most recently targeted being the war memorial in the Duchess of Hamilton Park in Motherwell, the Carronshore War Memorial, the Boer War Memorial in Glasgow, the Spanish Civil War Memorial in Motherwell, the Kirkcaldy War Memorial, the Cowdenbeath War Memorial, and the Prestonpans War Memorial; notes calls to bring forward stricter legislation to ensure that war memorials are given special protection status; further notes the view that this would assist the authorities when prosecuting perpetrators of what it sees as these heinous crimes, and believes that war memorials are not representative of political or religious iconography, but are rather invaluable memorials to the young men and women who have paid the ultimate sacrifice for their countries, so that everyone today, irrespective of their background, can equally enjoy freedom from tyranny and oppression.

spirit and innovation; considers that toy recycling plays a crucial role in living a more sustainable lifestyle; thanks all the staff and volunteers involved, and sends its best wishes for every success in the future.

S6M-01855 Stuart McMillan: British Heart Foundation Launches The Circuit—That the Parliament welcomes the launch of The Circuit, which is the first ever defibrillator network covering the UK that integrates with ambulance dispatch centres to direct bystanders to the nearest defibrillator in the event of a cardiac arrest; understands that the register has been funded by the British Heart Foundation (BHF) and developed by Microsoft UK; supports BHF's campaign in partnership with the Resuscitation Council UK and the Scottish Ambulance Service to encourage individuals who look after publicly accessible defibrillators across Scotland to register the machines on The Circuit; understands that early defibrillation can more than double a person's chances of survival from an out-of-hospital cardiac arrest but that many defibrillators are never used because emergency services do not know where the defibrillators are located or how to access them; commends The Circuit as it is believed that the network will enable emergency services to empower bystanders to access nearby defibrillators, which will help to reduce the number of deaths from out-of-hospital cardiac arrests, and urges MSPs to raise awareness of The Circuit and the importance of registering a publicly accessible defibrillator.

S6M-01854 Stuart McMillan: William Wallace Memorial Unveiled in Port Glasgow—That the Parliament welcomes the unveiling of a monument dedicated to William Wallace in Port Glasgow; notes that, since 2014, members of The Society of William Wallace have been working to create a monument in honour of the knight, where it is believed he was chained to an oak tree in 1305, before being taken by English troops to London to be hung, drawn and quartered by order of King Edward I of England; understands that the unveiling of the grey granite sculpture in the shape of a tree trunk, which was built where the tree was known to have stood within Holy Family Church's grounds, was reportedly witnessed by approximately 200 people; further understands that the event involved performances from Alastair McDonald and Ted Christopher, in addition to speeches from dendrochronologist, Dr Coralie Mills and Gary Stewart from The Society of William Wallace; notes that a winning poem by Chei Gallacher has been etched onto the monument, which follows a competition for young people in the area to get involved in the project; understands that people from all over the world, including Italy, Germany, Greece, Sweden, Bulgaria, Canada and the US, tuned in to watch a live stream of the event; commends Cha Halliday, Stuart Duncan, Neil Lochiel and the late Sean Donnelly for setting up the Wallace Oak Project; believes that the monument tells an important story that has been orally passed down over many generations; hopes that the monument can help boost Inverclyde's tourism offering and encourage people across Inverclyde to engage with its history, and wishes the project all the best going forward as it looks to publicly display parts of what is considered to be the original oak tree, which is currently held in storage.

S6M-01853 Stuart McMillan: Tom Stillie Sword for Inverclyde Athletic's Stalwart—That the Parliament congratulates Gerry Gaffney on being presented with the Tom Stillie Sword at the recent 4J Studios scottishathletics and jogscotland Annual Awards 2021, which were held at the Hilton Hotel in Glasgow; notes that the governing body presents the award to the person who it deems to have contributed the most to Scottish Athletics within the preceding year; understands that Gerry received this accolade in recognition of his work during the COVID-19 pandemic lockdowns by assisting Scottish Athletics to develop the necessary control documentation, which includes guidance and risk assessment, to allow the resumption of local and national competitions across Scotland; further understands that this required Gerry to meet with Scottish Athletics officials and representatives from clubs across the country via video calls and, when permitted, visiting athletics venues to provide an assessment prior to granting permission to host an event; appreciates that Scottish Athletics awarded the Tom Stillie Sword to Inverclyde Athletics Club in 2010, which, it understands, was the first and only time the governing body deemed a club worthy of the award; commends Gerry for all his efforts during the pandemic to support athletics clubs and its athletes, thanks him for his dedication to the sport, and wishes him well for the future.

S6M-01851 Jackie Baillie: New Year's Day Trading—That the Parliament is disappointed at the Scottish Government's reported refusal to close large stores on New Year's Day and give shopworkers what it considers to be a well-deserved day off; acknowledges how hard that shopworkers work, especially throughout the COVID-19 pandemic; believes that this had an impact on workers' mental and physical health; continues to support USDAW in what it sees as its commendable efforts to advocate for the rights of retail workers, and believes that the Scottish Government must urgently reconsider its decision, and give retail workers a much-deserved day off on New Year's Day. R

S6M-01844 Emma Harper: Dumfries and Galloway LGBT+ Queen's Award—That the Parliament congratulates Dumfries and Galloway LGBT+, which has been presented with The Queen's Award for Voluntary Service by the Lord Lieutenant for Wigtownshire, Aileen Brewis; understands that The Queen's Award for Voluntary Service, the highest award a voluntary group can receive in the UK, recognises dedicated commitment to supporting a particular community, group or positive cause; understands that Dumfries and Galloway LGBT+, which was formed in 2015, offers training, support, events and volunteering opportunities for LGBT+ young people across Dumfries and Galloway, and has delivered more than 1,000 hours of support and training to businesses, agencies and community groups since its inception, including through attending cattle and agricultural shows and attending schools and higher education institutions; thanks all involved with Dumfries and Galloway LGBT+ for the outstanding work they do each day, and wishes them every success for the future.

S6M-01792 Anas Sarwar: The British Indian Army Memorial—That the Parliament commemorates the service and sacrifice of over four million soldiers from the British Indian Army (BIA) who fought in both world wars; recognises that Hindus, Muslims, Sikhs, Christians and Gurkhas, and more from a range of nations, fought alongside British troops and more than 160,000 soldiers lost their lives; recognises that Scotland has a special link with the BIA through soldiers from the Force K6 regiment, from the Punjab, who escaped from Dunkirk during the Second World War and made their way to Scotland; welcomes the campaign by the charity, Colourful Heritage, to build Scotland's first permanent memorial to the soldiers of the BIA in Glasgow, and believes this would be a fitting way to commemorate their service and sacrifice.

S6M-01786 Alexander Stewart: Clackmannanshire Stonemason, Liam Macaulay—That the Parliament commends Liam Macaulay, a stonemason from Clackmannanshire, who, it understands, is hoping to encourage others to take up a trade, and take on board an opportunity to work for themselves; understands that Liam has been devoted to stonemasonry for seven years and has recently spoken to the local press about his profession, in the hope of encouraging young people into vocational jobs; further understands that Liam considers himself to have fallen into the trade, deciding to go with a Forth Valley College apprenticeship during an open day; believes that it can be a rewarding experience to see a finished product that is the result of one's own work; commends what it sees as Liam's engagement to try to encourage everyone in any age bracket to get involved in this and similar professions, as a means to developing a valuable skill that they can use for the rest of their lives; notes reported concerns of a shortage of people with the skills needed to conserve the built environment, and commends Liam on his dedication, hard work and entrepreneurial spirit.

New Subordinate Legislation

New Subordinate Legislation

Affirmative instruments

The following draft instruments were laid before Parliament on 2 November and are subject to the affirmative procedure—

Coronavirus Act 2020 (Early Expiry of Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 2021 (Draft/2021)
Laid under section 95(1) of the Coronavirus Act 2020.

Land Reform (Scotland) Act 2016 (Register of Persons Holding a Controlled Interest in Land) Amendment Regulations 2021 (Draft/2021)
Laid under section 126(3)(b) of the Land Reform (Scotland) Act 2016.

Negative instruments

The following instrument was laid before Parliament on 2 November and is subject to the negative procedure—

Storage of Carbon Dioxide (Licensing etc.) (EU Exit) (Scotland) (Amendment) Amendment Regulations 2021 (SSI 2021/383)
Laid under paragraph 1(7) of schedule 7 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.

Laid Only instruments

The following instrument was laid before Parliament on 2 November and is not subject to any parliamentary procedure—

Lands Tribunal for Scotland (Miscellaneous Amendments) Amendment Rules 2021 (SSI 2021/386)
Laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Carer's Allowance Supplement (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 7 October 2021

European Charter of Local Self-Government (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (M)

Passed, 23 March 2021

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.

Delegated Powers and Law Reform Committee report, 5 October 2021

UK Withdrawal from the European Union (Legal Continuity) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 21 March 2018

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.

United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (G)

Passed, 16 March 2021

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
