followed by Members' Business

Debate on the subject of—

S6M-01861 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Long Covid as a Condition of Concern—That the Parliament considers that long COVID is a condition of serious concern; understands that figures published by the Office for National Statistics estimate that 79,000 people in Scotland, including individuals in the Edinburgh Western constituency, have already self-reported long COVID; notes that symptoms of long COVID include chronic fatigue, muscle spasms, breathing problems, sleep problems and cognitive impairment; understands that, of those who have self-reported, 61,000 have been experiencing symptoms for more than 12 weeks, and 31,000 have been experiencing symptoms for a year; considers that the omission of long COVID from the NHS Recovery Plan was a disappointment to many who currently have the condition; notes the view that the support currently available to people with long COVID does not sufficiently address their needs, and that more measures, including specialist clinics, a care pathway and community nurses who are able to visit people at home where necessary, must be introduced, and further notes the calls for long COVID to be prioritised in future Scottish Government decisions.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-02022 Annie Wells: The Hope Sculpture Project Launch Monday 8 October—That the Parliament recognises the Hope Sculpture Project, which launches on 8 November 2021; notes that the three sculptures by British designer Steuart Padwick are being erected across historically significant locations in Glasgow to coincide with COP26; understands that the central piece, The Hope Sculpture, is a 23.5 metre high structure towering over Clyde Gateway's Woodland Park at Cunnigar Loop, made from a new low-carbon concrete and incorporating recycled crushed glass; further understands that it is topped by a sculpture of a child with its arms reaching out – a symbol of hope for the future, and notes that there is also a 4.5 metre Beacon of Hope work, located at Glasgow Central Station, which it understands is a celebration of the country's expanding timber construction industry, and the Hope Triptych, an adaptation of the child featured at the top of the columns located at the University of Strathclyde's Rottenrow Gardens.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Douglas Lumsden*, Tess White*, Stuart McMillan*, Russell Findlay*, Monica Lennon*, Douglas Ross*, Murdo Fraser*, Colin Beattie*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Pam Gosal*, Alexander Stewart*

S6M-02008 Alexander Burnett: National Lottery Heritage Fund Supports Projects in Aberdeenshire West—That the Parliament commends the UK's National Lottery Heritage Fund for providing £15,913,393 to support 12 land and nature projects in Aberdeenshire West since 1994; understands that it has supported a total of 501 projects since 1994, with an overall investment of over £205 million into land and nature projects to help protect Scotland's natural heritage; further understands that it recently awarded over £12 million to Cairngorms 2030: people and nature thriving together, to preserve the UK's biggest national park and help bring communities together to improve wellbeing, and thanks it for its continued support for local community projects.

S6M-02007 Evelyn Tweed: Tribute to Andrew Eadington of Killin Mountain Rescue—That the Parliament offers its sincere condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of Andrew Eadington, who tragically passed away at the age of 26 in October 2021; acknowledges the incredible work Andrew did volunteering for Killin Mountain Rescue during his life and the positive impact he had on the many people he met on and off the mountain; notes Andrew's incredible commitment and knowledge of the Trossachs and Breadalbane areas, where he spent his childhood helping his father gather sheep, which led him to naturally progress to becoming a valued member of the Killin Mountain Rescue team; honours what it sees as the vital work that Killin Mountain Rescue does, saving dozens of lives a year, and that this work would not be possible without volunteers like Andrew, and continues to support and champion volunteers like Andrew across the many charities and organisations who provide vital services to communities across Scotland

Supported by: Siobhian Brown*, Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Jim Fairlie*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Miles Briggs*, Natalie Don*

S6M-02006 Stephen Kerr: Helix Park Presented with a Green Flag Award—That the Parliament congratulates Helix Park for being presented with a Green Flag Award; understands the importance of well-maintained parks and green space in local communities, and acknowledges that well-maintained parks promote exercise and play, and improve mental health and wellbeing.

S6M-02005 Stephen Kerr: Antonine Wall on UNESCO Digital Trail —That the Parliament recognises that a central piece of Falkirk's heritage, the Antonine Wall, has been chosen to feature in the first ever UNESCO digital trail; understands the positive impact this will have on promoting education in history, science, music, design, and literature, and acknowledges the positive impact it will give to both Falkirk and Scotland's tourist industries.

S6M-02004 Claire Baker: Commending Stirling High School Pupils' Collection of Food for Start Up Stirling Foodbank—That the Parliament commends the efforts of Stirling High School pupils on their successful collection for the charity, Start Up Stirling; understands that in the two weeks from 21 October 2021 the students collected 132.2 kgs of food for the charity's foodbank service; expresses concern at reports that the level of referrals for the charity's crisis food support service remains above pre-pandemic levels, and that it is currently supporting over 400 people per week, a third of whom are children; understands that the difficult financial circumstances that many families face in autumn 2021 due to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic have led to a sharp increase in referrals for crisis food support; further understands that, in turn, this placed an unprecedented strain on foodbank stock levels and that the charity launched its Communities Beyond Covid appeal; highlights that this appeal aims to replenish the stock of essential food and continue to provide for families in crisis throughout the Stirling area; recognises what it sees as the positive impact that the school pupils' efforts have had on this appeal, and appreciates the hard work of the students to make a difference to those who are experiencing hardship in their communities.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, Siobhian Brown*, Stuart McMillan*, Evelyn Tweed*, Natalie Don*

S6M-02003 Monica Lennon: The Moment—That the Parliament congratulates the Children's Parliament and the Scottish Youth Parliament on the success of The Moment initiative, which led to children and young people taking part in nationwide climate meetings with their elected representatives; understands that the preparatory work carried out by children, young people and schools resulted in over 60 virtual and in-person events, believed to be the largest ever direct engagement of children and young people in Scotland meeting their elected representatives; welcomes the children and young people's calls to action on climate change, and notes these were plotted on The Map, which was presented to international parliamentarians at the Globe COP26 Legislators' Summit, held in the Scottish Parliament on 5 November 2021; congratulates everyone involved in The Moment on making the voices of children and young people heard during COP26, and agrees that all elected representatives should continue to engage with children and young people on the climate emergency and other issues that matter to them.

Supported by: Gillian Mackay*, Dean Lockhart*, Alex Rowley*, Claire Baker*, Liam McArthur*, Siobhian Brown*, Ariane Burgess*, Martin Whitfield*, Mark Ruskell*, Finlay Carson*, Pauline McNeill*, Sharon Dowe*, Ross Greer*, Stuart McMillan*, Collette Stevenson*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Colin Beattie*, Neil Bibby*, Miles Briggs*, Natalie Don*

S6M-02002 Sue Webber: Deaf Action Limited Project Receives Levelling Up and Community Renewal Funding Award—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Deaf Action Limited has received a funding award from the Levelling Up and Community Renewal UK Government fund; understands that its project, Positive Pathways, will combine direct support to empower Deaf British Sign Language (BSL) users to gain employability skills and access mainstream employability programmes, together with support to gain essential digital skills for work; acknowledges that the funding award is £61,200, and welcomes this UK funding support for the Lothians.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Murdo Fraser*, Sandesh Gulhane* R, Pam Gosal*, Tess White*, Jamie Greene*, Finlay Carson*, Douglas Ross*, Donald Cameron*, Annie Wells*

S6M-02001 Paul McLennan: Lothians Macmillan Improving the Cancer Journey Service—That the Parliament congratulates Macmillan Cancer Support on the newly launched £2.8 million service across Edinburgh and the Lothians to ensure cancer patients can access all the help they need; notes that the new Lothians Macmillan Improving the Cancer Journey service will see every newly-diagnosed cancer patient in Edinburgh and the Lothians sent a letter offering a meeting with a dedicated one-to-one support worker; understands that the worker will then help the patient to access a wide range of support, from benefits advice and emotional support to help at home, or with other practical needs; welcomes the launch as part of the Transforming Cancer Care partnership between Macmillan and the Scottish Government, which will see every cancer patient receive personalised care by 2023, and applauds Macmillan on its goal of ensuring that everyone in Edinburgh and the Lothians with cancer has someone to call on for help, no matter what they need.

S6M-02000 Jackie Dunbar: Danestone Primary Receives Gold Rights Respecting Schools Award from UNICEF —That the Parliament congratulates Danestone Primary School in Aberdeen, which has recently been awarded the Rights Respecting Schools gold award from UNICEF; understands that the gold award is granted by UNICEF UK to schools which have fully embedded children's rights throughout the school in their policies, practice and ethos; further understands that the gold accreditation is valid for a total of three years, after which the school can choose to be re-accredited at gold status; understands that schools across the country can be awarded bronze, silver or gold accreditation, and recognises that achieving such an award is a remarkable achievement.

Supported by: Stephanie Callaghan*, Martin Whitfield*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Natalie Don*

S6M-01999 Paul McLennan: North Berwick Rotary Club's Generous Donation to CHAS—That the Parliament congratulates the Rotary Club of North Berwick for raising over £2,000 for Children's Hospices Across Scotland (CHAS); acknowledges that a portion of the proceeds came from a recent sponsored golf competition at Kilspindie Golf Club; notes that the club annually raises funds for charities throughout the country, while also encouraging local sports clubs to fundraise for CHAS by presenting trophies for their yearly competitions; further notes the important services that CHAS provides to children across Scotland, and commends the Rotary Club for its donation.

That the Parliament congratulates Laura Clelland, who has won Staff Member of the Year in the NHS Celebrating Success awards; acknowledges that Ms Clelland is a clinical support worker at East Lothian Community Hospital who was shortlisted for her work to create a hair salon for older patients in the Haddington hospital's Oak Tree ward; notes that the Staff Member of the Year category honours individuals who go above and beyond in their day-to-day work, but who perhaps do not have a high profile within their team, department or service, and thanks Laura Clelland, and her team at East Lothian Community Hospital, for their work over the last year.

S6M-01997 David Torrance: Fife Bakery Named Best in UK in Industry Awards—

That the Parliament congratulates Stephens Bakery, which has 11 outlets across Fife, including two in Kirkcaldy, on being named the UK's best craft bakery at the 2021 Bakery Industry Awards; notes that the company scooped the highest accolade in the craft bakery business category at the prestigious awards, which recognise quality, dedication and innovation in the sector and are entered by businesses large and small from across the UK; understands that Stephens Bakery was selected following a robust judging process, looking at all aspects of its business, with tastings and site visits from an independent panel of experts from across the baking industry, and was unanimously awarded high scores across key assessment areas including employee training and development, current and predicted business growth, product range, craft skills and product quality; believes that this award is testament to the hard work and commitment of the team, and wishes them continued success.

S6M-01992 Emma Harper: Dumfries Slow Fashion Launch Re:Dress —That the Parliament congratulates the Dumfries Slow Fashion Movement on its launch of Re:Dress Dumfries, an exciting slow fashion showcase that took place at the historic Theatre Royal on Friday 29 October 2021; recognises that the event highlighted the work of a number of local artists and designers who use recycled and ecologically-sourced materials to create sustainable clothing and other forms of fashion and art; understands that fashion reportedly accounts for around 10% of global greenhouse gasses and that it is welcome that many fashion companies, outlets and designers are working to combat the global climate emergency, including through slow fashion; further understands that the Dumfries Slow Fashion Movement is part of a wider grass roots movement of communities across the world taking action to address climate change and reduce their own carbon footprint in whatever way they can, and appreciates the importance of such actions as world leaders meet in Glasgow for COP26 and aim to reach an agreement on how to tackle climate change at a global level, and to ensure global warming does not exceed 1.5 degrees.

S6M-01991 Sarah Boyack: Queen Margaret University School of Arts, Social Sciences and Management Achieves the LGBT Charter at Silver Level—That the Parliament congratulates the Queen Margaret University School of Arts, Social Sciences and Management on achieving the LGBT Charter at Silver level; recognises the hard work and dedication of students and staff in achieving this prestigious award from LGBT Youth Scotland; notes that an LGBT-inclusive freshers' guide and student prospectus were developed, and welcomes the training and the review of policies, practice and resources that aim to ensure that the Queen Margaret University School of Arts, Social Sciences and Management goes beyond meeting legislative needs and is as inclusive as it can be for students, staff and the wider community.

S6M-01990 Claire Baker: Funding for Fife Curnie Clubs—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement of funding from the National Lottery Community Fund for the Fife Alcohol Support Service (FASS) Curnie Clubs; recognises that the clubs, which began in 2015 and run across Kirkcaldy, Glenrothes, Methil, Leven, Cupar and Cowdenbeath, provide support to help lonely and isolated adults back into communities; notes that loneliness and isolation are recognised as major public health issues across Scotland, and have impacted across all age groups through the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that the funding, which was sought to meet need following lockdown, will secure the Curnie Clubs in Fife for another three years; praises the work of FASS in providing a range of services to meet the needs of vulnerable people within the Fife community, including treatment and support for those affected by substance misuse and for adults who are socially isolated and vulnerable; considers the support provided by FASS and Curnie Clubs to be invaluable to many across Fife, and wishes them well with their continuing good work.

S6M-01968 Stephanie Callaghan: NHS Lanarkshire and VR Group Receive Highest Accolade for their Support of the Armed Forces—That the Parliament congratulates NHS Lanarkshire and Hamilton-based recruitment firm, VR Group, on being awarded Gold Employer Recognition for their support of the Armed Forces; acknowledges that the award is given to organisations that employ and support Ministry of Defence staff, including reserves, regulars, veterans and cadet force volunteers; commends both organisations for their commitment to, and advocacy of, the Armed Forces Covenant, and understands that both organisations have achieved the highest level of recognition, with such recognition reserved for those organisations demonstrating the strongest commitment to supporting the military.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Evelyn Tweed*, Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Bob Doris*

S6M-01805 Ariane Burgess: A Win for Beavers—That the Parliament recognises that beavers are a protected species; considers that translocation rather than killing of beavers is a necessary measure to tackle the nature emergency; notes the recent court ruling that NatureScot erred in law in granting licences to kill beavers without giving a statement of reasons; looks forward to NatureScot remedying its approach in future, and celebrates that this ruling will encourage accountability and transparency, benefiting conservationists and farmers.

New Subordinate Legislation

New Subordinate Legislation

Negative instruments

The following instrument was laid before Parliament on 8 November and is subject to the negative procedure—

Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000 (Register of Interests) Amendment Regulations 2021 (SSI 2021/397)

Laid under section 7(5) of the Ethical Standards in Public Life etc. (Scotland) Act 2000

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
