Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-03911 Alexander Stewart: 40th Anniversary of the Falklands Conflict—That the Parliament acknowledges that 2022 marks the 40th anniversary of the Falkland Islands conflict; considers that, on 2 April 1982, nationalist Argentine forces invaded and occupied the Falkland Islands, and that this resulted in a UK Task Force setting sail to recapture the Islands and restore freedom for the islanders three days later, on 5 April; understands that this involved 25,948 UK armed forces personnel, alongside around 3,000 civilian crew from the Merchant Navy, Royal Fleet Auxiliary and Chinese civilian crew, and that 255 died during the campaign, in addition to the tragic loss of three civilian Falkland Islanders; notes reports that, during the 74-day conflict between Argentina and the United Kingdom over two British dependent territories in the South Atlantic, the Falkland Islands and South Georgia and the South Sandwich Islands, more than 1,000 lives were lost; understands that this included 15 service personnel of the Arbroath-based 45 Commando and the 2nd Battalion of the Scots Guards; further understands that, following several weeks of intense fighting, Argentine forces surrendered on 14 June 1982, a date that has since been known in the Falkland Islands as Liberation Day, and is a national holiday there; acknowledges the reported statement from the Falkland Islands Government, that Falkland Islanders continue to be profoundly grateful for the strong support that the UK Government continues to provide, in acknowledging their choice to remain a UK Overseas Territory; considers that the people of the Falkland Islands continue to be forward-looking, with a strong sense of culture and heritage; commends what it sees as the immense bravery and fortitude shown by the Falkland Islanders and armed forces personnel amidst the harsh terrain and conditions during the conflict; understands that the Falkland Islands Government is calling this special commemorative year “Looking Forward at Forty”; believes that, across the UK, many events will be taking place between April and June 2022 involving the UK Armed Forces, as well as many charities and organisations, including ASA Forces Charity, Poppyscotland and the Royal British Legion Scotland, and is enthused that a Falklands War 40th Anniversary event is planned in Edinburgh on 18 June 2022. March to 3 April 2022, the aim of which is to draw attention to the reported 700,000 people living with autism in the UK; believes that people living with autism must be able to live in a world that respects their equality and human rights and becomes a much friendlier place for them; notes that the United Nation's theme for World Autism Acceptance Day 2022 is "Inclusion in the Workplace: Challenges and Opportunities in a Post-Pandemic World"; considers that far more needs to be done in Scotland to tackle the autism employment gap and support more autistic people into work; acknowledges the view that more needs to be done to educate employers on how to properly support autistic employees, and believes that political representatives should use their platform to advocate for autistic people's rights and wellbeing, not just this week, but every week.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Monica Lennon*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jackie Baillie*, Russell Findlay*, Martin Whitfield*, Miles Briggs*, Alex Rowley*, Karen Adam*, Fulton MacGregor*

S6M-03866 Bob Doris: Helping Young People Into University at The Maryhill Hub—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Glasgow, along with joint partners, the University of Edinburgh and education charity IntoUniversity, on the launch of the new IntoUniversity centre in Maryhill, which is part of their commitment to widening access to education; understands that it will be based at the Maryhill Community Hub, in the area's Wyndford estate, it is the third Scottish centre to be opened in the last year, and will build on the success of the first two centres that launched in Govan and Craigmillar; commends the goals of this collaboration, which aims to connect young people, aged seven to 18, who may never have thought going to university was possible, with two of the world's leading Higher Education Institutions providing opportunities to support their learning and nurture their ambitions; understands that by working closely with local schools and other partners, including Glasgow City Council, the centre will provide ground-breaking support to young people, including after-school academic support, mentoring with university students and local professionals, in-school aspiration-raising workshops and enrichment, and work experience opportunities, and looks forward to the centre's contribution to the Widening Participation agenda.

S6M-03857 Pam Gosal: Luss and Arden Development Trust's Annual Community Clean-up—That the Parliament applauds the efforts of Luss and Arden Development Trust, which saw a team of 36 volunteers turn out to pick up litter in the village and surrounding glens; understands that the area is a tourist hotspot and that the good weather brings in a large number of visitors, and acknowledges the support of the Lomond Arms Hotel and the Village Rest Café who provided refreshments for volunteers throughout the day.

Supported by: Russell Findlay*, Craig Hoy*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Jamie Greene*, Karen Adam*, Alexander Stewart*

S6M-03856 Michelle Thomson: The Polar Academy, Bo'ness—That the Parliament wishes the team of intrepid explorers from Bo'ness Academy well on their expedition across the Arctic pole with Craig Mathieson's Polar Academy; understands that the team of ten pupils and one teacher left Bo'ness on 24 March 2022 on the first leg of their journey to Iceland, before leaving for Greenland to finally embark on their adventure across the Arctic; notes that the Polar Academy was founded by Craig Mathieson, explorer in residence at the Royal Scottish Geographical Society and committee member of The Explorers' Club Great Britain and Ireland Chapter, to inspire the next generation of leaders and explorers; understands that he uses his own experience of "inspiration through exploration" to do so; believes that the Polar Academy works with children and young people who have been the victims of bullying, abuse, and those lacking in self-esteem and confidence, and aims to help build them into leaders and role models, enabling them to inspire other young people to reach their full potential, and looks forward to seeing the team from Bo'ness

Academy, which, it believes, is the largest polar expedition to leave Scotland since 1904, completing their expedition, and welcoming them back to Scotland to hear of their adventures and experiences.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, David Torrance*, Karen Adam*, Audrey Nicoll*, Jeremy Balfour*

S6M-03855 Elena Whitham: Doon Academy Tackle Homophobia—That the Parliament commends the pupils and teachers at Doon Academy, in Dalmellington, in setting up a football v homophobia event to tackle stigma in the game and in society as a whole; understands that the day was part of Doon Academy's progress towards its LGBT Youth Scotland Silver Charter award; notes that more than 120 people took part in the day by displaying rainbow colours as a sign of their ongoing efforts to change people's perceptions, and wishes them well in continuing on what it sees as this important journey.

S6M-03854 Elena Whitham: New Cumnock Development Trust—That the Parliament congratulates New Cumnock Development Trust on successfully securing £24,750 in Scottish Land Fund funding; understands that the funding will be used to purchase the former Trotters building, a semi-derelict shop in New Cumnock, and turn it into a re-use and repair hub, which will help provide training and apprenticeship opportunities; commends the Development trust for all its hard work over the years, and wishes them well for the year ahead.

S6M-03851 Stuart McMillan: Gordon Miller retires after 26 years at Inverclyde Schools—That the Parliament wishes popular janitor, Gordon Miller, from Gourrock, a happy retirement after having clocked up 26 years at Inverclyde schools; notes that Gordon, 67, has spent the past 10 years at St Andrew's Primary and, prior to that, worked at St Gabriel's Primary, Slaemuir Primary, Greenock High School and Holy Cross Primary; understands that, before working in schools, Gordon worked for the MOD at Coulport and was a chef by trade; recognises that St Andrew's P4/5 class made a special sign to spell out Happy Retirement and the school held an assembly where each class recited a poem or sang a song; believes that this shows how much Gordon will be missed by staff and pupils, and wishes him all the best for his retirement as he looks to spend more time with his family.

S6M-03850 Sharon Dowey: Supporting Hong Kongers in Scotland—That the Parliament supports the welcoming of Hong Kongers to settle in Scotland; understands the need to make them feel welcome in the communities that they choose to settle in; further supports the setting out of a plan to attract more Hong Kongers to Scotland; acknowledges what it sees as the role this has to play in accommodating British National Overseas (BNO) visa holders who are fleeing Hong Kong; considers that there is a need to stop bullying and racism, which, it believes, some Hong Kongers face from some Chinese communities in Scotland; expresses its support to those who are applying to the BNO visa scheme in order to escape what it considers as the anti-democracy environment in their home city, and hopes that Hong Kongers are happy with their decision to settle in Scotland.

S6M-03849 Graeme Dey: Carnoustie's Oswald Park Community Football Pitches Unveiled—That the Parliament celebrates the unveiling of the new Oswald Park community football pitches in Carnoustie; notes that the facility has been named, by public vote, after the late Angus Provost and local councillor, Helen Oswald, who was honoured at its opening on 19 March 2022 by Carnoustie Panmure Football Club, with club figures saying that it would not have happened without her support, and considers that the park will bring great benefit to hundreds of young people who will use it regularly, including those of the Carnoustie Panmure Youth Teams and Panmure FC girls section, as well as to the Carnoustie Panmure YM adult amateur team, which has also made the pitches their new home.

S6M-03847 Stuart McMillan: Inverclyde Libraries Benefit from Scottish Government Funding—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Inverclyde Libraries will benefit from £38,152 worth of funding from the last tranche of awards made from the Scottish Government's £1.25 million Public Library Covid Relief Fund, which is administered by the Scottish Library and Information Council; understands that Inverclyde Libraries will use this funding to tackle social isolation and bridge the digital divide through their Making It Real project, which offers a tailored digital inclusion outreach programme; notes that this programme targets residents within Inverclyde's most deprived communities who are, in turn, it believes, most disadvantaged by their lack of access to digital services; appreciates that the project also hopes to reconnect people to the wider library offer; commends Inverclyde Libraries on their efforts to tackle social and digital exclusion in the area, and wishes them all the best as they roll-out their Making It Real programme.

S6M-03846 Gillian Mackay: Knowetop Primary in Motherwell Becomes Silver Rights Respecting School—That the Parliament congratulates Knowetop Primary School, in Motherwell, on being granted the status of Silver Rights Respecting School by Unicef UK, following an assessment by one of Unicef UK's professional advisors who, it understands, looked at the whole school's rights respecting work; understands that this means Knowetop Primary has explicitly embedded the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child in its policy, practice and culture, and that children's rights in the school are learned, understood, and lived, and congratulates Knowetop's Primary 3 pupils on their work to tackle littering in and around the school by designing posters that ask people "to be clean, be green, and slam dunk the junk!"

S6M-03844 Gillian Mackay: South Lanarkshire College Supports Asylum Seekers to Learn English —That the Parliament commends South Lanarkshire College, in East Kilbride, for supporting a group of asylum seekers; understands that the nine students, all fleeing from Somalia, were looking for opportunities to train or study when the college stepped in to offer support; further understands that the students started their course on the 16 March 2022 and will be supported through a 12-week study course learning basic National 2 and 3 English, and wishes the students all the very best in their further education and for their future in Scotland.

S6M-03842 Stephanie Callaghan: Uddingston Pride - Keeping Uddingston an Attractive Place to Live and Work—That the Parliament congratulates community group, Uddingston Pride, for keeping the South Lanarkshire town looking beautiful for 20 years; understands that Uddingston Pride has delivered a range of community initiatives over the years, including planting more than 300 trees and countless flowers, promoting the benefits of gardening, educating on botanical matters such as how to care for green spaces, and undertaking litter picks; considers that Uddingston Pride has been integral to Uddingston's success in achieving awards such as gold status in Beautiful Scotland and Britain in Bloom competitions, and understands that Uddingston Pride's work at Uddingston Train Station, as part of Scotrail's "adopt a station" campaign, was highly commended, which included arranging and maintaining hanging flower baskets and flower planters on the station platforms; further considers that community groups, such as Uddingston Pride, are vital for maintaining urban green spaces, supporting community cohesion and neighbourhood friendships, enhancing wellbeing, inspiring volunteering and developing community connections, and that these roles are particularly important both during the COVID-19 pandemic and as Scotland builds back after the pandemic; celebrates the achievements of the volunteers

S6M-03840 Siobhian Brown: Lewis Gibson - Prestwick—That the Parliament applauds Lewis Gibson, from Prestwick, and his partner Lilah Fear for placing sixth in the Free Dance category at the 2022 World Figure Skating Championships in France; notes that the pair scored 119.28 in their free dance, which, it understands, is a season's best; understands that Lewis will return to Scotland to coach an ice camp in Ayr, where he learned to skate; highlights what it sees as the commitment and dedication that both Lewis and Lilah have put into their training over the years; congratulates Lewis and Lilah for their achievement amongst tough competition and pressure, and wishes them all of the best for the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, James Dornan*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Colin Beattie*, Annabelle Ewing*, Kenneth Gibson*, Pam Gosal*, Evelyn Tweed*, Gillian Martin*, Bill Kidd*, Willie Coffey*, Bob Doris*, Karen Adam*, David Torrance*

S6M-03836 Katy Clark: Global Climate Strike, 25 March 2022—That the Parliament congratulates the tens of thousands of young people who reportedly took to the streets on 25 March 2022 in more than 600 locations worldwide, including Edinburgh, Falkirk, Glasgow, Dumfries, Inverness, Ullapool and Stirling, in the latest Global Climate Strike, organised by Fridays For Future under the slogan "People Not Profit"; understands that solidarity with the people of Ukraine was expressed at many of the protests; notes the view, reportedly highlighted by some of the climate strikers, that continued reliance on fossil fuels leaves some countries reliant on Russian gas, and that this provides Russia with money to buy arms being used to wage war on Ukraine, and offers full support and solidarity to all of the young people around the world who are taking action for climate justice where, it believes, governments are often failing to act.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*

S6M-03833 Kaukab Stewart: Hear to Listen—That the Parliament congratulates all those involved in the Hear to Listen service, based at the University of Strathclyde Students' Union in Glasgow; notes that the service, which was established in September 2021, is delivered by trained student volunteers offering informal, friendly, and confidential wellbeing support on a one-to-one basis, and a safe space where students can find someone to talk to, to offload their worries, or be signposted to additional support if needed; further notes that the service is staffed by over 120 student volunteers, from 30 countries, and all years and areas of study in the university, helping provide both in-person and online support every day of the week, during term and holiday times; welcomes the collaboration between the service and the Pursuit of Happiness project, which is based in New York and is an initiative of a group of psychologists and educators dedicated to the advancement of scientific knowledge about happiness and depression prevention; understands that the volunteers are the first students from a university in Scotland to undertake training by the project, and wishes the Hear to Listen service all the best for the future.

S6M-03793 Edward Mountain: Brora Bird Rescue Centre's New Educational Initiative Backed by World's Strongest Man—That the Parliament commends Blue Highlands Bird Rescue in Brora for setting up a Flight School, which, it understands, is backed by the World's Strongest Man, Tom Stoltman, of Invergordon; recognises that the project is running as a pilot in 2022 and will provide local young people with after-school work experience and learning opportunities; understands that Mr Stoltman paid a visit to the centre and reportedly spoke about his autism, and his belief that the educational programme would be beneficial for young people who might find parts of mainstream schooling challenging; further understands that, with a successful Flight School pilot project, the centre will be able to apply for funding for a classroom building, which, it is hoped, will provide work experience through hands-on care, and wishes success to the rescue centre for its educational initiative.

Supported by: Craig Hoy*, David Torrance*, Pam Gosal*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Jamie Greene*, Russell Findlay*, Karen Adam*

S6M-03778 Fulton MacGregor: Research Highlights Need for Parental Co-operation Post-separation—That the Parliament praises the research efforts of Mr Jamie Wark, who recently conducted innovative research on the views of young people in Scotland about the involvement of their parents while they were growing up; understands that the research had a particular focus on the views and experiences of young people whose parents separated at some point during their childhood; acknowledges the findings of Jamie's research that highlighted a lack of available support for the cohort of children of separated parents; notes that the research found that those who reached out to get support had a negative experience; understands that almost all contributors to the research stated that they would have liked to have seen the parent that they didn't live with more often; believes that this research underlines the need for parents to co-operate after separation to ensure that they act in the best interests of the child as well as helping children and young people with issues relating to the separation of their parents; praises Shared Parenting Scotland, which supported Jamie in conducting his research as a paid intern for the organisation, and further praises the Robertson Trust, which funded Jamie's placement as per its ethos of giving financial support and promoting career development amongst Scottish undergraduates.

Written questions lodged on 01 April 2022

S6W-07361 Paul McLennan: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the impact on households in Scotland, particularly in rural areas, what (a) action it is taking to mitigate the effects of increases in the price of kerosene heating oil and (b) discussions it has had with the UK Government regarding any consideration of a potential price cap for heating oil, similar to the electricity price cap.

S6W-07699 Pam Duncan-Glancy: To ask the Scottish Government whether it (a) can and (b) will introduce compulsory training for the Scottish judiciary in relation to disability.

S6W-07731 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government what the current (a) average and (b) longest time is that a child or young person is waiting to be seen by Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS) with suspected autism spectrum disorder (ASD) or attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), broken down by NHS board.

S6W-07732 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government whether children waiting for a diagnosis for autism spectrum disorder (ASD) or attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) are counted in the Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services waiting times statistics, and what the reasons are for its position on this matter.

S6W-07733 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government how many children and young people are currently waiting for an appointment with Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS) with suspected autism spectrum disorder (ASD) or attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD).

S6W-07734 Jackie Baillie: To ask the Scottish Government whether it plans to use prophylactic treatments as a way to prevent COVID-19 in those at highest risk.

S6W-07735 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what progress has been made to ensure that Medical Assisted Treatment (MAT) standards will be fully embedded across services by April 2022.

S6W-07736 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what action is being taken to improve healthcare professionals' awareness of sarcoma cancer, and how radiologists are being supported in the use of sarcoma guidelines.

S6W-07737 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what steps are being taken to speed up sarcoma cancer diagnoses, and what is being done to increase public awareness of this type of cancer.

S6W-07739 Monica Lennon: To ask the Scottish Government what plans it has to change the way sarcoma incidence data counts the yearly number of sarcoma cases.

S6W-07741 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government what further steps will be taken to support schools in tackling bullying, in light of recent reports regarding the experience of primary school pupils in Dundee and Tayside.

S6W-07742 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government what action it is taking to address the reported poor recording of bullying incidents in schools.

S6W-07746 Alexander Burnett: To ask the Scottish Government how many applications to the Business Ventilation Fund have been received, and of those how many have been rejected.

S6W-07747 Alexander Burnett: To ask the Scottish Government, further to the answer to question S6W-04576 by Kate Forbes on 1 December 2022, whether it will provide an update on how much of the £25 million Business Ventilation Fund, which closed on 11 March 2022, has been allocated.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
