Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S6M-05568 Stephanie Callaghan: 25 Years of the National Autistic Society Scotland: Creating a Society that Works for Autistic People—That the Parliament congratulates National Autistic Society (NAS) Scotland on the 25th Anniversary of its founding; understands that NAS provides a wide range of services and support to many of the 56,000 autistic people living in Scotland, including in the Uddingston and Bellshill constituency, as well as to their families; welcomes both the variety and ongoing success of these services, which, it understands, include post-diagnostic support for children and young people, in-person and online social groups, one-to-one mentoring, supported living services and an education rights helpline; notes in particular what it sees as the success of NAS' training and employment support programme, Moving Forward+, which is funded via the Scottish Government's CashBack for Communities initiative, in preparing hundreds of autistic young people for meaningful employment; applauds the work of NAS volunteers across Scotland, whose work through local branches, it believes, is invaluable in communities; acknowledges what it sees as the many positive transformations that have been made across the country in the last 25 years to move towards a society that works for autistic people; recognises what it sees as the benefits of continued constructive engagement as the National Care Service develops; acknowledges what it sees as the importance of advocacy support to work to promote autistic people's rights across all services, including schools, further education, social security, housing, health and mental health services; welcomes the Scottish Government's commitment to presenting a Learning Disability, Autism, and Neurodiversity Bill to this Parliament, including the appointment of an associated Commissioner, and commends the National Autistic Society Scotland, Scottish Autism and ENABLE Scotland, for campaigning jointly on this important issue.

S6M-05588 Stuart McMillan: Becky Deveney Pens Her First Book—That the Parliament congratulates 20-year-old Becky Deveney, from Inverkip, on penning her first book in a bid to help keep kids safe on the roads; notes that the book, titled Lizzy the Lollibug, is about a ladybird school patroller and aims to engage children in the topic of road safety; recognises that Becky came up with the character of Lizzy the Lollibug 18 months ago and was inspired to put pen to paper by her papa who is a member of Greenock Writers' Club; appreciates that Becky's school friend Haillie McCafferty drew the illustrations for the book; understands that the book is printed by Inverclyde-based Love and Humphries Printing Company, and wishes Becky all the best for the future.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, David Torrance*, Jackie Dunbar*, Annabelle Ewing*, Paul Sweeney*, Kaukab Stewart*

S6M-05587 Liam Kerr: Seven Green Flag Awards for Aberdeen Open Spaces—That the Parliament congratulates Hazlehead Park, Seaton Park, Victoria Park, Johnston Gardens, Slopefield Allotments, Garthdee Field Allotments and Duthie Park for all achieving a Green Flag Award; understands that the Green Flag Award is an international scheme that recognises outdoor recreational areas that can demonstrate excellent management and maintenance, proven environmental standards that encourage biodiversity, promote positive mental health, enable exercise and provide a safe and accessible space for play; recognises what it sees as the incredible effort put in by volunteers to maintain these spaces, and wishes all involved the very best for the future.

Supported by: Craig Hoy*, Douglas Ross*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jackie Dunbar*, Miles Briggs*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Russell Findlay*, Alexander Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Brian Whittle*, Jamie Greene*, Annie Wells*, Edward Mountain*, Paul Sweeney*, Kaukab Stewart*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-05586 Fulton MacGregor: Glenboig Development Trust's Teresa Aitken Appointed Fellow of Cambridge University—That the Parliament congratulates Glenboig Development Trust's operational manager Teresa Aitken on being appointed as a fellow of Cambridge University; understands that she will now contribute to the faculty of social innovation via research and supporting lectures; believes that her expertise will help both the UK and the international community to recover and develop; considers that this is also an achievement for the work ethic of Glenboig Development Trust; believes that this appointment will mean both the Glenboig Development Trust and Teresa will be an inspiration to future communities and their development, and wishes Teresa continued success into the future.

Supported by: Gillian Mackay*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Ruth Maguire*, David Torrance*, Stuart McMillan*, Annabelle Ewing*, Jackie Dunbar*, Paul Sweeney*, Siobhian Brown*

S6M-05585 Christine Grahame: Scottish SPCA Pet Aid Initiative —That the Parliament welcomes the launch by the Scottish SPCA of its Pet Aid initiative to support people and pets who are struggling due to the cost of living crisis; notes that through Pet Aid, it will provide essential food supplies for animals through a network of food banks across most of Scotland, with a view to keeping pets and people together wherever possible; recognises that this is in the context of calls to the Scottish SPCA's helpline by people looking to give up pets trebling in 2022, a trend that is also being reported by other charities such as Edinburgh Dog and Cat Home; understands that many people who find themselves in this position don't want to give up their animal, are very distressed, but feel they have no choice; believes that nobody should have to give up their much loved pet because they are unable to afford the items they need, and hopes that Pet Aid goes some way to preventing this heartbreaking outcome, for the good of both owners and animals.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Audrey Nicoll*, Mark Ruskell*, Bill Kidd*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Paul McLennan*, Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Siobhian Brown*, Jeremy Balfour*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Emma Harper*, Paul Sweeney*, Sue Webber*, Jackie Dunbar*, Kaukab Stewart*, Ruth Maguire*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-05584 Mark Ruskell: Launch of the Ian Findlay Path Fund—That the Parliament commends the launch of the new Ian Findlay Path Fund, worth £1.5 million, which supports path management projects that improve the accessibility and resilience of existing paths between homes, community services, active travel routes and public transport facilities or connections; notes that the fund is managed by Scotland's walking charity, Paths for All, and supported by Transport Scotland; understands that the fund has been developed as a tribute to Ian Findlay, late chief officer at Paths For All; further understands that the fund will enable more people to walk, wheel or cycle for their everyday journeys in order to improve air quality, reduce CO2 emissions and improve physical health and mental wellbeing; understands that the fund is now accepting applications from community groups, development trusts and charities; encourages communities looking to improve the accessibility of their local path networks to apply for a share of the fund, and wishes the fund and the selected projects every success for the future.

S6M-05461 Finlay Carson: Lifeboat Volunteers Receive Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medals for Long Service—That the Parliament congratulates members of Port William's volunteer lifeboat, PIRSAC, who were presented with the Queen's Platinum Jubilee medals after completing five or more years service; notes that recipients included George MacKenzie, who recently received his MBE at an investiture at Windsor Castle from HRH The Prince of Wales, Alex Oxley, Helen Oxley, Gavin Lockhart, Andy Murray, Kevin Howe, Peter Kendal and Stewart Gerrish; acknowledges the work carried out by the organisation, who, it understands, for more than 40 years, has carried out rescues and responded to shouts for help from the Mull of Galloway to Barrowhead, Wigtown to Gatehouse of Fleet as well as Luce Bay, and saved more than 400 persons in the process; recognises what it sees as the commitment and the resilience of the people in Port William in campaigning and fund-raising tirelessly to have an inshore lifeboat available locally to assist those in need; understands that they saved five people in recent weeks, including a leisure boat and one jet ski who were recovered to dry land, and wishes all PIRSAC crew members a safe journey in the months ahead.

S6M-05426 Sharon Dowey: New Charity Support Group Opens in Ayr—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the incredible work of Ayr's Stacey Wheeldon; understands that Stacey has set up a charity support group, Childhood Abuse Support Team, to support survivors of childhood abuse and provide a safe space for those who have experienced childhood trauma to talk; believes that Stacey has set up this group following her own traumatic experience, providing people the space they need to be heard and start their healing process; understands that, on 8 July 2022, Stacey opened a local office and safe space in Ayr where survivors can book in for an appointment; commends Stacey on her positive work, on the back of a difficult time working to support fellow survivors, and wishes her all the best going forward.

Questions in which a member has indicated a declarable interest are marked with an "R".

Written questions lodged from 01 August 2022 to 05 August 2022

S6W-09846 Douglas Lumsden: To ask the Scottish Government how much businesses in (a) Aberdeen City and (b) Aberdeenshire have saved on non-domestic rates as a result of transitional relief in each year since 2015.

S6W-10097 Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government what investigative steps regarding the Police Scotland and Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service's investigation into the alleged use of Scottish airports by CIA rendition flights, not including filing a request to the United States Senate for the unredacted report, have been taken over the last 10 years.

S6W-10098 Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government whether Police Scotland (a) has asked for mutual aid from United States police authorities and (b) had access to UK intelligence reports or other relevant political files, as part of its investigation into the alleged use of Scottish airports by CIA rendition flights.

S6W-10099 Willie Rennie: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will provide a breakdown of the type and level of resources that have been allocated over the last decade to the Police Scotland and Crown Office and Procurator Fiscal Service's investigation into the alleged use of Scottish airports by CIA rendition flights.

S6W-10106 Alex Cole-Hamilton: To ask the Scottish Government how many category (a) purple, (b) red, (c) amber and (d) yellow ambulance call-outs took more than (i) 8, (ii) 10, (iii) 15, (iv) 20, (v) 30, (vi) 60 and (vii) 120 minutes to arrive at the incident in each NHS board area in each (A) of the last three calendar years and (B) month in 2022 to date.

S6W-10113 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government what action it is taking to reduce any impact on patients in NHS (a) Tayside and (b) Fife, in light of the reported rising number of unscheduled closures of community pharmacies.

S6W-10115 Liz Smith: To ask the Scottish Government, in light of the reported unscheduled closures of community pharmacies, what discussions it has had with (a) pharmacists and (b) pharmacy associations since 1 January 2022 regarding any concerns expressed by pharmacists on this issue.

S6W-10116 Pauline McNeill: To ask the Scottish Government what meetings (a) it has had recently (b) are planned with COSLA to explore all options available regarding the funding by local authorities of any pay increases.

S6W-10117 Pauline McNeill: To ask the Scottish Government what its position is on whether a summit between unions and COSLA could be held to facilitate further discussions on potential pay increases for public sector workers

S6W-10118 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government how many public electric vehicle (EV) charging points were installed in the North East region between 1 June 2021 and 31 May 2022, broken down by Scottish Parliament constituency.

S6W-10119 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government how many homes have benefitted from the Social Housing Net Zero Heat Fund as of 30 July 2022, and what the average cost per property is.

S6W-10120 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government what it anticipates the impact would be on (a) the cost of constructing new buildings and (b) the subsequent sale price to the purchaser of the final building, of its proposal to prohibit the use of direct emissions heating systems, such as those run on fossil fuel, in new buildings from 2024.

S6W-10121 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government what type of heating systems it will require builders of new buildings to install in place of fossil fuel heating from 2024, should its proposed ban on the use of direct emissions heating systems, such as those run on fossil fuel, in new-build properties be put in place; whether it will provide any data it has on how many of the existing workforce are already trained to fit any such systems; what action it is taking to retrain those already in the industry to fit any such systems; which courses it anticipates will be required at colleges to train new people to the industry to fit and maintain units required for any such systems; how many places on any such courses will (a) be made available and (b) require to be filled to meet workforce demand, and, if none of this information has yet been documented, what the reasons are for its position on this matter.

S6W-10122 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government what data it has on the emissions savings that it anticipates will be achieved, should all new builds require to be fitted with alternatives to direct emissions heating systems, such as those run on fossil fuel, from 2024.

S6W-10123 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government for what reason it chose 2024 as the proposed date from which the use of direct emissions heating systems, such as those run on fossil fuel, in new build properties will be banned, whether it has carried out research on any potential impact of such a date on builders who have pre-ordered such fossil-fuel heating, and, if so, what it anticipates that impact will be.

S6W-10124 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government what its position is on whether the electricity grid will have capacity to cope with demand, should its proposed ban on the use of direct emissions heating systems in new-build properties from 2024 be put in place; whether it will provide any data it has on the matter; what action it is taking to ensure that the electricity grid would be able to meet that demand; what the cost of any such action is, and who it anticipates will bear any such cost.

S6W-10125 Liam Kerr: To ask the Scottish Government what it anticipates the demand in Scotland for electricity will be from 2025, should its proposed ban on the use of direct emissions heating systems in new-build properties from 2024 be put in place, and in light of its projected increase in EV use; what its position is on whether renewables will consistently be able to meet that demand, and, if this is not the case, from what sources baseload will be generated.

S6W-10126 Mark Ruskell: To ask the Scottish Government what proportion of (a) primary and (b) secondary schools offer girls the same access as boys to football through (i) physical education lessons and (ii) after-school clubs.

S6W-10127 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government how much money it has provided to local authorities to tackle homelessness in the last 12 months, broken down by local authority.

S6W-10128 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government how many affordable homes it has delivered in the last 12 months.

S6W-10129 Miles Briggs: To ask the Scottish Government when it anticipates that its proposed Housing Bill will be published.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
