Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S6M-07327 Liam Kerr: Scotland's Courts Maintenance Backlog—That the Parliament notes reports that there is a £7.3 million maintenance backlog across Scotland's courts, including courts in the north east, such as in Forfar and Peterhead; recognises that repairs to Scotland's courts often require closures, which can add to the already large number of outstanding criminal trials, which, it understands, currently stands at 30,588 trials; acknowledges that the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service had its capital budget frozen in 2022-23; believes that this hindered its ability to tackle the backlog; welcomes the budget increase planned for the financial year 2023-24, and notes the calls on the Scottish Government to work with the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service to outline how much of the current maintenance backlog will be tackled with the budget outlined for 2023-24, and how much will remain.

Counts, which, it understands, raised over £300,000 for Glasgow Children's Hospital; understands that the money was used to create a new recovery and social space for eight to 12 year olds; notes that the results were presented by Gourrock Rotary Club; understands that some of the area's most talented young people were shortlisted and celebrated at what was a moving awards night when Inverclyde's Provost Drew McKenzie said that one of the greatest privileges and honours of taking on his role was to see first-hand the incredible young people in Inverclyde, and congratulates Molly once again on this achievement.

*S6M-07291 Neil Bibby: Congratulating Paul Evangelista—That the Parliament congratulates Paul Evangelista on his retirement after working as a barber for 50 years; recognises that Paul was the third generation of the Evangelista family to venture into barbering, following in the footsteps of his father, Adolpho, and his grandfather, Angelo; understands that Angelo was born in Rome in 1891, arrived in Scotland during the 1920s and learned the trade by cutting the hair of his loved ones; notes that the family ran successful barber shops in Linthouse and Govan before Paul opened his own in Johnstone in 1972, and that Paul has passed down his hairdressing skills to both of his own sons, who both run their own shops; recognises that Paul is also leaving behind a legacy of committed environmentalism through the setting up of the charitable organisation, Worldcare, which was involved in recycling materials to raise significant amounts of money for St Vincent's Hospice in Howwood, and, in 1992, received a prestigious environmental award, the Shell Best of Better Britain, Scotland; understands that Paul now plans to spend more time embracing nature and travelling the length and breadth of Scotland with his wife of 46 years, and wishes him well in his retirement.

Supported by: Karen Adam*, Stuart McMillan*, Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, David Torrance*, Alexander Burnett*

*S6M-07261 Carol Mochan: Urgent Inquiry into Royal Mail Management—That the Parliament notes that Royal Mail staff's planned Christmas strike action going ahead after the company reportedly ignored what it considers a peace offer from workers' representatives to get Christmas back on track and tackle the postal backlog; considers that the Communication Workers' Union (CWU) made a clear offer which, it understands, would give staff a back-dated pay deal of 9% over 18 months, a long-term job security commitment from Royal Mail bosses, a pause on what it sees as the ongoing attacks on union representatives and members, and a period of calm for negotiations on the future direction of the company; believes that the CWU has raised concerns of gross mismanagement by the company for over 18 months; is concerned that a business which, it understands, made record profits of £758 million announced in May 2022 would be losing allegedly more than £1 million per day just a few months later; remembers that postal workers were, in its view, rightly praised as key workers that kept the country and the company going, during the COVID-19 pandemic, and rejects what it sees as Royal Mail's tactics of proposing to force through mass job losses, including compulsory redundancies, as part of an asset-stripping business plan to justify turning it into just another gig-economy employer; considers that customers and businesses in Scotland, particularly in rural communities, rely heavily on the Universal Service Obligation (USO); calls on the UK Secretary of State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy to urgently deliver an inquiry into what it sees as the mismanagement at Royal Mail, with consideration to how any changes to the USO or the service itself would affect communities in Scotland, and hopes that a united Scotland-wide response rejects and resists any proposals to reduce services and the legal obligations to provide the USO. R

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.
